The Cumberland News

VOL. 2—NO. 225 | 20 PAGES | CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND, TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1940 | Direct Associated Press Service | PRICE THREE CENTS

The Weather
Generally fair today, cloudy tomorrow with little change in temperature.

GERMAN BOMBING PLANES LAND IN RUMANIA

Nazi Bombs Kill Eight British Women and Children

Two Nazi Planes Shot Down as Defenders Put The Invaders To Flight

Germans First Attack in Evening, but Return Near Daylight and Drop More Bombs

LONDON, July 1 (AP) — Eleven persons were killed and twenty injured in the first big evening-daylight raid over Britain but the British drove away the raiders after shooting down two German bombing planes.

The main raid was made tonight during the late twilight of the long English summer evening on a northeast coast town of Scotland.

Royal Air Force fighters repulsed the invaders.

An official announcement said preliminary reports indicated slight damage to military objectives.

A high explosive bomb struck in the midst of a row of houses, the announcement said, and demolished several.

All but three of the casualties were women and children, the announcement added.

Raid Second Time

The invaders returned shortly before midnight and struck along the southwest coast of England was Wales. Bombs were dropped in Bristol channel and anti-aircraft batteries went into action.

Two raiders were shot down in a blow-for-blow battle of the air, which followed extensive British bombings in Germany and the destruction of a dozen Nazi planes over France.

The spectacular aerial counter-punches came as Britain learned that at least part—an unknown part—of the French fleet has been saved for her by a doughty Gallic admiral, and posted a "keep out" sign for all the world on French mandated territory in the Near East.

Muselier Commands Fleet

Vice Admiral Muselier, World War hero in the defense of Ypres and later a collaborator of France's great Premier Georges Clemenceau in the Old Tiger's efforts to extirpate forever the German menace to France, was named to command "all free French naval forces." General Charles de Gaulle, head of the French National Committee to continue the war, made the announcement here.

De Gaulle said there were "already several ships and air groups under his command." Their number and location were not disclosed.

While the British told all comers that occupation of the French mandated Syria and Lebanon would not be allowed, sweating British Tommies completed a ring of barbed wire entanglements around the British shore. There is a sentry on every beach and every pier head, alert for the Nazi invasion which England is sure will come.

On the home front, the aerial warfare went on without a let-up.

The air ministry announced that storage tanks at Hamburg, Germany, were bombed and left burning in further raids by the Royal Air Force last night and that British fighters over France shot down five German Messerschmidts and "probably" destroyed another seven.

Confirm Loss of Islands

Britain confirmed the German seizure of Guernsey and Jersey, channel islands, and announced that all communication with them had been suspended.

The British stand on the Near

(Continued on Page Two)

MAKES EPIC VOYAGE

Captain Bernt Hauge

Refusing to surrender when Norway ceased resistance against Germany, Captain Bernt Hauge and seven companions sailed his 68-foot fishing trawler-mine sweeper Bergholm across the stormy Atlantic to New York, navigating without charts and with almost no food but fish.

Tilghman Reports Democrats Favor Willkie Candidacy

House to House Campaign To Be Made for Republican

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP) — W. David Tilghman, Jr., Republican state Central Committee chairman, announced today that a house-to-house campaign would be conducted in Maryland on behalf of Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential nominee, with special emphasis upon Democratic voters.

Tilghman said that "during the convention I received more than 3,000 telegrams urging the Maryland delegation to cast its votes for Willkie. The important feature of this is that between 1,000 and 1,200 of these telegrams came from registered Democrats in all sections of the state."

Will Get Started Soon

The state chairman said he hoped to start the campaign as soon as possible, and to have Willkie's campaign managers include Maryland in a nation-wide speaking tour which Willkie is expected to make.

Temporary Willkie-for-president headquarters will be established tomorrow at committee headquarters here and regular campaign headquarters will be set up shortly, Tilghman reported.

He said letters would be sent out urging the formation of Willkie-for-president clugs in communities.

"This Willkie campaign probably will be the most intensive campaign ever put on in Maryland. We know that thousands of Democrats are for Willkie. We know that the sentiment of Maryland Republicans is for the party's presidential candidate".

Tilghman said in his opinion

(Continued on Page Two)

Germany Occupies Two of Britain's Channel Islands

Seize Guernsey and Jersey in a Surprise Stroke from Air

SOLDIERS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN LANDED

Island's French-Speaking Inhabitants Number about 150,000

BERLIN, July 1 ((AP))—Germany claimer her first foothold on British soil tonight, occupying the channel islands of Guernsey and Jersey in a surprise stroke by the air force.

The two pastoral islands in the English channel, famed for their fine breeds of cattle, lie like stepping stones between the French coast—now in German hands—and Britain. The islands are closer to France than Britain.

The nigh command gave little more than the bare announcement that they had been occupied, Guernsey on Sunday and Jersey today.

But its credit of the surprise action of the German air force hinted that troops had been landed on both islands by airplanes. Two British Bienheim bombers were shot down in the action the communique said.

London Admits Landings

(London admitted "enemy landings have been made" on the islands and added that all communications to them were suspended. Western Union said this included also the islands of Alderney and Sark.

(Presumably, the channel islands were deemed indefensible by the British command. They previously had been declared demilitarized and most of their herds were shipped to England

(The group's total area is about seventy-five square miles. The French-speaking inhabitants number about 150,000.)

An earlier communique reported a British cruiser of the Orion class torpedoed south of the French port of Brest and credited one submarine with sinking 23,000 tons of enemy merchant shiping, including two steamers "torpedoed from a strongly protected convoy."

7,215 Ton Warship Sunk

(The Orion is a 7,215-ton warship with a normal complement of 550. Besides the Orion there are four other cruisers in the class including the Achilles and Ajax, which fought the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee off Uruguay last December.)

The United States embassy and, presumably, all other embassies in Berlin were advised to discontinue

(Continued on Page Two)

Townsend Sure His Plan Would Rescue America

Pension Proposal Our Only Salvation, the Doctor Says

ST. LOUIS, July 1 (AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, painting a bleak picture of the sweep of totalitarian power in Europe and Asia, told a convention of his followers today that his pension plan was "the key to America's salvation."

Asserting that "Democracy faces a challenge," he said, "it is up to the people of America to prove that the ideals by which we have lived and grown great can triumph over the world-crushing forces of domineering overlords."

With "these thoughts in mind," Townsend said he attended the Republican convention in Philadelphia and found "little realization or desire to face the realities—the problems of labor, the unemployment and the aged." He added that he expected "no higher degree of statesmanship or knowledge of our national peril" from the coming Democratic convention.

"Politicians, generally no matter of what party, appear to live in a world which no longer exists," he continued.

Predicting an economic "catastrophe" in the United States when

(Continued on Page Two)

Annenberg Gets Three Years in Federal Prison

Publisher Sentenced for Evasion of His Income Taxes

JUDGE TO CONSIDER PLEA FOR PROBATION

Grants 20-Day Respite in Starting Long Sentence

CHICAGO, JULY 1—(AP)—M. L. Annenberg, who made millions in publishing, racing news and real estate enterprises, was sentenced today to three years in prison for evading income taxes, but he remained free pending a court ruling on his plea for suspension of the penalty.

The defendant, grave and nervous, cupped his right hand around his ear while Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson pronounced judgment in a capacity-taxed chamber.

Annenberg then slumped back in his chair. He seemed dazed. His son, Walter, placed a comforting arm around his shoulder. Together they walked to a window and gazed out at the city in which Annenberg began ihs rise in the world of high finance.

Gets 20 Days Respite

Defense Council Weymouth Kirkland quickly began a move to keep his client from the penitentiary. He filed a petition for probation and suspension of the sentence. The jurist agreed to stay execution of the penalty for twenty days and announced he would rule on the request for clemency before that time had expired.

Annenberg's original $100,000 bond was allowed to stand and he walked out of the court house without making a statement.

The petition for probation set forth that Annenberg was sixty-three and "not in good health;" that he had never been convicted of a crime; that failure to pay taxes listed in the indictment was due primarily to "inadequate and inexperienced" bookkeepers; that he had agreed to pay the government $8,000,000 and interest in settlement of civil tax claims; and that his family was "absolutely depending" upon the continued operation of his business.

Prominent Publisher

Annenberg, publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, magazines and sports periodicals and former ruler of a nation-wide turf information empire, pleaded guilty on April 23 to evading $1,217,296 in taxes on his 1936 earnings. That constituted one of a six count indictment alleging failure to pay $5,548,384 in levies on his 1932-36 income. It was the largest criminal tax case against an individual in U. S. history.

U. S. District Attorney William

(Continued on Page Two)

LEARNING TO FLY FOR DEFENSE

Genia Novak, vice president of the Women Flyers of America, receives last minute instructions from Grenville Curtiss before going aloft at the Nassau, L. I., airport. Two hundred members of the organization are pledged to learn to fly so, if war comes to America, they can replace male aviators needed at the front. Thirty of the girls are now receiving instructions at the Nassau field.

Nazi Prisoners Reach Canada for Internment

Appear To Be "Quite Pleased" To Leave Battlefields of Europe

QUEBEC, July 1 (AP) — A motley shipload of Britain's prisoners of war, the first sent to the western hemisphere lest they be set free to fight by invading parachute troops or fifth columnists in England, have landed in Canada for internment.

They landed over the weekend after a heavily guarded voyage on which one prisoner dived through a porthole and was lost at sea.

One ship's officer said the captive German army men gave little trouble but the Nazi airmen "called us swine nearly every chance they got on the way over."

The number of prisoners was not disclosed.

Some prisoners were smiling and others were glowering as they stepped ashore. They carried varied personal belongings including tennis racquets, musical instruments and kitchen utensils. Some of them were interned enemy aliens.

Have Little Sleep

"We slept about two nights in seven," a British officer said of the 250 British officers and soldiers who guarded the prisoners.

They marched through long lines of Canadian bayonets, hailing one another jocularly and here and

(Continued on Page Two)

Rumania Breakup Looms as Hungary Prepares for War

Latter Country Sends Large Force into Coveted Transylvania

BUDAPEST, June 1. (AP)—Hungary was on a war footing tonight and the dispatch of troops into Transylvania—which Hungary lost to Rumania in 1918—was expected momentarily.

Excitement was whipped to fever pitch when the government, protesting to Bucharest against "incidents" on the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier, warned Rumania of "unpleasant consequences" and called up more troops.

Officialdom re-emphasized the "mission" of thousand-year-old Hungary as an outpost against the east, and let it be known that Rumania—which has just surrendered part of its territory to the Red army

(Continued on Page Two)

Graziani Succeeds Balbo as Head of N. Africa Troops

Veteran of Colonial Wars Returns to Duty in Libya

ROME, July 1 (AP)—Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, tough veteran of Italy's colonial wars, returned tonight to Libya, scene of his earlier triumphs, to succeed the late Marshall Italo Balbo as commander of North African forces.

His mission was to save from British invasion the territory which, between 1921 and 1929, he reclaimed from native rebels.

While Marshal Balbo's body began its long journey back to Italy, the circumstances of his death remained obscure. Italian correspondents reported that he rushed into an air battle which he found raging over Tobruk and British machine-gun fire shot down his plane, killing him and eight others.

(In London, however, the British foreign office recalled coolness of Premier Mussolini toward the Marshal; declared "no British aircraft" were involved in the fatal crash.)

Graziani is chief of staff of the Italian army and commander of the army of the Po. With the capitulation of France, the importance of the army of the Po as defender of northern Italy became secondary.

No Italian officer has wider experience in desert warfare than

(Continued on Page Two)

Uneasiness Increases in Balkans as Nazis Appear To Be Preparing for War

Arrival of Bombing Planes Ordered by Rumania Seems To Be Timed with Hungarian Move To Cross Border; Bulgarians and Rumanians Battle at Frontier Posts; Russians Continue Drive

By The Associated Press

A fleet of German bombing planes, which Bucharest military circles said Rumania purchased from Germany, landed last (Monday) night at the Brasov military airport in the Transylvania province of Rumania in the midst of full-fledged war preparations by neighboring Hungary.

Delivery of the bombers at this time—when Hungary's move to a war time footing threatened the peace of the Balkans — was held significant in Bucharest, where the Rumanian government has redoubled defense preparations in southern Dobruja, wanted by Bulgaria, and Transylvania, claimed by Hungary.

The planes landed shortly after Rumania threw out British territorial guarantees made last year and announced she would follow the "new orientations of Europe." Diplomats in Rumania believed this strengthened the possibility of King Carol's getting German help against further encroachments by Russia, which already has annexed Bessarabia and northern Bucovina from Rumania.

Tass, official Soviet news agency, reported that Soviet Russian troops have established themselves all along the new frontiers and had "accomplished their task."

Bulgarians in Action

One Rumanian diplomatic report issued in Bucharest said that apparently concerted Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks against Rumanian frontier posts occurred Sunday night and early Monday. Names and places were not given but casualties resulted on all sides.

In the west, the struggle between Britain and Germany went on unceasingly. German bombers, the British said, killed eleven persons and injured a score when their missiles shattered a row of houses in a northeast Scottish town.

British bombers also struck at Germany and said they set storage tanks ablaze in Hamburg as well as bombing other military objectives.

The match which seemed about to set fire to the long-smouldering controversy between Rumania and Hungary was a Hungarian report of "incidents" on their border in which three civilians were reported killed. But the trouble stems back to Hungary's long desire to reclaim rich Transylvania, lost to Rumania in the world war crack-up of the Austro-Hungary empire.

Drop Parachute Troops

Although overshadowed somewhat by the developments on Rumania's northwest frontier, Russia's occupation of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina went forward at a faster pace. The Russian army was said to be "raining" parachute troops on previously-unoccupied parts of the two provinces.

Germany announced the occupation of the channel islands of Guernsey and Jersey—the Nazis' first foothold on Britis' soil.

The two British islands in the channel, famous for their fine cattle, were declared demilitarized by the British last week, before the Germans took them over.

The British told the world that they would not allow the enemy to occupy the French-mandated territories of Syria and Lebanon in the near east or to use those lands as bases for attacks on neighboring countries Britain is pledged to defend—Turkey, Egypt, Palestine, Transjordan and Iraq.

The announcement of the "keep out" stand was made, the British said, to remove all doubts which have arisen when the French military commander in Syria declared that hostilities had ended there.

Italy sent Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, veteran of colonel warfare, back to Libya to succeed the late Marshal Italo Balbo as commander of her northern African forces.

At sea, the Germans said a British cruiser of the Orion class was torpedoed south of Brest, France, and the Italians acknowledged the loss of the destroyer Espero, 1,073 tons, in a battle with three British cruisers and several destroyers.

Employers Asked To Release Guardsmen

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP)—Governor O'Conor tonight broadcast a plea to Maryland businessmen to release national guardsmen in their employ for three weeks of summer training.

"This summer," the governor asserted, "the Maryland national guard asks, and has every right to expect, the 100 percent cooperation of every employer.

"If America is to win its race for peace in a war-torn world, victory will come as the result of carrying out a program of preparedness that will make our will-to-peace unassailable.

". . . It is essential that the businessmen of Maryland realize that it is a paramount duty to see to it that every national guardsman in their employ is free to attend the three weeks training period that begins August 4th".

France's Defeat Is Explained by Writer in an Uncensored Dispatch

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Taylor Henry, who analyzes the reasons for France's defeat, is both an experienced newspaperman and a graduate of the U. S. military academy.

(A thirty-year-old native of Mineola, Texas, he gave up his army commission to become publisher of the Palestine Press in his home state and eventually joined the Associated Press foreign staff.

(He was on the Paris staff for more than two years, saw the German blitzkrieg, and followed the fugitive French government to Tours and Bordeaux. When the French accepted defeat, Henry went to Spain, where he wrote the following explanation, free for the first time oof the French censorship.)

By TAYLOR HENRY

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, July 1. (AP)—France went to war against Germany last September without adequate equipment, without adequate man-power and—it can now be said frankly—without adequate enthusiasm.

Result: Utter defeat in a month-long blitzkrieg, casualties estimated at 1,500,000 killed, wounded or missing; a stunned nation only now beginning to realize what happened, a stunned leadership grimly groping toward the future.

This is the picture of France as I saw it, broken under the wheels to total war.

Considered Great Machine

Two months ago the French army still was considered the most efficient military machine in the world. But on June 12, when France sued for peace, Marshal Weygand is reported to have told the French cabinet that the army had ammunition enough to last only three more days; that the advancing Germans were "slaughtering men who no longer have the means to defend themselves."

The cabinet members wept.

Veteran Marshal Henri Petain and other leaders won there were three principal reasons for the collapse:

1. Lack of equipment.
2. Lack of man-power.
3. Lack of determination.

Marshal Petain described this lack of determination as due to the fact that, while in 1914 Frenchmen rallied enthusiastically to the colors, they failed to respond enthusiastically to the call of 1940 "because they did not understand the reasons for the war."

Also dampening the enthusiasm of Frenchmen was the feeling that they were bearing the brunt of the war, with 48-year-old men in the front line at a time when Britain had not yet mobilized her twenty-eight-year-olds.

Great Lack of Men

There was a great lack of Allied man-power in France. Ten British

(Continued on Page Two)

Roosevelt Asks Congress To Pass "Graduated" Excess Profits Tax

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Declaring that no one should be enriched by the national rearmament effort, President Roosevelt asked Congress today to pass a "steeply graduated" excess profits tax.

The levy, he said, should be applied to all individuals and corporationus "without discrimination."

"We are engaged in a great national effort to build up our national defenses to meet any and every potential attack," he said.

"We are asking even our humblest citizen to contribute their mite.

"It is our duty to see that the burden is equitably distributed according to ability to pay so that a few do not gain from the sacrifices of the many."

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means Committee said the message "guarantees teamwork" between the White House and Congress.

Mr. Roosevelt made no suggestion on rates and offered no estimate of how much money might be raised. Rep. Rayburn of Texas, House Democratic leader, said, however, that the proposed levy would be along the lines of World War period excess profits taxes.

One of these laws—there were several between 1917 and 1921— levied eight percent on an individual's earnings above $6,000 provided he had no invested capital. For corporations, partnerships and individuals with invested capital, the formula was more complicated.

Jack Dempsey Knocks Out Heavy Wrestler, but Lacks His Old Fire

ATLANTA, JULY 1—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, former world heavyweight champion of the ring, knocked out a husky wrestler, Clarence (cowboy) Luttrell of Texas in the second round of their scheduled 10-round fight tonight.

Dempsey, weighing 205 pounds, battered down the 224-pound Luttrell after one minute and fifty-eight seconds of the second frame. The former champion, while showing none of the old fire and dynamite that carried him to the heavyweight crown, badly beat the awkward and clumsy wrestler who was almost out at the bell that ended the first round.

Luttrell Down In First

Luttrell hung on almost from the opening gong as Dempsey cut his face to ribbons. After Luttrell had gone down for counts of seven and eight in the second round, Dempsey moved up and cut loose with a looping left that caught Luttrell flush on the chin and knocked him all the way out of the ring.

The Texas bad man, who challenged the one-time Manassa mauler to settle things with the six-ounce gloves after Dempsey had clashed with him in refereeing a wrestling match, failed to get up off the ground and had to be carried to his dressing room.

Dempsey, who lost a four-round decision to King Levinsky in Chicago in 1932 in a move toward returning to the game, handed Luttrell a sound and painful beating.

Dempsey Not Hurt

Luttrell failed to connect with a single punishing blow. Almost from the start Dempsey kept him crowded into a neutral corner and battered him down with rights and lefts against which the wrestler threw up no defense.

The affair was witnessed by what promoters claimed as a crown of cloese to 12,000. The fight did not last long enough to provide a test of what the popular fourty-five year old former champion might be expected to do if he should continue his return to the ring.

The Cumberland News

The Weather
Generally fair today, cloudy tomorrow with little change in temperature.

VOL. 2—NO. 225 | 20 PAGES | CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND, TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1940 | Direct Associated Press Service | PRICE THREE CENTS

GERMAN BOMBING PLANES LAND IN RUMANIA

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Nazi Bombs Kill Eight British Women and Children

Two Nazi Planes Shot Down as Defenders Put The Invaders To Flight

Germans First Attack in Evening, but Return Near Daylight and Drop More Bombs

LONDON, July 1 (AP) — Eleven persons were killed and twenty injured in the first big evening-daylight raid over Britain but the British drove away the raiders after shooting down two German bombing planes.

The main raid was made tonight during the late twilight of the long English summer evening on a northeast coast town of Scotland.

Royal Air Force fighters repulsed the invaders.

An official announcement said preliminary reports indicated slight damage to military objectives.

A high explosive bomb struck in the midst of a row of houses, the announcement said, and demolished several.

All but three of the casualties were women and children, the announcement added.

Raid Second Time

The invaders returned shortly before midnight and struck along the southwest coast of England was Wales. Bombs were dropped in Bristol channel and anti-aircraft batteries went into action.

Two raiders were shot down in a blow-for-blow battle of the air, which followed extensive British bombings in Germany and the destruction of a dozen Nazi planes over France.

The spectacular aerial counterpunches came as Britain learned that at least part—an unknown part—of the French fleet has been saved for her by a doughty Gallic admiral, and posted a "keep out" sign for all the world on French mandated territory in the Near East.

Muselier Commands Fleet

Vice Admiral Muselier, World War hero in the defense of Ypres and later a collaborator of France's great Premier Georges Clemenceau in the Old Tiger's efforts to extirpate forever the German menace to France, was named to command "all free French naval forces." General Charles de Gaulle, head of the French National Committee to continue the war, made the announcement here.

De Gaulle said there were "already several ships and air groups under his command." Their number and location were not disclosed.

While the British told all comers that occupation of the French mandated Syria and Lebanon would not be allowed, sweating British Tommies completed a ring of barbed wire entanglements around the British shore. There is a sentry on every beach and every pier head, alert for the Nazi invasion which England is sure will come.

On the home front, the aerial warfare went on without a let-up.

The air ministry announced that storage tanks at Hamburg, Germany, were bombed and left burning in further raids by the Royal Air Force last night and that British fighters over France shot down five German Messerschmidts and "probably" destroyed another seven.

Confirm Loss of Islands

Britain confirmed the German seizure of Guernsey and Jersey, channel islands, and announced that all communication with them had been suspended.

The British stand on the Near

(Continued on Page Two)

MAKES EPIC VOYAGE

Captain Bernt Hauge

Refusing to surrender when Norway ceased resistance against Germany, Captain Bernt Hauge and seven companions sailed his 68-foot fishing trawler-mine sweeper Bergholm across the stormy Atlantic to New York, navigating without charts and with almost no food but fish.

Tilghman Reports Democrats Favor Willkie Candidacy

House to House Campaign To Be Made for Republican

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP) — W. David Tilghman, Jr., Republican state Central Committee chairman, announced today that a house-to-house campaign would be conducted in Maryland on behalf of Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential nominee, with special emphasis upon Democratic voters.

Tilghman said that "during the convention I received more than 3,000 telegrams urging the Maryland delegation to cast its votes for Willkie. The important feature of this is that between 1,000 and 1,200 of these telegrams came from registered Democrats in all sections of the state."

Will Get Started Soon

The state chairman said he hoped to start the campaign as soon as possible, and to have Willkie's campaign managers include Maryland in a nation-wide speaking tour which Willkie is expected to make.

Temporary Willkie-for-president headquarters will be established tomorrow at committee headquarters here and regular campaign headquarters will be set up shortly, Tilghman reported.

He said letters would be sent out urging the formation of Willkie-for-president clugs in communities.

"This Willkie campaign probably will be the most intensive campaign ever put on in Maryland. We know that thousands of Democrats are for Willkie. We know that the sentiment of Maryland Republicans is for the party's presidential candidate".

Tilghman said in his opinion

(Continued on Page Two)

Germany Occupies Two of Britain's Channel Islands

Seize Guernsey and Jersey in a Surprise Stroke from Air

SOLDIERS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN LANDED

Island's French-Speaking Inhabitants Number about 150,000

BERLIN, July 1 (AP)—Germany claimer her first foothold on British soil tonight, occupying the channel islands of Guernsey and Jersey in a surprise stroke by the air force.

The two pastoral islands in the English channel, famed for their fine breeds of cattle, lie like stepping stones between the French coast—now in German hands—and Britain. The islands are closer to France than Britain.

The high command gave little more than the bare announcement that they had been occupied, Guernsey on Sunday and Jersey today.

But its credit of the surprise action of the German air force hinted that troops had been landed on both islands by airplanes. Two British Blenheim bombers were shot down in the action the communique said.

London Admits Landings

(London admitted "enemy landings have been made" on the islands and added that all communications to them were suspended. Western Union said this included also the islands of Alderney and Sark.

(Presumably, the channel islands were deemed indefensible by the British command. They previously had been declared demilitarized and most of their herds were shipped to England.

(The group's total area is about seventy-five square miles. The French-speaking inhabitants number about 150,000.)

An earlier communique reported a British cruiser of the Orion class torpedoed south of the French port of Brest and credited one submarine with sinking 23,000 tons of enemy merchant shiping, including two steamers "torpedoed from a strongly protected convoy."

7,215 Ton Warship Sunk

(The Orion is a 7,215-ton warship with a normal complement of 550. Besides the Orion there are four other cruisers in the class including the Achilles and Ajax, which fought the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee off Uruguay last December.)

The United States embassy and, presumably, all other embassies in Berlin were advised to discontinue

(Continued on Page Two)

Townsend Sure His Plan Would Rescue America

Pension Proposal Our Only Salvation, the Doctor Says

ST. LOUIS, July 1 (AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, painting a bleak picture of the sweep of totalitarian power in Europe and Asia, told a convention of his followers today that his pension plan was "the key to America's salvation."

Asserting that "Democracy faces a challenge," he said, "it is up to the people of America to prove that the ideals by which we have lived and grown great can triumph over the world-crushing forces of domineering overlords."

With "these thoughts in mind," Townsend said he attended the Republican convention in Philadelphia and found "little realization or desire to face the realities—the problems of labor, the unemployment and the aged." He added that he expected "no higher degree of statesmanship or knowledge of our national peril" from the coming Democratic convention.

"Politicians, generally, no matter of what party, appear to live in a world which no longer exists," he continued.

Predicting an economic "catastrophe" in the United States when

(Continued on Page Two)

Annenberg Gets Three Years in Federal Prison

Publisher Sentenced for Evasion of His Income Taxes

JUDGE TO CONSIDER PLEA FOR PROBATION

Grants 20-Day Respite in Starting Long Sentence

CHICAGO, JULY 1—(AP)—M. L. Annenberg, who made millions in publishing, racing news and real estate enterprises, was sentenced today to three years in prison for evading income taxes, but he remained free pending a court ruling on his plea for suspension of the penalty.

The defendant, grave and nervous, cupped his right hand around his ear while Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson pronounced judgment in a capacity-taxed chamber.

Annenberg then slumped back in his chair. He seemed dazed. His son, Walter, placed a comforting arm around his shoulder. Together they walked to a window and gazed out at the city in which Annenberg began ihs rise in the world of high finance.

Gets 20 Days Respite

Defense Council Weymouth Kirkland quickly began a move to keep his client from the penitentiary. He filed a petition for probation and suspension of the sentence. The jurist agreed to stay execution of the penalty for twenty days and announced he would rule on the request for clemency before that time had expired.

Annenberg's original $100,000 bond was allowed to stand and he walked out of the court house without making a statement.

The petition for probation set forth that Annenberg was sixty-three and "not in good health;" that he had never been convicted of a crime; that failure to pay taxes listed in the indictment was due primarily to "inadequate and inexperienced" bookkeepers; that he had agreed to pay the government $8,000,000 and interest in settlement of civil tax claims; and that his family was "absolutely depending" upon the continued operation of his business.

Prominent Publisher

Annenberg, publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, magazines and sports periodicals and former ruler of a nation-wide turf information empire, pleaded guilty on April 23 to evading $1,217,296 in taxes on his 1936 earnings. That constituted one of a six count indictment alleging failure to pay $5,548,384 in levies on his 1932-36 income. It was the largest criminal tax case against an individual in U. S. history.

U. S. District Attorney William

(Continued on Page Two)

LEARNING TO FLY FOR DEFENSE

Genia Novak, vice president of the Women Flyers of America, receives last minute instructions from Grenville Curtiss before going aloft at the Nassau, L. I., airport. Two hundred members of the organization are pledged to learn to fly so, if war comes to America, they can replace male aviators needed at the front. Thirty of the girls are now receiving instructions at the Nassau field.

Nazi Prisoners Reach Canada for Internment

Appear To Be "Quite Pleased" To Leave Battlefields of Europe

QUEBEC, July 1 (AP) — A motley shipload of Britain's prisoners of war, the first sent to the western hemisphere lest they be set free to fight by invading parachute troops or fifth columnists in England, have landed in Canada for internment.

They landed over the weekend after a heavily guarded voyage on which one prisoner dived through a porthole and was lost at sea.

One ship's officer said the captive German army men gave little trouble but the Nazi airmen "called us swine nearly every chance they got on the way over."

The number of prisoners was not disclosed.

Some prisoners were smiling and others were glowering as they stepped ashore. They carried varied personal belongings including tennis racquets, musical instruments and kitchen utensils. Some of them were interned enemy aliens.

Have Little Sleep

"We slept about two nights in seven," a British officer said of the 250 British officers and soldiers who guarded the prisoners.

They marched through long lines of Canadian bayonets, hailing one another jocularly and here and

(Continued on Page Two)

Rumania Breakup Looms as Hungary Prepares for War

Latter Country Sends Large Force into Coveted Transylvania

BUDAPEST, June 1. (AP)—Hungary was on a war footing tonight and the dispatch of troops into Transylvania—which Hungary lost to Rumania in 1918—was expected momentarily.

Excitement was whipped to fever pitch when the government, protesting to Bucharest against "incidents" on the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier, warned Rumania of "unpleasant consequences" and called up more troops.

Officialdom re-emphasized the "mission" of thousand-year-old Hungary as an outpost against the east, and let it be known that Rumania—which has just surrendered part of its territory to the Red army

(Continued on Page Two)

Graziani Succeeds Balbo as Head of N. Africa Troops

Veteran of Colonial Wars Returns to Duty in Libya

ROME, July 1 (AP)—Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, tough veteran of Italy's colonial wars, returned tonight to Libya, scene of his earlier triumphs, to succeed the late Marshall Italo Balbo as commander of North African forces.

His mission was to save from British invasion the territory which, between 1921 and 1929, he reclaimed from native rebels.

While Marshal Balbo's body began its long journey back to Italy, the circumstances of his death remained obscure. Italian correspondents reported that he rushed into an air battle which he found raging over Tobruk and British machine-gun fire shot down his plane, killing him and eight others.

(In London, however, the British foreign office recalled coolness of Premier Mussolini toward the Marshal; declared "no British aircraft" were involved in the fatal crash.)

Graziani is chief of staff of the Italian army and commander of the army of the Po. With the capitulation of France, the importance of the army of the Po as defender of northern Italy became secondary.

No Italian officer has wider experience in desert warfare than

(Continued on Page Two)

Uneasiness Increases in Balkans as Nazis Appear To Be Preparing for War

Arrival of Bombing Planes Ordered by Rumania Seems To Be Timed with Hungarian Move To Cross Border; Bulgarians and Rumanians Battle at Frontier Posts; Russians Continue Drive

By The Associated Press

A fleet of German bombing planes, which Bucharest military circles said Rumania purchased from Germany, landed last (Monday) night at the Brasov military airport in the Transylvania province of Rumania in the midst of full-fledged war preparations by neighboring Hungary.

Delivery of the bombers at this time—when Hungary's move to a war time footing threatened the peace of the Balkans — was held significant in Bucharest, where the Rumanian government has redoubled defense preparations in southern Dobruja, wanted by Bulgaria, and Transylvania, claimed by Hungary.

The planes landed shortly after Rumania threw out British territorial guarantees made last year and announced she would follow the "new orientations of Europe." Diplomats in Rumania believed this strengthened the possibility of King Carol's getting German help against further encroachments by Russia, which already has annexed Bessarabia and northern Bucovina from Rumania.

Tass, official Soviet news agency, reported that Soviet Russian troops have established themselves all along the new frontiers and had "accomplished their task."

Bulgarians in Action

One Rumanian diplomatic report issued in Bucharest said that apparently concerted Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks against Rumanian frontier posts occurred Sunday night and early Monday. Names and places were not given but casualties resulted on all sides.

In the west, the struggle between Britain and Germany went on unceasingly. German bombers, the British said, killed eleven persons and injured a score when their missiles shattered a row of houses in a northeast Scottish town.

British bombers also struck at Germany and said they set storage tanks ablaze in Hamburg as well as bombing other military objectives.

The match which seemed about to set fire to the long-smouldering controversy between Rumania and Hungary was a Hungarian report of "incidents" on their border in which three civilians were reported killed. But the trouble stems back to Hungary's long desire to reclaim rich Transylvania, lost to Rumania in the world war crack-up of the Austro-Hungary empire.

Drop Parachute Troops

Although overshadowed somewhat by the developments on Rumania's northwest frontier, Russia's occupation of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina went forward at a faster pace. The Russian army was said to be "raining" parachute troops on previously-unoccupied parts of the two provinces.

Germany announced the occupation of the channel islands of Guernsey and Jersey—the Nazis' first foothold on Britis' soil.

The two British islands in the channel, famous for their fine cattle, were declared demilitarized by the British last week, before the Germans took them over.

The British told the world that they would not allow the enemy to occupy the French-mandated territories of Syria and Lebanon in the near east or to use those lands as bases for attacks on neighboring countries Britain is pledged to defend—Turkey, Egypt, Palestine, Transjordan and Iraq.

The announcement of the "keep out" stand was made, the British said, to remove all doubts which have arisen when the French military commander in Syria declared that hostilities had ended there.

Italy sent Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, veteran of colonel warfare, back to Libya to succeed the late Marshal Italo Balbo as commander of her northern African forces.

At sea, the Germans said a British cruiser of the Orion class was torpedoed south of Brest, France, and the Italians acknowledged the loss of the destroyer Espero, 1,073 tons, in a battle with three British cruisers and several destroyers.

Employers Asked To Release Guardsmen

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP)—Governor O'Conor tonight broadcast a plea to Maryland businessmen to release national guardsmen in their employ for three weeks of summer training.

"This summer," the governor asserted, "the Maryland national guard asks, and has every right to expect, the 100 percent cooperation of every employer.

"If America is to win its race for peace in a war-torn world, victory will come as the result of carrying out a program of preparedness that will make our will-to-peace unassailable.

". . . It is essential that the businessmen of Maryland realize that it is a paramount duty to see to it that every national guardsman in their employ is free to attend the three weeks training period that begins August 4th".

France's Defeat Is Explained by Writer in an Uncensored Dispatch

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Taylor Henry, who analyzes the reasons for France's defeat, is both an experienced newspaperman and a graduate of the U. S. military academy.

(A thirty-year-old native of Mineola, Texas, he gave up his army commission to become publisher of the Palestine Press in his home state and eventually joined the Associated Press foreign staff.

(He was on the Paris staff for more than two years, saw the German blitzkrieg, and followed the fugitive French government to Tours and Bordeaux. When the French accepted defeat, Henry went to Spain, where he wrote the following explanation, free for the first time oof the French censorship.)

By TAYLOR HENRY

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, July 1. (AP)—France went to war against Germany last September without adequate equipment, without adequate man-power and—it can now be said frankly—without adequate enthusiasm.

Result: Utter defeat in a month-long blitzkrieg, casualties estimated at 1,500,000 killed, wounded or missing; a stunned nation only now beginning to realize what happened, a stunned leadership grimly groping toward the future.

This is the picture of France as I saw it, broken under the wheels to total war.

Considered Great Machine

Two months ago the French army still was considered the most efficient military machine in the world. But on June 12, when France sued for peace, Marshal Weygand is reported to have told the French cabinet that the army had ammunition enough to last only three more days; that the advancing Germans were "slaughtering men who no longer have the means to defend themselves."

The cabinet members wept.

Veteran Marshal Henri Petain and other leaders won there were three principal reasons for the collapse:

1. Lack of equipment.
2. Lack of man-power.
3. Lack of determination.

Marshal Petain described this lack of determination as due to the fact that, while in 1914 Frenchmen rallied enthusiastically to the colors, they failed to respond enthusiastically to the call of 1940 "because they did not understand the reasons for the war."

Also dampening the enthusiasm of Frenchmen was the feeling that they were bearing the brunt of the war, with 48-year-old men in the front line at a time when Britain had not yet mobilized her twenty-eight-year-olds.

Great Lack of Men

There was a great lack of Allied man-power in France. Ten British

(Continued on Page Two)

Roosevelt Asks Congress To Pass "Graduated" Excess Profits Tax

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Declaring that no one should be enriched by the national rearmament effort, President Roosevelt asked Congress today to pass a "steeply graduated" excess profits tax.

The levy, he said, should be applied to all individuals and corporations "without discrimination."

"We are engaged in a great national effort to build up our national defenses to meet any and every potential attack," he said.

"We are asking even our humblest citizen to contribute their mite.

"It is our duty to see that the burden is equitably distributed according to ability to pay so that few do not gain from the sacrifices of the many."

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means Committee said the message "guarantees teamwork" between the White House and Congress.

Mr. Roosevelt made no suggestion on rates and offered no estimate of how much money might be raised. Rep. Rayburn of Texas, House Democratic leader, said, however, that the proposed levy would be along the lines of World War period excess profits taxes.

One of these laws—there were several between 1917 and 1921— levied eight percent on an individual's earnings above $6,000 provided he had no invested capital. For corporations, partnerships and individuals with invested capital, the formula was more complicated.

Jack Dempsey Knocks Out Heavy Wrestler, but Lacks His Old Fire

ATLANTA, JULY 1—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, former world heavyweight champion of the ring, knocked out a husky wrestler, Clarence (cowboy) Luttrell of Texas in the second round of their scheduled 10-round fight tonight.

Dempsey, weighing 205 pounds, battered down the 224-pound Luttrell after one minute and fifty-eight seconds of the second frame. The former champion, while showing none of the old fire and dynamite that carried him to the heavyweight crown, badly beat the awkward and clumsy wrestler who was almost out at the bell that ended the first round.

Luttrell Down In First

Luttrell hung on almost from the opening gong as Dempsey cut his face to ribbons. After Luttrell had gone down for counts of seven and eight in the second round, Dempsey moved up and cut loose with a looping left that caught Luttrell flush on the chin and knocked him all the way out of the ring.

The Texas bad man, who challenged the one-time Manassa mauler to settle things with the six-ounce gloves after Dempsey had clashed with him in refereeing a wrestling match, failed to get up off the ground and had to be carried to his dressing room.

Dempsey, who lost a four-round decision to King Levinsky in Chicago in 1932 in a move toward returning to the game, handed Luttrell a sound and painful beating.

Dempsey Not Hurt

Luttrell failed to connect with a single punishing blow. Almost from the start Dempsey kept him crowded into a neutral corner and battered him down with rights and lefts against which the wrestler threw up no defense.

The affair was witnessed by what promoters claimed as a crown of close to 12,000. The fight did not last long enough to provide a test of what the popular fourty-five year old former champion might be expected to do if he should continue his return to the ring.

Hungary-Bulgaria May Cooperate To Halt Red Drive

Possibility Seen that Two Nations May Help Rumania

BUCHAREST, July 2 (Tuesday) (AP)—A large fleet of German bombing planes arrived last night at the Brasov military airport, strengthening belief in diplomatic quarters that the Reich is backing Rumania in its stand to prevent Russia from making further advances.

The planes' arrival at the airport in the center of Rumania, at a corner of old Transylvania, also reinforced the belief that Germany feels assured of success in its attempt to bring a peaceful settlement of Hungarian and Bulgarian territorial claims on Rumania.

Hungary claims Transylvania, while Bulgaria wants the return of southern Dobruja.

The possibility was seen that these two nations would cooperate in halting the Russian advance and in combating the spread of Communist influences in southeastern Europe.

The number of bombers reaching Brasov was not disclosed.

Military observers said they were planes which had been purchased by Rumania, but delivery at this time was held to be highly significant.

Speed Defense Plans

The government, however, redoubled its defense preparations in Dobruja and Transylvania in fear of imminent Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks if German pacification efforts should fail.

Incidents on the Hungarian and Bulgarian borders were held in some official circles to be forms of pressure intended to force Rumania to accept less attrative terms in mediation.

A confidential Rumanian diplomatic report issued Monday night said that apparently concerted Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks against Rumanian frontier posts occurred simultaneously Sunday night and Monday morning.

Without locating the scenes of attack, it said the Hungarian raid started at 10:55 p. m. Sunday and lasted until 1 a. m. Monday.

There were a number of casualties on both sides.

During the same hours the Bulgarians were said to have attacked three Rumanian posts on the Dobruja frontier, where casualties resulted.

Rumania Changes Course

The German bombing planes reached Brasov a few hours after the Rumanian cabinet had thrown out the old British guarantees of Rumanian territorial integrity and decided that Rumania henceforth must follow "the new orientations of Europe."

The spike-capped Russian troops who are taking over the provinces of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, which Rumania reluctantly ceded to escape war, poured on in increasing numbers in the wake of the retreating Rumanians.

(Tass, official Soviet news agency, said in Moscow that the occupation now is complete.)

The Rumanian renunciation of British and French guaranties, given April 13, 1939, moved this Balkan country further under the German political wing and ended a quarter-century of close association with the western powers.

(Several days ago Rumania took political and economic steps in line with Nazi policy generally).

Many Frontier "Incidents"

Practically general mobilization in Hungary coincided with a series of frontier "incidents" between Rumanian and Magyar troops.

A protest filed by the Hungarian government with the foreign office here, warning of a "possible unpleasant consequence," added to the gravity.

Rumania's defenses in Transylvania have been at top strength but some pessimism was heard in military quarters that the debacle in Bessarabia and Bucovina had disorganized King Carol's army.

Bucharest was under ominous tension tonight. Guards were redoubled around public buildings and the Royal palice. Defense squads appeared with full equipment.

More Clashes Reported

Further clashes were reported between Rumanian and Russian troops, as the Soviet army increased the tempo of its occupation of the ceded provinces in the north. At Herta, a Soviet tank opened fire on a Rumanian detachment, killing the commander, one lieutenant, two non-commisisoned officers and four soldiers, it was reported.

The cabinet fixed July 3 as a day of national mourning for Bucovina and Bessarabia.

The capital and railroad stations were full of travel-stained refugees tonight. Trainsheds were piled high with bundles of house-hold gooods wrapped in blankets, baby cribs, and even supplies of corn and other foodstuffs that he peasants had managed to salvage in the scramble before the advancing Red army's tanks, planes and motorized columns.

Few Men in City

Because of the mobilization, there was a conspicuous absence of men in Bucharest.

Nearly 200,000 residents of Bessarabia and Bucovina managed to cross the border by nightfall, it was announced.

Many families were separated. Depots were established for lost children—some of whom were just learning to walk. Hundreds of cases were reported in which some members of a family safely reached Rumania, but others were overtaken by Russian troops and forced to remain in Bessarabia.

Most of the new class of reservists called up today was sent to the Prut river—scene of heavy clashes yesterday—to establish what military men call a "wall of men" against further Russian advances.

(The Russians crossed the boundaries of the ceded territory at several points along the Prut, although the Rumanians were given until noon Wednesday to leave the provinces.)

Spend Night in Fields

In southern Bessarabia, where the Russians had advanced to the Prut, the districts just east of the river were teeming with refugees who almost reached old Rumania when their flight was cut off by swift Russian motorized columns. Hundreds spent the night in fields—weary, exhausted, and bitterly disappointed.

Across the river, hundreds of other refugees using blankets for tents were setting up house in the open. Many had swam the Prut to safety.

All factories, business establishments, banks and large estates in Bessarabia and Bucovina were being taken over by the Russian military as fast as men could be assigned to take charge.

Soldiers quartered themselves in the largest homes and hotels, and even in royal residences.

A lack of Russian army supplies raised the possibility of an impending critical food shortage in many villages.

Praise Rumanian Officers

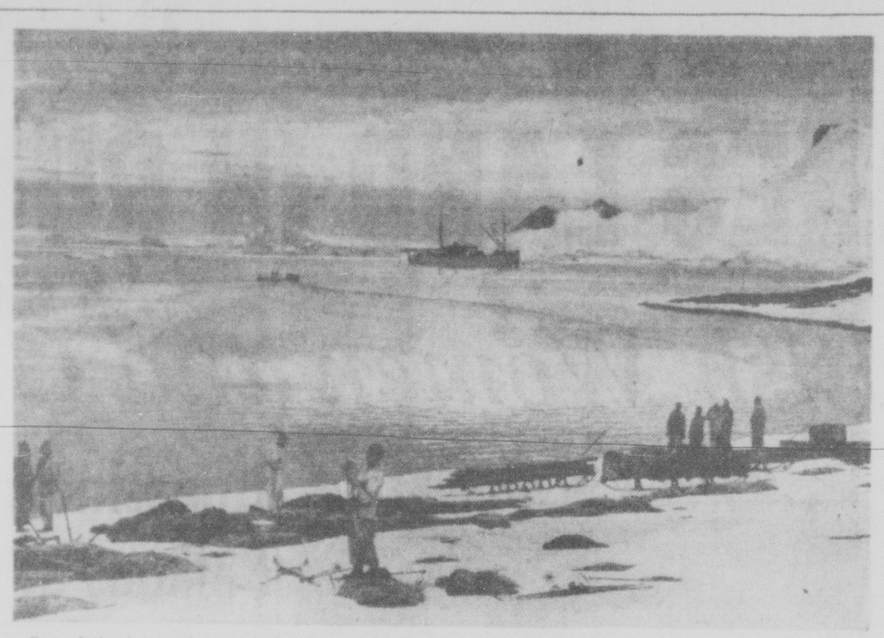

The refugees gave highest praise to the Rumanian officers who, they said, had made unbelievable efforts to save army equipment from the advancing Russians. But the Russian troops moved so far ahead of schedule it was impossible to get out vast quantities of tanks and other military equipment.

Near Chilia Nova, the northern fork of the Danube delta, refugees fleeing down the roads and across the fields were reported by eyewitnesses, who escaped, to have been driven into a vast swamp where some were drowned.

The Red army was reported bringing heavy artillery to the northern bank of the Danube—which they control. No shipping was moving past this point, from where Germany had expected to get vast stores of grain, sugar and other supplies this year.

Wounded Rumanian soldiers, understood to have been felled in fighting with the Russians on the Prut river, arrived in Bucharest by the trainload for hospitalization.

WITH THE BYRD EXPEDITION IN THE ANTARCTIC

One of the latest pictures to be received in the United States from the Admiral Byrd-U. S. Antarctic Service Expedition, this photo shows the supply ship North Star anchored in Marguerite Bay, south of the Antarctic Circle. Site of the expedition's East Base can be seen in foreground as members prepare sleds for overground exploration.

DeGaulle Names Musilier Head of The French Navy

Says He Has Several Ships and Air Groups under His Command

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—General Charles de Gaulle, the French officer who refused to accept France's capitulation to Germany, appointed Vice Admiral Muselier tonight as commander of "all free French naval forces," and disclosed that there are "already several ships and air groups under his command."

Muselier a collabroator of the old "Tiger of France," Premier Georges Clemenceau, in 1917-18, was captain of fusiliers—French marines—in the defense of Ypres in 1916.

Later he was in charge of naval and coast defenses at Marseille and in post-World War days commanded the second cruiser squadron of the French Mediterranean fleet.

Mueller raced to Paris from Bordeaux when he heard of the impending armistice with Germany. Arriving at almost the same time German troops occupied Paris, he managed to destroy several secret plans and one of the national defense factories.

Then he escaped to Marseille, rallied all the men possible, took over a French warship and went to Gibraltar. The British brought him to London by plane to aid De Gaulle's French national committee to continue the war.

Popular Usher in White House Dies At the Age of 65

Roosevelt and Staff Saddened by Passing of "The Admiral"

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Gloom penetrated the oval office of President Roosevelt and misted the eyes of White House employes today, for word had come that "Pat had gone west."

Patrick McKenna, sixty-five, who had ushered notables into the president's office since the Theodore Roosevelt administration, died from a kidney ailment—just thirty-seven years to the day from the time he joined the White House staff as assistant usher.

President Roosevelt publicly mourned the passing of the short, genial, red-haired chap, whom he sometimes called "The Admiral."

"Because I have always thought of Pat McKenna as one of my oldest friends, I am grieved and shocked by his death," the president said in a statement. "I have known him since the administration of President Theodore Roosevelt and saw much of him in the administration of President Wilson, and finding him here in March, 1933, meant much toward making the task of the presidency more easy.

"Nobody can ever quite replace him."

Pat, as Irish as his name, was born in Monaghan county, Ireland, June 22, 1874. He immigrated to this country when a lad and was working at a club at Oyster Bay, Long Island, when he got the White House job in Teddy Roosevelt's day.

Possessed of a memory like the index of "Who's Who," he knew by face and name more prominent Americans, diplomats and foreign notables than probably anyone else in Washington.

Tilghman Reports

(Continued from Page One)

Willkie possesssed all the qualifications "to meet and defeat Roosevelt or any other Democratic stooge he may set up for the party's presidential nomination."

Rev. Dr. May Addresses Methodist Delegates

WESTMINSTER, Md., July 1 (AP)—Delegates from Maryland, District of Columbia and West Virginia attending the Baltimore conference, Methodist summer school, for leadership training here tonight heard an address by the Rev. Dr. Rolo May, pastor of the First Congregational church, Verona, N. J.

The conference opened here yesterday, at Western Maryland college. Its purpose is to provide a more thorough and more practical program of leadership training.

Sessions will continue through Sunday. Approximately twenty persons comprise the faculty.

Tomorrow evening Dr. May will speak on "The Art of Counseling" and Allison Long on "Local Church Social Evening".

Folk games will be staged Wednesday and Thursday will be "banquet evening." Dr. Richard Shipley will give an art lecture Friday evening. Commencement, followed by the communion vesper service and a drama, will be held Saturday.

Ban Is Lifted on Prize Fight Films

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt signed today a bill lifting a 28-year old prohibition against the interstate shipment of prize fight films.

The law which banned such shipments was enacted July 31, 1912, after films showing the fight between the negro boxer, Jack Johnson, and Jim Jefferies, had led to racial feeling.

Two Nazi

(Continued from Page One)

East was taken in order to "set at rest doubts which may be felt in any quarter" after the French commander in the Near East, General Eugene Mittelhauser, declared hostilities ended in Syria.

A foreign office news department statement said:

"His Majesty's government declare that they could not allow Syria or Lebanon to be occupied by any hostile power x x x.

"They therefore hold themselves, free to take whatever measures they may in such circumstances consider necessary in their own interests."

Britain is pledged to defend Turkey, Egypt, Palestine, Transjordan and Iraz in the Near East.

German aerial forays against England and Scotland yesterday and last night were beaten off with little damage, the air ministry said. One German bomber was sent crashing into the sea off northeast England.

Graziani

(Continued from Page One)

Graziani. His early career was in Eritrea and Libya.

He earned a reputation for vigorous methods and tactical skill. Et the start of the Ethiopian war he was placed in command of Italian armies in Somaliland. In this arid, inhospitable expanse, where temperatures rose to 150 degrees at mid-day and troops had scorpions for bedfellows, Graziani's mixed Italian and native army saw some of the bloodiest fighting of the war.

With Ethiopia conquered, Graziana was entrusted with the task of consolidating the victory. He accomplished his mission, but came back to Italy with his body riddled with fragments of a bomb thrown at him in Addis Ababa by a native rebel.

Annenberg Gets

(Continued from Page One)

J. C. Campbell termed the three year penalty "eminently fair." He said that the remaining cases against Annenberg—involving other tax matters, lottery charges and conspiracy to influence a grand jury witness—would be dismiseed.

Nazi Prisoners

(Continued from Page One)

there, clasping hands as they recognized friends in other groups.

A German in brown fatigue jacket, identified by an English lieutenant as a submarine commander, was the first prisoner ashore. Speaking fluent English, he superintended checking the baggage of his fellow-prisoners.

The prisoners included army officers and men in green uniforms, blue-clad aviators, U-boat and tank crews and even parachute troops in black leather trousers and jackets.

Officer-prisoners received the military consideration due their rank. Last off the ship, they were immediately preceded by a fatigue party of their own non-commissioned officers and privates to gather their baggage and carry it to waiting trains. Many wore decorations, one flying officer the Iron Cross.

One complained:

"You English have no system whatever. We should have been off this ship hours ago."

Nazi type salutes were absent, but many an army salute was exchanged.

British officers said the prisoners had been captured in France, the low countries and in Norway and added that some had expressed themselves as "quite pleased" to leave embattled Europe.

Germany Occupies

(Continued from Page One)

all diplomatic missions in Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands by July 15.

All political questions affecting those countries must be taken up through the mission in Berlin.

It was noted that France was exempted from this group; that Denmark, which submitted to Nazi occupation without a struggle, was on a different basis with both diplomatic missions and consulates remaining; and that in Poland, which first felt the Nazi blitzkrieg, consulates as well as diplomatic missions were required to close.

Willkie Plans To Cover Country in Vigorous Drive

Republican Candidate Rids Himself of All Business Connections

By MAX HILL

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — Wendell L. Willkie rid himself of business connections today, said he undoubtedly would campaign from one end of the country to the other and expressed the hope "Mr. Roosevelt is renominated because I'd like to beat him."

The Republican presidential nominee held a press conference in the small, plainly decorated board room of Commonwealth & Southern Corporation in the financial district.

Later, the corporation directors formally announced Willkie had resigned the $75,000-a-year presidency and directorship of the concern, effective July 10. The announcement said also that Willkie would resign all directorships and offices he holds in other companies of the Commonwealth and Southern systems.

Commenting on his move, Willkie said:

"I think I should devote all my time to the campaign."

Jokes with Reporters

Willkie, refreshed by his weekend aboard publisher Roy W. Howard's yacht, bantered with reporters but avoided specific statements on policy.

"I expect in my acceptance speech (in Elwood, Ind.) to give my views and interpret the platform as I see it."

The acceptance probably will be after the Democratic convention in mid-July.

Next on his schedule, he indicated, is a vacation.

Willkie was asked whether John D. M. Hamilton would retain his job as Republican national chairman.

"Don't guess one way or the other," he replied.

Committee Meets Tomorrow

A sub-committee of twelve members of the National Committee meets in New York Wednesday to discuss the chairmanship, which also probably was a topic at Willkie's luncheon with Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota.

The nominee dismissed all criticisms of him by Democrats in Washington with:

"Those statements make me feel just wonderful. The boys down there must have the jitters."

Once when the name of President Roosevelt came up, Willkie was asked about the visit to the White House for conference, suggested last week. He said he had heard nothing further about it.

He smiled, adding:

"As I understand the rule you just don't break into the White House until you are elected."

France's Defeat

(Continued from Page One)

divisions fought there in 1940, as against 85 British divisions in 1918; and the Italian divisions which might have immobilized an equal number of German divisions at the Brenner frontier, were this time on the enemy's side, immobilizing French divisions on the Alpine border.

As for lack of equipment: This weakness unfortunately was greatest in aviation and tanks—precisely the arms in which Germany excelled and on which she based the blitzkrieg.

Marshal Petain admitted German air superiority was 6-to-1. I saw, repeatedly, three or four French fighters rise to attack massed squadrons of sixty to eighty German bombers protected by forty to sixty chasers.

The Germans could hurl 300 and 400 planes against a five-mile French sector. The entire French attack aviation numbered only 510 planes.

Germany's tanks were concentrated against narrow sectors to gain maximum effect. The French scattered theirs all along the front—and they had scarcely half as many tanks as the Germans, to begin with; perhaps 2,500 tanks against a probable 6,000 thrown into the battle of France by Hitler.

Nevertheless, the French fought bravely. Brutally awakened from the dream of stationary war in a stream-lined Maginot habitation, they faced their enemy, took terrific punishment and died gamely.

Townsend

(Continued from Page One)

peace comes to Europe, Dr. Townsend said:

"There will be more millions without jobs than we can imagine. x x x It is not too much to state that we may look for at least 21,000,000 men parading the streets without means of sustenance. x x x the threat of bloody revolution would be on our hands."

"There is an answer," he asserted—his "Townsend National Recovery Plan," which proposed a pay-as-you go old-age pension plan, financed by a two percent federal gross income tax.

The delegates at the convention of Townsend clubs—a shirt-sleeved, cotton-dressed gathering of eldrely persons—cheering during the keynote address. They had greeted his appearance with a song, "Hello, Dr. Townsend, How Are You?"

Ben Turpin Dies In Hollywood at The Age of 71

Funny Man of the Movies First Played with Charlie Chaplin

BY HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD, JULY 1—(AP)—Ben Turpin, the funny little guy with the crossed eyes who always maintained he could do a "108" better than anybody else, died today after a stroke.

He was seventy-one years old, although kindly biographers through the years always made him six years younger.

A "108" is a somersault from a standing still start. Ben made such somersaults, and himself, famous because he didn't come out of them on his feet as others did. He always fell on his face or his head or some other unconventional part of his wiry body.

Ben came west about 1914 and soon he was working in Mack Sennett's Keystone comedies.

He appeared in good health last year, when he was in "Hollywood Cavalcade," but his physician said today he had been suffering from asthma for several years.

Turpin was born in 1869 in New Orleans and he began acting in the window of his father's candy store, where he pulled taffy. He so amused customers that he decided then he'd be an actor.

Rumania Breakup

(Continued from Page One)

—appeared to be "on the threshold of collapse."

Responsible quarters said Germany and Italy still were striving to maintain peace in southeastern Europe, but the feeling was widespread that military action was imminent.

General mobilization was believed near after an "incident" on the frontier, in which three civilians were reported killed.

Official reports alleged Rumanian troops had penetrated Hungarian territory at Visk, but were driven back after an exchange of shots.

Reservists flocked to mobilization centers. A full army corps was advancing toward the Rumanian border, officials confirmed.

Restrictions were placed on the sale of alcoholic drinks and on railway travel, because of "unforseen technical reasons." Tomorrow Budapest's buses will be off the streets, apparently because they are needed for troop transport.

Many Refuse To Fight

In its reports from Transylvania (half Hungarian in population, according to Budapest) the semi-official Hungarian news agency spoke of urgently needed protection for Magyars. Thousands of Hungarian-born Rumanian soldiers in Transylvania are refusing to fight for Rumania, dispatches added, and the number of deserters was growing hourly.

The government has reiterated often that a Rumanian collapse would call for immediate entry of the Hungarian army into Transylvania to protect the Magyar minority of nearly 2,000,000.

It was no secret here that the Russian army's overstepping of the line of demarcation fixed in the Moscow ultimatum to Rumania is causing considerable worry for Hungarian officials as well as their German and Italian friends.

In official circles it has long been emphasized that Hungary would be forced to seize the Carpathian mountain barrier in Transylvania for "self protection" should the Red army persist in advancing toward the Danube basin. Support of the Rome-Berlin axis was claimed in this plan.

Transylvania, rich agricultural province, was part of Austria-Hungary before the World War.

The official Hungarian news agency said the Russians already have gone beyond the agreed limits.

All of the province of Bucovina has been lost by Rumania, the agency said, as well as Bessarabia. Banking and communications have been disrupted and private life interfered with.

"For centuries," said the foreign office, Hungary "has fought and bled for the western Latin culture."

Meanwhile Russia's intentions in the Balkans remained somewhat uncertain.

(A Moscow report said Russian occupation of Bessarabia caused manifestations of joy.

(In Bucharest dispatches the Soviet occupation of Danube river points was viewed as putting Red troops in a position to cut off German access to the Black Sea by river.)

Balkan capitals took the view that Russia is endeavoring to make the utmost of the opportunity to extend its sphere of influence while Germany and Italy are busy in the west.

Weather in Nearby States

West Virginia: Generally fair except light showers in extreme south portion today. Wednesday mostly cloudy, showers in south portion, not much change in temperature.

Western Pennsylvania: Generally fair today and Wednesday, little change in temperature.

MEXICO PAYS

Secretary of State Hull (left) receives from Mexican Ambassador Francisco Castillo Najera in Washington a check for $1,000,000. It is the second installment in settlement of claims by Americans whose properties have been seized by Mexico under its land division program.

Lana Turner and Artie Shaw Deny Marital Trouble

But Reports Persist Their Short Marriage Is on the Rocks

By FRANKLIN ARTHUR

HOLLYWOOD, July 1 (AP)—Lana Turner and Artie Shaw, who disagreed the day they met, still disagreed today—over whether their four-and-a-half month's old marriage is on the rocks.

The pretty little red head disclosed she had left the dark and moody bandmaster and moved to an apartment. To which Shaw retorted:

"There's nothing to it. We were out together last night and we are still living together."

Lana, whose "sweater personality" has made her a favorite of cameramen, begged off going into details. But close friends said she already has consulted an attorney.

Hollywood was almost as agog at the separation reports as it was the morning last February when the news broke suddenly that they had eloped overnight to Las Vegas, Nev.

The Wallace, Idaho, girl who was plucked from the halls of Hollywood high school to movie stardom met the one-time idol of jitterbugs last year on the set of "Dancing Co-Ed." They quarreled immediately and displayed intense dislike for each other throughout the production.

But one night not long after, they started to a party and ended up on the Nevada-bound plane.

Around the tea tables, the talk was that Lana had wed on the rebound of a tiff with Gregson Bautzer, young attorney to whom she had been engaged for months. Bautzer disclaimed knowledge of the separation today, but remarked:

"As an old family friend, I'm naturally interested."

Record Order for Warships Placed By the Navy Dept.

Forty-five Ships Will Be Built at Cost of $500,000,000

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The navy placed the biggest order in its history today—for forty-five new warships to cost about $500,000,000—just two hours after President Roosevelt signed legislation to speed up contract-letting and shipbuilding.

At the same time the army promoted 1,350 regular officers and called the first of 9,000 reserve officers to active duty for intensive specialized training while the president discussed with defense advisors a program for further army expansions with emphasis on mechanization.

Two new agencies set up by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation arranged to buy 150,000 tons of rubber and 75,000 tons of tin for reserve stocks.

And work has started on a third set of locks for the Panama Canal.

The navy, in its fourth contract-letting within three weeks, ordered eleven cruisers, twenty destroyers, thirteen submarines an done large seaplane tender—193,000 tons of warships. This brought to 150 the number of vessels now under construction or soon to be started. Additional contracts are to be awarded shortly for three airplane carriers and two more cruisers.

The contracts were negotiated without competitive biddings as authorized by the new speed-up legislation. The new act also permits the president to increase the work-week in shipyards above forty-eight hours.

Officials estimated that the elimination of the competitive bidding requirement would save $16,000,000 to $17,000,000 on the contracts let today and that the time required to build a vessel could be reduced twenty percent if full twenty-four hour shifts were used.

Demands Extra Shifts

Senator Connally (D-Tex) introduced a resolution during the day which would make it the sense of the Senate that the war and navy departments insist upon contractors using extra shifts.

"Time is of the essence," he said in a statement. "Plenty of labor is available. The program affords an excellent opportunity to train semi-skilled labor into the highest character of skilled labor."

The rubber and tin will be purchased by separate corporations which the RFC set up Friday, Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator, announced. They were capitalized at $5,000,000 each. Authority for their creation was contained in an act which the president signed last Tuesday.

The rubber company has agreed with the international rubber regulation committee to buy 150,000 tons at eighteen cents to twenty cents a pound, two cents below today's market price.

The tin company has agreed with the international tin committee to purchase 75,000 tons at 50 cents a pound. It also will acquire Manganese and other strategic raw materials.

SMART WOMEN'S SHOP

Brings you more

"Bamboo Sheers"

a brand new sheer shantung print — cool and delightful as a frosted drink!

SIZES

16½ to 24½—38 to 44

$8.98

The fabric that has zoomed to success! You'll like it for its cool, cool touch . . . its adaptability for town or country . . . its resistance to mussing and crushing which makes it a pleasure to pack. Navy, Aqua, Rose, Powder and Green.

Exclusive in Cumberland with

AIR-CONDITIONED MARTIN'S

thirty-three north liberty

Hungary-Bulgaria May Cooperate To Halt Red Drive

Possibility Seen that Two Nations May Help Rumania

BUCHAREST, July 2 (Tuesday) (AP)—A large fleet of German bombing planes arrived last night at the Brasov military airport, strengthening belief in diplomatic quarters that the Reich is backing Rumania in its stand to prevent Russia from making further advances.

The planes' arrival at the airport in the center of Rumania, at a corner of old Transylvania, also reinforced the belief that Germany feels assured of success in its attempt to bring a peaceful settlement of Hungarian and Bulgarian territorial claims on Rumania.

Hungary claims Transylvania, while Bulgaria wants the return of southern Dobruja.

The possibility was seen that these two nations would cooperate in halting the Russian advance and in combating the spread of Communist influences in southeastern Europe.

The number of bombers reaching Brasov was not disclosed.

Military observers said they were planes which had been purchased by Rumania, but delivery at this time was held to be highly significant.

Speed Defense Plans

The government, however, redoubled its defense preparations in Dobruja and Transylvania in fear of imminent Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks if German pacification efforts should fail.

Incidents on the Hungarian and Bulgarian borders were held in some official circles to be forms of pressure intended to force Rumania to accept less attrative terms in mediation.

A confidential Rumanian diplomatic report issued Monday night said that apparently concerted Hungarian and Bulgarian attacks against Rumanian frontier posts occurred simultaneously Sunday night and Monday morning.

Without locating the scenes of attack, it said the Hungarian raid started at 10:55 p. m. Sunday and lasted until 1 a. m. Monday.

There were a number of casualties on both sides.

During the same hours the Bulgarians were said to have attacked three Rumanian posts on the Dobruja frontier, where casualties resulted.

Rumania Changes Course

The German bombing planes reached Brasov a few hours after the Rumanian cabinet had thrown out the old British guarantees of Rumanian territorial integrity and decided that Rumania henceforth must follow "the new orientations of Europe."

The spike-capped Russian troops who are taking over the provinces of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, which Rumania reluctantly ceded to escape war, poured on in increasing numbers in the wake of the retreating Rumanians.

(Tass, official Soviet news agency, said in Moscow that the occupation now is complete.)

The Rumanian renunciation of British and French guaranties, given April 13, 1939, moved this Balkan country further under the German political wing and ended a quarter-century of close association with the western powers.

(Several days ago Rumania took political and economic steps in line with Nazi policy generally).

Many Frontier "Incidents"

Practically general mobilization in Hungary coincided with a series of frontier "incidents" between Rumanian and Magyar troops.

A protest filed by the Hungarian government with the foreign office here, warning of a "possible unpleasant consequence," added to the gravity.

Rumania's defenses in Transylvania have been at top strength but some pessimism was heard in military quarters that the debacle in Bessarabia and Bucovina had disorganized King Carol's army.

Bucharest was under ominous tension tonight. Guards were redoubled around public buildings and the Royal palice. Defense squads appeared with full equipment.

More Clashes Reported

Further clashes were reported between Rumanian and Russian troops, as the Soviet army increased the tempo of its occupation of the ceded provinces in the north. At Herta, a Soviet tank opened fire on a Rumanian detachment, killing the commander, one lieutenant, two non-commisisoned officers and four soldiers, it was reported.

The cabinet fixed July 3 as a day of national mourning for Bucovina and Bessarabia.

The capital and railroad stations were full of travel-stained refugees tonight. Trainsheds were piled high with bundles of house-hold gooods wrapped in blankets, baby cribs, and even supplies of corn and other foodstuffs that he peasants had managed to salvage in the scramble before the advancing Red army's tanks, planes and motorized columns.

Few Men in City

Because of the mobilization, there was a conspicuous absence of men in Bucharest.

Nearly 200,000 residents of Bessarabia and Bucovina managed to cross the border by nightfall, it was announced.

Many families were separated. Dejots were established for lost children—some of whom were just learning to walk. Hundreds of cases were reported in which some members of a family safely reached Rumania, but others were overtaken by Russian troops and forced to remain in Bessarabia.

Most of the new class of reservists called up today was sent to the Prut river—scene of heavy clashes yesterday—to establish what military men call a "wall of men" against further Russian advances.

(The Russians crossed the boundaries of the ceded territory at several points along the Prut, although the Rumanians were given until noon Wednesday to leave the provinces.)

Spend Night in Fields

In southern Bessarabia, where the Russians had advanced to the Prut, the districts just east of the river were teeming with refugees who almost reached old Rumania when their flight was cut off by swift Russian motorized columns. Hundreds spent the night in fields—weary, exhausted, and bitterly disappointed.

Across the river, hundreds of other refugees using blankets for tents were setting up house in the open. Many had swam the Prut to safety.

All factories, business establishments, banks and large estates in Bessarabia and Bucovina were being taken over by the Russian military as fast as men could be assigned to take charge.

Soldiers quartered themselves in the largest homes and hotels, and even in royal residences.

A lack of Russian army supplies raised the possibility of an impending critical food shortage in many villages.

Praise Rumanian Officers

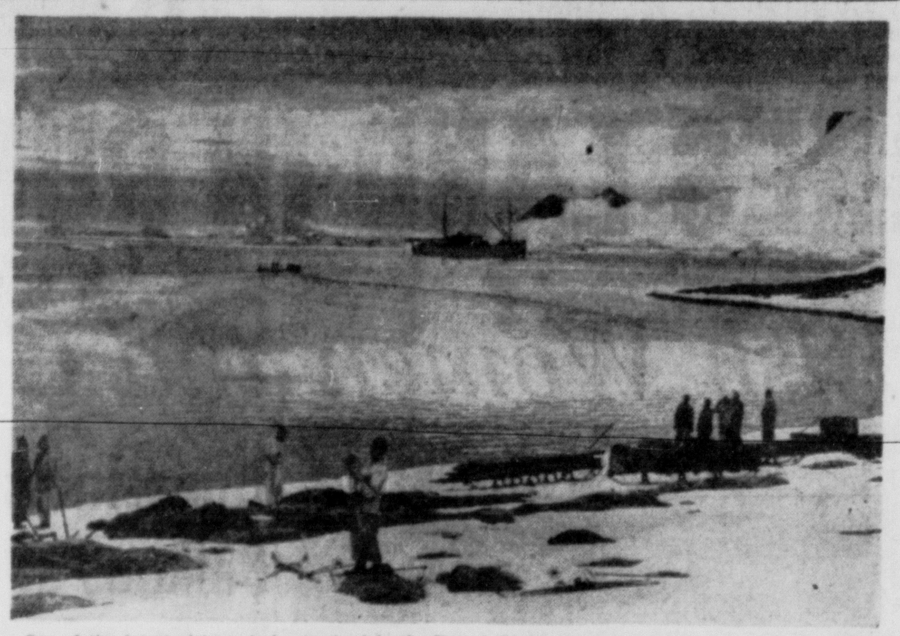

The refugees gave highest praise to the Rumanian officers who, they said, had made unbelievable efforts to save army equipment from the advancing Russians. But the Russian troops moved so far ahead of schedule it was impossible to get out vast quantities of tanks and other military equipment.

Near Chilia Nova, the northern fork of the Danube delta, refugees fleeing down the roads and across the fields were reported by eyewitnesses, who escaped, to have been driven into a vast swamp where some were drowned.

The Red army was reported bringing heavy artillery to the northern bank of the Danube—which they control. No shipping was moving past this point, from where Germany had expected to get vast stores of grain, sugar and other supplies this year.

Wounded Rumanian soldiers, understood to have been felled in fighting with the Russians on the Prut river, arrived in Bucharest by the trainload for hospitalization.

WITH THE BYRD EXPEDITION IN THE ANTARCTIC

One of the latest pictures to be received in the United States from the Admiral Byrd-U. S. Antarctic Service Expedition, this photo shows the supply ship North Star anchored in Marguerite Bay, south of the Antarctic Circle. Site of the expedition's East Base can be seen in foreground as members prepare sleds for overground exploration.

DeGaulle Names Musilier Head of The French Navy

Says He Has Several Ships and Air Groups under His Command

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—General Charles de Gaulle, the French officer who refused to accept France's capitulation to Germany, appointed Vice Admiral Museller tonight as commander of "all free French naval forces," and disclosed that there are "already several ships and air groups under his command."

Museller a collabroator of the old "Tiger of France," Premier Georges Clemenceau, in 1917-18, was captain of fusiliers—French marines—in the defense of Ypres in 1916.

Later he was in charge of naval and coast defenses at Marseille and in post-World War days commanded the second cruiser squadron of the French Mediterranean fleet.

Mueller raced to Paris from Bordeaux when he heard of the impending armistice with Germany. Arriving at almost the same time German troops occupied Paris, he managed to destroy several secret plans and one of the national defense factories.

Then he escaped to Marseille, rallied all the men possible, took over a French warship and went to Gibraltar. The British brought him to London by plane to aid De Gaulle's French national committee to continue the war.

Popular Usher in White House Dies At the Age of 65

Roosevelt and Staff Saddened by Passing of "The Admiral"

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Gloom penetrated the oval office of President Roosevelt and misted the eyes of White House employes today, for word had come that "Pat had gone west."

Patrick McKenna, sixty-five, who had ushered notables into the president's office since the Theodore Roosevelt administration, died from a kidney ailment—just thirty-seven years to the day from the time he joined the White House staff as assistant usher.

President Roosevelt publicly mourned the passing of the short, genial, red-haired chap, whom he sometimes called "The Admiral."

"Because I have always thought of Pat McKenna as one of my oldest friends, I am grieved and shocked by his death," the president said in a statement. "I have known him since the administration of President Theodore Roosevelt and saw much of him in the administration of President Wilson, and finding him here in March, 1933, meant much toward making the task of the presidency more easy.

"Nobody can ever quite replace him."

Pat, as Irish as his name, was born in Monaghan county, Ireland, June 22, 1874. He immigrated to this country when a lad and was working at a club at Oyster Bay, Long Island, when he got the White House job in Teddy Roosevelt's day.

Possessed of a memory like the index of "Who's Who," he knew by face and name more prominent Americans, diplomats and foreign notables than probably anyone else in Washington.

Tilghman Reports

(Continued from Page One)

Willkie possesssed all the qualifications "to meet and defeat Roosevelt or any other Democratic stooge he may set up for the party's presidential nomination."

Rev. Dr. May Addresses Methodist Delegates

WESTMINSTER, Md., July 1 (AP)—Delegates from Maryland, District of Columbia and West Virginia attending the Baltimore conference, Methodist summer school, for leadership training here tonight heard an address by the Rev. Dr. Rolo May, pastor of the First Congregational church, Verona, N. J.

The conference opened here yesterday at Western Maryland college. Its purpose is to provide a more thorough and more practical program of leadership training.

Sessions will continue through Sunday. Approximately twenty persons comprise the faculty.

Tomorrow evening Dr. May will speak on "The Art of Counseling" and Allison Long on "Local Church Social Evening".

Folk games will be staged Wednesday and Thursday will be "banquet evening." Dr. Richard Shipley will give an art lecture Friday evening. Commencement, followed by the communion vesper service and a drama, will be held Saturday.

Ban Is Lifted on Prize Fight Films

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt signed today a bill lifting a 28-year old prohibition against the interstate shipment of prize fight films.

The law which banned such shipments was enacted July 31, 1912, after films showing the fight between the negro boxer, Jack Johnson, and Jim Jefferies, had led to racial feeling.

Two Nazi

(Continued from Page One)

East was taken in order to "set at rest doubts which may be felt in any quarter" after the French commander in the Near East, General Eugene Mittelhauser, declared hostilities ended in Syria.

A foreign office news department statement said:

"His Majesty's government declare that they could not allow Syria or Lebanon to be occupied by any hostile power x x x.

"They therefore hold themselves, free to take whatever measures they may in such circumstances consider necessary in their own interests."

Britain is pledged to defend Turkey, Egypt, Palestine, Transjordan and Iraz in the Near East.

German aerial forays against England and Scotland yesterday and last night were beaten off with little damage, the air ministry said. One German bomber was sent crashing into the sea off northeast England.

Graziani

(Continued from Page One)

Graziani. His early career was in Eritrea and Libya.

He earned a reputation for vigorous methods and tactical skill. Et the start of the Ethiopian war he was placed in command of Italian armies in Somaliland. In this arid, inhospitable expanse, where temperatures rose to 150 degrees at mid-day and troops had scorpions for bedfellows, Graziani's mixed Italian and native army saw some of the bloodiest fighting of the war.

With Ethiopia conquered, Graziana was entrusted with the task of consolidating the victory. He accomplished his mission, but came back to Italy with his body riddled with fragments of a bomb thrown at him in Addis Ababa by a native rebel.

Annenberg Gets

(Continued from Page One)

J. C. Campbell termed the three year penalty "eminently fair." He said that the remaining cases against Annenberg—involving other tax matters, lottery charges and conspiracy to influence a grand jury witness—would be dismiseed.

Nazi Prisoners

(Continued from Page One)

there, clasping hands as they recognized friends in other groups.

A German in brown fatigue jacket, identified by an English lieutenant as a submarine commander, was the first prisoner ashore. Speaking fluent English, he superintended checking the baggage of his fellow-prisoners.

The prisoners included army officers and men in green uniforms, blue-clad aviators, U-boat and tank crews and even parachute troops in black leather trousers and jackets.

Officer-prisoners received the military consideration due their rank. Last off the ship, they were immediately preceded by a fatigue party of their own non-commissioned officers and privates to gather their baggage and carry it to waiting trains. Many wore decorations, one flying officer the Iron Cross.

One complained:

"You English have no system whatever. We should have been off this ship hours ago."

Nazi type salutes were absent, but many an army salute was exchanged.

British officers said the prisoners had been captured in France, the low countries and in Norway and added that some had expressed themselves as "quite pleased" to leave embattled Europe.

Germany Occupies

(Continued from Page One)

all diplomatic missions in Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands by July 15.

All political questions affecting those countries must be taken up through the mission in Berlin.

It was noted that France was exempted from this group; that Denmark, which submitted to Nazi occupation without a struggle, was on a different basis with both diplomatic missions and consulates remaining; and that in Poland, which first felt the Nazi blitzkrieg, consulates as well as diplomatic missions were required to close.

Willkie Plans To Cover Country in Vigorous Drive

Republican Candidate Rids Himself of All Business Connections

By MAX HILL

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — Wendell L. Willkie rid himself of business connections today, said he undoubtedly would campaign from one end of the country to the other and expressed the hope "Mr. Roosevelt is renominated because I'd like to beat him."

The Republican presidential nominee held a press conference in the small, plainly decorated board room of Commonwealth & Southern Corporation in the financial district.

Later, the corporation directors formally announced Willkie had resigned the $75,000-a-year presidency and directorship of the concern, effective July 10. The announcement said also that Willkie would resign all directorships and offices he holds in other companies of the Commonwealth and Southern systems.

Commenting on his move, Willkie said:

"I think I should devote all my time to the campaign."

Jokes with Reporters

Willkie, refreshed by his weekend aboard publisher Roy W. Howard's yacht, bantered with reporters but avoided specific statements on policy.

"I expect in my acceptance speech (in Elwood, Ind.) to give my views and interpret the platform as I see it."

The acceptance probably will be after the Democratic convention in mid-July.

Next on his schedule, he indicated, is a vacation.

Willkie was asked whether John D. M. Hamilton would retain his job as Republican national chairman.

"Don't guess one way or the other," he replied.

Committee Meets Tomorrow

A sub-committee of twelve members of the National Committee meets in New York Wednesday to discuss the chairmanship, which also probably was a topic at Willkie's luncheon with Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota.

The nominee dismissed all criticisms of him by Democrats in Washington with:

"Those statements make me feel just wonderful. The boys down there must have the jitters."

Once when the name of President Roosevelt came up, Willkie was asked about the visit to the White House for conference, suggested last week. He said he had heard nothing further about it.

He smiled, adding:

"As I understand the rule you just don't break into the White House until you are elected."

France's Defeat

(Continued from Page One)

divisions fought there in 1940, as against 85 British divisions in 1918; and the Italian divisions which might have immobilized an equal number of German divisions at the Brenner frontier, were this time on the enemy's side, immobilizing French divisions on the Alpine border.

As for lack of equipment: This weakness unfortunately was greatest in aviation and tanks—precisely the arms in which Germany excelled and on which she based the blitzkrieg.

Marshal Petain admitted Gergan air superiority was 6-to-1. I saw, repeatedly, three or four French fighters rise to attack massed squadrons of sixty to eighty German bombers protected by forty to sixty chasers.

The Germans could hurl 300 and 400 planes against a five-mile French sector. The entire French attack aviation numbered only 510 planes.

Germany's tanks were concentrated against narrow sectors to gain maximum effect. The French scattered theirs all along the front—and they had scarcely half as many tanks as the Germans, to begin with; perhaps 2,500 tanks against a probable 6,000 thrown into the battle of France by Hitler.

Nevertheless, the French fought bravely. Brutally awakened from the dream of stationary war in a stream-lined Maginot habitation, they faced their enemy, took terrific punishment and died gamely.

Townsend

(Continued from Page One)

peace comes to Europe, Dr. Townsend said:

"There will be more millions without jobs than we can imagine. x x x It is not too much to state that we may look for at least 21,000,000 men parading the streets without means of sustenance. x x x the threat of bloody revolution would be on our hands."

"There is an answer," he asserted—his "Townsend National Recovery Plan," which proposed a pay-as-you go old-age pension plan, financed by a two percent federal gross income tax.

The delegates at the convention of Townsend clubs—a shirt-sleeved, cotton-dressed gathering of eldrely persons—cheering during the keynote address. They had greeted his appearance with a song, "Hello, Dr. Townsend, How Are You?"

Ben Turpin Dies In Hollywood at The Age of 71

Funny Man of the Movies First Played with Charlie Chaplin

BY HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD, JULY 1—(AP)—Ben Turpin, the funny little guy with the crossed eyes who always maintained he could do a "108" better than anybody else, died today after a stroke.

He was seventy-one years old, although kindly biographers through the years always made him six years younger.

A "108" is a somersault from a standing still start. Ben made such somersaults, and himself, famous because he didn't come out of them on his feet as others did. He always fell on his face or his head or some other unconventional part of his wiry body.

Ben started in the movies more than a quarter of a century ago, at the old Essenay in Chicago. He had been in burlesque and vaudeville when Bronco Billy Anderson began making pictures. Ben's first film started Charlie Chaplin. Charlie knocked Ben all over the studio with two-by-fours. And props weren't made of balsa wood in those days, either.

Ben came west about 1914 and soon he was working in Mack Sennett's Keystone comedies.

He appeared in good health last year, when he was in "Hollywood Cavalcade," but his physician said today he had been suffering from asthma for several years.

Turpin was born in 1869 in New Orleans and he began acting in the window of his father's candy store, where he pulled taffy. He so amused customers that he decided then he'd be an actor.

Rumania Breakup

(Continued from Page One)

—appeared to be "on the threshold of collapse."

Responsible quarters said Germany and Italy still were striving to maintain peace in southeastern Europe, but the feeling was widespread that military action was imminent.

General mobilization was believed near after an "incident" on the frontier, in which three civilians were reported killed.

Official reports alleged Rumanian troops had penetrated Hungarian territory at Visk, but were driven back after an exchange of shots.

Reservists flocked to mobilization centers. A full army corps was advancing toward the Rumanian border, officials confirmed.

Restrictions were placed on the sale of alcoholic drinks and on railway travel, because of "unforseen technical reasons." Tomorrow Budapest's buses will be off the streets, apparently because they are needed for troop transport.

Many Refuse To Fight

In its reports from Transylvania (half Hungarian in population, according to Budapest) the semi-official Hungarian news agency spoke of urgently needed protection for Magyars. Thousands of Hungarian-born Rumanian soldiers in Transylvania are refusing to fight for Rumania, dispatches added, and the number of deserters was growing hourly.

The government has reiterated often that a Rumanian collapse would call for immediate entry of the Hungarian army into Transylvania to protect the Magyar minority of nearly 2,000,000.

It was no secret here that the Russian army's overstepping of the line of demarcation fixed in the Moscow ultimatum to Rumania is causing considerable worry for Hungarian officials as well as their German and Italian friends.

In official circles it has long been emphasized that Hungary would be forced to seize the Carpathian mountain barrier in Transylvania for "self protection" should the Red army persist in advancing toward the Danube basin. Support of the Rome-Berlin axis was claimed in this plan.

Transylvania, rich agricultural province, was part of Austria-Hungary before the World War.

The official Hungarian news agency said the Russians already have gone beyond the agreed limits.

All of the province of Bucovina has been lost by Rumania, the agency said, as well as Bessarabia. Banking and communications have been disrupted and private life interfered with.

"For centuries," said the foreign office, Hungary "has fought and bled for the western Latin culture."

Meanwhile Russia's intentions in the Balkans remained somewhat uncertain.

(A Moscow report said Russian occupation of Bessarabia caused manifestations of joy.

(In Bucharest dispatches the Soviet occupation of Danube river points was viewed as putting Red troops in a position to cut off German access to the Black Sea by river.)

Balkan capitals took the view that Russia is endeavoring to make the utmost of the opportunity to extend its sphere of influence while Germany and Italy are busy in the west.

Weather in Nearby States

West Virginia: Generally fair except light showers in extreme south portion today. Wednesday mostly cloudy, showers in south portion, not much change in temperature.

Western Pennsylvania: Generally fair today and Wednesday, little change in temperature.

MEXICO PAYS

Secretary of State Hull (left) receives from Mexican Ambassador Francisco Castillo Najera in Washington a check for $1,000,000. It is the second installment in settlement of claims by Americans whose properties have been seized by Mexico under its land division program.

Lana Turner and Artie Shaw Deny Marital Trouble

But Reports Persist Their Short Marriage Is on the Rocks

By FRANKLIN ARTHUR

HOLLYWOOD, July 1 (AP)—Lana Turner and Artie Shaw, who disagreed the day they met, still disagreed today—over whether their four-and-a-half month's old marriage is on the rocks.

The pretty little red head disclosed she had left the dark and moody bandmaster and moved to an apartment. To which Shaw retorted:

"There's nothing to it. We were out together last night and we are still living together."

Lana, whose "sweater personality" has made her a favorite of cameramen, begged off going into details. But close friends said she already has consulted an attorney.

Hollywood was almost as agog at the separation reports as it was the morning last February when the news broke suddenly that they had eloped overnight to Las Vegas, Nev.

The Wallace, Idaho, girl who was plucked from the halls of Hollywood high school to movie stardom met the one-time idol of jitterbugs last year on the set of "Dancing Co-Ed." They quarreled immediately and displayed intense dislike for each other throughout the production.

But one night not long after, they started to a party and ended up on the Nevada-bound plane.

Around the tea tables, the talk was that Lana had wed on the rebound of a tiff with Gregson Bautzer, young attorney to whom she had been engaged for months. Bautzer disclaimed knowledge of the separation today, but remarked:

"As an old family friend, I'm naturally interested."

Record Order for Warships Placed By the Navy Dept.

Forty-five Ships Will B Built at Cost of $500,000,000

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The navy placed the biggest order in history today—for forty-five new warships to cost about $500,000,000—just two hours after President Roosevelt signed legislation to speed up contract-letting and shipbuilding.

At the same time the army promoted 1,350 regular officers and called the first of 9,000 reserve officers to active duty for intensive specialized training while the president discussed with defense advisors a program for further army expansions with emphasis on mechanization.

Two new agencies set up by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation arranged to buy 150,000 tons of rubber and 75,000 tons of tin for reserve stocks.

And work has started on a third set of locks for the Panama Canal.

The navy, in its fourth contract-letting within three weeks, ordered eleven cruisers, twenty destroyers thirteen submarines an done large seaplane tender—193,000 tons of warships. This brought to 150 the number of vessels now under construction or soon to be started. Additional contracts are to be awarded shortly for three airplane carriers and two more cruisers.

The contracts were negotiated without competitive biddings as authorized by the new speed-up legislation. The new act also permits the president to increase the work-week in shipyards above forty-eight hours.

Officials estimated that the elimination of the competitive bidding requirement would save $16,000,000 to $17,000,000 on the contracts let today and that the time required to build a vessel could be reduced twenty percent if full twenty-four hour shifts were used.

Demands Extra Shifts

Senator Connally (D-Tex) introduced a resolution during the day which would make it the sense of the Senate that the war and navy departments insist upon contractors using extra shifts.

"Time is of the essence," he said in a statement. "Plenty of labor is available. The program affords an excellent opportunity to train semi-skilled labor into the highest character of skilled labor."

The rubber and tin will be purchased by separate corporations which the RFC set up Friday, Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator, announced. They were capitalized at $5,000,000 each. Authority for their creation was contained in an act which the president signed last Tuesday.

The rubber company has agreed with the international rubber regulation committee to buy 150,000 tons at eighteen cents to twenty cents a pound, two cents below today's market price.

The tin company has agreed with the international tin committee to purchase 75,000 tons at 50 cents a pound. It also will acquire Manganese and other strategic raw materials.

SMART WOMEN'S SHOP

Brings you more

"Bamboo Sheers"

a brand new sheer shantung print — cool and delightful as a frosted drink!

SIZES

16½ to 24½—38 to 44

$8.98

The fabric that has zoomed to success! You'll like it for its cool, cool touch . . . its adaptability for town or country . . . its resistance to mussing and crushing which makes it a pleasure to pack. Navy, Aqua, Rose, Powder and Green.

Exclusive in Cumberland with

AIR-CONDITIONED MARTIN'S

thirty-three north liberty

Make Hay When You Like, Not When the Sun's Willing

By S. G. BLACKMAN
AP Feature Service Writer

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—That old maxim, "Make hay while the sun shines," isn't as all-important to the farmer now as it once was.

There was a time when he had to cut his hay with one eye on the sky in an effort to beat the oncoming storm and get it in the mow dry. Hay improperly cured and with too much moisture content got moldy and created a fire hazard.

The farmer doesn't have to wait on the weather altogether for his hay crop now. He can make "grass silage" from an uncured crop, whether it be timothy, alfalfa or oats. It is preserved in the silo with molasses — a minimum of 40 pounds a ton for cereals, 80 to 100 pounds for green material.

C. B. Bender, professor of dairy husbandry at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, said that "the legumes, grasses or cereals may be cut when they are high in nutrients, thus insuring good quality roughage. Surplus early pasture may be preserved for feeding at a later date."

Experiments with "grass silage" were begun at Rutgers nine years ago, but until 1926 the term was virtually meaningless to the farmer.

Storm's Coming. Giddyap!

Bender at present is conducting experiments to study the effect on the animal system of the grass silage and to determine the nutritive effects of the various acids formed in the process.

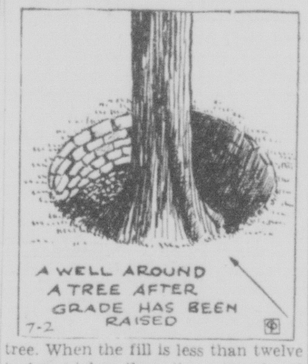

"Best quality of milk, from the standpoint of flavor and color, is produced by cows fed on grass silage," he said. "If cows are fed on second-cutting alfalfa, they will give summer milk in the winter. That is, the milk will have a color and desirable flavor that has heretofore only been produced by cows fed on the highest quality of pasture."

Greater use of grass silage will result, Bender believes, in fewer spontaneous combustion fires, which do $150,000,000 worth of damage yearly to farm property. Grass silage, because of its high water content, will not burn.

TODAY'S GARDENGRAPH

By DEAN HALLIDAY
(Distributed by Central Press Association)

Frequently when building, it becomes necessary to change the grade line about a healthy, well-established tree. When the fill is less than twelve inches higher than the original soil level, the tree can be protected by putting a layer of course gravel over the soil surface holding the tree. This layer of gravel should extend just beyond the branch spread. Topsoil can then be spread over the gravel and soil blanket on which to grow grass. This layer of soil, however, should be kept at least fifteen inches away from the tree trunk.

When the fill about a tree is more than foot deep, a well should be built around the tree's trunk, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. The well should be as large as possible in diameter in order to permit air to circulate about the trunk of the tree. In a few years the roots of the tree will come to the surface and then it will be possible to fill the well with soil up to the desired grade level.

Farmer Raising New Kind of Wheat

LEONARDTOWN, Md., July 1 (AP)—Charles Knott, of Sotterley, on the Patuxent river, is raising a new kind of wheat.

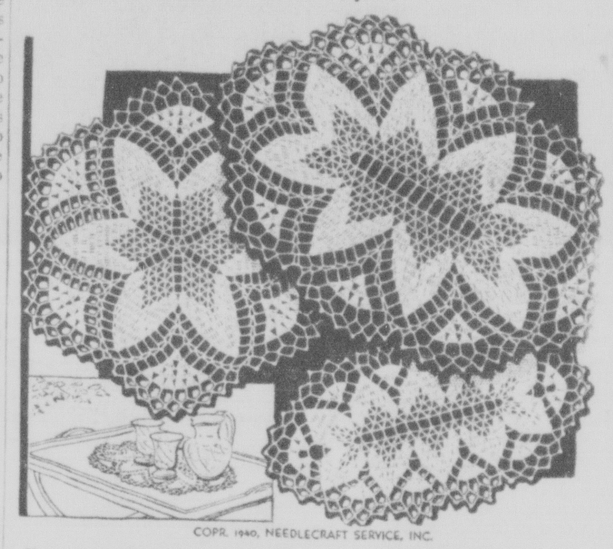

Its husk is redish in color. The head of the wheat is larger than ordinary and contains from forty-eight to fifty-three gains. Regular wheat contains twenty-five to thirty grains per head.

Knott began experimenting with wheat heads three years ago. Last fall he got a pint of the larger and more productive wheat and planted it among his regualr crop.

It is now ready to be cut and thrashed. Its redish husk contrasts sharply with the regular golden-yellow crop.

Experts at the University of Maryland, after examining the new wheat, were unable to determine its kind, name or origin. "They advised knott to continue his experiments.

Matching Laura Wheeler Doilies Varied in Size and Shape

COPR. 1940, NEEDLECRAFT SERVICE, INC.

You can make these doilies—suitable for tray cloths, bread trays, tables, luncheon sets—each in two different sizes depending on the thread you use. Pattern 2591 contains directions for making doilies; illustrations of them and stitches; materials required.

Send ten cents in coin for this pattern to The Cumberland News, Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly Pattern Number, your Name and Address.

Smart Casual-Wear Shirtfrock

Marian Martin

PATTERN 9395

Every well-dressed woman endorses the shirtwaister as the one style that travels 'round the clock and 'round the calendar with perfect smartness. You'll always feel "right" in this Marian Martin shirtfrock. Pattern 9395. That double front skirt panel is accented by novelty pocket flaps. Have the sleeves short and straight, or make brief, cool cap sleeves. The bodice is yoked clear around to hold in the full-cut, gathered lines below. Isn't the collar youthful—it may match or contrast the frock. Glove stitching makes a nice finishing note on this attractive, wear-everywhere frock.

Pattern 9395 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3¼ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents in coins of this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.

The new Marian Martin pattern book is your key to Summer fashion success. Cool, flattering modes that will take you 'round the clock through shopping, gardening, swimming, golfing, dancing. There are blithe styles for sheers and cottons, slimming matron dresses, travel tips, wedding party costumes and . . . a whole section of young-world playsuits and dresses . . . available in smart, easy-to-sew patterns that can be made at home in a few hours. Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Send your order to the Cumberland News, Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

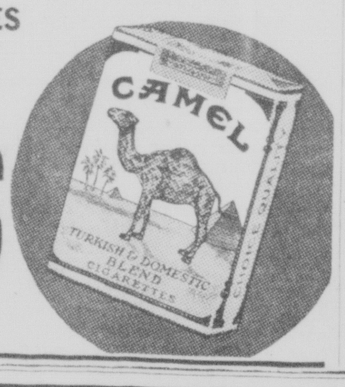

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

WITH SLOWER-BURNING

CAMELS

THE CIGARETTE OF COSTLIER TOBACCOS

LISTEN! . . . are YOU missin' something

GOOD?

TRY AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD

This New Old Fashion Recipe Loaf Has Your Neighbors Askin' For More!

Most all your neighbors are a-praisin' this new old-fashion' sensation . . . AUNT HATTIE'S Bread. They say there's a happy dream of rare old-time goodness in your first big smooth slice of AUNT HATTIE'S Bread. And the second slice wakes you up, lips a-smackin', for more. That's how satisfying AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD is!

You see, AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD is really different. It's baked carefully for a long time, and when it comes out of the oven, its crisp, crunchy crust fairly bursts with goodness.

When you and your family gather 'round to enjoy AUNT HATTIE'S Bread, you begin to realize what good things went into the makin's of this old-fashion' masterpiece. You'll notice that sandwich spreads, and other foods, too, perk up and fairly sing their succulence when AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD is on your table. Yes, AUNT HATTIE'S Bread sort of "touches off" their natural goodness.

Listen! You just can't get along without this M-M-Masterpiece of old-fashion' goodness any longer. AUNT HATTIE'S Bread is at your grocery store, NOW, and its goodness is sealed fresh in sparkling cellophane.

SOLD ONLY AT YOUR GROCER

This loaf is made with my own genuine recipe . . .

Aunt Hattie

AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD

IT'S SURE TO PLEASE 'EM

A Dazzling Display of HOLIDAY SAVINGS

Our market fairly sparkles with savings as we celebrate the Fourth with a Bang! Scores and scores of super-values are displayed for quick, easy shopping for a Holiday dinner or a picnic lunch. Shop here today! Your declaration of independence from budget bugaboo is written in our low, low prices.

SWEET RED RIPE WATERMELONS 39c

U. S. NO. 1 NEW POTATOES 15 Lb. Peck 25c

Fresh Ground Hamburg	lb.	16c
Center Cut Pork Chops	lb.	21c
Domino XXXX Sugar	1-lb. pkg.	6c
Gold Medal Flour	24 lb. bag	89c
Crispo Fig Bars	2 lb. pkg.	17c
Maxwell House Coffee	2 lb. can	45c
Crisco or Spry	3 lb. can	45c
Pure Lard	3 1-lb. pkgs.	22c

Kraft's Cheese — Velveeta - Brick, Pimento Velveeta, White American, Colored American — 2 lb. loaf 45c

PICKLES — Dill or Sour — 2 quart jar 21c

Community SUPER MARKET
30 WINEOW ST. FREE PARKING!

OLD HOME BUMPER BREAD
Is Necessary For a
Successful Picnic

Picnics are fun! And they're especially so if the weather is sunny and the picnic site is ideal. However, it's the food that's the most important requisite of ANY PICNIC!

Ask Your Grocer For

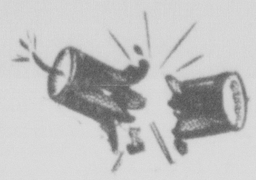

OLD HOME BUMPER BREAD SANDWICH LOAF

Baked By

Community Baking Co.

Rosenbaum's

Store Opens 9:30 Daily This Week As The Installation of Our New Flooring Nears Completion

July 4th Coming Up!

"Oh, say can't you see . . .

Rosenbaum's Is The Place To Start A Swell Vacation!

Tuesday — 9:30 to 11 A. M. Only!

Entire Stock $1.00 Lingerie

Lace trimmed and tailored styles; tearose or white shades; all sizes. Extraordinary reduction from 9:30 to 11 a. m. Tuesday only! 69c

Lingerie—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday — 11 A. M. to 1 P. M. Only!

Children's Summer Pajamas

Reg. 69c 2 for $1 Reg. $1.00 74c

Washable, cool, krinkle Krepe and batiste in sizes 2 to 8 and 10 to 16 years! Tuesday only 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.!

Youth Center—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday — 1 P. M. to 3 P. M. Only!

Girl's $1.00 Cool Sportswear

Regular stock group including shorts, shirts, slacks, etc. Sizes 10 to 16 years. Tuesday only 1 to 3 p. m.! each 69c

Youth Center—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday — 3 P. M. to 5 P. M. Only!

Entire Stock $5 Mesh Corsets

Many famous makes included! Girdles and foundations of breeze-sifting mesh! All sizes! Tuesday only 3 to 5 p. m.! $3.00

Corsets—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

On Sale All Day Tuesday!

Clearance! Bamboo Shades

6-Ft. Green or Natural $1.28 7-Ft. Green $1.48

ALL 6 FEET LONG!

Awnings—Third Floor—Rosenbaum's

On Sale All Day Tuesday!

26-Piece Silverplate Set

INCLUDES:
6—Stainless Steel Knifes
6—Forks
6—Teaspoons
6—Dessert Spoons
1—Sugar Shell
1—Butter Knife
1—Heavy Chest; Colorful Rayon Lining!

$3.39 Set

Silverware—Fourth Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

Group $1 Gloves 49c Pr.

Fabrics and lace; brown, pink, yellow, beige, navy, white.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

Two Suiter Cases $4.25

Men's $9 2-suiters; black or brown! Just 6!

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

Week - End Cases $2.98

Women's $4 aero-canvas covered cases; 21-inch size.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

25c Print Hankies 14c

Colorful prints on fine lawn; all with rolled hems.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

$1.00 Handbags 33c

Some slightly soiled; washable whites and pastels.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

79c Silk Hosiery 59c 2 prs. $1.10

Famous Berkshire sheers in summer shades.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Make Hay When You Like, Not When the Sun's Willing

By S. G. BLACKMAN
AP Feature Service Writer

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—That old maxim, "Make hay while the sun shines," isn't as all-important to the farmer now as it once was.

There was a time when he had to cut his hay with one eye on the sky in an effort to beat the oncoming storm and get it in the mow dry. Hay improperly cured and with too much moisture content got moldy and created a fire hazard.

The farmer doesn't have to wait on the weather altogether for his hay crop now. He can make "grass silage" from an uncured crop, whether it be timothy, alfalfa or oats. It is preserved in the silo with molasses — a minimum of 40 pounds a ton for cereals, 80 to 100 pounds for green material.

C. B. Bender, professor of dairy husbandry at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, said that "the legumes, grasses or cereals may be cut when they are high in nutrients, thus insuring good quality roughage. Surplus early pasture may be preserved for feeding at a later date."

Experiments with "grass silage" were begun at Rutgers nine years ago, but until 1926 the term was virtually meaningless to the farmer.

Storm's Coming. Giddyap!

Bender at present is conducting experiments to study the effect on the animal system of the grass silage and to determine the nutritive effects of the various acids formed in the process.

"Best quality of milk, from the standpoint of flavor and color, is produced by cows fed on grass silage," he said. "If cows are fed on second-cutting alfalfa, they will give summer milk in the winter. That is, the milk will have a color and desirable flavor that has heretofore only been produced by cows fed on the highest quality of pasture."

Greater use of grass silage will result, Bender believes, in fewer spontaneous combustion fires, which do $150,000,000 worth of damage yearly to farm property. Grass silage, because of its high water content, will not burn.

TODAY'S GARDENGRAPH

By DEAN HALLIDAY
(Distributed by Central Press Association)

Frequently when building, it becomes necessary to change the grade line about a healthy, well-established

tree. When the fill is less than twelve inches higher than the original soil level, the tree can be protected by putting a layer of course gravel over the soil surface holding the tree. This layer of gravel should extend just beyond the branch spread. Topsoil can then be spread over the gravel and soil blanket on which to grow grass. This layer of soil, however, should be kept at least fifteen inches away from the tree trunk.

When the fill about a tree is more than foot deep, a well should be built around the tree's trunk, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. The well should be as large as possible in diameter in order to permit air to circulate about the trunk of the tree. In a few years the roots of the tree will come to the surface and then it will be possible to fill the well with soil up to the desired grade level.

Farmer Raising New Kind of Wheat

LEONARDTOWN, Md., July 1 (AP)—Charles Knott, of Sotterley, on the Patuxent river, is raising a new kind of wheat.

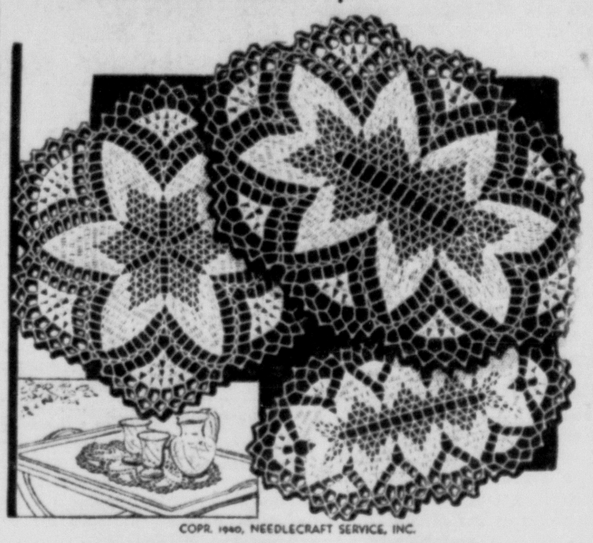

Its husk is redish in color. The head of the wheat is larger than ordinary and contains from forty-eight to fifty-three gains. Regular wheat contains twenty-five to thirty grains per head.

Knott began experimenting with wheat heads three years ago. Last fall he got a pint of the larger and more productive wheat and planted it among his regualr crop.

It is now ready to be cut and thrashed. Its redish husk contrasts sharply with the regular golden-yellow crop.

Experts at the University of Maryland, after examining the new wheat, were unable to determine its kind, name or origin. "They advised knott to continue his experiments.

Matching Laura Wheeler Doilies Varied in Size and Shape

COPR. 1940, NEEDLECRAFT SERVICE, INC.

You can make these doilies—suitable for tray cloths, bread trays, tables, luncheon sets—each in two different sizes depending on the thread you use. Pattern 2591 contains directions for making doilies; illustrations of them and stitches; materials required.

Send ten cents in coin for this pattern to The Cumberland News, Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly Pattern Number, your Name and Address.

Smart Casual-Wear Shirtfrock

Marian Martin

PATTERN 9395

Every well-dressed woman endorses the shirtwaister as the one style that travels 'round the clock and 'round the calendar with perfect smartness. You'll always feel "right" in this Marian Martin shirtfrock. Pattern 9395. That double front skirt panel is accented by novelty pocket flaps. Have the sleeves short and straight, or make brief, cool cap sleeves. The bodice is yoked clear around to hold in the full-cut, gathered lines below. Isn't the collar youthful—it may match or contrast the frock. Glove stitching makes a nice finishing note on this attractive, wear-everywhere frock.

Pattern 9395 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3¼ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents in coins of this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.

The new Marian Martin pattern book is your key to Summer fashion success. Cool, flattering modes that will take you 'round the clock through shopping, gardening, swimming, golfing, dancing. There are blithe styles for sheers and cottons, slimming matron dresses, travel tips, wedding party costumes and . . . a whole section of young-world playsuits and dresses . . . available in smart, easy-to-sew patterns that can be made at home in a few hours. Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Send your order to the Cumberland News, Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

WITH SLOWER-BURNING

CAMELS

THE CIGARETTE OF COSTLIER TOBACCOS

LISTEN! . . . are YOU missin' something

GOOD?

TRY AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD

This New Old Fashion Recipe Loaf Has Your Neighbors Askin' For More!

Most all your neighbors are a-praisin' this new old-fashion' sensation . . . AUNT HATTIE'S Bread. They say there's a happy dream of rare old-time goodness in your first big smooth slice of AUNT HATTIE'S Bread. And the second slice wakes you up, lips a-smackin', for more. That's how satisfying AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD is!

You see, AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD is really different. It's baked carefully for a long time, and when it comes out of the oven, its crisp, crunchy crust fairly bursts with goodness.

When you and your family gather 'round to enjoy AUNT HATTIE'S Bread, you begin to realize what good things went into the makin's of this old-fashion' masterpiece. You'll notice that sandwich spreads, and other foods, too, perk up and fairly sing their succulence when AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD is on your table. Yes, AUNT HATTIE'S Bread sort of "touches off" their natural goodness.

Listen! You just can't get along without this M-M-Masterpiece of old-fashion' goodness any longer. AUNT HATTIE'S Bread is at your grocery store, NOW, and its goodness is sealed fresh in sparkling cellophane.

SOLD ONLY AT YOUR GROCER

This loaf is made with my own genuine recipe . . .

Aunt Hattie

AUNT HATTIE'S BREAD

IT'S SURE TO PLEASE 'EM

Our market fairly sparkles with savings as we celebrate the Fourth with a Bang! Scores and scores of super-values are displayed for quick, easy shopping for a Holiday dinner or a picnic lunch. Shop here today! Your declaration of independence from budget bugaboo is written in our low, low prices.

SWEET RED RIPE
WATERMELONS 39c

U. S. NO. 1 NEW
U. S. No. 1 NEW POTATOES 15 Lb. Peck 25c

Fresh Ground Hamburg lb. 16c
Center Cut Pork Chops lb. 21c
Domino XXXX Sugar 1-lb. pkg. 6c
Gold Medal Flour 24 lb. bag 89c
Crispo Fig Bars 2 lb. pkg. 17c
Maxwell House Coffee 2 lb. can 45c
Crisco or Spry 3 lb. can 45c
Pure Lard 3 1-lb. pkgs. 22c

Kraft's Cheese
Velveeta - Brick
Pimento Velveeta
White American
Colored Americap
2 lb. loaf 45c

PICKLES
Dill or Sour
2 quart jar 21c

Community SUPER MARKET
30 WINEOW ST. FREE PARKING!

OLD HOME BUMPER BREAD
Is Necessary For a
Successful Picnic

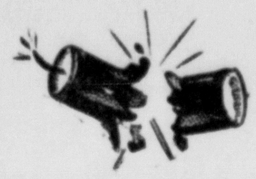

Picnics are fun! And they're especially so if the weather is sunny and the picnic site is ideal. However, it's the food that's the most important requisite of ANY PICNIC!

Ask Your Grocer For OLD HOME BUMPER BREAD SANDWICH LOAF
Baked By Community Baking Co.

Rosenbaum's

Store Opens 9:30 Daily This Week As The Installation of Our New Flooring Nears Completion

July 4th Coming Up!

"Oh, say can't you see . . .

Rosenbaum's Is The Place To Start A Swell Vacation!

Tuesday — 9:30 to 11 A. M. Only!

Entire Stock $1.00 Lingerie

Lace trimmed and tailored styles; tearose or white shades; all sizes. Extraordinary reduction from 9:30 to 11 a. m. Tuesday only! 69c

Lingerie—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday — 11 A. M. to 1 P. M. Only!

Children's Summer Pajamas

Reg. 69c 2 for $1 Reg. $1.00 74c

Washable, cool, krinkle Krepe and batiste in sizes 2 to 8 and 10 to 16 years! Tuesday only 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.!

Youth Center—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday — 1 P. M. to 3 P. M. Only!

Girl's $1.00 Cool Sportswear

Regular stock group including shorts, shirts, slacks, etc. Sizes 10 to 16 years. Tuesday only 1 to 3 p. m.! each 69c

Youth Center—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday — 3 P. M. to 5 P. M. Only!

Entire Stock $5 Mesh Corsets

Many famous makes included! Girdles and foundations of breeze-sifting mesh! All sizes! Tuesday only 3 to 5 p. m.! $3.00

Corsets—Second Floor—Rosenbaum's

On Sale All Day Tuesday!

Clearance! Bamboo Shades

6-Ft. Green or Natural $1.28 7-Ft. Green $1.48

ALL 6 FEET LONG!
Awnings—Third Floor—Rosenbaum's

On Sale All Day Tuesday!

26-Piece Silverplate Set

INCLUDES:
6—Stainless Steel Knifes
6—Forks
6—Teaspoons
6—Dessert Spoons
1—Sugar Shell
1—Butter Knife
1—Heavy Chest; Colorful Rayon Lining!

$3.39 Set

Silverware—Fourth Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

Group $1 Gloves 49c Pr.

Fabrics and lace; brown, pink, yellow, beige, navy, white.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

Two Suiter Cases $4.25

Men's $9 2-suiters; black or brown! Just 6!

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

Week - End Cases $2.98

Women's $4 aero-canvas covered cases; 21-inch size.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

25c Print Hankies 14c

Colorful prints on fine lawn; all with rolled hems.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

$1.00 Handbags 33c

Some slightly soiled; washable whites and pastels.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

Tuesday Only!

79c Silk Hosiery 59c 2 prs. $1.10

Famous Berkshire sheers in summer shades.

Main Floor—Rosenbaum's

The Cumberland News

Published every weekday morning, excepting holidays, at 7 and 9 South Mechanic Street, Cumberland, Maryland, by The Times and Alleganian Company.

Entered as second class mail matter at Cumberland, Md.

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches are also reserved.

TERMS—By carrier in city, 15 cents per week.
BY MAIL—First, second, third and fourth Postal Zones one month 60c; six months $2.00; one year $8.00.
Fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth Postal Zones: One month $1.00; six months $5.00; one year $10.00.

National Advertising Representative: J. P. Devine and Associates, Inc., New York, 1032 Chrysler Bldg.; Chicago, 307 N. Michigan Ave.; Detroit, 817 New Center Bldg.; Atlanta, 1301 Palmer Bldg.; Pittsburgh, 488 Oliver Bldg.; Syracuse, State Tower Bldg.

TELEPHONES

William L. Geppert, Managing Editor	23
Editorial and News	1122
Advertising (General)	1121
Advertising (Want Ads)	122
Sports Editor	2212
Circulation Department	149
Business Office	1022
Frostburg Office	85
Lonaconing Office	99

Tuesday Morning, July 2, 1940

Retrenchment Now A Necessity

THE FINANCES of the United States Government are honeycombed with waste and extravagance. Like a clap of thunder, the booming of guns in Europe warns the American people of dangers ahead. Enormous sums are needed for national defense. The Treasury is empty; the government owes $45,000,000,000 and is running further into debt at the rate of $2,700,000,000 a year.

Congress meets this situation by authorizing an addition to the debt up to $49,000,000,000, and imposing a tax that will yield $1,000,000,000 a year for five years to take care of defense expenditures.

The people approve of immediate defense preparations and cheerfully face added taxes for that purpose.

If the government were now lopping off all waste and extravagance, and spending extra money solely for defense preparations, the practical people of the United States would be disposed to say, "Past extravagance is water over the dam. Never mind debt or the cost of preparedness. Go ahead!"

But the bitter truth is that New Deal waste and extravagance are still running wild. The cost of this unnecessary spending is greater than the cost of national defense. The backs of taxpayers are not relieved of any peace-time burden as they bend to carry the extra cost of defense.

The peace-time spending by the New Deal at this time, not counting defense spending, is $2,700,000,000 a year more than the revenue. In less than two years the new debt limit will be reached by peace-time New Deal spending. The fiat has gone forth by the dictator of the New Deal: "No retrenchment!"

If the American people are not to have their property swept away they must command Congress to put a stop to New Deal extravagance at this critical time when billions must be spent for national survival.

Since the New Deal dictator is committed to the ruinous extravagance program, it is necessary for the people to place in the White House a man who will restore the financial stability of the nation.

Let Us Be More Careful This Fourth of July

COMES NOW the annual celebration of Independence day, and as it promises to be especially expressive of patriotic impulses, thoughts of the accident menace are in order as a sort of precautionary preview.

July itself is a month of danger, by reason of the fact that the warmer weather takes so many thousands away from homes in search of amusement and recreation. According to the National Safety Council, the nation last year piled up a July record of 8,800 dead and 800,000 injured, at a money cost of $300,000,000 — an appalling summary.

But the Independence day celebration accounts for the major part of that deplorable record of death, injury and cost. The Fourth of July is a day of fun, but the fifth is a sad day of reckoning; and it is ironical that this bondage to suffering and tragedy comes as the country observes the birth of its independence.

"This mass slaughter on Independence day can be stopped," states a resolution of the council, "if every one of us uses caution and common sense. The things that cause these tragedies are things we can control—haste, selfishness, thoughtlessness, the desire to show off.

"The Council calls on all America to join in a new Declaration of Independence—independence from annual tribute of thousands of lives needlessly sacrificed.

"It asks Americans to remember that it is not only ironic but cruel to celebrate the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness by bringing about death, disability and tragedy.

"Life is cheap today on the battlefields of the world, but it is still precious in America!"

Sound and timely advice, indeed. Perhaps the keynote of it is contained in the suggestion about the desire to "show off." Let us all try to be a little less "smart-alecky" and a bit more careful this Independence day.

Marylanders for the Hall of Fame

THAT Maryland looms large in the history of the country is shown by the fact that the names of eight prominent state personages appear on the ballot for the ninth quinquennial election to the Hall of Fame on the campus of New York university.

These names have been sent to the 110 members of the College of Electors for consideration, having been nominated by prominent citizens and patriotic organizations and seconded by the university senate. The College of Electors, consisting of leaders of public opinion from every state in the union, will vote for candidates early this fall. The ballot will contain the names of 141 nominees, and each elector may vote for eighteen candidates. The choice of a name for inclusion in Stanford White's imposing colonnade on a hill overlooking New York city requires a three-fifths vote of the entire College of Electors.

The Marylanders included on the ballot are Cecilius Calvert, second Lord Baltimore, who received the province in 1632, as a grant from the king; Charles Carroll, native of Annapolis, active leader in the American Revolution, member of Congress and signer of the Declaration of Independence; Frederick Douglass, son of a slave, noted orator and abolitionist; John Hanson, native of Charles county, who served as the first president of the United States "in Congress assembled"; Johns Hopkins, financier and philanthropist; Francis Scott Key, native of Carroll county, author of "The Star Spangled Banner"; Winfield Scott Schley, native of Frederick and commander of the fleet at the Battle of Santiago; Rogert Brooke Taney, native of Calvert county, chief-justice of the United States for nearly three decades and author of many important decisions.

Which of these illustrious Marylanders would you vote for as first choice, second and third?

The Independence That Comes from Chemistry

AN OUTSTANDING DEMONSTRATION og the advancebent of chemistry in recent years is to be noted in the big textile industry here in Cumberland. As a matter of fact, a new independence has been created for the United States in the test tubes of the chemists, an independence of foreign sources for certain basic materials.

As scientists bend to their task of research each day brings us closer to the time when we shall no longer have to speak of "vital interests" in the Far East or elsewhere which might have to be defended by force to keep necessary raw materials coming in. Production has actually begun on a new synthetic "rubber" made entirely of domestic materials, and by fall a new plant will be producing several tons of Ameripol each day. The basic source is petroleum.

As noted by an exchange, there is not a single vitally important chemical that cannot now be produced in the United States, a situation diametrically opposite to that which existed when war swept Europe a quarter of a century ago and we were drawn into it. Plastics and resins are being developed into many practical uses, airplane fuselages and wings already being shaped from such materials.

Indeed, a whole new world is flowering from these test tubes of the chemists. As the development goes on, there will be lesser need for the grasping competetive rush for raw materials which has so often been one of the basic causes of war.

A Man Who Speaks What He Thinks

MUCH has been said about the forthright courage of the Republican presidential nominee, Wendell L. Willkie, but its most compelling phase is that wherein he is disposed to say what he thinks and not to hold his ideas in abeyance for fear of offending any group or element.

"Almost nobody ever gets up and says what he thinks," the unconventional candidate told listeners in an address at St. Louis. "He is afraid he will thereby lose the approval of labor, or the approval of the unemployed, or the approval of some other powerful faction. And this fear has altogether perverted the process of democracy and sapped our strength."

Thereupon, after denouncing the "candy stick" philosophy of the New Deal, Willkie concluded with the assertion that he did not care "who likes my ideas or who doesn't."

That, indeed, is an admirable demonstration of the type of courage the country has long needed. There is every assurance that Willkie will continue to speak what he thinks fearlessly and plainly; but behind that is still the other reassurance grounded upon the explanation of his political philosophy amply given before he was nominated that what he thinks is in accord with the sentiments of an evidently great majority of the American people. There are of a mind that the country has too long been the victim of the pressure groups.

If your fire chief is pouring gasoline instead of water on the flames, swap him, and do it quickly.

Vacation for Father And Mother

By MARSHALL MASLIN

A father and a mother of my acquaintance are about to take a short vacation trip . . . The father told me that they would probably be back before a week was ended and glad to be home again.

It seems that for the first time in their married life of some twenty years, they have always intended to go on a vacation alone . . . I mean without the children. They have two sons and always those sons have gone with them. If the youngsters wanted to go to the mountains, the family went to the mountains. If they preferred the beach, to the beach they all went. They went for the children's health, they went because a friend's family was going somewhere and their boys wanted to be where their friends were.

Marshall Maslin

And sometimes father and mother moaned about how they were "tied down." It was a pity when a man worked fifty weeks a year, it was a shame when a mother kept house all years round except for those two weeks, that they couldn't be "free" in this short vacation period . . . But it wasn't fair to drag two children around in an automobile from place to place, and it was too expensive to take the whole family half across the continent on a trip. So you see how things are.

But this year it's different. Father and mother, for once, are NOT tied down. The boys are sixteen and seventeen. And each of them has a job. They are working and they are planning a pack trip into the mountains later on. They can take care of themselves. And father and mother can trust them to live in the house for two weeks without breaking all the furniture or burning the place down . . . So, free as the birds in the tree-tops, they are setting forth next Monday to enjoy a vacation all by themselves, consulting no children, considering only each other, and they expect to have "a good rest."

But the father told me that for the first time in HIS life he is not looking forward to this vacation with much pleasure. And he has a hunch his wife feels as he does, only worse. He feels rather silly about it and half ashamed to confess it, but that's the truth and why deny it? . . . I know just how he feels. Almost any other parent feels the same.

A Washington news item conveys the pleasing intelligence that Harry L. Hopkins is one of Mr. Roosevelt's "key aids" on national defense operations and that "Administration insiders say that if he (the President) wants some planning done, he is likely to consult Hopkins." With an able, experienced war expert like Mr. Hopkins planning national defense, what is the country worrying about?

Cartel Idea Is Not Practical, Johnson Says

By HUGH S. JOHNSON

Hugh Johnson

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Now that the course and leadership of the Republican party is settled, there are only two major uncertainties to fertilize with worry more gray hairs—the war in its relation to us and the November elections. Superficially there is a temptation to write a third—the convention course and leadership of the Democratic party. But, we know, that there is no uncertainty. Mr. Roosevelt will be nominated by acclamation. He will write his own platform.

There is no more reason for a Democratic convention to decide whether Mr. Roosevelt shall continue, than there would be of a meeting of the Reichstag to decide whether Mr. Hitler shall continue. The United States is still a democracy, but the Democratic party is a one-man dictatorship. Neither its rank and file nor its lesser dignities have any more to say then a run-of-mill Heine in Berlin or the Goering-Hess group at the Nazi top. "Heil Hitler" and "third term for Roosevelt" all boil down to the same meaning.

* * *

Done By Spending

There is another difference—the method in which this astonishing un-American result was achieved. In neither was it free popular choice. Here it was done by spending billion's of everybody's money to make it worth while to a majority of pressure groups to think as Mr. Roosevelt thinks. In Germany, there being no billions, it was done by concentration camps to make it worth their lives for everybody not to act as Mr. Hitler thinks.

Mr. Hitler's method, while far more affronting to the dignity of the human race, was very much cheaper and hence could be and was used to strengthen the German nation infinitely in industry, arms, economics and diplomacy. Mr. Roosevelt's method, while less brutal, was expensive, and could not be used at all without, by debt, taxes, subsidies and softening, dissipating the nation's material and moral assets, hobbling its industries, burdening its production and hence instead of baking it stronger, infinitely weakening it in industry, arms economics and diplomacy. This method was only a lesser affront to human dignity. And so we face a great danger.

* * *

Decision Faced

The thing for us to decide is whether we shall face it in some such destructively ineffective imitation of Hitler, or do it as a democracy—as always before.

Just as an example, in the proposal for a Western Hemisphere cartel, we see a colossal attempt to imitate Hitler. It is assumed that if he is victorious, all European industries will be operated as one, their products pooled and bartered to Latin America at a sweated price so low we can't compete. Therefore, we shall buy all the products of Latin America. Our high cost industrial products are also to be subsidized and pooled for sale south to underprice low-cost European industrial production—at a loss to our whole people of perhaps a billion a year.

* * *

Bargain is Essential

It won't work, in the long run, the only way you can succeed in any competitive market is to offer a better bargain. You can't give your customers money to buy your products and live in competition. It is a panicky, defeatist attempt, to imitate Hitler, before we even know what Hitler will do. Hitler used barter because he didn't have gold and credit. He now has both. No white-rabbit is strong enough to reverse the immemorial laws of trade. Subsidy and barter are makeshift. Hitler knows that. This administration doesn't.

What is far more dangerous—pooling of our industrial exports means Hitlerizing our industry and New Dealizing, subsidizing and bribing under the guize of "creating buying power"—not merely our own backward segments—but all the backward nations of the Western Hemisphere—and perhaps the whole world. There isn't enough wealth on earth. Democracy can conquer Hitlerism—but not by adopting it, either in any domestic political party or in any policy of international trade.—Distributed by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

NAMED BUYING CHIEF

Donald M. Nelson, shown in his office at the Treasury department in Washington, has been appointed by President Roosevelt to supervise all defense purchasing.

NEXT COME THE VILLAGE CUT-UPS

Drinking Form Reverse Worries Hymie Augen

By EDWIN C. HILL

Edwin C. Hill

From under his reference-bureau hatband, Mr. Hymie Augen carefully selected several clippings from the Racing Form, a recipe for making hair-restorer, a treatise on heredity vs. environment, and a few other items. He finally found what he was looking for — a business card.

"It makes me sick," he said. Everything is going to the dogs." The card read. Priscilla Pretty's Tea Shoppe.

"Whats wrong with that?" I asked.

"I'm slipping you that card so you'll know about joints like that and keep away from them. I hope you never have to go through what I have went through."

Mr. Augen was so indignant that his story seemed confused, but finally it all came clear.

* * *

With Muscle-Men

"I just happen to meet this mug —"

"What mug?"

"The one I'm going to tell you about. I just happen to bump into him near Forty-second street and Broadway. I won't tell you his name because he might put one of those liable (correct) suits on me. When I used to see this egg years ago, he was usually moving in or out of the hoosegow. He finally got in with same muscle-men that had a good mouthpiece so they couldn't put him in the clink anymore and then he gets himself a lot of horseblanket suits and jewelry and starts pushing peope around and making cracks out of the side of his mouth like they do in the movies, and doing things that wasn't respectabe.

* * *

Like A Banker

"When he came up to mitt me and pound me on the back, etc., I didn't make him at first. He looked like a banker. Hic clothes was plain the way high-priced clothes are and he had a plain $4 tie and no rocks on him, and doggy looking noseglasses, and hard hat, etc. When I finally remembered who he was, I figured I wouldn't give him a tumble, as he is one hunnert per-cent N. G., but I remembered he was a friend of my cousin Moe, and maybe he had quit being just a yegg, so I mitt him and ask him how about tips and that.

"'Hymie,' he says, like we was buddies, 'me and you will sure have to lift a couple for old times sake. I know just the right joint down the street a ways.' It was a hot day and my dogs were sore, like they mostly are with everything the way it is, so I thought if I could park them on a brass rail it would be nice and I wondered if he meant Mike Hogan's dump and if it was still there. He was saying how's old Dopey Blutz, etc., etc., and I was telling him, the way a couple of mugs will do when they haven't met for a long time, so I ain't looking what I'm doing and I'm in this tea shoppey before I knew what happened.

* * *

Drink Orange Juice

"This dump has a lot of pink sofas and spindle-legged chairs and pictures painted on the walls. I tell this phooey we're in the wrong joint but he says no and we sit down. When this guy orders himself a glass of orange juice, I didn't want to look like I hadn't been around any so I look at the menu and tell the dame to bring me one of them frappeys, or something like that. They heaved bananas and strawberries and syrup and ice cream into it, but I ate it and ain't felt right since.

"Then three or four other dressed-up, dead-pan guys come in and they get to buzzing this one I'm telling you about and I see they're working together on some big lay, and they all take orange juice. Orange juice! And when I knew this bimbo about fifteen years ago he would drain a radio battery if he couldn't get anything else to drink. And now all these hard guys drink orange juice and get tanned in Florida and work in a gymnasium.

* * *

The Payoff

"I shake these mugs and see half a dozen nice dames hanging over the bar getting blotto. Here's the payoff. When the hard guys start drinking soft drinks and the soft ones drinks hard drinks, that means trouble. Mobsters get smart and nice people get dumb.

The Hitler mob was just a lot of punks. But they got smart while the boss men in France and England got dumb and fat. The punks don't kill each other off the way they ought to. They get together and take nice people who act like the punks used to act. This tea shoppey made me think of that and I got all steamed up about it. I picked up this card for you to show you where this joint is so you can keep away from it."—Copyright, 1940, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Yankee Dollar Bonanza Appeals More To Pan America than Swapping Plan

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

The huge Pan-American commercial organization that the Washington administration is incubating, primarily is State Secretary Cordell Hull's idea, and it promises to do more toward welding the New World countries together than all the political propagandizing ever dreamed of by Europe's totalitarian governments.

Getulio Vargas

As recently suggested by President Getulio Vargas of Brazil, dictatorial methods may have a certain appeal to limited-sized groups of Pan-American folk whose notion is to do the dictating, generally very much to their own advantage.

But essentially what the bulk of New Worldlings want is to be prosperous. They can see that their only way of accomplishing it is through the development of their own resources. Heaven knows that they have enough of them to develop. Their surface barely has been scratched. They're about where our North American resources were a couple of hundred years after Columbus discovered us. We had quite a boom period for a good many generations after that. Latin America is due to start on a similar era of growth in population and riches as soon as it can get its development processes fairly a-going.

To get 'em going, however, involves tremendous investments of capital. But these investments can only come from abroad—just as it took European capital to initiate development of our resources here in the United States, in the first place.

Right from the Jump

Getting up some impetus was comparatively slow work for us in our own early days.

Latin America is fixed to get away right from the jump the minute the capital's available.

Let me illustrate:

Twenty years ago, when I was visiting Para, at the mouth of the Amazon, that city was thriving like a mushroom as an export outlet for rubber, from up toward the headwaters of the big river. There was no question that the rubber was there. The supply of it was recognized, the world over, as inexhaustible. For some reason or other the market ceased buying upper-Amazon rubber. I think maybe facilities were inadequate to boat it downstream. Anyway, the story now is that there's no raw rubber on earth except from the Dutch East Indies. No such thing! The upper Amazon has limitless forests of it. All that's needed is to collect it, and maybe some craft to bring it to tidewater.

In other words, capital's required.

There's plenty of additional raw stuff that Latin America has to offer, at tremendous profits—if it's developed.

But where's the capital to come from?

Germany hasn't got any. Neither has Italy. Or Russia. Britain and France haven't either. It's got to come from the United States, if from anywhere.

Secretary Hull's $1,000,000,000 corporation is mentioned as potentially ready to put up the money. It's described as intended to be a "trading company," but its object, it's explained, is to enable the Americas to market their products —which involves the financing of their production.

A Perfect Bonanza

This thing of Secretary Hull's is a proposal of a perfect bonanza to Latin America.

What's Herr Hitler got to offer as an alternative?

Nothing but some sort of a doubtful barter agreement—nothing in line of magnificent local development.

Maybe a few dictatorial addicts, like Getulio Vargas, prefer totalitarianism, but Latin-American business men aren't likely to fall for it. They want a $1,000,000,000 boom, backed by the United States—not a little one-horse swapping-of-goods dicker which is the best they can get out of Herr Hitler or Signor Mussolini.

Germany and Italy have some colonies of their own countrymen in Latin America, to be sure. On sentimental grounds possibly a few of these colonists will incline a bit Nazi-istically or Fascist-ically. But it will take a lot of sympathy of that sort to offset the substantial benefits embodied in Secretary Hull's Pan-American scheme.

In short, Secretary Hull's plan isn't based on any sort of international political preferences. He gambles on a general recognition of mutual self-interest. It may prove a good deal more cogent than any consideration that Herr Hitler or Signor Mussolini can think up.

Maryland Farm Musings

By the Extension Service of the University of Maryland

Many people with small incomes and irregular employment might be able to improve their condition with a few colonies of bees as a supplementary source of income, says George Abrams, specialist in apiculture for the Maryland University extension service.

A single drop of milk may contain as much as 100,000,000 fat globules, according to a statement in the manual for milk and cream testers in Maryland, published by the University of Maryland experiment station.

George Abrams, specialist in apiculture for the extension service, says that most of the honey produced in Maryland is eventually sold within a few miles of the apiaries in which it is produced. Beekeepers and their families use approximately twelve percent of the honey produced and nearly one-third of the beekeepers produce only enough honey for their own home consumption.

A fertilizer conference, primarily for the benefit of those engaged in the fertilizer industry, will be held at the University of Maryland in College Park July 8, it is announced by John W. Magruder, specialist in agronomy. Topics to receive attention include the soil and fertilizer research in progress and the grades of fertilizers best adapted to various crops under Maryland conditions.

An increasing number of Maryland dairymen are putting grass or legumes in their silos because they find this is good insurance against dried-up pastures, loss in hay making, and saves times when a good crop of hay might be lost because of unfavorable weather condition, it is stated by John A. Conover, specialist in dairying for the University of Maryland extension service.

A recent inspection of wheat fields indicates that an epidemic of scab, or Fusarium blight, is prevalent in many sections of Maryland, according to Jahn W. Magruder, specialist in agronomy for the University of Maryland extension service. In many cases, he says, from ten to twenty-five percent of the wheat heads are damaged severely and the infection occasionally runs as high as fifty to eighty percent.

Quotable Quotes

By United States Senator Claude Pepper, Democrat, of Florida

We never have even attempted to take care of the unemployed in this country. We have never intended to take care of the unemployed. Of course, we are paying the price for it, and we are going to pay a very bitter price for it in the future.

Morning Motto

A happy family is but an earlier heaven.—BOWRING.

One Group Is Nazi-Proof

From the Cincinnati Times-Star

There is one big jump in the country which, according to those in positnon to know, is completely proof against Nazi infiltration, fifth-column agents, and all other subsersie influences originating abroad. That is the Negroes, about 11,000,000 strong according to the 1930 census. They are said to be more willing to go to war right now than perhaps any other element in the population.

That is because of their strong attachment to the soil on which they live, and to a country where they have no legal disabilities, though there are disabilities of other kinds for the removal of which their leaders will continue to strive. Nazi overlordship, with its doctrine of a Nordic master-race of so superior a quality that other white races would be set at slave tasks, holds a threat for the black race that these leaders do not minimize. The recent emergence of Italy as Germany's partner would have clinched the matter, if it needed clinching, for American Negroes have not forgotten what Italy did to their kinsmen in Ethiopia.

"Let me make one point clear," said a Negro leader with whom we discussed the matter, and he said it with a laugh: "There are men among my people who might take Nazi or Fascist money if if were offered them, but only as they take Republican or Democratic beer before an election—as a free gift and without obligation. In the present instance it would be just a case of spoiling the Egyptians."

Factographs

Even before the war, every news agent in England was likely to be a censor. If a periodical on his stand contained what he regarded as material others should not read, he tore the pages containing that material from all his magazines.

* * *

Asbestos is fireproof because it imprisons stagnant air between its fibrous particles of iron, aluminum, calcium and magnesium, the four minerals which combine to form the rock.

The Cumberland News

Published every weekday morning, excepting holidays, at 5 and 7 South Mechanic Street, Cumberland, Maryland, by The Times and Alleganian Company.

Entered as second class mail matter at Cumberland, Md.

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches are also reserved.

TERMS—By carrier in city, 15 cents per week.

BY MAIL—First, second, third and fourth Postal Zones one month 60c; six months $3.00; one year $6.00.

Fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth Postal Zones: One month $1.00; six months $5.00; one year $10.00.

National Advertising Representative: J. P. Devine and Associates, Inc., New York, 1632 Chrysler Bldg.; Chicago, 307 N. Michigan Ave.; Detroit, 817 New Center Bldg.; Atlanta, 705 Palmer Bldg.; Pittsburgh, 486 Oliver Bldg.; Syracuse, State Tower Bldg.

TELEPHONES

William L. Geppert, Managing Editor	23
Editorial and News	1122
Advertising (General)	1131
Advertising (Want Ads)	732
Sports Editor	2212
Circulation Department	749
Business Office	1022
Frostburg Office — Frostburg	85
Lonaconing Office — Lonaconing	99

Tuesday Morning, July 2, 1940

Retrenchment Now A Necessity

THE FINANCES of the United States Government are honeycombed with waste and extravagance. Like a clap of thunder, the booming of guns in Europe warns the American people of dangers ahead. Enormous sums are needed for national defense. The Treasury is empty; the government owes $45,000,000,000 and is running further into debt at the rate of $2,700,000,000 a year.

Congress meets this situation by authorizing an addition to the debt up to $49,000,000,000, and imposing a tax that will yield $1,000,000,000 a year for five years to take care of defense expenditures.

The people approve of immediate defense preparations and cheerfully face added taxes for that purpose.

If the government were now lopping off all waste and extravagance, and spending extra money solely for defense preparations, the practical people of the United States would be disposed to say, "Past extravagance is water over the dam. Never mind debt or the cost of preparedness. Go ahead!"

But the bitter truth is that New Deal waste and extravagance are still running wild. The cost of this unnecessary spending is greater than the cost of national defense. The backs of taxpayers are not relieved of any peace-time burden as they bend to carry the extra cost of defense.

The peace-time spending by the New Deal at this time, not counting defense spending, is $2,700,000,000 a year more than the revenue. In less than two years the new debt limit will be reached by peace-time New Deal spending. The fiat has gone forth by the dictator of the New Deal: "No retrenchment!"

If the American people are not to have their property swept away they must command Congress to put a stop to New Deal extravagance at this critical time when billions must be spent for national survival.

Since the New Deal dictator is committed to the ruinous extravagance program, it is necessary for the people to place in the White House a man who will restore the financial stability of the nation.

Let Us Be More Careful This Fourth of July

COMES NOW the annual celebration of Independence day, and as it promises to be especially expressive of patriotic impulses, thoughts of the accident menace are in order as a sort of precautionary preview.

July itself is a month of danger, by reason of the fact that the warmer weather takes so many thousands away from homes in search of amusement and recreation. According to the National Safety Council, the nation last year piled up a July record of 8,800 dead and 800,000 injured, at a money cost of $300,000,000 — an appalling summary.

But the Independence day celebration accounts for the major part of that deplorable record of death, injury and cost. The Fourth of July is a day of fun, but the fifth is a sad day of reckoning; and it is ironical that this bondage to suffering and tragedy comes as the country observes the birth of its independence.

"This mass slaughter on Independence day can be stopped," states a resolution of the council, "if every one of us uses caution and common sense. The things that cause these tragedies are things we can control—haste, selfishness, thoughtlessness, the desire to show off.

"The Council calls on all America to join in a new Declaration of Independence—independence from annual tribute of thousands of lives needlessly sacrificed.

"It asks Americans to remember that it is not only ironic but cruel to celebrate the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness by bringing about death, disability and tragedy.

"Life is cheap today on the battlefields of the world, but it is still precious in America!"

Sound and timely advice, indeed. Perhaps the keynote of it is contained in the suggestion about the desire to "show off." Let us all try to be a little less "smart-alecky" and a bit more careful this Independence day.

Marylanders for the Hall of Fame

THAT Maryland looms large in the history of the country is shown by the fact that the names of eight prominent state personages appear on the ballot for the ninth quinquennial election to the Hall of Fame on the campus of New York university.

These names have been sent to the 110 members of the College of Electors for consideration, having been nominated by prominent citizens and patriotic organizations and seconded by the university senate. The College of Electors, consisting of leaders of public opinion from every state in the union, will vote for candidates early this fall. The ballot will contain the names of 141 nominees, and each elector may vote for eighteen candidates. The choice of a name for inclusion in Stanford White's imposing colonnade on a hill overlooking New York city requires a three-fifths vote of the entire College of Electors.

The Marylanders included on the ballot are Cecilius Calvert, second Lord Baltimore, who received the province in 1632, as a grant from the king; Charles Carroll, native of Annapolis, active leader in the American Revolution, member of Congress and signer of the Declaration of Independence; Frederick Douglass, son of a slave, noted orator and abolitionist; John Hanson, native of Charles county, who served as the first president of the United States "in Congress assembled"; Johns Hopkins, financier and philanthropist; Francis Scott Key, native of Carroll county, author of "The Star Spangled Banner"; Winfield Scott Schley, native of Frederick and commander of the fleet at the Battle of Santiago; Rogert Brooke Taney, native of Calvert county, chief justice of the United States for nearly three decades and author of many important decisions.

Which of these illustrious Marylanders would you vote for as first choice, second and third?

The Independence That Comes from Chemistry

AN OUTSTANDING DEMONSTRATION og the advancebent of chemistry in recent years is to be noted in the big textile industry here in Cumberland. As a matter of fact, a new independence has been created for the United States in the test tubes of the chemists, an independence of foreign sources for certain basic materials.

As scientists bend to their task of research each day brings us closer to the time when we shall no longer have to speak of "vital interests" in the Far East or elsewhere which might have to be defended by force to keep necessary raw materials coming in. Production has actually begun on a new synthetic "rubber" made entirely of domestic materials, and by fall a new plant will be producing several tons of Ameripol each day. The basic source is petroleum.

As noted by an exchange, there is not a single vitally important chemical that cannot now be produced in the United States, a situation diametrically opposite to that which existed when war swept Europe a quarter of a century ago and we were drawn into it. Plastics and resins are being developed into many practical uses, airplane fuselages and wings already being shaped from such materials.

Indeed, a whole new world is flowering from these test tubes of the chemists. As the development goes on, there will be lesser need for the grasping competetive rush for raw materials which has so often been one of the basic causes of war.

A Man Who Speaks What He Thinks

MUCH has been said about the forthright courage of the Republican presidential nominee, Wendell L. Willkie, but its most compelling phase is that wherein he is disposed to say what he thinks and not to hold his ideas in abeyance for fear of offending any group or element.

"Almost nobody ever gets up and says what he thinks," the unconventional candidate told listeners in an address at St. Louis. "He is afraid he will thereby lose the approval of labor, or the approval of the unemployed, or the approval of some other powerful faction. And this fear has altogether perverted the process of democracy and sapped our strength."

Thereupon, after denouncing the "candy stick" philosophy of the New Deal, Willkie concluded with the assertion that he did not care "who likes my ideas or who doesn't."

That, indeed, is an admirable demonstration of the type of courage the country has long needed. There is every assurance that Willkie will continue to speak what he thinks fearlessly and plainly; but behind that is still the other reassurance grounded upon the explanation of his political philosophy amply given before he was nominated that what he thinks is in accord with the sentiments of an evidently great majority of the American people. There are of a mind that the country has too long been the victim of the pressure groups.

If your fire chief is pouring gasoline instead of water on the flames, swap him, and do it quickly.

Vacation for Father And Mother

By MARSHALL MASLIN

A father and a mother of my acquaintance are about to take a short vacation trip . . . The father told me that they would probably be back before a week was ended and glad to be home again.

It seems that for the first time in their married life of some twenty years, they have always intended to go on a vacation alone . . . I mean without the children. They have two sons and always those sons have gone with them. If the youngsters wanted to go to the mountains, the family went to the mountains. If they preferred the beach, to the beach they all went. They went for the children's health, they went because a friend's family was going somewhere and their boys wanted to be where their friends were.

Marshall Maslin

And sometimes father and mother moaned about how they were "tied down." It was a pity when a man worked fifty weeks a year, it was a shame when a mother kept house all years round except for those two weeks, that they couldn't be "free" in this short vacation period . . . But it wasn't fair to drag two children around in an automobile from place to place, and it was too expensive to take the whole family half across the continent on a trip. So you see how things are.

But this year it's different. Father and mother, for once, are NOT tied down. The boys are sixteen and seventeen. And each of them has a job. They are working and they are planning a pack trip into the mountains later on. They can take care of themselves. And father and mother can trust them to live in the house for two weeks without breaking all the furniture or burning the place down . . . So, free as the birds in the tree-tops, they are setting forth next Monday to enjoy a vacation all by themselves, consulting no children, considering only each other, and they expect to have "a good rest."

But the father told me that for the first time in HIS life he is not looking forward to this vacation with much pleasure. And he has a hunch his wife feels as he does, only worse. He feels rather silly about it and half ashamed to confess it, but that's the truth and why deny it? . . . I know just how he feels. Almost any other parent feels the same.

A Washington news item conveys the pleasing intelligence that Harry L. Hopkins is one of Mr. Roosevelt's "key aids" on national defense operations and that "Administration insiders say that if he (the President) wants some planning done, he is likely to consult Hopkins." With an able, experienced war expert like Mr. Hopkins planning national defense, what is the country worrying about?

Cartel Idea Is Not Practical, Johnson Says

By HUGH S. JOHNSON

Hugh Johnson

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Now that the course and leadership of the Republican party is settled, there are only two major uncertainties to fertilize with worry more gray hairs—the war in its relation to us and the November elections. Superficially there is a temptation to write a third—the convention course and leadership of the Democratic party. But, we know, that there is no uncertainty. Mr. Roosevelt will be nominated by acclamation. He will write his own platform.

There is no more reason for a Democratic convention to decide whether Mr. Roosevelt shall continue, than there would be of a meeting of the Reichstag to decide whether Mr. Hitler shall continue. The United States is still a democracy, but the Democratic party is a one-man dictatorship. Neither its rank and file nor its lesser dignities have any more to say then a run-of-mill Heine in Berlin or the Goering-Hess group at the Nazi top. "Heil Hitler" and "third term for Roosevelt" all boil down to the same meaning.

* * *

Done By Spending

There is another difference—the method in which this astonishing un-American result was achieved. In neither was it free popular choice. Here it was done by spending billion's of everybody's money to make it worth while to a majority of pressure groups to think as Mr. Roosevelt thinks. In Germany, there being no billions, it was done by concentration camps to make it worth their lives for everybody not to act as Mr. Hitler thinks.

Mr. Hitler's method, while far more affronting to the dignity of the human race, was very much cheaper and hence could be and was used to strengthen the German nation infinitely in industry, arms, economics and diplomacy. Mr. Roosevelt's method, while less brutal, was expensive, and could not be used at all without, by debt, taxes, subsidies and softening, dissipating the nation's material and moral assets, hobbling its industries, burdening its production and hence instead of baking it stronger, infinitely weakening it in industry, arms economics and diplomacy. This method was only a lesser affront to human dignity. And so we face a great danger.

* * *

Decision Faced

The thing for us to decide is whether we shall face it in some such destructively ineffective imitation of Hitler, or do it as a democracy—as always before.

Just as an example, in the proposal for a Western Hemisphere cartel, we see a colossal attempt to imitate Hitler. It is assumed that if he is victorious, all European industries will be operated as one, their products pooled and bartered to Latin America at a sweated price so low we can't compete. Therefore, we shall buy all the products of Latin America. Our high cost industrial products are also to be subsidized and pooled for sale south to underprice low-cost European industrial production—at a loss to our whole people of perhaps a billion a year.

* * *

Bargain is Essential

It won't work, in the long run, the only way you can succeed in any competitive market is to offer a better bargain. You can't give your customers money to buy your products and live in competition. It is a panicky, defeatist attempt, to imitate Hitler, before we even know what Hitler will do. Hitler used bartar because he didn't have gold and credit. He now has both. No white-rabbit is strong enough to reverse the immemorial laws of trade. Subsidy and barter are makeshift. Hitler knows that. This administration doesn't.

What is far more dangerous—pooling of our industrial exports means Hitlerizing our industry and New Dealizing, subsidizing and bribing under the guize of "creating buying power"—not merely our own backward segments—but all the backward nations of the Western Hemisphere—and perhaps the whole world. There isn't enough wealth on earth. Democracy can conquer Hitlerism—but not by adopting it, either in any domestic political party or in any policy of international trade.—Distributed by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

NAMED BUYING CHIEF

Donald M. Nelson, shown in his office at the Treasury department in Washington, has been appointed by President Roosevelt to supervise all defense purchasing.

Maryland Farm Musings

By the Extension Service of the University of Maryland

Many people with small incomes and irregular employment might be able to improve their condition with a few colonies of bees as a supplementary source of income, says George Abrams, specialist in apiculture for the Maryland University extension service.

A single drop of milk may contain as much as 100,000,000 fat globules, according to a statement in the manual for milk and cream testers in Maryland, published by the University of Maryland experiment station.

George Abrams, specialist in apiculture for the extension service, says that most of the honey produced in Maryland is eventually sold within a few miles of the apiaries in which it is produced. Beekeepers and their families use approximately twelve percent of the honey produced and nearly one-third of the beekeepers produce only enough honey for their own home consumption.

A fertilizer conference, primarily for the benefit of those engaged in the fertilizer industry, will be held at the University of Maryland in College Park July 8, it is announced by John W. Magruder, specialist in agronomy. Topics to receive attention include the soil and fertilizer research in progress and the grades of fertilizers best adapted to various crops under Maryland conditions.

An increasing number of Maryland dairymen are putting grass or legumes in their silos because they find this is good insurance against dried-up pastures, loss in hay making, and saves times when a good crop of hay might be lost because of unfavorable weather condition, it is stated by John A. Conover, specialist in dairying for the University of Maryland extension service.

A recent inspection of wheat fields indicates that an epidemic of scab, or Fusarium blight, is prevalent in many sections of Maryland, according to Jahn W. Magruder, specialist in agronomy for the University of Maryland extension service. In many cases, he says, from ten to twenty-five percent of the wheat heads are damaged severely and the infection occasionally runs as high as fifty to eighty percent.

Quotable Quotes

By United States Senator Claude Pepper, Democrat, of Florida

We never have even attempted to take care of the unemployed in this country. We have never intended to take care of the unemployed. Of course, we are paying the price for it, and we are going to pay a very bitter price for it in the future.

Morning Motto

A happy family is but an earlier heaven.—BOWRING.

NEXT COME THE VILLAGE CUT-UPS

Yankee Dollar Bonanza Appeals More To Pan America than Swapping Plan

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

The huge Pan-American commercial organization that the Washington administration is incubating, primarily is State Secretary Cordell Hull's idea, and it promises to do more toward welding the New World countries together than all the political propagandizing ever dreamed of by Europe's totalitarian governments.

Getulio Vargas

As recently suggested by President Getulio Vargas of Brazil, dictatorial methods may have a certain appeal to limited-sized groups of Pan-American folk whose notion is to do the dictating, generally very much to their own advantage.

But essentially what the bulk of New Worldlings want is to be prosperous. They can see that their only way of accomplishing it is through the development of their own resources. Heaven knows that they have enough of them to develop. Their surface barely has been scratched. They're about where our North American resources were a couple of hundred years after Columbus discovered us. We had quite a boom period for a good many generations after that. Latin America is due to start on a similar era of growth in population and riches as soon as it can get its development processes fairly a-going.

To get 'em going, however, involves tremendous investments of capital. But these investments can only come from abroad—just as it took European capital to initiate development of our resources here in the United States, in the first place.

Right from the Jump

Getting up some impetus was comparatively slow work for us in our own early days.

Latin America is fixed to get away right from the jump the minute the capital's available.

Let me illustrate:

Twenty years ago, when I was visiting Para, at the mouth of the Amazon, that city was thriving like a mushroom as an export outlet for rubber, from up toward the headwaters of the big river. There was no question that the rubber was there. The supply of it was recognized, the world over, as inexhaustible. For some reason or other the market ceased buying upper-Amazon rubber. I think maybe facilities were inadequate to boat it downstream. Anyway, the story now is that there's no raw rubber on earth except from the Dutch East Indies. No such thing! The upper Amazon has limitless forests of it. All that's needed is to collect it, and maybe some craft to bring it to tidewater.

In other words, capital's required.

There's plenty of additional raw stuff that Latin America has to offer, at tremendous profits—if it's developed.

But where's the capital to come from?

Germany hasn't got any. Neither has Italy. Or Russia. Britain and France haven't either. It's got to come from the United States, if from anywhere.

Secretary Hull's $1,000,000,000 corporation is mentioned as potentially ready to put up the money. It's described as intended to be a "trading company," but its object, it's explained, is to enable the Americas to market their products—which involves the financing of their production.

A Perfect Bonanza

This thing of Secretary Hull's is a proposal of a perfect bonanza to Latin America.

What's Herr Hitler got to offer as an alternative?

Nothing but some sort of a doubtful barter agreement—nothing in line of magnificent local development.

Maybe a few dictatorial addicts, like Getulio Vargas, prefer totalitarianism, but Latin-American business men aren't likely to fall for it. They want a $1,000,000,000 boom, backed by the United States—not a little one-horse swapping-of-goods dicker ,which is the best they can get out of Herr Hitler or Signor Mussolini.

Germany and Italy have some colonies of their own countrymen in Latin America, to be sure. On sentimental grounds possibly a few of these colonists will incline a bit Nazi-istically or Fascist-ically. But it will take a lot of sympathy of that sort to offset the substantial benefits embodied in Secretary Hull's Pan-American scheme.

In short, Secretary Hull's plan isn't based on any sort of international political preferences. He gambles on a general recognition of mutual self-interest. It may prove a good deal more cogent than any consideration that Herr Hitler or Signor Mussolini can think up.

One Group Is Nazi-Proof

From the Cincinnati Times-Star

There is one big jump in the country which, according to those in positnon to know, is completely proof against Nazi infiltration, fifth-column agents, and all other subsersie influences originating abroad. That is the Negroes, about 11,000,000 strong according to the 1930 census. They are said to be more willing to go to war right now than perhaps any other element in the population.

That is because of their strong attachment to the soil on which they live, and to a country where they have no legal disabilities, though there are disabilities of other kinds for the removal of which their leaders will continue to strive. Nazi overlordship, with its doctrine of a Nordic master-race of so superior a quality that other white races would be set at slave tasks, holds a threat for the black race that these leaders do not minimize. The recent emergence of Italy as Germany's partner would have clinched the matter, if it needed clinching, for American Negroes have not forgotten what Italy did to their kinsmen in Ethiopia.

"Let me make one point clear," said a Negro leader with whom we discussed the matter, and he said it with a laugh: "There are men among my people who might take Nazi or Fascist money if if were offered them, but only as they take Republican or Democratic beer before an election—as a free gift and without obligation. In the present instance it would be just a case of spoiling the Egyptians."

Drinking Form Reverse Worries Hymie Augen

By EDWIN C. HILL

Edwin C. Hill

From under his reference-bureau hatband, Mr. Hymie Augen carefully selected several clippings from the Racing Form, a recipe for making hair-restorer, a treatise on heredity vs. environment, and a few other items. He finally found what he was looking for — a business card.

"It makes me sick," he said. Everything is going to the dogs." The card read, Priscilla Pretty's Tea Shoppe.

"What's wrong with that?" I asked.

"I'm slipping you that card so you'll know about joints like that and keep away from them. I hope you never have to go through what I have went through."

Mr. Augen was so indignant that his story seemed confused, but finally it all came clear.

* * *

With Muscle-Men

"I just happen to meet this mug —"

"What mug?"

"The one I'm going to tell you about. I just happen to bump into him near Forty-second street and Broadway. I won't tell you his name because he might put one of those liable (correct) suits on me. When I used to see this egg years ago, he was usually moving in or out of the hoosegow. He finally got in with same muscle-men that had a good mouthpiece so they couldn't put him in the clink anymore and then he gets himself a lot of horseblanket suits and jewelry and starts pushing peope around and making cracks out of the side of his mouth like they do in the movies, and doing things that wasn't respectabe.

* * *

Like A Banker

"When he came up to mitt me and pound me on the back, etc., I didn't make him at first. He looked like a banker. His clothes was plain the way high-priced clothes are and he had a plain $4 tie and no rocks on him, and doggy looking noseglasses, and hard hat, etc. When I finally, remembered who he was, I figured I wouldn't give him a tumble, as he is one hunnert per-cent N. G., but I remembered he was a friend of my cousin Moe, and maybe he had quit being just a yegg, so I mitt him and ask him how about tous and that.

" 'Hymie,' he says, like we was buddies, 'me and you will sure have to lift a couple for old times sake. I know just the right joint down the street a ways.' It was a hot day and my dogs were sore, like they mostly are with everything the way it is, so I thought if I could park them on a brass rail it would be nice and I wondered if he meant Mike Hogan's dump and if it was still there. He was saying how's old Dopey Blutz, etc., etc., and I was telling him, the way a couple of mugs will do when they haven't met for a long time, so I ain't looking what I'm doing and I'm in this tea shoppey before I knew what happened.

* * *

Drink Orange Juice

"This dump has a lot of pink sofas and spindle-legged chairs and pictures painted on the walls. I tell this phooey we're in the wrong joint but he says no and we sit down. When this guy orders himself a glass of orange juice, I didn't want to look like I hadn't been around any so I look at the menu and tell the dame to bring me one of them frappeys, or something like that. They heaved bananas and strawberries and syrup and ice cream into it, but I ate it and ain't felt right since.

"Then three or four other dressed-up, dead-pan guys come in and they get to buzzing this one I'm telling you about and I see they're working together on some big lay, and they all take orange juice. Orange juice! And when I knew this bimbo about fifteen years ago he would drain a radio battery if he couldn't get anything else to drink. And now all these hard guys drink orange juice and get tanned in Florida and work in a gymnasium.

* * *

The Payoff

"I shake these mugs and see half a dozen nice dames hanging over the bar getting blotto. Here's the payoff. When the hard guys start drinking soft drinks and the soft ones drinks hard drinks, that means trouble. Mobsters get smart and nice people get dumb.

The Hitler mob was just a lot of punks. But they got smart while the boss men in France and England got dumb and fat. The punks don't kill each other off the way they ought to. They get together and take nice people who act like the punks used to act. This tea shoppey made me think of that and I got all steamed up about it. I picked up this card for you to show you where this joint is so you can keep away from it."—Copyright, 1940, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Factographs

Even before the war, every news agent in England was likely to be a censor. If a periodical on his stand contained what he regarded as material others should not read, he tore the pages containing that material from all his magazines.

* * *

Asbestos is fireproof because it imprisons stagnant air between its fibrous particles of iron, aluminum, calcium and magnesium, the four minerals which combine to form the rock.

THE DAILY STORY

NAPPER TANDY

About a Nobe Dog Who Had His Day and Liked Is So Well He Kept on Having It After He Died

By MARTN ROWAN

It was the nght following the annual hunt onthe Dunham estate and we were sated around Andy Joe's hospitabi hearth in Ballycladdy.

"People are osing their spirit in Ballycladdy," aid Andy Joe, as he lit his pipe. I remember the time when the annal hunt was a great day. There was only a handful of people followng the hunt yesterday."

"It is not so much that Ballycladdy is long its spirit as that it is losing its people," said the Druid. "The popuation of the village has fallen at last 50 per cent in the last 30 years. Economic conditions compel the outh to emigrate before they reaach maturity. They are scattered throughout the larger cities in America."

"There is a great deal in what you say, Thady," said Andy Joe quietly. 'But we still have the world's finest dogs."

"I have followed the hunt since I was a lad and I never saw a finer hound than Mr. Dunham's Blue Diamond," said Michael Doogan.

"But the hare got away from him just the same," said Mickey Nellie.

"That," said the Druid, "is because we also have the world's finest hares."

"They tell me Blue Diamond is the greatest courser since the time of the flood," said Michael Doogan, ignoring him.

"Your informant has taken in every extensive territory, Michael," said the Druid. "One must be careful in making a general statement of that nature."

"What is wrong with my statement, Thady?"

"Simply this. We have had many wonderful greyhounds in Ireland since the time of the flood. It is likely to reflect on the prowess of the dogs we did not know."

"I still maintain there never was a faster dog on four feet than Blue Diamond," repeated Michael Doogan stubbornly.

"Speed," said the Druid, 'isn't the only thing that counts in dogs. There are other things just as important."

"For instance?" said Michael Doogan.

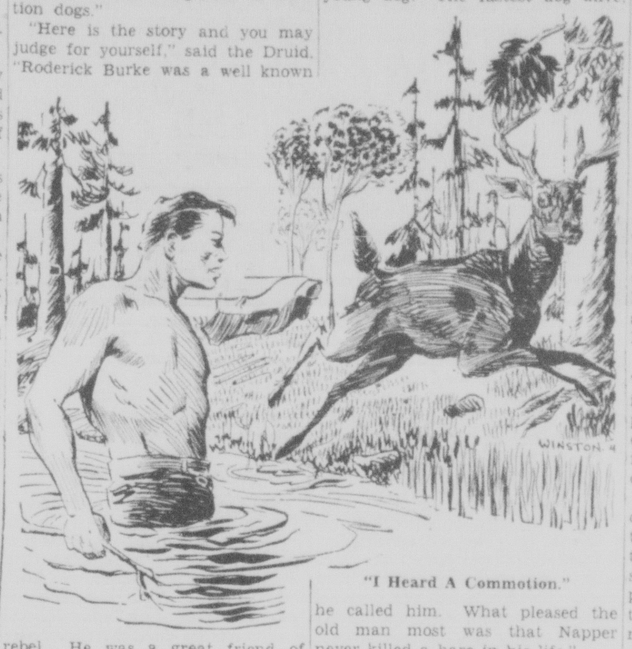

"Brains," said the Druid, "and then again, not just brains, I'd call it a sense of the fitness of things, a sense of humor maybe——"

"In a dog?"

"In a dog," said the Druid. "A sense of humor and devotion to a cause."

"Those are grand qualities, to be sure," said Michael Doogan, "but we have trouble enough finding them in human beings, not to mention dogs."

"Here is the story and you may judge for yourself," said the Druid. "Roderick Burke was a well known rebel. He was a great friend of mine when I was a boy. After I emigrated to South America I corresponded with him regularly, and when I returned to Ballycladdy we renewed the old friendship. It was then that he told me about Napper Tandy, who was then a young dog. The fastest dog alive.

"I Heard A Commotion."

he called him. What pleased the old man most was that Napper never killed a hare in his life."

"Then he was no good at all, Thady," interrupted Michael Doogan.

"Napper Tandy never killed a hare," continued the Druid. "He always caught up with his victim, but he never used the twirl of his snout to give the hare the coup de grace. He simply put his paw on the hare's back, held him for a few seconds, then wagged his tail and let the hare escape."

"More power to Naper Tandy," said Mickey Nellie.

"Roderick Burke became ill," resumed the Druid. "On his death bed he asked me to care for the hound after he had gone. He warned me, however, that Napper Tandy had a vicious streak, that he hated anyone who wore a military uniform and that I should always hold the dog in lesh when I passed a barracks of soldiers or Royal Irish Constabulary.

"Roderick died. I took Napper Tandy home and found that Roderick's words were true. Whenever I passed the police barracks I had difficulty in restraining the hound from committing mayhem on the officers.

"After many years Napper Tandy died of old age. I had such affection for the animal that I decided to retain some souvenir of him. I sent his hide to a tannery, had it properly treated, and then took it to a tailor and had a waistcoat made out of it. The first day I passed the constabulary wearing my new coat I felt something grip me around the ribs and lo and behold the haid was bristling on it!"

"I never saw that waist coat on you," said Michael Doogan.

"Unfortunately no," replied the Druid. "Some six months ago, when about to bathe in the Ballycladdy river, I divested myself of my garments and hung them on a aree. A deer strayed neaar by and I heard a commotion. The waistcoat had jumped from the tree and proceeded to give chase to the deer. The last I saw of the waistcoat it was speeding like lightning across the hills of Ballycladdy. I never had any trace of them from that day to this."

"Thunder and turf!" said Mickey Nellie. "That's a dog which was a dog!"—Distributed by United Feature Syndicate.

Tomorrow: Rosebloom's deputy sheriff stumbles into fame when somebody pushes the wrong button. "Millionaire," by Frank Bennett.

My living depends on the MILEAGE PROVED TO YOUR OWN EYES BY YOUR CONOCO MILE-DIAL..FREE

BESIDES LIKING THIS TOWN as if it was part of me, I'm out to make progress. So I've got plenty at stake in asking you to come here for a Conoco Mile-Dial, I'll give you absolutely free.

YOUR MILE-DIAL can't lie about the real mileage you get from my Conoco Bronz-z-z gasoline. I bank on the straight true mileage figures you'll register on this Mile-Dial I've got here for you free as air. I'll put it on the dash in half a second. It's quite a sport my customers say, to let the Mile-Dial keep close tabs on their Conoco Bronz-z-z mileage. They like to do it, even when they've always been so satisfied they never bothered before.

THEY CAN NOW COMPARE their city and country mileage on Conoco Bronz-z-z and they can keep checking Bronz-z-z under all conditions, to get their honest average, and no mistakes.

YOU CAN KEEP CHECKING Bronz-z-z on your free Conoco Mile-Dial, till you've got the plainest answer about gasoline mileage. Not just a lot of words I might say, because with your Mile-Dial you get actual mileage figures to see. You've got to admit that the Conoco Mile-Dial gives the consumer the answer that really counts, which is mileage. And what'll be more fun than dialing your Conoco Bronz-z-z mileage on any Fourth of July trip you take? So drive in to my station today, before I might run short, and let me put on your Conoco Mile-Dial—ALL FREE.

CONOCO CONOCO BRONZ-Z-Z GASOLINE

PESKIN'S

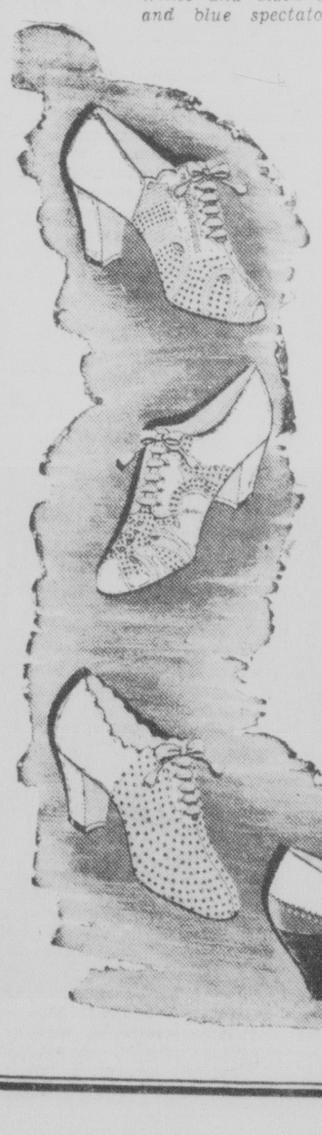

...Just received Smart new White Slippers

Worth 4.95 a pair . . . specially priced

Smart white and brown . . . White and black and white and blue spectator pumps.

$2.95

AAA to C

Shoes you'll enjoy all summer . . . Dazzling array of white kid . . . calf . . . buckskin . . . many with elasticized insteps.

White Kid Arch Setters

Comfort that's a treat to your feet

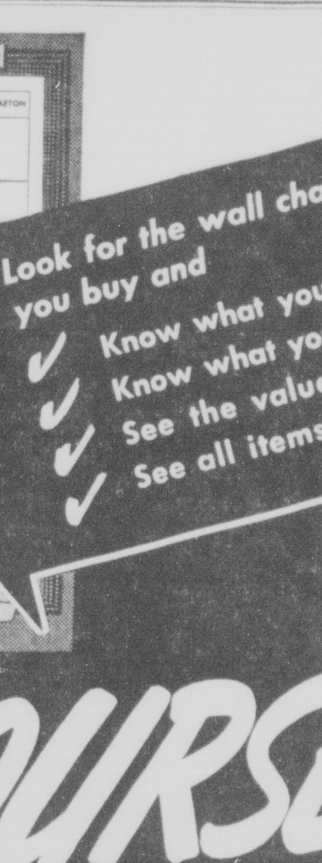

CUSHION HEEL CONSTRUCTION
BUILT UP ARCHES
METATORSAL PADS
SUPER SUPPLE SOLES

AAA TO EE — TO SIZE 10

All Styles ---------- 2.95

Peskin's REAL SHOES

147 Baltimore Street

IT'S NOW ONLY $2.88 PER GALLON IN 5 GAL. PAILS!

BUILDERS PAINT & SUPPLY
121 N. Centre St.
Phone 158

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

For A Glorious 4th . . . Look Your Best

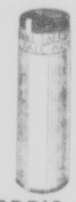

CREDIT MAKES IT EASY

Finest Summer Styles For Men and Women

PEOPLES STORE
77 Baltimore St.

SO SOOTHING AND FRAGRANT

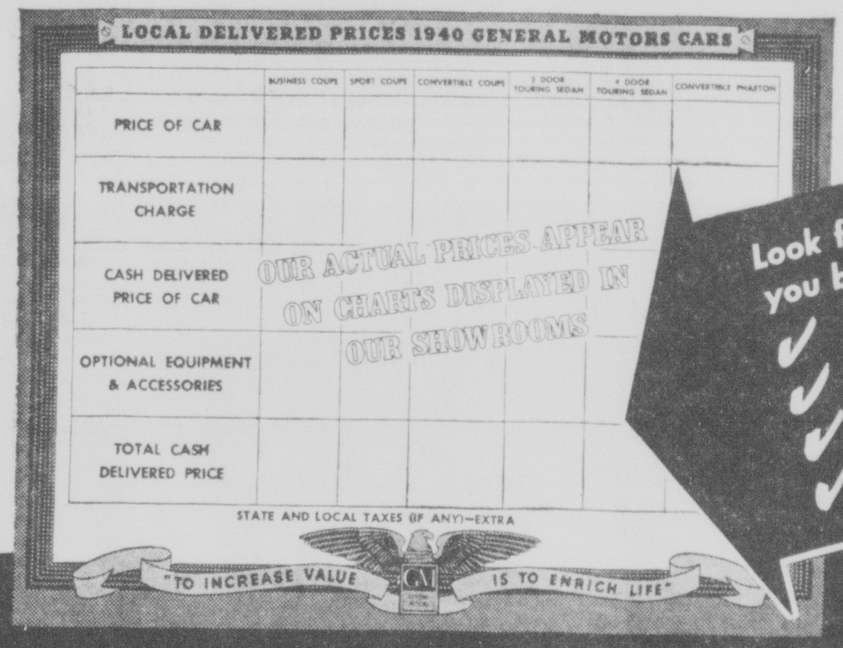

After Bath or Shower

Your skin will feel flower-fresh and silken-smooth and you will look dainty and cool for hours after you use the fragrant Adrienne Talc.

Adrienne Talc 25c

FORD'S DRUG STORES

Look for the wall chart before you buy and

- ✓ Know what you're paying;
- ✓ Know what you're getting;
- ✓ See the value in the car;
- ✓ See all items in the price.

PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST "PACKED" PRICES

You can see the value in the car. The wall chart shows all items in the price. Thus you can better judge what you get for your money.

TAKE a careful look at this "plainview" price chart that we General Motors dealers are displaying in our showrooms.

It helps you see the money difference a new car will cost you. It's the best protection against price "packing" that you can have.

For it spotlights all of the charges that occasion the difference between delivered-at-the-factory prices and the delivered prices you pay here in your home town.

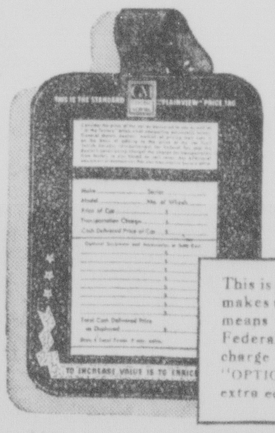

It shows how much you are charged for the car itself—how much for transportation of the car from factory to you, based on rail rates—how much for any extra equipment or accessories that you may elect to buy.

These are the items that make up the final delivered prices.

Thus we avoid unexplained items which might be a "pack"—that is, an added amount slipped in to give higher trade-in allowances, which may not reduce the money difference you actually pay out.

We General Motors dealers use this wall chart and the "plainview" price tag so you can buy on real value instead of on trade-in allowances.

They show you all items in the final delivered price of the car. Come in and learn more about them.

This is the standard price tag used by General Motors dealers to show what makes up the prices of new cars delivered to customers. "PRICE OF CAR" means the price we charge for the car itself, including reimbursement for Federal Tax and conditioning—"TRANSPORTATION CHARGE" means a charge for transportation from factory to you, based on rail rates—"OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT AND ACCESSORIES" means the charge for any extra equipment or accessories you elect to buy.

BEFORE YOU BUY, BE SURE THE FINANCE CHARGES SATISFY YOU

EILER CHEVROLET, INC.
163 Bedford St.

FRANTZ OLDSMOBILE CO.
219 N. Mechanic St.

SPOERL'S GARAGE, INC. (Pont., Cad.-LaS.)
28-32 N. George St.

THOMPSON BUICK CORP.
429 N. Mechanic St.

CHEVROLET · PONTIAC · OLDSMOBILE · BUICK · LA SALLE · CADILLAC

THE DAILY STORY

NAPPER TANDY

About a Nobe Dog Who Had His Day and Liked Is So Well He Kept on Having It After He Died

By MARTIN ROWAN

It was the night following the annual hunt on the Dunham estate and we were sated around Andy Joe's hospitable hearth in Ballycladdy.

"People are losing their spirit in Ballycladdy," said Andy Joe, as he lit his pipe. I remember the time when the annual hunt was a great day. There was only a handful of people following the hunt yesterday."

"It is not so much that Ballycladdy is losing its spirit as that it is losing its people," said the Druid. "The population of the village has fallen at last 50 per cent in the last 30 years. Economic conditions compel the youth to emigrate before they reaach maturity. They are scattered throughout the larger cities in America."

"There is a great deal in what you say, Thady," said Andy Joe quietly. 'But we still have the world's finest dogs."

"I have followed the hunt since I was a lad and I never saw a finer hound than Mr. Dunham's Blue Diamond," said Michael Doogan.

"But the hare got away from him just the same," said Mickey Nellie.

"That," said the Druid, "is because we also have the world's finest hares."

"They tell me Blue Diamond is the greatest courser since the time of the flood," said Michael Doogan, ignoring him.

"Your informant has taken in every extensive territory, Michael," said the Druid. "One must be careful in making a general statement of that nature."

"What is wrong with my statement, Thady?"

"Simply this. We have had many wonderful greyhounds in Ireland since the time of the flood. It is likely to reflect on the prowess of the dogs we did not know."

"I still maintain there never was a faster dog on four feet than Blue Diamond," repeated Michael Doogan stubbornly.

"Speed," said the Druid, 'isn't the only thing that counts in dogs. There are other things just as important."

"For instance?" said Michael Doogan.

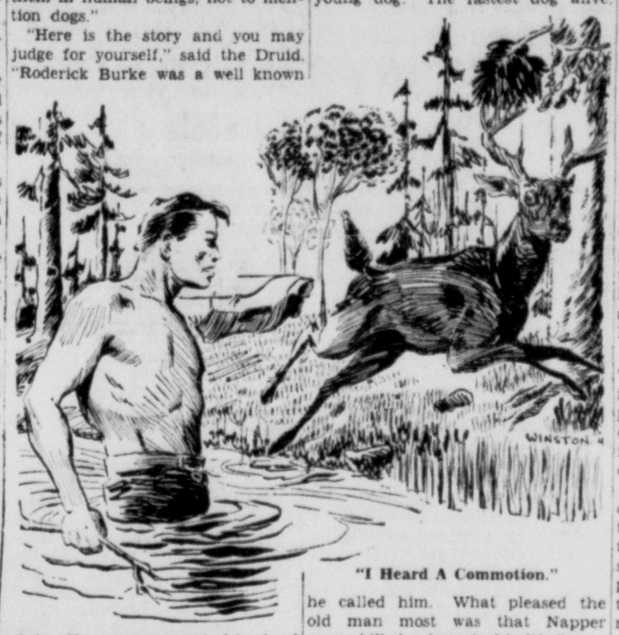

"Brains," said the Druid, "and then again, not just brains, I'd call it a sense of the fitness of things, a sense of humor maybe——"

"In a dog?"

"In a dog," said the Druid. "A sense of humor and devotion to a cause."

"Those are grand qualities, to be sure," said Michael Doogan, "but we have trouble enough finding them in human beings, not to mention dogs."

"Here is the story and you may judge for yourself," said the Druid. "Roderick Burke was a well known rebel. He was a great friend of mine when I was a boy. After I emigrated to South America I corresponded with him regularly, and when I returned to Ballycladdy we renewed the old friendship. It was then that he told me about Napper Tandy, who was then a young dog. The fastest dog alive.

"I Heard A Commotion."

he called him. What pleased the old man most was that Napper never killed a hare in his life."

"Then he was no good at all, Thady," interrupted Michael Doogan.

"Napper Tandy never killed a hare," continued the Druid. "He always caught up with his victim, but he never used the twirl of his snout to give the hare the coup de grace. He simply put his paw on the hare's back, held him for a few seconds, then wagged his tail and let the hare escape."

"More power to Naper Tandy," said Mickey Nellie.

"Roderick Burke became ill," resumed the Druid. "On his death bed he asked me to care for the hound after he had gone. He warned me, however, that Napper Tandy had a vicious streak, that he hated anyone who wore a military uniform and that I should always hold the dog in lesh when I passed a barracks of soldiers or Royal Irish Constabulary.

"Roderick died. I took Napper Tandy home and found that Roderick's words were true. Whenever I passed the police barracks I had difficulty in restraining the hound from committing mayhem on the officers.

"After many years Napper Tandy died of old age. I had such affection for the animal that I decided to retain some souvenir of him. I sent his hide to a tannery, had it properly treated, and then took it to a tailor and had a waistcoat made out of it. The first day I passed the constabulary wearing my new coat I felt something grip me around the ribs and lo and behold the haid was bristling on it!"

"I never saw that waist coat on you," said Michael Doogan.

"Unfortunately no," replied the Druid. "Some six months ago, when about to bathe in the Ballycladdy river, I divested myself of my garments and hung them on a aree. A deer strayed neaar by and I heard a commotion. The waistcoat had jumped from the tree and proceeded to give chase to the deer. The last I saw of the waistcoat it was speeding like lightning across the hills of Ballycladdy. I never had any trace of them from that day to this."

"Thunder and turf!" said Mickey Nellie. "That's a dog which was a dog!"—Distributed by United Feature Syndicate.

Tomorrow: Rosebloom's deputy sheriff stumbles into fame when somebody pushes the wrong button. "Millionaire," by Frank Bennett.

For A Glorious 4th . . . Look Your Best

CREDIT MAKES IT EASY

Finest Summer Styles For Men and Women

PEOPLES STORE

77 Baltimore St.

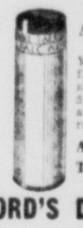

IT'S NOW ONLY $2.88 PER GALLON IN 5 GAL. PAILS!

BUILDERS PAINT & SUPPLY

121 N. Centre St. Phone 158

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

SO SOOTHING AND FRAGRANT After Bath or Shower

Your skin will feel flower-fresh and silken-smooth and you will look dainty and cool for hours after you use the fragrant Adrienne Talc.

Adrienne Talc 25c

FORD'S DRUG STORES

My living depends on the MILEAGE PROVED TO YOUR OWN EYES BY YOUR CONOCO MILE-DIAL..FREE

BESIDES LIKING THIS TOWN as if it was part of me, I'm out to make progress. So I've got plenty at stake in asking you to come here for a Conoco Mile-Dial, I'll give you absolutely free.

YOUR MILE-DIAL can't lie about the real mileage you get from my Conoco Bronz-z-z gasoline. I bank on the straight true mileage figures you'll register on this Mile-Dial I've got here for you free as air. I'll put it on the dash in half a second. It's quite a sport my customers say, to let the Mile-Dial keep close tabs on their Conoco Bronz-z-z mileage. They like to do it, even when they've always been so satisfied they never bothered before.

THEY CAN NOW COMPARE their city and country mileage on Conoco Bronz-z-z and they can keep checking Bronz-z-z under all conditions, to get their honest average, and no mistakes.

YOU CAN KEEP CHECKING Bronz-z-z on your free Conoco Mile-Dial, till you've got the plainest answer about gasoline mileage. Not just a lot of words I might say, because with your Mile-Dial you get actual mileage figures to see. You've got to admit that the Conoco Mile-Dial gives the consumer the answer that really counts, which is mileage. And what'll be more fun than dialing your Conoco Bronz-z-z mileage on any Fourth of July trip you take? So drive in to my station today, before I might run short, and let me put on your Conoco Mile-Dial—ALL FREE.

CONOCO CONOCO BRONZ-Z-Z GASOLINE

PESKIN'S

...Just received Smart new White Slippers

Worth 4.95 a pair . . . specially priced

Smart white and brown . . . White and black and white and blue spectator pumps.

$2.95

AAA to C

Shoes you'll enjoy all summer . . . Dazzling array of white kid . . . calf . . . buckskin . . . many with elasticized insteps.

White Kid Arch Setters

Comfort that's a treat to your feet

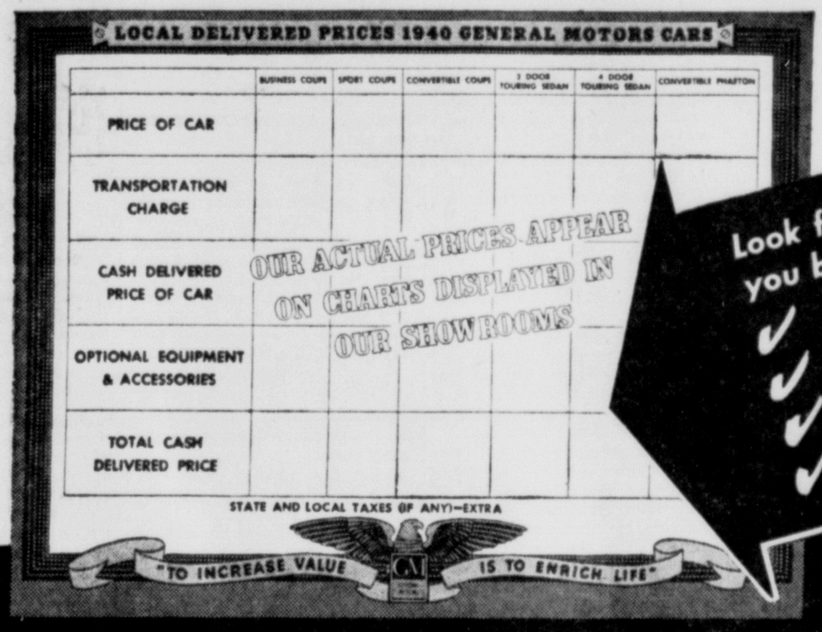

CUSHION HEEL CONSTRUCTION
BUILT UP ARCHES
METATORSAL PADS
SUPER SUPPLE SOLES

AAA TO EE — TO SIZE 10

All Styles 2.95

Peskin's REAL SHOES

147 Baltimore Street

Look for the wall chart before you buy and

- Know what you're paying;
- Know what you're getting;
- See the value in the car;
- See all items in the price.

PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST "PACKED" PRICES

You can see the value in the car. The wall chart shows all items in the price. Thus you can better judge what you get for your money.

TAKE a careful look at this "plainview" price chart that we General Motors dealers are displaying in our showrooms.

It helps you see the money difference a new car will cost you. It's the best protection against price "packing" that you can have.

For it spotlights all of the charges that occasion the difference between delivered-at-the-factory prices and the delivered prices you pay here in your home town.

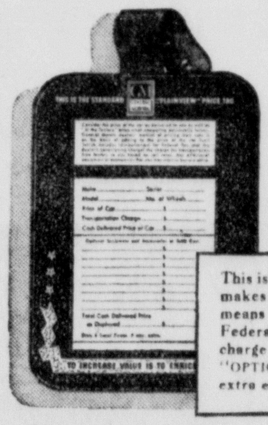

It shows how much you are charged for the car itself—how much for transportation of the car from factory to you, based on rail rates—how much for any extra equipment or accessories that you may elect to buy.

These are the items that make up the final delivered prices.

Thus we avoid unexplained items which might be a "pack"—that is, an added amount slipped in to give higher trade-in allowances, which may not reduce the money difference you actually pay out.

We General Motors dealers use this wall chart and the "plainview" price tag so you can buy on real value instead of on trade-in allowances.

They show you all items in the final delivered price of the car. Come in and learn more about them.

This is the standard price tag used by General Motors dealers to show what makes up the prices of new cars delivered to customers. "PRICE OF CAR" means the price we charge for the car itself, including reimbursement for Federal Tax and conditioning—"TRANSPORTATION CHARGE" means a charge for transportation from factory to you, based on rail rates—"OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT AND ACCESSORIES" means the charge for any extra equipment or accessories you elect to buy.

BEFORE YOU BUY, BE SURE THE FINANCE CHARGES SATISFY YOU

EILER CHEVROLET, INC.
163 Bedford St.

FRANTZ OLDSMOBILE CO.
219 N. Mechanic St.

SPOERL'S GARAGE, INC. (Pont., Cad.-LaS.)
28-32 N. George St.

THOMPSON BUICK CORP.
429 N. Mechanic St.

CHEVROLET · PONTIAC · OLDSMOBILE · BUICK · LA SALLE · CADILLAC

Social Events and Items of Interest for the Women

Board of Officers of Daughters of America Will Meet Thursday Night

The next meeting of the board of officers of Our Flag Council No. 100 of the Daughters of America will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the Junior Order Hall, Polk street. Mrs. Martha Athey and Miss Bessie Griffith will be joint hostesses.

The board met Friday evening at the home of Mrs Johanna Weimer, 2 Boone street, with Pearl McDonold as co-hostess. A program was given by Mrs. Florence Heffner and Mrs. Gertrude Wilks.

Those present included Mrs. Josephine Biggs, Mrs. Bessie Lookbaugh, Mrs. Eleanor Marple, Mrs. Viola Robinette, Mrs. Clara Ritchie, Mrs. Edna Swick, Mrs. Alice Trout, Mrs. Hallie Tracy, Mrs. Martha Athey, Mrs. Gladys Mock, Mrs. LaVerne Morris, Mrs. Hallie Spangler, Mrs. Anna Balyards, Mrs. Ruth Eckart and Miss Bessie Griffith.

Club Has Outing

The Cumberland Exchange Club held an outing over the weekend at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Young at Deep Creek Lake.

Members who attended included George M. Young, George L. Williamson, Edward A. Cosgrove, Alvin H. Wilson, George H. Tederick, Frederick M. Sell, John Waugh, S. Russ Minter and Ward N. Hauger.

Honors House Guests

Honoring Miss Dorothy Brown, Princeton, W. Va., and Miss Betty Fellows, Steubenville, O., Miss Jeanne Lazarus entertained at a bridge luncheon yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Lazarus, 535 Washington street.

Guests included Miss Dorothy Vandegrift, Miss Rosalie Wertheimer, Miss Harriett Nelson, Miss Elizabeth Pierce and Miss Jeanne Sutherland, Romney, W. Va.

Honored at Shower

Miss Mary Barnard, 817 Fayette street, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening by Miss Catherine Thomas at her home, 92 Ormond street, Frostburg. Games were enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. Leo Grimm, Mrs. Helen White and Miss Veronica Sleeman.

In a setting of vari-colored summer flowers a miniature bride and groom adorned the table. White candles adorned the table and refreshments were in the form of wedding bells.

Miss Barnard will become the bride of Albert L. Marple on July 14 at the First Methodist church, Bedford street.

Other guests included Miss Jennie McMillan, Miss Winifred Green, Miss Eula Liller, Miss Mabel Myers, Miss Virginia Neff, Miss Molly Johns, Mrs. Phillip R. Lucas and Mrs. William Thomas.

Events in Brief

A wiener roast was held Friday evening at Constitution Park by the Queen Esther Circle of the Mapleside Methodist church. Those present were the Rev. Willard M. White, Mrs. Lillian Dom, Miss Mary Dom, Miss Gracine Schade, Miss Pauline Schade, Miss Ella Lewis, Francis Jackson, Miss Mary Virginia Walsh, Miss Jo Ann Walsh, Miss Charlotte Reynolds and Miss Lorene Fisher.

Mrs. Mabel Ridgeley will entertain the Ladies Aid Society and Chain Tea, of Calvary Methodist church, Ridgeley, W. Va., at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at her home.

Hostess to the Young Women's Bible Class of St. John's Lutheran church at 7:30 o'clock last night was Mrs. J. Corfield Patterson at her home, 701 St. Mary's avenue.

Mrs. Holmes H. Cessna entertained the Young Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's Lutheran church last night at her home, 213 Bedford street.

Mrs. Edgar M. Matthews, 508 City View terrace, was hostess to the deaconesses of the First Baptist church, Bedford street, last night at her home.

The Moose will hold a celebration Thursday at the Moose Home, open only to members and their wives and friends.

A gala event planned for 8 o'clock tomorrow evening will be a public dance to be given by the Young Men's club of Oldtown. Proceeds are for the benefit of the club.

The Valley Road Homemakers Club will meet at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, July 10 at Emmanuel Episcopal parish house, Washington street, instead of tomorrow afternoon.

Personals

Mrs. F. S. Timmons, Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alan F. Eggleston, 829 Braddock road.

Mrs. Frederick H. Parks and daughter, Ellen, Mineola, L. I., are visiting Mrs. Parks' mother, Mrs. William T. Coulehan, 529 Cumberland street. Mr. Parks, who spent several days with Mrs. Coulehan has returned to his home.

Mrs. John Maginnis, Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gunter, 201 Washington street.

Susan and Philip, children of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Stump, New York city, have been spending several weeks with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Stump, Washington and Lee apartments, at their summer home at Deep Creek Lake. Philip will leave today for a boys' camp in Conn.; and Susan will leave today to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Whalley in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Areford, Carmichaels, Pa., are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Lucas, 817 Fayette street.

The Misses Louise and Dorothy Singer, Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, 819 Fayette street.

Mrs. E. B. Treat and daughter, Sondra, 311 Helen street, have returned from a month's vacation in Galeton, Pa., and Elmira and Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. C. R. Dott, Ravenswood, W. Va., is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hale, 672 Fayette street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barker and children, New York, are visiting Mr. Barker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, 811 Fayette street.

Mrs. Frank H. Kaplon and daughter, Ferne, Frederick street, are in Chicago because of the illness of Mrs. Kaplon's mother, Mrs. M. Mendelson.

Miss Vivian Nies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nies, South terrace, is visiting in Washington, D. C.

Gordon Sheriss, Lockport, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Singer, 819 Fayette street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Yarnall and daughter, Mrs. Edward J. Davis, 806 Maryland avenue, are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Yarnall, Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Farrow and family, 311 North Mechanic street, have returned from a motor trip through Ohio, Kentucky and Virginia.

Mrs. Tolitta Niland and son, Lloyd, Fairview avenue, have returned from Pittsburgh, where they visited Mrs. Charles C. Schaidt.

Rabbi Aaron Gorbaty, Harvey M. Aronson, George Ossip and Moe R. Sacks, delegates to the forty-third annual convention of the Zionist Organization of America, have returned from Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Maurice Nauman, Hagerstown, have returned to their home after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyem, The Dingle.

Miss Dolly Golden, Rose Hill avenue, is spending a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fulcher P. Smith, Ellerslie road, at their cottage at Deep Creek Lake.

Richard Carlson, 815 Fayette street, and Robert Haines, Akron, O., have gone to Akron.

Miss Abbie MacMullen, 33 North Liberty street, left last night for Newark, N. J., where she will spend a week's vacation with her mother, Mrs. Nellie MacMullen.

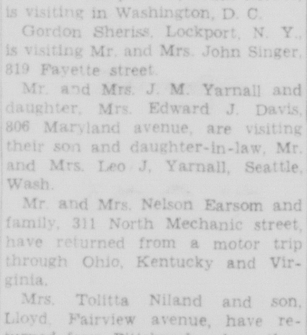

Arthur Stratton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stratton, 537 Fairview avenue, underwent an appendicitis operation at Allegany hospital yesterday morning.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Jokes are like nuts—the drier they are the better they crack.

WIFE PRESERVERS

Equipping the side and back lawns with outdoor games and amusements is the best way to keep children at home in the summer.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Advertisement

Vacations Apart Is Seen as Good Family Medicine

By Beatrice Fairfax, Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage — Distributed by King Feature Syndicate, Inc.

"I adore my family, but . . ." reads a line from a letter from an old friend, a clergyman, who has a highly successful church and is loved by his congregation.

The quoted words do not apply to my friend but to the state of mind of a good many of his parishioners at this time of the year. And he asks me to write something about the advantages of families taking vacations away from each other in the dog days.

It seems the most devoted people get on each other's nerves during the Summer months. And the best way of keeping devoted is to view your family's good qualities from a distance. And the long-distance survey should take at least two weeks.

The question is, of course, the expense involved. But my friend, who has done a good deal of scouting around for bargains, says these general vacations can be managed at a minimum cost. The one member of the family who should have a comfortable holiday is mother, or whoever it is who keeps the home fires burning, has a daily tryst with the dishpan, the vacuum cleaner, mop and all the rest of the household gadgets.

Should Be Real

It's to be hoped that, unless mother has relatives who keep help, she will not be beguiled into accepting invitations from Sister Sue or Cousin Mary, who'd "love to have her" and then expect her to "take a hand" in the household chores. A real vacation for mother means an absolute rest from such things.

In his scouting about for comfortable vacation spots, my friend has invoked the aid of the Y. W. C. A., fellow clergymen, small town Chambers of Commerce, and even rural libraries. He has found some mighty good places for $10 a week, and one amazing place in the mountains of West Virginia, for as low as $5. And this latter one happened to be best of all. The people had a farm, cows, and as they were nearly half a day's journey from the railroad they enjoyed taking boarders for company.

Fishing Easy

If father is a fisherman and enjoys roughing it, his vacation is easily disposed of. All he'd require would be fisherman's license, a tent, a simple cooking outfit, portable cot or a sleeping bag, plus his beloved fishing tackle. He can buy his fresh vegeables and an occasional chicken from a nearby farm house, or if he's a devotee of the can opener, there is the village store. And he'll have his fish, if he happens to catch any.

He will at least bring back a new crop of fish stories, and new stories salted with humor are a tremendous family asset.

Sister can usually hunt up a school friend to visit, or girls have enjoyed taking temporary jobs in other cities to get a little money ahead for their winter wardrobes. One such got a job in a five-and-ten, secured loads of amusing material, and is at present engaged in turning her experiences into a book in which a publisher is much interested.

Camps Want Boys

All sorts of camps welcome boys. In the very splendid one in Washington, D. C., organized by Maj. Brown, chief of police, any boy recommended by a policeman or a social worker can go without cost for a happy two weeks of fun, good food, and a minimum amount of discipline. Boy Scout camps average a little over a dollar a day. Churches have camps, also social clubs. In fact, it's pretty easy for a boy to get a vacation.

My friend says that even the most devoted families are better off for a couple of weeks away from each other. They come back with a fresh point of view, a new crop of stories of adventure, and appreciate each other as every member feels he or she should be appreciated.

Next week I shall write something about a hermit's vacation, which a certain parishioner of my pastor-friend takes every year. What kind of a vacation would you enjoy?

Stepfather Causes Marriage Rift

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I have broken up my home, as it became a choice between my husband, who proved to be a most brutal type of stepfather, and my 13-year-old son. My boy is delicate, sensitive, overgrown for his age, and very bright mentally. His stepfather has been jealous of him ever since our marriage, and in the face of my protests has whipped him unmercifully, often for things of which the boy was not guilty.

The showdown came ten days ago, when my husband insisted the boy stole six dollars. He was whipped so terribly that though I ran in to his defense and got a good many of the blows myself, I was forced to have the child treated by a doctor. The cleaning establishment to which my husband sent his clothes returned the six dollars, which had been left in a vest pocket.

I have made my choice. My son's life is not going to be ruined on account of a jealous, brutal stepfather. Fortunately, I'm a good stenographer and typist, and will have little trouble I think in getting a job. The question is, where can I keep my son while I am working? He is a Boy Scout.

A MOTHER.

Boy Scout camps in the city from which I am answering your letter charge eight dollars a week. Inquire at Scout Headquarters concerning price in your town. All faiths have camps where boys are received free or for a minimum charge for two or three weeks. Police Boys' Clubs in several cities have excellent camps.

Have you any reliable relatives with whom you could board and keep your boy with you? And thank goodness you have the ways and means of earning your own livelihood. So many women with troubles like yours have no way of earning a penny.

* * *

Let Own Feelings Be Guide

Dear Miss Fairfax:

The last year of the four we have gone together, we became engaged. He's 35 and I am 30. But rumor has it that he has been sneaking out of the house of a questionable woman in the early morning hours, and that she has lent him sums of money. My family now are opposed to my seeing him, but I have been seeing him on the sly, and he tells me these rumors are untrue and wants to get married immediately.

I have lost a lot of love and respect for him, and don't know what to do.

UNCERTAIN.

It seems to me that if a woman loves a man enough to become engaged to him and expects to marry him that she should not accept rumors about his behavior unless they're substantiated.

Your family evidently believe these charges, and you think enough of the man to disregard their wishes and see him on the sly. He suggests you marry him immediately. Is your faith in him strong enough to do this, though you tell me you have lost a lot of love and respect for him? How strongly are you influenced by gossip? And shouldn't you be more guided by your own feelings in this case?

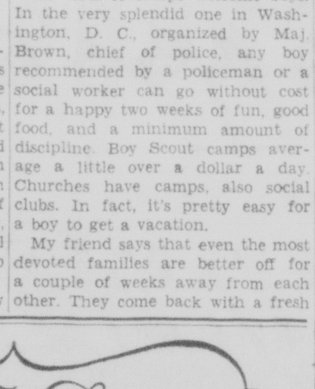

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

COVERING ALL CHANGES

SUPPOSE you are playing a small slam contract, that when the dummy goes down you can see only ten positive tricks, that there is not a solitary finesse you can try to get the extras, that your only possible way to find extra tricks is through an even break of the missing cards in some four-card suits. If the opponents have led a suit in which you have no chance to build extra tricks, your best move is to let them have the first one and then embark upon an effort to find even breaks. If you don't find two of them, you still may squeeze the enemy and get your other two tricks that way, whereas if you take the first trick you may be hopelessly sunk.

(Dealer: South. Both sides vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
2 ♥	Pass	2 NT	Pass
3 ♣	Pass	3 NT	Pass
6 NT

East, figuring North would have bid diamonds on his second turn over the clubs, if he had that suit, guessed it to be his partner's suit and led the J to it. If North had used dummy's A, he would have been set, but he let East win and took the second diamond, after plenty of study.

First he tried for a club break, but the third trick showed East holding four. He then took three high spades, being overjoyed at this suit breaking. When he then laid down the last, he felt sure he was home. He was. East, in order to guard dummy's club, had to toss off a heart, so four hearts gained the contract. If East had thrown the club, the dummy would have pitched away a heart and finished with three hearts and a club.

Even if West had the four hearts, the contract would have been safe. In that case, West would have had to discard his only remaining diamond, making North's 8 good. Thus, though only one of the three suits broke, North had two more chances for his contract.

Play through the hand yourself and note how easily the opponents could have discarded if declarer had taken the first diamond trick.

* * *

Tomorrow's Problem

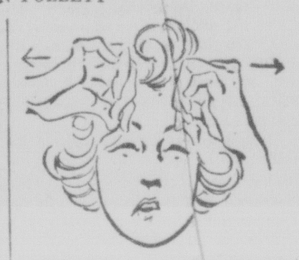

(Dealer: South. Neither side vulnerable.)

When South bids hearts first and spades second on this deal, why should North show preference for spades instead of hearts?

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Can't Be Stern and Beautiful

By HELEN FOLLETT

"Lifting the eyebrows should not be done."

PULLING THE CHIN in toward the throat is a habit that brings beauty griefs. The stern, relentless woman does it to terrify the victims of her displeasure. Teeth clicked together like a bear trap, shoulders squared—let's run away from her!

A cross line appears below her chin, a fold of flesh appears, soon the chin goes tandem. There will be necklace furrows in the neck; it is next to impossible to be rid of them.

Dragging down the lip ends drapes the human map with mourning. Women who feel sorry for themselves indulge in that habit. Facial tissues do a sag, lines form from lip ends downward over the chin. Women who are gay and happy never have that trouble. Laughter keeps the muscles of the face strong and resilient. It also makes for the sweet, compelling personality which makes a stronger appeal to the heart than external qualities of beauty.

Mind Facial Manners

It is necessary, in the pursuit of pulchritude, to mind one's facial manners. Lifting the eyebrows should not be done. Puts railroad tracks across the forehead. Squinting etches in turkey tracks. So it goes. The thing to do is to make one's face behave and to massage the skin surface nightly with a heavy cream, friction with ice once a day.

* * *

Do you know that stockings too short can cause almost as much trouble as shoes that are too full of feet?

There should be at least an extra inch so the toes will not be confined. A small stocking forces the toes into a huddle, produces ingrowing nails, interferes with circulation.

Girls whose fatted calves worry the daylights out of them should select dark colored hose; the calf of the skinny shanks should wear light tones. The right color helps a lot.

If feet are inclined to perspire, rinse the stockings in borax water but do not iron.

Why Good Grooming requires keeping DARK ARCS DRY

If you still are tolerating perspiration under the arms, just listen to facts about hygiene in these dark arcs that any doctor can give you:

It's uncleanly! That repellant underarm odor signals decay! That perspiration which damages gowns is decomposed!

Because the dark arcs are closed to purifying air and light, perspiration decays before it evaporates.

Perspiration, carrying cast off body wastes, pours out on the skin, mingling with dead skin scales, and microorganisms. Decay begins. Acids form. Fungus may grow and bacteria multiply. Rancid odors appear.

"It's shocking," say lovely women of today!

They prevent it, by using Arrid to safely check perspiration. Arrid keeps underarms dry, odorless, 1 to 3 days. No perspiration, no decay, no odor.

Arrid, which safely checks perspiration, is a pure, white, greaseless cream. Harmless to skin and fabrics. Use it any time, after shaving, as you dress . . . 10¢, 39¢, 59¢—at stores which sell toilet goods.

More than 25 MILLION jars of Arrid have been sold.

ARRID

For Summer Coolness

Keep your cool charm intact through summer days with fragrant Old Spice Talcum. Accent your very special brand of coquetry with this saucy early American fan, a token to you.

An early American fan given free with each container of Old Spice Talcum.

EARLY AMERICAN Old Spice TALCUM

50c and $1 Sizes

SHULTON, Inc., Rockefeller Center, N. Y. C.

IN OUR BARBIZON SHOP WEDNESDAY, JULY 3 AND FRIDAY, JULY 5 MISS RUTH BOURNE, BARBIZON STYLIST WILL BE IN

Take along Barbizon WHITE SLIPS

You will want enough good white slips to keep you bonbon fresh all through the summer. We have your size in a slip for every moment or mood—evening slips, sunback slips, camisole slips, straight cut slips, white slips, dark slips—name it and we have it!

1.65 to 3.50

Miss Ruth Bourne, Barbizon stylist will be in our Barbizon Shop Wednesday, July 3 and Friday, July 5th.

Sketched is popular Shelby, a lovely pure silk crepe with double back panel, and no side seams! Regular and short length $2.50

Lazarus main floor

BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS, PLAY SUITS, BEACH ACCESSORIES, BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS, PLAY SUITS, BEACH ACCESSORIES, BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS, PLAY SUITS, BEACH ACCESSORIES,

Lazarus Sparklers for the 4th. . . .

Summer DRESSES at reduced prices

$3.00 reg. $3.98

Pique
Embroidery Pique
Eyelet Pique
Chambray
Spun Rayon
Seersucker
Cotton Sheer
Rayon Sheer

"Shuffle-mates" in Pan-American Colors

shorts	1.98	shirts	1.98
slacks	2.98	skirts	2.98
jackets			2.98

Young America loves mixables. Shuffle-mates are mixable — compatible, harmonious. They're flawlessly tailored of cool, washable, crisp spun rayon. Slacks, shorts, culottes and saddle-pocket skirts in vivid Peru blue, Brazil cinnabar, Andes green, Bolivia copen or Colombia red. Jackets and shirts in Peru blue, Colombia red, Lima rose or Rio yellow. Shirt also in white. Sizes 12 to 20. Mail and phone orders filled.

Two Piece PLAY SUIT Blue, Rose ..... DINEM $1.99

Lazarus sport

Social Events and Items of Interest for the Women

Board of Officers of Daughters of America Will Meet Thursday Night

The next meeting of the board of officers of Our Flag Council No. 100 of the Daughters of America will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the Junior Order Hall, Polk street. Mrs Martha Athey and Miss Bessie Griffith will be joint hostesses.

The board met Friday evening at the home of Mrs Johanna Weimer, 2 Boone street, with Pearl McDonold as co-hostess. A program was given by Mrs. Florence Heffner and Mrs. Gertrude Wilks.

Those present included Mrs. Josephine Biggs, Mrs. Bessie Lookbaugh, Mrs. Eleanor Marple, Mrs. Viola Robinette, Mrs. Clara Ritchie, Mrs. Edna Swick, Mrs. Alice Trout, Mrs. Hallie Tracy, Mrs. Martha Athey, Mrs. Gladys Mock, Mrs. LaVerne Morris, Mrs. Hallie Spangler, Mrs. Anna ISalyards, Mrs. Ruth Eckart and Miss Bessie Griffith.

Club Has Outing

The Cumberland Exchange Club held an outing over the weekend at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Young at Deep Creek Lake.

Members who attended included George M. Young, George L. Williamson, Edward A. Cosgrove, Alvin H. Wilson, George H. Tederick, Frederick M. Sell, John Waugh, S. Russ Minter and Ward N. Hauger.

Honors House Guests

Honoring Miss Dorothy Brown, Princeton, W. Va., and Miss Betty Fellows, Steubenville, O., Miss Jeanne Lazarus entertained at a bridge luncheon yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Lazarus, 535 Washington street.

Guests included Miss Dorothy Vandegrift, Miss Rosalie Wertheimer, Miss Harriett Nelson, Miss Elizabeth Pierce and Miss Jeanne Sutherland ,Romney, W. Va.

Honored at Shower

Miss Mary Barnard, 817 Fayette street, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening by Miss Catherine Thomas at her home, 92 Ormond street, Frostburg. Games were enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. Leo Grimm, Mrs. Helen White and Miss Veronica Sleeman.

In a setting of vari-colored summer flowers a miniature bride and groom adorned the table. White candles adorned the table and refreshments were in the form of wedding bells.

Miss Barnard will become the bride of Albert L. Marple on July 14 at the First Methodist church, Bedford street.

Other guests included Miss Jennie McMillan, Miss Winifred Green, Miss Eula Liller, Miss Mabel Myers, Miss Virginia Neff, Miss Molly Johns, Mrs. Phillip R. Lucas and Mrs. William Thomas.

Events in Brief

A wiener roast was held Friday evening at Constitution Park by the Queen Esther Circle of the Mapleside Methodist church. Those present were the Rev. Willard M. White, Mrs. Lillian Dom, Miss Mary Dom, Miss Gracine Schade, Miss Pauline Schade, Miss Ella Lewis, Francis Jackson, Miss Mary Virginia Walsh, Miss Jo Ann Walsh, Miss Charlotte Reynolds and Miss Lorene Fisher.

Mrs. Mabel Ridgeley will entertain the Ladies Aid Society and Chain Tea, of Calvary Methodist church, Ridgeley, W. Va., at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at her home.

Hostess to the Young Women's Bible Class of St. John's Lutheran church at 7:30 o'clock last night was Mrs. J. Corfield Patterson at her home, 701 St. Mary's avenue.

Mrs. Holmes H. Cessna entertained the Young Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's Lutheran church last night at her home, 213 Bedford street.

Mrs. Edgar M. Matthews, 508 City View terrace, was hostess to the deaconesses of the First Baptist church, Bedford street, last night at her home.

The Moose will hold a celebration Thursday at the Moose Home, open only to members and their wives and friends.

A gala event planned for 8 o'clock tomorrow evening will be a public dance to be given by the Young Men's club of Oldtown. Proceeds are for the benefit of the club.

The Valley Road Homemakers Club will meet at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, July 10 at Emmanuel Episcopal parish house, Washington street, instead of tomorrow afternoon.

Personals

Mrs. F. S. Timmons, Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alan F. Eggleston, 829 Braddock road.

Mrs. Frederick H. Parks and daughter, Ellen, Mineola, L. I., are visiting Mrs. Parks' mother, Mrs. William T. Coulehan, 529 Cumberland street. Mr. Parks, who spent several days with Mrs. Coulehan has returned to his home.

Mrs. John Maginnis, Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A Gunter, 201 Washington street.

Susan and Philip, children of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Stump, New York city, have been spending several weeks with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Stump, Washington and Lee apartments, at their summer home at Deep Creek Lake. Philip will leave today for a boys' camp in Conn.; and Susan will leave today to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Whalley in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Areford, Carmichaels, Pa., are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Lucas, 817 Fayette street.

The Misses Louise and Dorothy Singer, Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, 819 Fayette street.

Mrs. E. B. Treat and daughter, Sondra, 311 Helen street, have returned from a month's vacation in Galeton, Pa., and Elmira and Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. C. R. Dott, Ravenswood, W. Va., is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hale, 672 Fayette street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barker and children, New York, are visiting Mr. Barker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, 811 Fayette street.

Mrs. Frank H. Kaplon and daughter, Ferne, Frederick street, are in Chicago because of the illness of Mrs. Kaplon's mother, Mrs. M. Mendelson.

Miss Vivian Nies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nies, South terrace, is visiting in Washington, D. C.

Gordon Sheriss, Lockport, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Singer, 819 Fayette street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Yarnall and daughter, Mrs. Edward J. Davis, 806 Maryland avenue, are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Yarnall, Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Earsom and family, 311 North Mechanic street, have returned from a motor trip through Ohio, Kentucky and Virginia.

Mrs. Tolitta Niland and son, Lloyd, Fairview avenue, have returned from Pittsburgh, where they visited Mrs. Charles C. Schaidt.

Rabbi Aaron Gorbaty, Harvey M. Aronson, George Ossip and Moe R. Sacks, delegates to the forty-third annual convention of the Zionist Organization of America, have returned from Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Maurice Nauman, Hagerstown, have returned to their home after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyem, The Dingle.

Miss Dolly Golden, Rose Hill avenue, is spending a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fulcher P. Smith, Ellerslie road, at their cottage at Deep Creek Lake.

Richard Carlson, 815 Fayette street, and Robert Haines, Akron, O., have gone to Akron.

Miss Abbie MacMullen, 33 North Liberty street, left last night for Newark, N. J., where she will spend a week's vacation with her mother, Mrs. Nellie MacMullen.

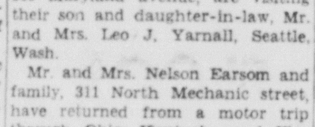

Arthur Stratton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stratton, 537 Fairview avenue, underwent an appendicitis operation at Allegany hospital yesterday morning.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Jokes are like nuts—the drier they are the better they crack.

WIFE PRESERVERS

Equipping the side and back lawns with outdoor games and amusements is the best way to keep children at home in the summer.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painfu. backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Advertisement

Vacations Apart Is Seen as Good Family Medicine

By Beatrice Fairfax, Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage — Distributed by King Feature Syndicate, Inc.

"I adore my family, but . . ." reads a line from a letter from an old friend, a clergyman, who has a highly successful church and is loved by his congregation.

The quoted words do not apply to my friend but to the state of mind of a good many of his parishioners at this time of the year. And he asks me to write something about the advantages of families taking vacations away from each other in the dog days.

It seems the most devoted people get on each other's nerves during the Summer months. And the best way of keeping devoted is to view your family's good qualities from a distance. And the long-distance survey should take at least two weeks.

The question is, of course, the expense involved. But my friend, who has done a good deal of scouting around for bargains, says these general vacations can be managed at a minimum cost. The one member of the family who should have a comfortable holiday is mother, or whoever it is who keeps the home fires burning, has a daily tryst with the dishpan, the vacuum cleaner, mop and all the rest of the household gadgets.

Should Be Real

It's to be hoped that, unless mother has relatives who keep help, she will not be beguiled into accepting invitations from Sister Sue or Cousin Mary, who'd "love to have her" and then expect her to "take a hand" in the household chores. A real vacation for mother means an absolute rest from such things.

In his scouting about for comfortable vacation spots, my friend has invoked the aid of the Y. W. C. A., fellow clergymen, small town Chambers of Commerce, and even rural libraries. He has found some mighty good places for $10 a week, and one amazing place in the mountains of West Virginia, for as low as $5. And this latter one happened to be best of all. The people had a farm, cows, and as they were nearly half a day's journey from the railroad they enjoyed taking boarders for company.

Fishing Easy

If father is a fisherman and enjoys roughing it, his vacation is easily disposed of. All he'd require would be fisherman's license, a tent, a simple cooking outfit, portable cot or a sleeping bag, plus his beloved fishing tackle. He can buy his fresh vegeables and an occasional chicken from a nearby farm house, or if he's a devotee of the can opener, there is the village store. And he'll have his fish, if he happens to catch any.

He will at least bring back a new crop of fish stories, and new stories salted with humor are a tremendous family asset.

Sister can usually hunt up a school friend to visit, or girls have enjoyed taking temporary jobs in other cities to get a little money ahead for their winter wardrobes. One such got a job in a five-and-ten, secured loads of amusing material, and is at present engaged in turning her experiences into a book in which a publisher is much interested.

Camps Want Boys

All sorts of camps welcome boys. In the very splendid one in Washington, D. C., organized by Maj. Brown, chief of police, any boy recommended by a policeman or a social worker can go without cost for a happy two weeks of fun, good food, and a minimum amount of discipline. Boy Scout camps average a little over a dollar a day. Churches have camps, also social clubs. In fact, it's pretty easy for a boy to get a vacation.

My friend says that even the most devoted families are better off for a couple of weeks away from each other. They come back with a fresh point of view, a new crop of stories of adventure, and appreciate each other as every member feels he or she should be appreciated.

Next week I shall write something about a hermit's vacation, which a certain parishioner of my pastor-friend takes every year. What kind of a vacation would you enjoy?

Stepfather Causes Marriage Rift

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I have broken up my home, as it became a choice between my husband, who proved to be a most brutal type of stepfather, and my 13-year-old son. My boy is delicate, sensitive, overgrown for his age, and very bright mentally. His stepfather has been jealous of him ever since our marriage, and in the face of my protests has whipped him unmercifully, often for things of which the boy was not guilty.

The showdown came ten days ago, when my husband insisted the boy stole six dollars. He was whipped so terribly that though I ran in to his defense and got a good many of the blows myself, I was forced to have the child treated by a doctor. The cleaning establishment to which my husband sent his clothes returned the six dollars, which had been left in a vest pocket.

I have made my choice. My son's life is not going to be ruined on account of a jealous, brutal stepfather. Fortunately, I'm a good stenographer and typist, and will have little trouble I think in getting a job. The question is, where can I keep my son while I am working? He is a Boy Scout.

A MOTHER.

Boy Scout camps in the city from which I am answering your letter charge eight dollars a week. Inquire at Scout Headquarters concerning price in your town. All faiths have camps where boys are received free or for a minimum charge for two or three weeks. Police Boys' Clubs in several cities have excellent camps.

Have you any reliable relatives with whom you could board and keep your boy with you? And thank goodness you have the ways and means of earning your own livelihood. So many women with troubles like yours have no way of earning a penny.

• • •

Let Own Feelings Be Guide

Dear Miss Fairfax:

The last year of the four we have gone together, we became engaged. He's 35 and I am 30. But rumor has it that he has been sneaking out of the house of a questionable woman in the early morning hours, and that she has lent him sums of money. My family now are opposed to my seeing him, but I have been seeing him on the sly, and he tells me these rumors are untrue and wants to get married immediately.

I have lost a lot of love and respect for him, and don't know what to do.

UNCERTAIN.

It seems to me that if a woman loves a man enough to become engaged to him and expects to marry him that she should not accept rumors about his behavior unless they're substantiated.

Your family evidently believe these charges, and you think enough of the man to disregard their wishes and see him on the sly. He suggests you marry him immediately. Is your faith in him strong enough to do this, though you tell me you have lost a lot of love and respect for him? How strongly are you influenced by gossip? And shouldn't you be more guided by your own feelings in this case?

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

COVERING ALL CHANGES

SUPPOSE you are playing a small slam contract, that when the dummy goes down you can see only ten positive tricks, that there is not a solitary finesse you can try to get the extras, that your only possible way to find extra tricks is through an even break of the missing cards in some four-card suits. If the opponents have led a suit in which you have no chance to build extra tricks, your best move is to let them have the first one and then embark upon an effort to find even breaks. If you don't find two of them, you still may squeeze the enemy and get your other two tricks that way, whereas if you take the first trick you may be hopelessly sunk.

	♠ Q 6 5 3 ♥ 7 4 2 ♦ 8 5 2 ♣ 7 5 3
♠ J 8 4 ♥ 10 6 ♦ K Q 9 7 6 3 ♣ J 9	W. N. E. S.	♠ 10 9 2 ♥ J 9 8 5 ♦ J 4 ♣ 10 8 4 2
	♠ A K 7 ♥ A K Q 3 ♦ A 10 ♣ A K Q 6

(Dealer: South. Both sides vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
2 ♥	Pass	2 NT	Pass
3 ♣	Pass	3 NT	Pass
6 NT

East, figuring North would have bid diamonds on his second turn over the clubs, if he had that suit, guessed it to be his partner's suit and led the J to it. If North had used dummy's A, he would have been set, but he let East win and took the second diamond, after plenty of study.

First he tried for a club break, but the third trick showed East holding four. He then took three high spades, being overjoyed at this suit breaking. When he then laid down the last, he felt sure he was home. He was. East, in order to guard dummy's club, had to toss off a heart, so four hearts gained the contract. If East had thrown the club, the dummy would have pitched away a heart and finished with three hearts and a club.

Even if West had the four hearts, the contract would have been safe. In that case, West would have had to discard his only remaining diamond, making North's 8 good. Thus, though only one of the three suits broke, North had two more chances for his contract.

Play through the hand yourself and note how easily the opponents could have discarded if declarer had taken the first diamond trick.

• • •

Tomorrow's Problem

	♠ K 10 4 3 ♥ Q 8 5 ♦ Q 9 7 4 ♣ 7 3
♠ Q 6 5 ♥ 9 3 ♦ A 2 ♣ K 10 8 6 4 2	W. N. E. S.	♠ J 2 ♥ K 7 2 ♦ K J 8 5 3 ♣ J 9 5
	♠ A 9 8 7 ♥ A J 10 6 4 ♦ 10 6 ♣ A Q

(Dealer: South. Neither side vulnerable.)

When South bids hearts first and spades second on this deal, why should North show preference for spades instead of hearts?

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Can't Be Stern and Beautiful

By HELEN FOLLETT

"Lifting the eyebrows should not be done."

PULLING THE CHIN in toward the throat is a habit that brings beauty griefs. The stern, relentless woman does it to terrify the victims of her displeasure. Teeth clicked together like a bear trap, shoulders squared—let's run away from her!

A cross line appears below her chin, a fold of flesh appears, soon the chin goes tandem. There will be necklace furrows in the neck; it is next to impossible to be rid of them.

Dragging down the lip ends drapes the human map with mourning. Women who feel sorry for themselves indulge in that habit. Facial tissues do a sag, lines form from lip ends downward over the chin. Women who are gay and happy never have that trouble. Laughter keeps the muscles of the face strong and resilient. It also makes for the sweet, compelling personality which makes a stronger appeal to the heart than external qualities of beauty.

Mind Facial Manners

It is necessary, in the pursuit of pulchritude, to mind one's facial manners. Lifting the eyebrows should not be done. Puts railroad tracks across the forehead. Squinting etches in turkey tracks. So it goes. The thing to do is to make one's face behave and to massage the skin surface nightly with a heavy cream, friction with ice once a day.

• • •

Do you know that stockings too short can cause almost as much trouble as shoes that are too full of feet?

There should be at least an extra inch so the toes will not be confined. A small stocking forces the toes into a huddle, produces ingrowing nails, interferes with circulation.

Girls whose fatted calves worry the daylights out of them should select dark colored hose; the calf of the skinny shanks should wear light tones. The right color helps a lot.

If feet are inclined to perspire, rinse the stockings in borax water but do not iron.

Why Good Grooming requires keeping

DARK ARCS DRY

More than 25 MILLION jars of Arrid have been sold.

If you still are tolerating perspiration under the arms, just listen to facts about hygiene in these dark arcs that any doctor can give you:

It's uncleanly! That repellant underarm odor signals decay! That perspiration which damages gowns is decomposed!

Because the dark arcs are closed to purifying air and light, perspiration decays before it evaporates.

Perspiration, carrying cast off body wastes, pours out on the skin, mingling with dead skin scales, and microorganisms. Decay begins. Acids form. Fungus may grow and bacteria multiply. Rancid odors appear.

"It's shocking," say lovely women of today!

They prevent it, by using Arrid to safely check perspiration. Arrid keeps underarms dry, odorless, 1 to 3 days. No perspiration, no decay, no odor.

Arrid, which safely checks perspiration, is a pure, white, greaseless cream. Harmless to skin and fabrics. Use it any time, after shaving, as you dress . . . 10¢, 39¢, 59¢—at stores which sell toilet goods.

ARRID

For Summer Coolness

Keep your cool charm intact through summer days with fragrant Old Spice Talcum. Accent your very special brand of coquetry with this saucy early American fan, a token to you.

An early American fan given free with each container of Old Spice Talcum.

EARLY AMERICAN Old Spice TALCUM

50c and $1 Sizes

SHULTON, Inc., Rockefeller Center, N. Y. C.

IN OUR BARBIZON SHOP WEDNESDAY, JULY 3 AND FRIDAY, JULY 5 MISS RUTH BOURNE, BARBIZON STYLIST WILL BE IN

Take along Barbizon WHITE SLIPS

You will want enough good white slips to keep you bonbon fresh all through the summer. We have your size in a slip for every moment or mood — evening slips, sunback slips, camisole slips, straight cut slips, white slips, dark slips — name it and we have it!

Sketched is popular Shelby, a lovely pure silk crepe with double back panel, and no side seams! Regular and short length. $2.50

1.65 to 3.50

Miss Ruth Bourne, Barbizon stylist will be in our Barbizon Shop Wednesday, July 3 and Friday, July 5th.

Lazarus main floor

BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS, PLAY SUITS, BEACH ACCESSORIES, BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS, PLAY SUITS, BEACH ACCESSORIES, BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS, PLAY SUITS, BEACH ACCESSORIES, BATHING SUITS, SLACK SUITS,

Lazarus Sparklers for the 4th. . . .

Summer DRESSES at reduced prices

$3.00 reg. $3.98

Pique
Embroidery Pique
Eyelet Pique
Chambray
Spun Rayon
Seersucker
Cotton Sheer
Rayon Sheer

"Shuffle-mates" in Pan-American Colors

shorts	1.98	shirts	1.98
slacks	2.98	skirts	2.98
jackets	2.98

Young America loves mixables. Shuffle-mates are mixable — compatible, harmonious. They're flawlessly tailored of cool, washable, crisp spun rayon. Slacks, shorts, culottes and saddle-pocket skirts in vivid Peru blue, Brazil cinnabar, Andes green, Bolivia copen or Colombia red. Jackets and shirts in Peru blue, Colombia red, Lima rose or Rio yellow. Shirt also in white. Sizes 12 to 20. Mail and phone orders filled.

Two Piece PLAY SUIT Blue, Rose . . . . . DINEM $1.99

Lazarus sport

Want Clothes You Can't Afford? Then Make Them Yourself

By AMY PORTER
AP Fashion Writer

Women who are smart about making clothes for themselves always try to encourage fumble-fingered women to go and do likewise. "It's easy," they say, "you could learn how in no time. And you'd save so much."

It's quite true you save a lot if you make your own clothes—provided you like them well enough to wear afterward. But there's no joy in messing up a length of material until it's fit for nothing but doll clothes.

* * *

If you have a yen to sew, get some expert instruction. Most communities have sewing centers where they'll guide you through your maiden venture. Or let your Aunt Katie show you how.

New sewing machines have gadgets to simplify the hardest sewing chores. You can't exactly press a button and, presto, have a dress, but it's much easier than it used to be to accomplish button holes, ruffles, fine hems, shirring.

Don't be too ambitious at first. Try your luck on inexpensive cottons, cut to a simple pattern. Above all, avoid slippery materials, such as thin crepes, or chiffons. They are so hard to manage they might nip your sewing career in the bud. Choose a firm-bodied fabric—shantung, or sharkskin, or chambray.

* * *

If your first dress looks good to you, you're on your way. Soon you'll be designing your own things. Remember when you saw that darling shorts-and-shirt set? The one in blue chambray with eyelet embroidery edging around the high neck and the full-length bishop sleeves? You thought you'd like to have a dress with a top like that. You probably couldn't find such a dress ready-made, but you could make it. If you could, you could.

* * *

Figure problems are easier to solve when you make your own dresses. Get some help in adapting a foundation pattern to your figure, and after that you can adjust all patterns to your master design. Think of the alteration costs you won't have.

Now's the time to start your sewing hobby, if you're going to do it at all. This summer you can buy enough material for a sports dress for $1.50 or less, enough for an evening dress for $2 or $3.

These make-them-yourself summer dresses are sweet and pretty and just right to take on your vacation. They're both made of inexpensive sheer cottons. The bow-knot dress is sweetened with ruffles. The other has that long-torso look.

Reindeer milk is said to be the richest of eleven different kinds of milk listed in the 1939 Federal Yearbook of Agriculture.

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company To Open Mirror Plant at Ford City

PITTSBURGH, July 1 (AP) — The Pittsburgh Plate Glass company announced here it had begun construction of an assembly line mirror plant with an annual capacity of 750,000 square feet at Ford City, Pa.

The new plant represents a transition from hand work to more efficient continuous methods of manufacture. Large pieces of glass will be almost constant motion as they are edge-polished, washed, silvered, copper plated and painteed.

Mirrors with a width of as much as six feet can be made with the continuous process in the plant, which is expected to begin production next autumn.

Lost Aviators Drop Bombs in Switzerland

BERN, July 1 (AP)—Two bombing planes whose pilots apparently became lost or wanted to drop their load of explosives where they would do the least harm loosed twenty-four English trademarked bombs today into peat bogs and forest foothills of the Swiss Alps.

The Swiss high command communique said two foreign planes crossed the Rhine river from Germany, continued to the Schwyz canton in Central Switzerland, dropped the bombs, then headed west toward France.

Military observers expressed belief that the planes were British whose pilots became lost on a raid aimed at southwestern Germany.

The Schwya Canton commands the passes from the northern Alpine range and is twenty-seven air miles from the Italian lake district.

Only last Friday the British government assumed responsibility for damages and offered its regrets for a bombing in southwestern Switzerland on June 12 by English planes which had lost their way. Seven persons were killed and twenty injured in that bombing.

Beware the Drum Major

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Ella Keeling, 43, hardly thought she was in danger as she stood on a downtown street watching a parade. But a baton slipped from the grasp of a band's drum major and struck her in the head, sending her to a hospital for treatment of a severe scalp laceration.

666 checks MALARIA in 7 days and relieves COLDS
Liquid—Tablets—Salve—Nose Drops symptoms first day
Try "Rub-My-Tism"-a Wonderful Liniment
Advertisement

Lifebuoy Contains An Exclusive Deodorizing Ingredient

EVEN in the hottest weather—you can depend on Lifebuoy in your daily bath to prevent "B.O."! Aren't these words of comfort to all you who value the respect of others?

You'll love Lifebuoy for the sheer joy of the most refreshing, peppy bath you ever dreamed of. Volumes of purifying lather! Lifebuoy Health Soap in your daily bath makes you really clean—free of "B.O." due to heat or nervousness. More people use Lifebuoy for their bath than any other soap. Get Lifebuoy now, and get a kick out of your bath!

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP Its crisp odor goes in a Jiffy Its Protection lasts and lasts

Almanac for June

Flower: Honeysuckle
Birthstone: Pearl
Weather: Hot Wave Coming
Warning: Look Out for "B.O." —the Enemy of Popularity!

Love Without Music

by Helen Welshimer

WRITTEN FOR AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

SYNOPSIS

THE CHARACTERS:

LINDA AVERY, receptionist at a New York models' agency, starts to rebuild her romance with

RONALD STAFFORD, her childhood sweetheart, who has "swung his way to fame on a trumpet," but

SARAH MARKLEY, wealthy glamor girl, is trying to capture Ronald for herself. Meanwhile

ROBERT BARTON, young engineer who lives in the apartment above, strikes up a friendship with Linda.

* * *

YESTERDAY: Linda has lunch with Ronnie, who treats her in the same endearing way he used to do. Later, when Robert comes to take her to Sarah Markley's party, he tells Linda he saw Sarah's name in a gossip column.

Sarah spoke to Linda. "Do I know you?" she asked.

CHAPTER FOUR

LINDA reached for her evening wrap, thinking intently about Robert Barton's words. So Sarah Markley's role as a breaker of hearts was well known. And Robert's family knew her and had suggested he call her. Therefore, somewhere his social sphere and Sarah's must meet.

But that was not important. She wanted to see the evening paper and find out how far Sarah had gone in her attempt to annex Ronald.

"I've a paper along," Robert said, and drew it from his overcoat pocket. "Here—just a few liner."

Linda read them.

"Sarah Markley, most dazzling member of last season's glamor crew, is conferring all her favors on a young man with a horn. The young man—and plenty of debs have their eyes on him—is Ronald Stafford, who is featured in Sarah's father's new music hit, due to open next week."

"It says that she likes him, but not that he likes her," Linda heard her voice saying out loud quite as though the man weren't there.

He chuckled and his eyes were teasing. "And you, I gather, know the young man." His voice waited, though, quite as if it wanted a negative answer.

"Down in Hamilton, Va., where we both grew up, I used to play the piano for him at recitals. That was when his trumpet was making all the neighbors jittery but I thought it was beautiful!"

He nodded, not answering, and all the way to the Markley residence, in one of the whitest, largest apartment houses on Park avenue, he chatted of trivial things. But when they were entering the private lift to be carried to the penthouse, he put his hand impulsively over Linda's.

"I'm sticking around if you need a champion," he said.

Linda left her wrap in the luxuriously furnished dressing room, whose mirrored walls reflected slim, svelte women of all ages who were powdering their noses, putting a braver red on their lips. Suddenly she was eager to get away from them, to be back with Robert. She did not want Ronald to see her alone in the group of women who so plainly belonged. She was grateful that Robert was waiting for her near the entrance, just outside.

The, drawing room was long wide surrounded by a terrace on three sides. On the other a long vista of other rooms appeared. A curving staircase at one side led to a long balcony and other steps beyond it went to other floors.

So this was Sarah's setting. Sarah, herself, in white satin, moved graciously among her guests.

"We should make ourselves known," Linda murmured to Robert.

His eyes were amused. "Let's get it over with. The girl in ethereal radiance, I take it, is the vampire. She's coming to meet us."

"Not to meet us, to meet you," Linda murmured, noting that Sarah's eyes were on the man.

Sarah spoke to Linda. "Do I know you?" she asked. Then she turned to Robert. "I'm positive I don't know you." Her smile was dazzling.

Linda spoke cooly, slowly, explaining who she was, mentioning Robert's name.

"Oh, of course. How stupid of me," Sarah said then. "You know Ronnie. Now I remember. He's around somewhere. But you're the Robert Barton—Rob Barton, everyone I know who knows you calls you. I heard you were doing a construction job in town this winter. And you haven't let us be nice to you."

But her eyes said, "The gates to Paradise were open and you haven't knocked!"

"I'm busy most of the time," Robert answered casually. "I got out of the social routine when I went in for engineering. But I let Linda coax me out of my hole tonight."

He said it carelessly, but Linda understood. He was trying to tell Sarah that he knew Linda, had had time for her. Her eyes met his, and impulsively Robert's crinkled into laughter and she smiled, too. She had helped him out last night and he was helping her tonight, she reminded herself. But it was more than that which was in the smile. Mysteriously, she had met this tall young stranger. Oddly enough, he was working into her pattern.

Then she saw Ronald coming, his yellow head held high, his blue eyes, steady and merry, meeting her own. She wished that Sarah would slip her arm through Robert's and lead him away. She wanted to be alone with Ronnie for a moment—just an interlude to tell him that the flowers were beautiful.

His quick eyes saw them, smiled appreciation. His hand clasp was vital and strong as he was introduced to Robert. The two men got along easily enough. It was Sarah whose smooth white brow was puzzled.

It was through Ronald's arm that Sarah slipped a white hand on which gleamed a huge, square-cut emerald, set in a band of sapphires.

"Come on, Ronnie. We have to greet people."

"I'll join you in a minute," he said. "Mind if I steal Linda a minute, Barton? We have a year to catch up with."

So in the end Linda stood on a balcony that swung close to the stars and Ronald kissed her again. Down below there were scattered lights where taxicabs crept through dark streets and shining ones. Far across the river other lights swung like lanterns up the hills.

"You're sweet, Lin," Ronald was saying. "And I've found you. Don't get lost from me again, will you, honey?"

Don't get lost. . . . But she hadn't been. It was Ronald who had gone away. Was it always the man who wandered? Who followed a singing wind somewhere? But we come back, Robert Barton had said. Did men always come back? Did they stay for a little while or tarry forever?

Standing on the windy balcony, with the violet mist of her frock blowing around her knees, and the green orchids on her shoulder she had a sudden fear. When Ronald kissed her again she clung to him a second.

"I love you," he said, and then as quickly reached for her hand. "Come on, honey, that's my band starting and I'm not there."

"I'll join you in a second," she answered, releasing her hand. "Run along, Ronnie."

"All right." He smiled. "Don't forget what I said."

She turned back to watch the stars. They were so close she had a silly desire to stretch tall, to reach up and up and up and pluck one. She laughed softly. Maybe there was always a night in one's life when the stars came down.

A cool voice made her turn around. Sarah was standing near and her blue eyes were dark with anger.

"I take it that you are trying to land Ronald," she said.

(To Be Continued)

BERNSTEIN WAREHOUSE

Glider Scoop

FLOOR SAMPLES

one, two and three of a kind!

REGULAR $9.95
Chairs....$6.95

Opportunity of a lifetime to secure a quality porch glider . . . if you act quickly. These gliders were floor samples at our store and are slightly soiled . . . that is why we are offering them at our warehouse at these extra low, give away prices! First come, first served! Hurry and save money!

REGULAR $18.95
GLIDER...$13.95
Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $21.95
GLIDER...$16.95
Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $23.95
GLIDER...$18.95
Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $25.95
GLIDER...$20.95
Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $27.95
GLIDER...$22.95
Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

A — Coil spring construction for extra comfort!
B — Ball bearing suspension for easy gliding!
C — Rubber tips to prevent from scratching floors!
D — These gliders have regular arms for better comfort and durability. Do not have pillow arms!
E — 6 loose cushions, well tailored and covered with water repellant fabrics.
F — All steel frames for sturdiness and will not rust!

$1 Down and Easy Terms!

Glider Cover FREE!

L. Bernstein Warehouse ....152 UNION ST.

Want Clothes You Can't Afford? Then Make Them Yourself

By AMY PORTER
AP Fashion Writer

Women who are smart about making clothes for themselves always try to encourage fumble-fingered women to go and do likewise. "It's easy," they say, "you could learn how in no time. And you'd save so much."

It's quite true you save a lot if you make your own clothes—provided you like them well enough to wear afterward. But there's no joy in messing up a length of material until it's fit for nothing but doll clothes.

* * *

If you have a yen to sew, get some expert instruction. Most communities have sewing centers where they'll guide you through your maiden venture. Or let your Aunt Katie show you how.

New sewing machines have gadgets to simplify the hardest sewing chores. You can't exactly press a button and, presto, have a dress, but it's much easier than it used to be to accomplish button holes, ruffles, fine hems, shirring.

Don't be too ambitious at first. Try your luck on inexpensive cottons, cut to a simple pattern. Above all, avoid slippery materials, such as thin crepes, or chiffons. They are so hard to manage they might nip your sewing career in the bud. Choose a firm-bodied fabric—shantung, or sharkskin, or chambray.

* * *

If your first dress looks good to you, you're on your way. Soon you'll be designing your own things. Remember when you saw that darling shorts-and-shirt set? The one in blue chambray with eyelet embroidery edging around the high neck and the full-length bishop sleeves? You thought you'd like to have a dress with a top like that. You probably couldn't find such a dress ready-made, but you could make it. If you could, you could.

* * *

Figure problems are easier to solve when you make your own dresses. Get some help in adapting a foundation pattern to your figure, and after that you can adjust all patterns to your master design. Think of the alteration costs you won't have.

Now's the time to start your sewing hobby, if you're going to do it at all. This summer you can buy enough material for a sports dress for $1.50 or less, enough for an evening dress for $2 or $3.

These make-them-yourself summer dresses are sweet and pretty and just right to take on your vacation. They're both made of inexpensive sheer cottons. The bow-knot dress is sweetened with ruffles. The other has that long-torso look.

Reindeer milk is said to be the richest of eleven different kinds of milk listed in the 1939 Federal Yearbook of Agriculture.

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company To Open Mirror Plant at Ford City

PITTSBURGH, July 1 (AP) — The Pittsburgh Plate Glass company announced here it had begun construction of an assembly line mirror plant with an annual capacity of 750,000 square feet at Ford City, Pa.

The new plant represents a transition from hand work to more efficient continuous methods of manufacture. Large pieces of glass will be almost constant motion as they are edge-polished, washed, silvered, copper plated and painteed.

Mirrors with a width of as much as six feet can be made with the continuous process in the plant, which is expected to begin production next autumn.

Lost Aviators Drop Bombs in Switzerland

BERN, July 1 (AP)—Two bombing planes whose pilots apparently became lost or wanted to drop their load of explosives where they would do the least harm loosed twenty-four English trademarked bombs today into peat bogs and forest foothills of the Swiss Alps.

The Swiss high command communique said two foreign planes crossed the Rhine river from Germany, continued to the Schwyz canton in Central Switzerland, dropped the bombs, then headed west toward France.

Military observers expressed belief that the planes were British whose pilots became lost on a raid aimed at southwestern Germany.

The Schwya Canton commands the passes from the northern Alpine range and is twenty-seven air miles from the Italian lake district.

Only last Friday the British government assumed responsibility for damages and offered its regrets for a bombing in southwestern Switzerland on June 12 by English planes which had lost their way. Seven persons were killed and twenty injured in that bombing.

Beware the Drum Major

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Ella Keeling, 43, hardly thought she was in danger as she stood on a downtown street watching a parade.

But a baton slipped from the grasp of a band's drum major and struck her in the head, sending her to a hospital for treatment of a severe scalp laceration.

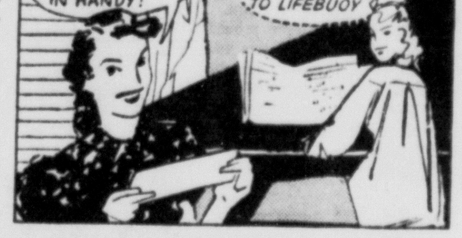

666 checks MALARIA in 7 days and relieves COLDS
Liquid—Tablets—Salve—Nose Drops symptoms first day
Try "Rub-My-Tism"—a Wonderful Liniment
Advertisement

Lifebuoy Contains An Exclusive Deodorizing Ingredient

EVEN in the hottest weather—you can depend on Lifebuoy in your daily bath to prevent "B.O."! Aren't these words of comfort to all you who value the respect of others?

You'll love Lifebuoy for the sheer joy of the most refreshing, peppy bath you ever dreamed of. Volumes of purifying lather! Lifebuoy Health Soap in your daily bath makes you really clean—free of "B.O." due to heat or nervousness. More people use Lifebuoy for their bath than any other soap. Get Lifebuoy now, and get a kick out of your bath!

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP Its crisp odor goes in a Jiffy Its Protection lasts and lasts

Almanac for June

Flower: Honeysuckle

Birthstone: Pearl

Weather: Hot Wave Coming

Warning: Look Out for "B.O." —the Enemy of Popularity!

Love without Music

by Helen Welshimer

WRITTEN FOR AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

SYNOPSIS

THE CHARACTERS:

LINDA AVERY, receptionist at a New York models' agency, starts to rebuild her romance with

RONALD STAFFORD, her childhood sweetheart, who has "swung his way to fame on a trumpet," but

SARAH MARKLEY, wealthy glamor girl, is trying to capture Ronald for herself. Meanwhile

ROBERT BARTON, young engineer who lives in the apartment above, strikes up a friendship with Linda.

* * *

YESTERDAY: Linda has lunch with Ronnie, who treats her in the same endearing way he used to do. Later, when Robert comes to take her to Sarah Markley's party, he tells Linda he saw Sarah's name in a gossip column.

Sarah spoke to Linda. "Do I know you?" she asked.

CHAPTER FOUR

LINDA reached for her evening wrap, thinking intently about Robert Barton's words. So Sarah Markley's role as a breaker of hearts was well known. And Robert's family knew her and had suggested he call her. Therefore, somewhere his social sphere and Sarah's must meet.

But that was not important. She wanted to see the evening paper and find out how far Sarah had gone in her attempt to annex Ronald.

"I've a paper along," Robert said, and drew it from his overcoat pocket. "Here—just a few liner."

Linda read them.

"Sarah Markley, most dazzling member of last season's glamor crew, is conferring all her favors on a young man with a horn. The young man—and plenty of debs have their eyes on him—is Ronald Stafford, who is featured in Sarah's father's new music hit, due to open next week."

"It says that she likes him, but not that he likes her," Linda heard her voice saying out loud quite as though the man weren't there.

He chuckled and his eyes were teasing. "And you, I gather, know the young man." His voice waited, though, quite as if it wanted a negative answer.

"Down in Hamilton, Va., where we both grew up, I used to play the piano for him at recitals. That was when his trumpet was making all the neighbors jittery but I thought it was beautiful!"

He nodded, not answering, and all the way to the Markley residence, in one of the whitest, largest apartment houses on Park avenue, he chatted of trivial things. But when they were entering the private lift to be carried to the penthouse, he put his hand impulsively over Linda's.

"I'm sticking around if you need a champion," he said.

Linda left her wrap in the luxuriously furnished dressing room, whose mirrored walls reflected him, svelte women of all ages who were powdering their noses, putting a braver red on their lips. Suddenly she was eager to get away from them, to be back with Robert. She did not want Ronald to see her alone in the group of women who so plainly belonged. She was grateful that Robert was waiting for her near the entrance, just outside.

The, drawing room was long ide surrounded by a terrace on ree sides. On the other a long sta of other rooms appeared. A rving staircase at one side led a long balcony and other steps yond it went to other floors. So this was Sarah's setting. rah, herself, in white satin, oved graciously among her ests.

"We should make ourselves own," Linda murmured to Rob-. His eyes were amused. "Let's get over with. The girl in ethereal radiance, I take it, is the vampire. She's coming to meet us."

"Not to meet us, to meet you," Linda murmured, noting that Sarah's eyes were on the man.

Sarah spoke to Linda. "Do I know you?" she asked. Then she turned to Robert. "I'm positive I don't know you." Her smile was dazzling.

Linda spoke cooly, slowly, explaining who she was, mentioning Robert's name.

"Oh, of course. How stupid of me," Sarah said then. "You know Ronnie. Now I remember. He's around somewhere. But you're the Robert Barton—Rob Barton, everyone I know who knows you calls you. I heard you were doing a construction job in town this winter. And you haven't let us be nice to you."

But her eyes said, "The gates to Paradise were open and you haven't knocked!"

"I'm busy most of the time," Robert answered casually. "I got out of the social routine when I went in for engineering. But I let Linda coax me out of my hole tonight."

He said it carelessly, but Linda understood. He was trying to tell Sarah that he knew Linda, had had time for her. Her eyes met his, and impulsively Robert's crinkled into laughter and she smiled, too. She had helped him out last night and he was helping her tonight, she reminded herself. But it was more than that which was in the smile. Mysteriously, she had met this tall young stranger. Oddly enough, he was working into her pattern.

Then she saw Ronald coming, his yellow head held high, his blue eyes, steady and merry, meeting her own. She wished that Sarah would slip her arm through Robert's and lead him away. She wanted to be alone with Ronnie for a moment—just an interlude to tell him that the flowers were beautiful.

His quick eyes saw them, smiled appreciation. His hand clasp was vital and strong as he was introduced to Robert. The two men got along easily enough. It was Sarah whose smooth white brow was puzzled.

It was through Ronald's arm that Sarah slipped a white hand on which gleamed a huge, square-cut emerald, set in a band of sapphires.

"Come on, Ronnie. We have to greet people."

"I'll join you in a minute," he said. "Mind if I steal Linda a minute, Barton? We have a year to catch up with."

So in the end Linda stood on a balcony that swung close to the stars and Ronald kissed her again. Down below there were scattered lights where taxicabs crept through dark streets and shining ones. Far across the river other lights swung like lanterns up the hills.

"You're sweet, Lin," Ronald was saying. "And I've found you. Don't get lost from me again, will you, honey?"

Don't get lost. . . . But she hadn't been. It was Ronald who had gone away. Was it always the man who wandered? Who followed a singing wind somewhere? But we come back, Robert Barton had said. Did men always come back? Did they stay for a little while or tarry forever?

Standing on the windy balcony, with the violet mist of her frock blowing around her knees, and the green orchids on her shoulder she had a sudden fear. When Ronald kissed her again she clung to him a second.

"I love you," he said, and then as quickly reached for her hand. "Come on, honey, that's my band starting and I'm not there."

"I'll join you in a second," she answered, releasing her hand. "Run along, Ronnie."

"All right." He smiled. "Don't forget what I said."

She turned back to watch the stars. They were so close she had a silly desire to stretch tall, to reach up and up and up and pluck one. She laughed softly. Maybe there was always a night in one's life when the stars came down.

A cool voice made her turn around. Sarah was standing near and her blue eyes were dark with anger.

"I take it that you are trying to land Ronald," she said.

(To Be Continued)

BERNSTEIN WAREHOUSE

Glider Scoop

FLOOR SAMPLES one, two and three of a kind!

Opportunity of a lifetime to secure a quality porch glider . . . if you act quickly. These gliders were floor samples at our store and are slightly soiled . . . that is why we are offering them at our warehouse at these extra low, give away prices! First come, first served! Hurry and save money!

REGULAR $9.95 Chairs....$6.95

REGULAR $18.95 GLIDER... $13.95 Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $21.95 GLIDER... $16.95 Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $23.95 GLIDER... $18.95 Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $25.95 GLIDER... $20.95 Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

REGULAR $27.95 GLIDER... $22.95 Six cushions, water repellent fabrics, full 6 ft. length. Ball bearing.

A Coil spring construction for extra comfort!

B Ball bearing suspension for easy gliding!

C Rubber tips to prevent from scratching floors!

D These gliders have regular arms for better comfort and durability. Do not have pillow arms!

E 6 loose cushions, well tailored and covered with water repellant fabrics.

F All steel frames for sturdiness and will not rust!

$1 Down and Easy Terms!

Glider Cover FREE!

L. Bernstein Warehouse ....152 UNION ST.

Swimming Is The Best Form Of Exercise

Nose and Ear Infections Are Sometimes Caused by Dirty Water

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Swimming is accepted as the best form of all-round exercise. For the non-professional athlete, it has many advantages. There is no strain on the feet and it, therefore, appeals to many who cannot play golf, tennis or go on walking tours on account of flatfoot, arthritis or other pedal disability. And swimming exercises practically every muscle of the body.

Beware Infections

Swimming has some health hazards of its own. One that is constantly debated is the possibility of nose and ear infections. These are generally blamed on dirty and contaminated water—pools, springs, lakes or rivers—but Dr. H. Marshall Taylor, of Jacksonville Fla., has been calling our attention to other mechanisms.

Dr. Taylor had a number of patients with sinuses and ears infected as a result of swimming, in which contaminated water could hardly have been a factor, because they frequented a swimming pool fed by a spring having a flow in excess of 145,000 gallons of fresh water a minute. These pools had a very low bacteria count, and they contained no irritating chemicals.

We're Landlubbers

The other factors which bring about these infections are structural in man's anatomy. Man is not adapted to an aquatic existence. As in all air-breathing animals, the epithelial cells which line the nose are admirably adapted to resisting air-borne infection, but are not capable of dealing with water-borne infection.

Air-breathing animals who lead a semi-aquatic existence, according to Dr. Taylor's extensive studies, are capable of closing the nose and ears while under water, and so protect their respiratory mucous membranes. The alligator has a muscle around the openings of the nose so that they can be closed while he is under water. Semi-aquatic birds have no nostrils—the pelican and the cormorant.

The hippotamus is a mammal, like man, but unlike man an aquatic mammal and its under-water mechanism is perfect. Did you ever see a hippotamus with sinus trouble? No, and you never will! The reason is the nostrils of the hippotamus are a pair of slits which can be opened and closed by the action of circular muscles surrounding them. They close when the hippotamus submerges.

Breathing Protects

The lesson is that the protection you have against respiratory infection under water consists in proper breathing—exhale through the nose while under water and inhale through the mouth while swimming on the surface and you maintain a positive air pressure in the nasal cavities which protects the nose and ears from infection.

Aquatic animals also have means of closing the ears under water. We can imitate this by using ear drums, but this is of less importance because ear infections from swimming come almost exclusively from nose and throat infection, which invades the ear by going up the Eustachian tube.

Questions and Answers

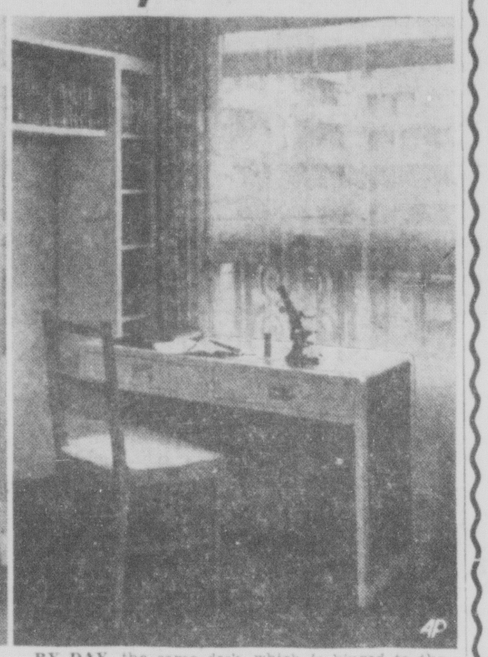

Mrs. B.—"Will you please tell me whether using fresh lemons diluted with water for a rinse after shampooing my hair will do any harm to it? It is blonde and I would like to keep it that way."

Answer—On the contrary, it is generally considered that a lemon rinse is a good thing after a shampoo. I have no reason to believe that it will change the color of the hair.

Swing Corner for a Boy's Room . . .

BY NIGHT a quiet nook for doing homework, this swinging table-desk is illuminated by an overhead, built-in light. It is fitted in between book shelves and at the left, a swing-door cupboard that can be as ample as space allows. It was designed by Paul Bry.

BY DAY, the same desk, which is hinged to the book shelf and has casters on its fold-over end, can be swung in front of the window where a boy hobbyist can get plenty of daylight. It has blue linoleum top and sides—easy to wash—and is painted beige.

Man Is Shot to Death In Parked Automobile

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Charles Kirsch, 25, was found shot to death in his automobile which was parked on a suburban road.

Coroner S. S. Bobes reported Kirsch had been shot through the heart and that there were powder burns on the clothing. A .22 caliber rifle which fired the fatal shot was found on the ground outside the car with a shoestring tied to the trigger. There was one bullet in the body and two in the car.

Since all doors and windows of the machine were closed, Dr. Bobes expressed belief someone opened the door and then closed it after the rifle had fallen to the ground. No verdict was announced immediately after asbestos was discovered and named by Pliny, the Greeks first made burial shrouds of the mineral so that after the funeral fire died down, the ashes of the asbestos wrapped body could be separated from those of the wood used to make the fire.

A&P SUPER MARKET
No. 1 Wineow St.
FREE PARKING

No. 1 Potatoes peck 25c

Calif. Lemons	doz.	23c
Bananas	5 lbs.	25c
Green Peppers	lb.	10c
Watermelons	ea.	45c
Oranges	doz.	23c

FLOUR Sunnyfield Family or Pastry 24 lb. sack 59c

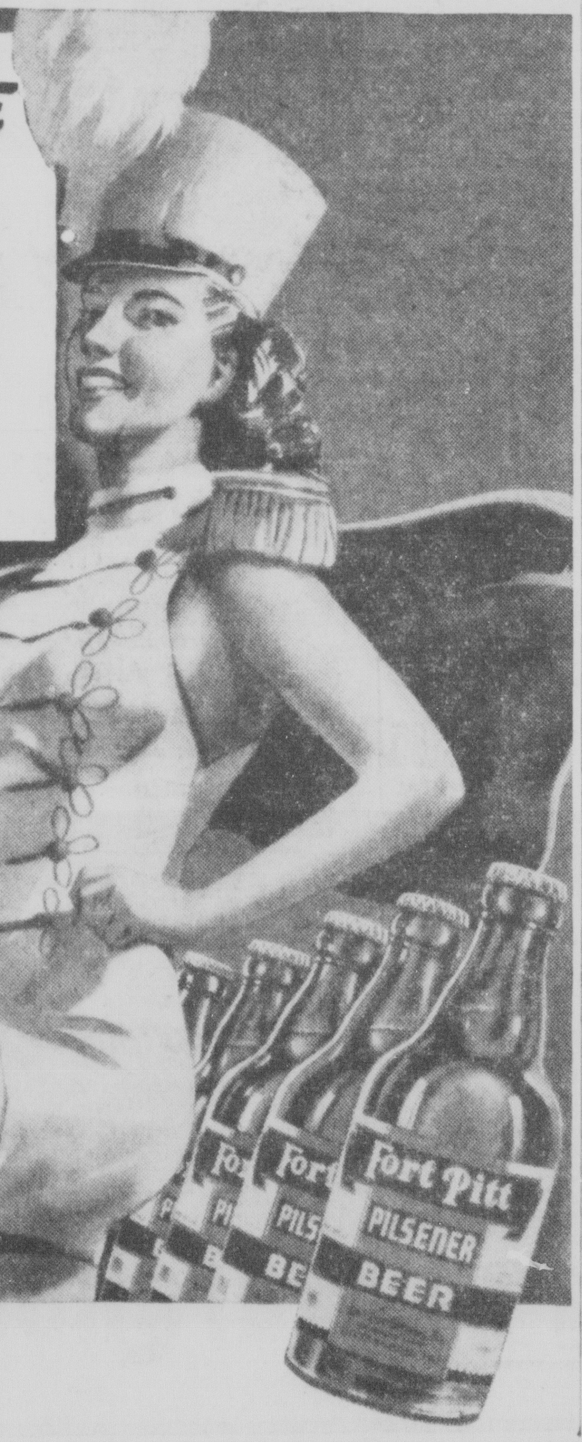

Heinz Soups Med. Can 12c

WHEAT PUFFS 2 8-oz pkg. 15c

Candy Bars	3 for	10c
Baking Powder	12 oz. can	10c
Wheaties	2 pkgs.	21c
Spry-Crisco	3 lbs.	45c
Macaroni	3 lbs.	17c

dexo 3 Lb. Can 39c

JOIN THE PARADE
Drink
FORT PITT BEER
Pilsener — Special — Ale

FORT PITT BREWING COMPANY · PITTSBURGH, PA.

McCRORY'S AIR-CONDITIONED McCRORY'S

GLORIOUS VALUES FOR A GLORIOUS FOURTH

Shop in Cool Comfort For All Your Needs at McCRORY'S

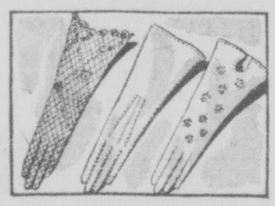

Your holiday, vacation and summer needs were anticipated by McCrory's—Here you will find large selections of crisp, new merchandise at lowest possible prices.

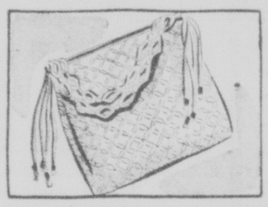

Ladies' Smart White Millinery 89c and $1.00
Everyone must have a white hat now. See our large selection of sailors and turbans.
Crepe Off-The-Face HATS 59c
Ladies' Mesh Top TURBANS 49c
White and Candy Striped
Children's HATS 25c
Styles as smart as Mothers and big sister's too.

Ladies' WHITE GLOVES 10c to 59c
Extra Long White Gloves 59c

WHITE JEWELRY 10c and 25c
Necklaces - Bracelets - Pins

Ladies' White Purses 49c to 89c
Envelope, pouch and zipper styles. Large and small purses. Leather and fabric.

Ladies' Clear Chiffon Hose
Full Fashioned, All Shades pr. 69c

Kiddies' SUN SUITS
Sizes 2 to 6—All colors. A large selection.
15c and 25c

Growing Girls' Sun Suits
Sizes 7 to 14. All Colors 39c and 49c

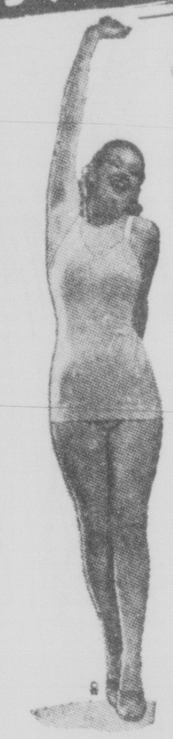

Ladies' and Children's ANKLETS 10c 15c 20c
In a complete range of sizes. All colors including white.

Make McCrory's Your Headquarters For PICNIC SUPPLIES
Wax Paper pkg. 5c and 10c
Napkins pkg. 5c and 10c
Paper Cups pkg. 5c and 10c
For Hot or Cold Drinks
Also Paper Plates, Forks, Spoons, etc.

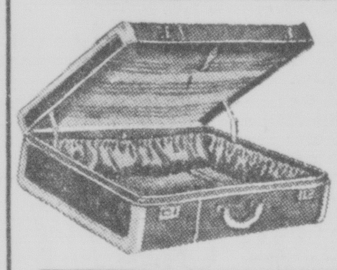

Fountain Special
Tuesday and Wednesday
Fresh Pineapple SUNDAE
Fresh Pineapple over Ice Cream topped with Whipped Cream and Cherries. Regularly 15c 10c

See McCrory's Complete Line of BATHING SUITS

Ladies' Silk Lastex Suits $1.98
Ladies' Sharkskin and Satin Suits $1.98
Misses' Sharkskin Lastex Suits $1.69 up
Children's Bathing Suits. Sizes 4 to 8 69c and 79c
Bathing Caps 10c and 25c
Beach SLIPPERS 59c

Complete Line of SUMMER LUGGAGE
25c to $1.00
Including Overnight Cases, Hat Boxes, Suit Cases and Airline Overnight Cases.

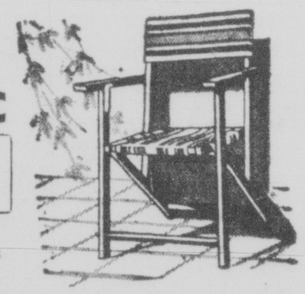

Ladies' Smartly Styled Rayon Acetate DRESSES
Beautiful floral prints on white grounds . . . Guaranteed fast color. Sizes 14 to 44. $1.00

POPLIN DRESSES
A new shipment—New summer styles. Sizes 14 to 52 $1.00

EXTRA SPECIAL!
Ladies' Seersucker DRESSES
Candy Stripes. All Colors. Regular $1 Values. 69c

Beach Chairs Reduced!
Regular $1.00 Beach Chairs 79c

CAMP STOOLS, Regularly 29c 19c
Reg. 39c Beach Chairs 29c
Reg. 49c Beach Chairs 39c

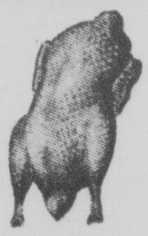

Delicatessen Special for the Fourth

Baked Ham lb. 40c
And a complete line of Cold Cuts for the picnic basket. Pickles, Olives and Cheese of all kind.

Candies and Cookies
Make your picnic complete with these delicious goodies. lb. 10c & 15c

Chickens Reduced For the Fourth
Breasts Springers lb. 47c
Legs and Thighs Springers, lb. 43c
Stewing Chickens Whole lb. 28c

Refreshing Lunches and Drinks at our Fountain

McCRORY'S
5 - 10 and 25c Store
110 - 112 - 114 BALTIMORE STREET

Indirect Lighting for Your Convenience

Swimming Is The Best Form Of Exercise

Nose and Ear Infections Are Sometimes Caused by Dirty Water

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Swimming is accepted as the best form of all-round exercise. For the non-professional athlete, it has many advantages. There is no strain on the feet and it, therefore, appeals to many who cannot play golf, tennis or go on walking tours on account of flatfoot, arthritis or other pedal disability. And swimming exercises practically every muscle of the body.

Beware Infections

Swimming has some health hazards of its own. One that is constantly debated is the possibility of nose and ear infections. These are generally blamed on dirty and contaminated water—pools, springs, lakes or rivers—but Dr. H. Marshall Taylor, of Jacksonville Fla., has been calling our attention to other mechanisms.

Dr. Taylor had a number of patients with sinuses and ears infected as a result of swimming in which contaminated water could hardly have been a factor, because they frequented a swimming pool fed by a spring having a flow in excess of 145,000 gallons of fresh water a minute. These pools had a very low bacteria count, and they contained no irritating chemicals.

We're Landlubbers

The other factors which bring about these infections are structural in man's anatomy. Man is not adapted to an aquatic existence. As in all air-breathing animals, the epithelial cells which line the nose are admirably adapted to resisting air-borne infection, but are not capable of dealing with water-borne infection.

Air-breathing animals who lead a semi-aquatic existence, according to Dr. Taylor's extensive studies, are capable of closing the nose and ears while under water, and so protect their respiratory mucous membranes. The alligator has a muscle around the openings of the nose so that they can be closed while he is under water. Semi-aquatic birds have no nostrils—the pelican and the cormorant.

The hippotamus is a mammal, like man, but unlike man an aquatic mammal and its under-water mechanism is perfect. Did you ever see a hippotamus with sinus trouble? No, and you never will! The reason is the nostrils of the hippotamus are a pair of slits which can be opened and closed by the action of circular muscles surrounding them. They close when the hippotamus submerges.

Breathing Protects

The lesson is that the protection you have against respiratory infection under water consists in proper breathing—exhale through the nose while under water and inhale through the mouth while swimming on the surface and you maintain a positive air pressure in the nasal cavaties which protects the nose and ears from infection.

Aquatic animals also have means of closing the ears under water. We can imitate this by using ear drums, but this is of less importance because ear infections from swimming come almost exclusively from nose and throat infection, which invades the ear by going up the Eustachian tube.

Questions and Answers

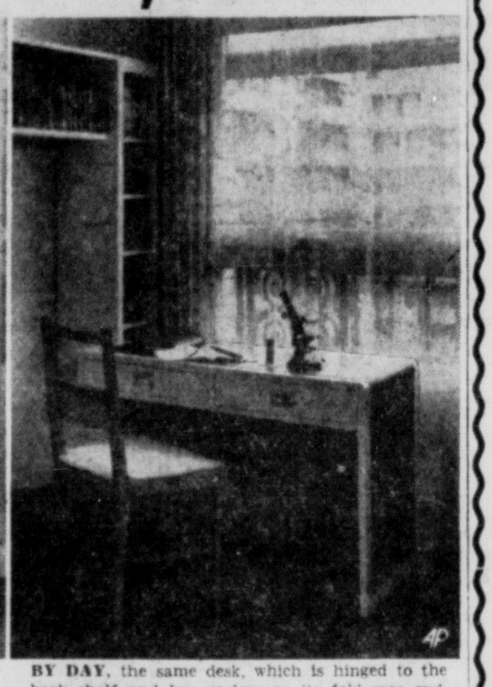

Mrs. B.—"Will you please tell me whether using fresh lemons diluted with water for a rinse after shampooing my hair will do any harm to it? It is blonde and I would like to keep it that way."

Answer—On the contrary, it is generally considered that a lemon rinse is a good thing after a shampoo. I have no reason to believe that it will change the color of the hair.

Swing Corner for a Boy's Room . . .

BY NIGHT a quiet nook for doing homework, this swinging table-desk is illuminated by an overhead, built-in light. It is fitted in between book shelves and at the left, a swing-door cupboard that can be as ample as space allows. It was designed by Paul Bry.

BY DAY, the same desk, which is hinged to the book shelf and has casters on its fold-over end, can be swung in front of the window where a boy hobbyist can get plenty of daylight. It has blue linoleum top and sides—easy to wash—and is painted beige.

Man Is Shot to Death In Parked Automobile

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Charles Kirsch, 25, was found shot to death in his automobile which was parked on a suburban road.

Coroner S. S. Bobes reported Kirsch had been shot through the heart and that there were powder burns on the clothing. A 22 caliber rifle which fired the fatal shot was found on the ground outside the car with a shoestring tied to the trigger. There was one bullet in the body and two in the car.

Since all doors and windows of the machine were closed, Dr. Bobes expressed belief someone opened the door and then closed it after the rifle had fallen to the ground. No verdict was announced immediately.

After asbestos was discovered and named by Pliny, the Greeks first made burial shrouds of the mineral so that after the funeral fire died down, the ashes of the asbestos wrapped body could be separated from those of the wood used to make the fire.

A&P SUPER MARKET
No. 1 Wineow St.
FREE PARKING

No. 1 Potatoes peck 25c

Calif. Lemons ... dor. 23c
Bananas ... 5 lbs. 25c
Green Peppers ... lb. 10c
Watermelons ... ea. 45c
Oranges ... doz. 23c

FLOUR
Sunnyfield Family or Pastry
24 lb. sack 59c

Heinz Soups Med. Can 12c

WHEAT PUFFS 2 8-oz pkg. 15c

Candy Bars 3 for 10c
Baking Powder 12 oz. can 10c
Wheaties 2 pkgs. 21c
Spry-Crisco 3 lbs. 45c
Macaroni 3 lbs. 17c

dexo 3 Lb. Can 39c

FORT PITT BREWING COMPANY · PITTSBURGH, PA.

McCRORY'S AIR-CONDITIONED McCRORY'S

GLORIOUS VALUES FOR A GLORIOUS FOURTH

Shop in Cool Comfort For All Your Needs at McCRORY'S

Your holiday, vacation and summer needs were anticipated by McCrory's—Here you will find large selections of crisp, new merchandise at lowest possible prices.

Ladies' Smart White Millinery
89c and $1.00
Everyone must have a white hat now. See our large selection of sailors and turbans.
Crepe Off-The-Face
HATS ... 59c
Ladies' Mesh Top
TURBANS 49c
White and Candy Striped
Children's
HATS ... 25c
Styles as smart as Mothers and big sister's too.

Ladies' WHITE GLOVES
10c to 59c
Extra Long White Gloves 59c

WHITE JEWELRY
10c and 25c
Necklaces - Bracelets - Pins

Ladies' White Purses
49c to 89c
Envelope, pouch and zipper styles. Large and small purses. Leather and fabric.

Ladies' Clear Chiffon Hose
Full Fashioned, All Shades ... pr. 69c

Kiddies' SUN SUITS
Sizes 2 to 6—All colors. A large selection.
15c and 25c

Growing Girls' Sun Suits
Sizes 7 to 14. All Colors ... 39c and 49c

Ladies' and Children's ANKLETS
10c 15c 20c
In a complete range of sizes. All colors including white.

Make McCrory's Your Headquarters For PICNIC SUPPLIES
Wax Paper ... pkg. 5c and 10c
Napkins ... pkg. 5c and 10c
Paper Cups ... pkg. 5c and 10c
For Hot or Cold Drinks
Also Paper Plates, Forks, Spoons, etc.

Fountain Special
Tuesday and Wednesday
Fresh Pineapple SUNDAE
Fresh Pineapple over Ice Cream topped with Whipped Cream and Cherries. Regularly 15c ... 10c

See McCrory's Complete Line of BATHING SUITS
Ladies' Silk Lastex Suits ... $1.98
Ladies' Sharkskin and Satin Suits ... $1.98
Misses' Sharkskin Lastex Suits ... $1.69 up
Children's Bathing Suits. Sizes 4 to 8 .. 69c and 79c
Bathing Caps 10c and 25c
Beach SLIPPERS 59c

Complete Line of SUMMER LUGGAGE
25c to $1.00
Including Overnight Cases, Hat Boxes, Suit Cases and Airline Overnight Cases.

Ladies' Smartly Styled Rayon Acetate
DRESSES
Beautiful floral prints on white grounds . . . Guaranteed fast color. Sizes 14 to 44.
$1.00

POPLIN DRESSES
A new shipment—New summer styles. Sizes 14 to 52 ... $1.00

EXTRA SPECIAL!
Ladies' Seersucker DRESSES
Candy Stripes. All Colors. Regular $1 Values.
69c

Beach Chairs Reduced!
Regular $1.00 Beach Chairs 79c
CAMP STOOLS, Regularly 29c ... 19c
Reg. 39c Beach Chairs 29c
Reg. 49c Beach Chairs 39c

Delicatessen Special for the Fourth
Baked Ham
lb. 40c
And a complete line of Cold Cuts for the picnic basket. Pickles, Olives and Cheese of all kind.

Candies and Cookies
Make your picnic complete with these delicious goodies. lb. 10c & 15c

Chickens Reduced For the Fourth
Breasts Springers ... lb. 47c
Legs and Thighs Springers, lb. 43c
Stewing Chickens Whole ... lb. 28c

Refreshing Lunches and Drinks at our Fountain

McCRORY'S
5 - 10 and 25c Store
110 - 112 - 114 BALTIMORE STREET

Indirect Lighting for Your Convenience

Stocks Drift Lower as Traders Generally Stay Out of Market

Transfers of 272,920 Shares among Smallest in 18 Years

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—It was a drifting session for the stock market today as most traders restrained purchases, pending more light on foreign and domestic affairs.

The proceedings were the second slowest in eighteen years and declines of fractions to more than a point predominated at the close. Steels, motors, aircrafts and specialties accounted for the principal recessions.

Transfers at 272,920 shares compared with 1,173,100 last Friday and were the smallest for a full session, with the exception of July 3, 1939, since 1922.

Prominent losers included U. S. Steel, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, Westinghouse, American Smelting, Phelps Dodge, Texas Corp., Consolidated Edison, du Pont and Eastman Kodak.

Aluminum of America lost four points in the curb. Lesser declines were registered for American Cyanamid "B", American Gas, Electric Bond and Share, Republic Aviation and Brewster Aero.

Volume was 74,000 shares against 286,000 in the preceding full session.

Mirror of Markets

	Mon	Sat
Advances	159	133
Declines	271	161
Unchanged	128	127
Total issues	558	421

Total sales: 272,920.

Treasury balance: $1,917,723,-101.50.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Closing stocks.

	High	Low	Last
Allegheny Corp	11-16	11-16	11-16
Allied Strs	6	6	6
Allis Ch Mfg	27½	27	27
Am Can	96	96	96
Am Power & Lite	3¾	3½	3¾
Am Rad & St S	6¼	5⅞	6
Am Roll Mill	11¼	10⅞	11
Am Smelt & R	37	37	37
Am Tel & Tel	161	159½	159⅞
Am Tob B	77	77	77
Am Wat Works	9¼	8⅞	8⅞
Anaconda	20¼	19⅞	20
Arm Ill	4¼	4	4⅛
Atch T & SF	16	15	15⅞
Balt & Ohio	3⅞	3¾	3⅞
Beth Steel	75¼	74¾	75
Budd Mfg	3¾	3¾	3¾
Budd Wheel	5	5	5
Can Pacific	3	3	3
Celanese Corp	26¼	26	26⅛
Ches & Ohio	37	36¼	36¾
Chrysler Corp	63⅜	62	62¼
Colum G & El	6½	6⅜	6⅜
Comi Solvents	9	9	9
Comwlth & South	1½	1½	1½
Cons Edison	28⅛	28	28
Consol Oil	6¼	6¼	6¼
Cont Oil Del	17⅜	17⅛	17⅛
Curtiss Wright	7	7	7
Douglas Aircraft	68¼	66⅝	67
duPont De N	158	157¼	157½
El Auto Lite	31¼	30⅜	30⅝
El Power & Lt	5¾	5⅝	5⅞
Erie RR	1	1	1
Gen Electric	21½	20⅝	21⅛
Gen Foods	41¾	41	41¼
Gen Motors	43⅝	42¼	42⅝
Goodrich (BF)	12⅝	12⅜	12⅝
Goodyear T & R	14⅞	14⅜	14⅝
Greyhound Corp	11⅝	11⅛	11⅜
Illinois Central	7½	7¼	7¼
Inger Rand	90	88¼	88¼
Int Harvester	43¼	41	43¼
Int Nick Can	22⅞	22½	22⅝
Int Tel & Tel	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
Johns Manville	54½	54¼	54⅝
Kennecot Cop	25¾	25⅛	25⅜
Lib O F Glass	35	35	35
Liggett & My B	98¾	98¼	98¾
Loews Inc	24⅞	24¼	24⅝
Montgom Ward	39⅞	38¾	38⅝
Nat Biscuit	19	18⅞	19
Nat Dairy Pr	12⅝	12¼	12⅜
Nat Power & Lt	7⅞	7⅝	7⅞
N Y Central RR	11⅝	11½	11⅝
Northern Pacific	6⅛	6	6
Ohio Oil	6⅛	6	6
Owens Ill Glass	49	48	49
Packard Motor	3⅜	3½	3⅜
Param Pictures	5⅜	5	5
Penn RR	19⅞	19¾	19¾
Phelps Dodge	27⅛	26⅞	27¼
Public Svc N J	36⅝	36¼	36½
Pullman	21	20¾	21⅛
Pure Oil	7¼	7⅛	7⅛
Radio Corp of Am	4¾	4⅝	4⅝
Republic Steel	16⅞	16⅝	16⅞
Sears Roebuck	72½	72⅛	72⅝
Socony Vacuum	8⅝	8¼	8⅜
Southern Pacific	8¾	8⅝	8⅝
Stand Brands	6	6	6
Stand Oil Cal	18½	18	18⅜
Stand Oil Ind	22¾	22⅜	22⅝
Stand Oil N J	33	32⅝	32⅞
Stone & Webster	8¾	8⅝	8⅝
Studebaker Corp	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞
Swift & Co	19⅞	19⅝	19⅞
Union Carbide	68¾	67⅝	68
United Aircraft	33¾	32⅞	32⅞
United Gas Imp	12⅝	12	12
U S Rubber	19⅝	18⅝	19⅛
U S Steel	52	50⅝	50⅞
Walworth	3⅞	3⅝	3⅞
Warner Bros Pict	2¼	2¼	2¼
West Maryland	3¼	3¼	3¼
West Union Tel	17¾	17½	17½
West El & Mfg	90¼	89¼	89¾
Woolworth (FW)	31⅛	30⅝	31⅛
Yellow Tr & Coach	12⅝	12⅛	12⅛

New York Curb

Closing quotations furnished by Stein Brothers and Boyce, brokers, 16 North Liberty street.

Arkansas Natural Gas "A"	2⅛
Bellanca Aircraft	4
Canadian Marconi	½
Cities Service	5
Electric Bond & Share	6
Jones & Laughlin Steel	21
Molybdenum	5⅛
Niagara Hudson Power	4¾
Pennroad Corp	1⅜
Pitney-Bowes Postage Meter	6¼
Republic Aviation	4⅛
Technicolor	10
United Air Products	10½
United Gas Corp	1⅜

New York Produce

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — Eggs (2 days receipts) 35,915; firm.

Whites: (Resale of premium marks 25½-28); nearby and midwestern premium marks 22½-25; specials 22; standards 17¾-18.

Butter (2 days receipts) 2,184,976, firm. Creamery, higher than extra 27½-28¼; extra (92 score) tubs 27, cartons 26¾-27; firsts (88-91) 25¼-26¾; seconds (84-87) 24-25.

Bonds Inactive

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—A few industrial and utility issues strove to exert a rising motive to the bond market today against general trading inertia.

The result was that only $3,466,-200, face value, of bonds changed hands compared with $5,360,500 last Friday.

U. S. Governments gained as much as three-fourths point in trades of one or two bonds.

Baltimore Produce

Baltimore, July 1 (AP)—Apples—About steady Md., Pa., Va., and W. Va., 1 1-5-bushel boxes, U. S. 1s 2½ inch minimum, Minesaps 1.75-2.25; Ganos 1.50-2.00; Bushel baskets U. S. 1s 2½-inch minimum, Romes 2.25-2.50 Ganos 1.50-2.00; Winesaps 1.75-2.25.

Potatoes—Old—Dull. Too few sales to quote; new very dull. Truck N. C. 100-lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s bright 1.25-1.40. Dirty 1.10-1.15 heated 75 cents-1.00; Bushel baskets cobblers U. S. 1s 65-85; barrels cobblers U. S. 1s 2.25; W. Sh. Va. barrels cobblers U. S. 1s 2.00-2.25. Mostly 2.10-2.15 100-lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s 1.25-1.35.

Rail: N. C., 100-lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s fancy 1.40-1.50; Ala. 100-lb. sacks long whites U. S. 1s washed, mostly 2.00. U. S. commer mostly 1.50; Cal. 100-lb. sacks long whites U. S. 1s washed, few sales, 2.75.

Sweet Potatoes—Dull. N. C. bushel baskets Puerto Ricans U. S. 1s 1.25-1.50; ungraded 75-90. Eastern Shore Md. bushel baskets white yams U. S. 1s 90-1.00 ungraded 60-75.

Chickens: Rocks 19-22; crosses 18-21; mixed colors 18-21; leghorns 15-17; Ducks—young Pekins, 5-lbs. and over 13-14; Fowl—Rocks 16-18; mixed colors 15-17; leghorns 11-13. Roosters—Mixed colors 10-12; leghorns 7-10.

Baltimore Cattle

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Cattle 500. Steers active to strong, twenty-five cents higher than Thursday. Good grades 9.50-12.25; offering mostly at 9.75-10.55; 935-lb. yearlings 10.60; choice 1074 lb. steers 11.00; small lot mixed yearlings 9.65; cows and bulls steady to strong; fat cows 6.50-7.25; canners and cutters 4.50-6.00; sausage bulls 6.50-7.25; good choice vealers 9.25-9.75.

Hogs, 1,500. Thirty higher than Friday, fifteen cents above Saturday; good choice 170-210 lbs. 6.00-6.25; top 6.25; 250-300 lbs. 5.25-5.80; 140-150 lbs. 5.35-5.60; 120-130 lbs. 4.95-5.20; packing sows 4.15-4.65.

Sheep 1,100. Spring lambs market unevenly steady, twenty-five cents higher than late last week. Good and choice ewes and wethers 10.40-10.75; fat bucks 1.00 less; top 11.00; common and medium throwouts 7.00-950; odd head fat slaughter ewes 3.00 down.

Chicago Grain Prices

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP) — After dipping to lows unequaled here in the past ten months, wheat prices today rallied almost two cents, closing ⅝-¾ higher than Saturday.

July and September contracts closed at 74⅞-75 and 75½-⅝, which were the highs of the session.

Corn closed ¼-⅜ higher, July 60⅛, September 58-57⅞; oats ¼-⅜ up; soy beans ¾-1½ higher; rye 2½ higher and lard 5-8 higher.

Cash wheat No. 2 yellow hard 76¼. Corn No. 1 yellow 64-66; No 2, 66; No. 4, 63½; No. 1 white 74¾; No. 2, 74¾.

Oats No. 1 mixed 33¾; No. 2, 33½; No. 3, 31½-32¾; sample grade, 30-31½; No. 2 white, 35¼; No. 3, 34-34¾; sample grade 31¾-32½.

Position of Treasury

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The position of the treasury June 28: Receipts, $11,305,888.64; expenditures, $29,991,643.25; net balance, $1,917,723,101.50; working balance included, $1,189,763,812.19; customs receipts for month, $26,423,033.38; receipts for fiscal year (July 1) $5,-869,967,165.25; expenditures $9,561,-503,400.80; excess of expenditures $3,691,536,235.55; gross debt $42,-890,367,782.56; decrease under previous day $16,887,939.23; gold assets $19,962,919,769.06.

Pittsburgh Produce

PITTSBURGH, July 1 (AP)—(U. S. and Pa. Dept. Agr.)—Produce demand moderate.

Apples two cars, about steady, No. 1 bushel baskets Illinois Transparents 2.15-25.

Potatoes sixty-eight cars, about steady. No. 1 100-lb. sacks North Carolina Cobblers 1.50-65; Alabama Bliss Triumphs 2.00-25, Whites 2.10-15; Virginia Cobblers 1.55-65.

Butter firm and unchanged; eggs steady; current receipts 14-15; White Standards 17; hennery white extras 19. Cheese unchanged. Poultry unchanged.

Aged Woman Dies; May Have Been 115

IMPERIAL, Pa., July 1 (AP) — Mary Maple, who had lived in this Allegheny county town eighty years but never knew how old she was, fell dead here while watching her four kittens playing with a string.

She outlived three husbands and guesses on her age ran to 115. She remembered the nomination and election of Abraham Lincoln, but never learned her birth date.

She was born near Grafton, W. Va., in the Cheat mountains. Her mother was an Indian — of the Cheat tribes—her son, John, 50, said.

A physician said her heart "just played out."

Wastes No Time

HOLDENVILLE, OKLA. (AP) — Boyd Kernek, mail carrier, wagered months in advance that the baby expected at his house would be a boy. When the baby arrived at 1 A. M. on a recent morning Kernek gleefully awakened the bettors and before 2 A. M. had collected all wagers.

That Terrific Din in Cuba Will End at Polls July 14

By The (AP) Feature Service

HAVANA.—Cuba's general elections come July 14. The most active campaign ever seen in Cuba is being waged by Senor Fulgencio Batista and Dr. Ramon Grau San Martin, presidential candidates.

Batista, ex-chief of the Cuban army, and Dr. Grau San Martin, a former revolutionary President of the Republic, lead the government and opposition parties, respectively, and 16,000 candidates for other offices second their efforts.

Eleven parties are represented. Seven back Batista; three form the opposition bloc. The other party has its own presidential candidate, Dr. Reinaldo Marquez Camacho, Havana University professor.

A Two-Man Campaign

In the constituent assembly election last Nov. 15, the seven political parties forming the Social-Democratic coalition backing Batista got 709,721 votes; the opposition led by Dr. Grau San Martin cornered only 271,622.

Dr. Camacho is backed by the National Agrarian party. Few experts give him any chance.

Programs of both Batista and Dr. Grau San Martin have been announced through all possible channels. Several radio stations incessantly broadcast political programs both in English and Spanish.

Big neon signs with pictures of Batista, Dr. Grau San Martin and the many candidates for seats in the Senate and House may be seen in the most important places of Havana and other cities. Sound trucks reproduce Batista's recorded speeches with such volume that they may be heard for several blocks. Chartered planes scatter handbills over small towns and rural districts.

Not even private telephones are overlooked. At any time, at home or at the office, a telephone will ring, the call being: "Remember, Batista for President," or "A Cuban President, Dr. Grau San Martin."

More than a hundred workers are active in Batista's political office, receiving and answering 2,000 letters daily. Thousands of the letters go to the United States because of the many Americans having business connections in Cuba.

FULGENCIO BATISTA
Once Led A Coup d'Etat

Both of the leading presidential candidates desire more friendly relations with the United States and would increase commercial relations between the two countries.

Passed Up Second Camp

Batista was an army sergeant Sept. 4, 1933, when he led a coup d'etat which ousted all commissioned officers. For years he had the opportunity to seize the presidency by another coup but avowedly he chose to resign his army command and leave it to the voters to decide whether he should be president or retire from public life.

Dr. Grau San Martin, popular leader of the Cuban Revolutionary party, is the hope of the "civilian bloc" formed by the three principal anti-government parties. Like Camacho, he is a professor at Havana university.

DR. GRAU SAN MARTIN
Civilian Bloc's Favorite

DR. REINALDO CAMACHO
Few Give Him A Chance

AND THERE WAS LIGHT

Peter Godfrey, Max Goeppinger, Spencer Tracy in "Edison, the Man", Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture opening tomorrow at the Maryland theater for a five day showing.

Theaters Today

"Flight Angels" Will Open Wednesday

Wayne Morris is featured in Warner Brothers' "Flight Angels," which opens tomorrow at the New Liberty. Cast as Dennis Morgan's co-pilot, he and Morgan design a new type of stratosphere plane which the army is about to test. Dennis thinks that he should be permitted to make the initial flight but is refused permission because of his failing eyesight. Wayne tries to reason with him but is unable to talk him out of the idea. In addition to consoling Dennis, designing new ships and his regular pilot's job, Wayne has the difficult task of telling Jane Wyman he's in love with her.

"Flight Angels" tells the story of airline hostesses, often called the career girls of the skyways. There have been many aviation films but never before has the story of the Flight Angels been brought to the screen.

The picture features an all-star cast including Virginia Bruce, Dennis Morgan, Wayne Morris, Ralph Bellamy and Jane Wyman.

Three Specials Are Booked by Embassy

Three specials will be offered tomorrow at the Embassy theater.

One will be the official, exclusive fight films of the Joe Louis-Arturo Godoy championship bout at New York.

The second will be Ann Sothern and John Carroll in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Congo Maisie."

The third offering will be Tom Tyler in the action western drama, "Orphans of the Pecos."

In addition the third chapter of "Drums of Fu Manchu" will be offered.

Closing today at the Embassy will be the double feature attraction with D. W. Griffith's spectacular hit, "The Birth of a Nation," and Robert Montgomery in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Earl of Chicago."

Edison Role a Highlight For Spencer Tracy

Spencer Tracy, who is featured in "Edison the Man," dramatic film biography which comes to the Maryland theater tomorrow for an engagement of five days, says his study of the careers of Father Flanagan for "Boys Town," Henry M. Stanley for "Stanley and Livingstone," and Major Robert Rogers for "Northwest Passage," were both inspirational and informative but that Edison's life was a highlight in his research career.

"For one thing," he says, "Edison's patience was astounding. After 9000 items had been tried as light filaments, all failures, someone remarked at his lack of progress and he replied, 'This is progress. I now know 9000 things that won't work.' How many of us would keep on to success after even a thousandths that many failures? Such a man's life cannot help but benefit the world and I'm happy to be portraying him. I hope I can put over just a trace of his greatness."

Closing today on the Maryland stage will be "Cumberland Follies," featuring Lucille Swartley, former Cumberland girl, and a cast of fifty.

The screen attraction is the Weaver Brother and Elviry in the comedy, "Grand Ole Opry".

Cowboy Has a Valet In Western Comedy

A saga of the sagebrush at the Garden theater reveals Jack Benny as a cowboy with a valet—and the valet none other than the inimitable Rochester. The title of this lyrical roedo of fun is "Buck Benny Rides Again."

Practically the entire crew of Benny's justly famous radio program have turned up for his adventures among the dude ranches and the over-stuffed cactus. Andy Devine, Phil Harris, Dennis Day are all present and excellent in their specialties. While Ellen Drew, Virginia Dale, Lillian Cornell and the Abbott Dancers ably and appealingly represent the feminine contingent.

Teamed together for the first time, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Joan Bennett were seen as co-stars in "Green Hell," Famous Productions film for Universal release, now at the Garden.

In the story, Joan is inadvertently marooned in the jungle camp of six men, headed by Fairbanks, who resents here presence because of its demoralizing effect upon his men. Joan is equally spiteful toward him. So they fall in love.

However, the plot requires an attack of savages, the death of two members of the camp and strained relations among all the others to bring about this transition.

Supporting the two stars in this jungle drama are John Howard, Alan Hale, George Bancroft, George Sanders, Vincent Price, and others.

Boy Confesses He Killed "Mean" Father

HOUGHTON, Mich., July 1 (AP)—Sheriff J. G. Salimi said here that fourteen-year-old Albert J. Fountaine, Jr., had confessed waiting in ambush with a .22 caliber rifle and shooting and killing his father because "he was so mean to the family."

The elder Fountaine was killed near his home one and one-half miles south of Chassell as he returned from a fishing expedition on which he was accompanied by his daughter, Alice, 13, and another son, Telesphore, 16.

Goats As Firemen

CARPINTERIA, Calif., (AP)—Goats of this region will be mobilized to see whether their foraging will keep down the growth of firebreaks in Los Padres national forest. Annual clearing of new growth by human labor has been expensive and not entirely successful.

Phila. Businessmen Profit from Convention

PHILADELPHIA, July 1 (AP) — Philadelphia business glanced happily over preliminary figures and ventured a guess today that visitors to the Republican national convention spent $12,000,000, ate 90,000 hot dogs and drank 140,000 bottles of soda pop.

Complete figures were not available but George Elliott, general secretaary of the Chamber of Commerce, asserted business was "fully up to expectations." Earlier he had announced Philadelphia should realize $12,000,000 from its second political convention in four years.

Chief beneficiaries were central city hotels and restaurants, jammed during the five-day conclave. Said Daniel G. Crawford, president of the Philadelphia hotelmen's association:

"The consensus among the hotel men is that the convention was the most successful in the history of the Philadelphia hotel business."

New Activity on Libyan-Egyptian Front

ROME, July 1 (AP) — Land and air fighting of "considerable activity" broke out along the Libyan-Egyptian border line with the Italian high command claiming occupation of "various localities" and destruction of four British planes.

The Italian communique reported capture of several positions on the Cirenaica front, where Air Marshal Italo Balbo crashed to his death Friday.

"Considerable activity of our columns in front of Cirenaica," said the communique. "Various localities were occupied by our troops and attacks by enemy motorized detachments were repelled."

It was claimed that Italian planes shot down two enemy planes during a British attack at the field of Tobruk (Libya), and that a third probably was brought down. The attackers caused no damaged.

Another British plane was believed downed by Italian anti-aircraft artillery during a raid on the airdrome of Massaua (Eritrea).

The communique reported several members of the crews of the planes were taken prisoner.

PATRIOTIC FAVORS FOR 4th OF JULY
Flags - Luncheon Sets
Napkins-Table Covers
Post Card Shop
25 N. Centre St.

A Better Feeling by Better Dressing Through Better Cleaning
Ladies' and Men's Coats and Overcoats Cleaned. 50c
Fur Trimmed Coats ... 75c
CASH & CARRY
Sealed in Moth Proof Bags ... 15c Extra
HARRY FOOTER & CO.
36 N LIBERTY ST. PHONE 197
Robert W. Lee—Frostburg Agt. Phone 82-J

Fort Cumberland Hotel
Dining Room
Week Day Specials
Luncheon ... 50c
Dinner ... 85c

CLEANED & PRESSED
Ladies' Plain Coats, Plain Dresses, Plain Suits, Men's Suits 50c
Cash and Carry
Call For and Deliver 60c
SOUTH END TAILOR SHOP
340 Virginia Ave. Phone 3248

LOANS
UP TO $300
AUTO LOANS
FURNITURE LOANS
INDUSTRIAL LOAN SOCIETY, INC.
Liberty Trust Building 3rd Floor Phone 97

Farewell Week to Whitey Harry and Billie
last week of their 16 week engagement
Cocktail Hours—3 to 5
Evening—8 to 12
★ ★ ★
MARYLAND HOTEL
Cocktail Lounge
N. Mechanic St.
Just off Baltimore

DOUBLE FEATURE
GARDEN AIR-COOLED
TODAY LAST TIMES
JACK BENNY and His Rinky-Tinkers in BUCK BENNY RIDES AGAIN
Douglas FAIRBANKS, Jr. Joan BENNETT in GREEN HELL
WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY — DOUBLE FEATURE
Gene Autry, Jane Withers "SHOOTING HIGH"
Wayne Morris, Margaret Lindsay "DOUBLE ALIBI"

— o ALWAYS COOL o —
New Liberty
LAST TIMES TODAY
A BILL OF DIVORCEMENT
with
MAUREEN O'HARA
ADOLPHE MENJOU
FAY BAINTER
HERBERT MARSHALL
STARTS TOMORROW

with VIRGINIA BRUCE
DENNIS MORGAN
WAYNE MORRIS
RALPH BELLAMY
JANE WYMAN
—ADDED TREATS—
JOHN PAYNE
in "THE SINGING DUDE"
In Technicolor

THE GRACE M. FISHER THEATRES
HOME OWNED - - HOME OPERATED
STARTS TODAY
EMBASSY
COOLED BY REFRIGERATION
Exclusive & Official Fight Films of
LOUIS vs. GODOY
Round-By-Round Blow-By-Blow Description
—ALSO—
Ann Sothern
John Carroll
In M-G-M's
"CONGO MAISIE"
—AND—
TOM TYLER in "Orphans Of The Pecos"
3rd Chapter
"Drums Of Fu Manchu"
It's A Swell Show Don't Miss It

MARYLAND
TOMORROW

EXTRA! "THE FLAG SPEAKS" IN TECHNICOLOR

Stocks Drift Lower as Traders Generally Stay Out of Market

Transfers of 272,920 Shares among Smallest in 18 Years

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—It was a drifting session for the stock market today as most traders restrained purchases, pending more light on foreign and domestic affairs.

The proceedings were the second slowest in eighteen years and declines of fractions to more than a point predominated at the close. Steels, motors, aircrafts and specialties accounted for the principal recessions.

Transfers at 272,920 shares compared with 1,173,100 last Friday and were the smallest for a full session, with the exception of July 3, 1939, since 1922.

Prominent losers included U. S. Steel, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, Westinghouse, American Smelting, Phelps Dodge, Texas Corp., Consolidated Edison, du Pont and Eastman Kodak.

Aluminum of America lost four points in the curb. Lesser declines were registered for American Cyanamid "B", American Gas, Electric Bond and Share, Republic Aviation and Brewster Aero.

Volume was 74,000 shares against 286,000 in the preceding full session.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Closing stocks.

	High	Low	Last
Allegheny Corp	11-16	11-16	11-16
Allied Strs	6	6	6
Allis Ch Mfg	27½	27	27
Am Can	96	96	96
Am Power & Lite	3¾	3½	3¾
Am Rad & St S	6¼	5¾	6
Am Roll Mill	11¼	10¾	11
Am Smelt & R	37	37	37
Am Tel & Tel	161	159½	159½
Am Tob B	77	77	77
Am Wat Works	9¼	8¾	8¾
Anaconda	20¾	19¾	20
Arm Ill	4½	4½	4½
Atch T & SF	16	15	15¼
Balt & Ohio	3¾	3¾	3¾
Beth Steel	75¼	74¼	75
Budd Mfg	3¾	3¾	3¾
Budd Wheel	5	5	5
Can Pacific	3	3	3
Celanese Corp	26¼	26	26¼
Ches & Ohio	37	36¼	36¾
Chrysler Corp	62¾	62	62¼
Colum G & El	6½	6¼	6¼
Coml Solvents	9	9	9
Comwlth & South	1½	1½	1½
Cons Edison	28½	28	28
Consol Oil	6½	6¼	6¼
Cont Oil Del	17¾	17⅝	17¾
Curtiss Wright	7	7	7
Douglas Aircraft	68¼	66¾	67
duPont De N	158	157¼	157¼
El Auto Lite	31¼	30¾	30¾
El Power & Lt	5¾	5⅝	5⅝
Erie RR	1	1	1
Gen Electric	31½	30¾	31¼
Gen Foods	41½	41	41¼
Gen Motors	43½	42¼	42⅝
Goodrich (BF)	12¾	12¾	12¾
Goodyear T & R	14¾	14¼	14⅝
Greyhound Corp	11⅝	11¼	11⅝
Illinois Central	7½	7¼	7¼
Inger Rand	90	88¼	88¼
Int Harvester	43¼	41	43¼
Int Nick Can	22¾	22½	22½
Int Tel & Tel	2¾	2⅝	2⅝
Johns Manville	54½	54¼	54½
Kennecot Cop	25¾	25½	25¾
Lib O F Glass	35	35	35
Liggett & My B	98¼	98¼	98¼
Loews Inc	24¼	24¼	24¼
Montgom Ward	39¼	38¾	38¾
Nat Biscuit	19	18¾	19
Nat Dairy Pr	13⅝	13¼	13⅜
Nat Power & Lt	7⅞	7½	7½
N Y Central RR	11⅞	11½	11⅝
Northern Pacific	6¼	6	6
Ohio Oil	6¼	6	6
Owens Ill Glass	49	48	49
Packard Motor	3⅜	3½	3⅜
Param Pictures	5¼	5	5
Penn RR	19⅞	19¾	19¾
Phelps Dodge	27½	26¾	27¼
Public Svc N J	36⅝	36¼	36½
Pullman	21	20¾	21⅛
Pure Oil	7¾	7¾	7¾
Radio Corp of Am	4¾	4¾	4¾
Republic Steel	16⅞	16¾	16¾
Sears Roebuck	72½	72¼	72½
Socony Vacuum	8¾	8¼	8⅜
Southern Pacific	8¾	8⅜	8⅜
Stand Brands	6	6	6
Stand Oil Cal	18½	18	18⅜
Stand Oil Ind	22¾	22⅜	22¾
Stand Oil N J	33	32⅝	32⅝
Stone & Webster	8¾	8¼	8⅜
Studebaker Corp	6¾	6⅝	6⅝
Swift & Co	19⅝	19⅜	19⅜
Union Carbide	68¼	67⅝	68
United Aircraft	33¾	32⅞	32⅞
United Gas Imp	12⅛	12	12
U S Rubber	19⅜	18¾	19⅛
U S Steel	52	50⅝	50⅞
Walworth	3⅜	3⅛	3⅜
Warner Bros Pict	2¼	2¼	2¼
West Maryland	3¼	3¼	3¼
West Union Tel	17⅝	17½	17½
West El & Mfg	90¼	89¼	89¼
Woolworth (FW)	31½	30⅝	31⅛
Yellow Tr & Coach	12⅝	12⅛	12⅛

New York Curb

Closing quotations furnished by Stein Brothers and Boyce, brokers, 16 North Liberty street.

Arkansas Natural Gas "A"	2¼
Bellanca Aircraft	4
Canadian Marconi	½
Cities Service	5
Electric Bond & Share	6
Jones & Laughlin Steel	21
Molybdenum	6⅛
Niagara Hudson Power	4¾
Pennroad Corp	1⅜
Pitney-Bowes Postage Meter	6¼
Republic Aviation	4⅛
Technicolor	10
United Air Products	10½
United Gas Corp	1⅞

New York Produce

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — Eggs (2 days receipts) 35,915; firm.

Whites: (Resale of premium marks 25½-28); nearby and midwestern premium marks 22½-25; specials 22; standards 17¾-18.

Butter (2 days receipts) 2,184,976, firm. Creamery, higher than extra 27½-28¼; extra (92 score) tubs 27, cartons 26¾-27; firsts (88-91) 25¼-26¾; seconds (84-87) 24-25.

Bonds Inactive

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—A few industrial and utility issues strove to exert a rising motive to the bond market today against general trading inertia.

The result was that only $3,466,200, face value, of bonds changed hands compared with $5,360,500 last Friday.

U. S. Governments gained as much as three-fourths point in trades of one or two bonds.

Baltimore Produce

Baltimore, July 1 (AP)—Apples—About steady Md., Pa., Va., and W. Va., 1 1-5-bushel boxes, U. S. 1s 2½ inch minimum. Minesaps 1.75-2.25; Ganos 1.50-2.00; Bushel baskets U. S. 1s 2½-inch minimum. Romes 2.25-2.50 Ganos 1.50-2.00; Winesaps 1.75-2.25.

Potatoes—Old—Dull. Too few sales to quote; new very dull. Truck N. C. 100-lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s bright 1.25-1.40. Dirty 1.10-1.15 heated 75 cents-1.00; Bushel baskets cobblers U. S. 1s 65-85; barrels cobblers U. S. 1s 2.25; W. Sh. Va. barrels cobblers U. S. 1s 2.00-2.25. Mostly 2.10-2.15 100-lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s 1.25-1.35.

Rail: N. C., 100-lb. sacks cobblers U. S. 1s fancy 1.40-1.50; Ala. 100-lb. sacks long whites U. S. 1s washed, mostly 2.00. U. S. commer mostly 1.50; Cal. 100-lb. sacks long whites U. S. 1s washed, few sales, 2.75.

Sweet Potatoes—Dull. N. C. bushel baskets Puerto Ricans U. S. 1s 1.25-1.50; ungraded 75-90. Eastern Shore Md. bushel baskets white yams U. S. 1s 90-1.00 ungraded 60-75.

Chickens: Rocks 19-22; crosses 18-21; mixed colors 18-21; leghorns 15-17; Ducks—young Pekins, 5-lbs. and over 13-14; Fowl—Rocks 16-18; mixed colors 15-17; leghorns 11-13. Roosters—Mixed colors 10-12; leghorns 7-10.

Mirror of Markets

	Mon	Sat
Advances	159	133
Declines	271	161
Unchanged	128	127
Total issues	558	421

Total sales: 272,920.

Treasury balance: $1,917,723,101.50.

Baltimore Cattle

BALTIMORE, July 1 (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Cattle 500. Steers active to strong, twenty-five cents higher than Thursday. Good grades 9.50-12.25; offering mostly at 9.75-10.55; 935-lb. yearlings 10.60; choice 1074 lb. steers 11.00; small lot mixed yearlings 9.65; cows and bulls steady to strong; fat cows 6.50-7.25; canners and cutters 4.50-6.00; sausage bulls 6.50-7.25; good choice vealers 9.25-9.75.

Hogs, 1,500. Thirty higher than Friday, fifteen cents above Saturday; good choice 170-210 lbs. 6.00-6.25; top 6.25; 250-300 lbs. 5.25-5.80; 140-150 lbs. 5.35-5.60; 120-130 lbs. 4.95-5.20; packing sows 4.15-4.65.

Sheep 1,100. Spring lambs market unevenly steady, twenty-five cents higher than late last week. Good and choice ewes and wethers 10.40-10.75; fat bucks 1.00 less; top 11.00; common and medium throwouts 7.00-950; odd head fat slaughter ewes 3.00 down.

Chicago Grain Prices

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP) — After dipping to lows unequaled here in the past ten months, wheat prices today rallied almost two cents, closing ⅝-¾ higher than Saturday.

July and September contracts closed at 74⅞-75 and 75⅛-⅜, which were the highs of the session.

Corn closed ¼-⅜ higher, July 60½, September 58-57⅞; oats ¼-⅜ up; soy beans ¾-1½ higher; rye 2½ higher and lard 5-8 higher.

Cash wheat No. 2 yellow hard 76¼. Corn No. 1 yellow 64-66; No 2, 66; No. 4, 63½; No. 1 white 74¾; No. 2, 74¾.

Oats No. 1 mixed 33¾; No. 2, 33½; No. 3, 31½-32¾; sample grade, 30-31½; No. 2 white, 35¼; No. 3, 34-34¾; sample grade 31¾-32½.

Position of Treasury

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The position of the treasury June 28: Receipts, $11,305,888.64; expenditures, $29,991,643.25; net balance, $1,917,723,101.50; working balance included, $1,189,763,812.19; customs receipts for month, $20,423,033.38; receipts for fiscal year (July 1) $5,869,967,165.25; expenditures $9,561,503,400.80; excess of expenditures $3,691,536,235.55; gross debt $42,890,367,782.56; decrease under previous day $16,887,939.23; gold assets $19,962,919,769.06.

Pittsburgh Produce

PITTSBURGH, July 1 (AP)—(U. S. and Pa. Dept. Agr.)—Produce demand moderate.

Apples two cars, about steady, No. 1 bushel baskets Illinois Transparents 2.15-25.

Potatoes sixty-eight cars, about steady. No. 1 100-lb. sacks North Carolina Cobblers 1.50-65; Alabama Bliss Triumphs 2.00-25, Whites 2.10-15; Virginia Cobblers 1.55-65.

Butter firm and unchanged; eggs steady; current receipts 14-15; White Standards 17; hennery white extras 19. Cheese unchanged. Poultry unchanged.

Aged Woman Dies; May Have Been 115

IMPERIAL, Pa., July 1 (AP) — Mary Maple, who had lived in this Allegheny county town eighty years but never knew how old she was, fell dead here while watching her four kittens playing with a string.

She outlived three husbands and guesses on her age ran to 115. She remembered the nomination and election of Abraham Lincoln, but never learned her birth date.

She was born near Grafton, W. Va., in the Cheat mountains. Her mother was an Indian — of the Cheat tribes—her son, John, 50, said.

A physician said her heart "just played out."

Wastes No Time

HOLDENVILLE, OKLA. (AP) — Boyd Kernek, mail carrier, wagered months in advance that the baby expected at his house would be a boy. When the baby arrived at 1 A. M. on a recent morning Kernek gleefully awakened the bettors and before 2 A. M. had collected all wagers.

That Terrific Din in Cuba Will End at Polls July 14

By The AP Feature Service

HAVANA.—Cuba's general elections come July 14. The most active campaign ever seen in Cuba is being waged by Senor Fulgencio Batista and Dr. Ramon Grau San Martin, presidential candidates.

Batista, ex-chief of the Cuban army, and Dr. Grau San Martin, a former revolutionary President of the Republic, lead the government and opposition parties, respectively, and 16,000 candidates for other offices second their efforts.

Eleven parties are represented. Seven back Batista; three form the opposition bloc. The other party has its own presidential candidate, Dr. Reinaldo Marquez Camacho, Havana University professor.

A Two-Man Campaign

In the constituent assembly election last Nov. 15, the seven political parties forming the Social-Democratic coalition backing Batista got 709,721 votes; the opposition led by Dr. Grau San Martin cornered only 271,622.

DR. GRAU SAN MARTIN
Civilian Bloc's Favorite

Dr. Camacho is backed by the National Agrarian party. Few experts give him any chance.

Programs of both Batista and Dr. Grau San Martin have been announced through all possible channels. Several radio stations incessantly broadcast political programs both in English and Spanish.

Big neon signs with pictures of Batista, Dr. Grau San Martin and the many candidates for seats in the Senate and House may be seen in the most important places of Havana and other cities. Sound trucks reproduce Batista's recorded speeches with such volume that they may be heard for several blocks. Chartered planes scatter handbills over small towns and rural districts.

Not even private telephones are overlooked. At any time, at home or at the office, a telephone will ring, the call being: "Remember, Batista for President," or "A Cuban President, Dr. Grau San Martin."

More than a hundred workers are active in Batista's political office, receiving and answering 2,000 letters daily. Thousands of the letters go to the United States because of the many Americans having business connections in Cuba.

FULGENCIO BATISTA
Once Led A Coup d'Etat

Both of the leading presidential candidates desire more friendly relations with the United States and would increase commercial relations between the two countries.

Passed Up Second Camp

Batista was an army sergeant Sept. 4, 1933, when he led a coup d'etat which ousted all commissioned officers. For years he had the opportunity to seize the presidency by another coup but avowedly he chose to resign his army command and leave it to the voters to decide whether he should be president or retire from public life.

Dr. Grau San Martin, popular leader of the Cuban Revolutionary party, is the hope of the "civilian bloc" formed by the three principal anti-government parties. Like Camacho, he is a professor at Havana university.

DR. REINALDO CAMACHO
Few Give Him A Chance

AND THERE WAS LIGHT

Peter Godfrey, Max Goeppinger, Spencer Tracy in "Edison, the Man", Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture opening tomorrow at the Maryland theater for a five day showing.

Theaters Today

"Flight Angels" Will Open Wednesday

Wayne Morris is featured in Warner Brothers' "Flight Angels," which opens tomorrow at the New Liberty. Cast as Dennis Morgan's co-pilot, he and Morgan design a new type of stratosphere plane which the army is about to test. Dennis thinks that he should be permitted to make the initial flight but is refused permission because of his failing eyesight. Wayne tries to reason with him but is unable to talk him out of the idea. In addition to consoling Dennis, designing new ships and his regular pilot's job, Wayne has the difficult task of telling Jane Wyman he's in love with her.

"Flight Angels" tells the story of airline hostesses, often called the career girls of the skyways. There have been many aviation films but never before has the story of the Flight Angels been brought to the screen.

The picture features an all-star cast including Virginia Bruce, Dennis Morgan, Wayne Morris, Ralph Bellamy and Jane Wyman.

Three Specials Are Booked by Embassy

Three specials will be offered tomorrow at the Embassy theater.

One will be the official, exclusive fight films of the Joe Louis-Arturo Godoy championship bout at New York.

The second will be Ann Sothern and John Carroll in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Congo Maisie."

The third offering will be Tom Tyler in the action western drama, "Orphans of the Pecos."

In addition the third chapter of "Drums of Fu Manchu" will be offered.

Closing today at the Embassy will be the double feature attraction with D. W. Griffith's spectacular hit, "The Birth of a Nation," and Robert Montgomery in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Earl of Chicago."

Edison Role a Highlight For Spencer Tracy

Spencer Tracy, who is featured in "Edison the Man," dramatic film biography which comes to the Maryland theater tomorrow for an engagement of five days, says his study of the careers of Father Flanagan for "Boys Town," Henry M. Stanley for "Stanley and Livingstone," and Major Robert Rogers for "Northwest Passage," were both inspirational and informative but that Edison's life was a highlight in his research career.

"For one thing," he says, "Edison's patience was astounding. After 9000 items had been tried as light filaments, all failures, someone remarked at his lack of progress and he replied, 'This is progress. I now know 9000 things that won't work.' How many of us would keep on to success after even a thousandths that many failures? Such a man's life cannot help but benefit the world and I'm happy to be portraying him. I hope I can put over just a trace of his greatness."

Closing today on the Maryland stage will be "Cumberland Follies," featuring Lucille Swartley, former Cumberland girl, and a cast of fifty.

The screen attraction is the Weaver Brother and Elviry in the comedy, "Grand Ole Opry".

Cowboy Has a Valet In Western Comedy

A saga of the sagebrush at the Garden theater reveals Jack Benny as a cowboy with a valet—and the valet none other than the inimitable Rochester. The title of this lyrical roedo of fun is "Buck Benny Rides Again."

Practically the entire crew of Benny's justly famous radio program have turned up for his adventures among the dude ranches and the over-stuffed cactus. Andy Devine, Phil Harris, Dennis Day are all present and excellent in their specialties. While Ellen Drew, Virginia Dale, Lillian Cornell and the Abbott Dancers ably and appealingly represent the feminine contingent.

Teamed together for the first time, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Joan Bennett were seen as co-stars in "Green Hell," Famous Productions film for Universal release, now at the Garden.

In the story, Joan is inadvertently marooned in the jungle camp of six men, headed by Fairbanks, who resents here presence because of its demoralizing effect upon his men. Joan is equally spiteful toward him. So they fall in love.

However, the plot requires an attack of savages, the death of two members of the camp and strained relations among all the others to bring about this transition.

Supporting the two stars in this jungle drama are John Howard, Alan Hale, George Bancroft, George Sanders, Vincent Price, and others.

Boy Confesses He Killed "Mean" Father

HOUGHTON, Mich., July 1 (AP)—Sheriff J. G. Salimi said here that fourteen-year-old Albert J. Fountaine, Jr., had confessed waiting in ambush with a .22 caliber rifle and shooting and killing his father because "he was so mean to the family."

The elder Fountaine was killed near his home one and one-half miles south of Chassell as he returned from a fishing expedition on which he was accompanied by his daughter, Alice, 13, and another son, Telesphore, 16.

Goats As Firemen

CARPINTERIA, Calif., (AP)—Goats of this region will be mobilized to see whether their foraging will keep down the growth of firebreaks in Los Padres national forest. Annual clearing of new growth by human labor has been expensive and not entirely successful.

Phila. Businessmen Profit from Convention

PHILADELPHIA, July 1 (AP) — Philadelphia business glanced happily over preliminary figures and ventured a guess today that visitors to the Republican national convention spent $12,000,000, ate 90,000 hot dogs and drank 140,000 bottles of soda pop.

Complete figures were not available but George Elliott, general secretaary of the Chamber of Commerce, asserted business was "fully up to expectations." Earlier he had announced Philadelphia should realize $12,000,000 from its second political convention in four years.

Chief beneficiaries were central city hotels and restaurants, jammed during the five-day conclave. Said Daniel G. Crawford, president of the Philadelphia hotelmen's association:

"The consensus among the hotel men is that the convention was the most successful in the history of the Philadelphia hotel business."

New Activity on Libyan-Egyptian Front

ROME, July 1 (AP) — Land and air fighting of "considerable activity" broke out along the Libyan-Egyptian border line wtih the Italian high command claiming occupation of "various localities" and destruction of four British planes.

The Italian communique reported capture of several positions on the Cirenaica front, where Air Marshal Italo Balbo crashed to his death Friday.

"Considerable activity of our columns in front of Cirenaica," said the communique. "Various localities were occupied by our troops and attacks by enemy motorized detachments were repelled."

It was claimed that Italian planes shot down two enemy planes during a British attack at the field of Tobruk (Libya), and that a third probably was brought down. The attackers caused no damaged.

Another British plane was believed downed by Italian anti-aircraft artillery during a raid on the airdrome of Massaua (Eritrea).

The communique reported several members of the crews of the planes were taken prisoner.

— o ALWAYS COOL o —
New Liberty
LAST TIMES TODAY
A BILL OF DIVORCEMENT
with
MAUREEN O'HARA
ADOLPHE MENJOU
FAY BAINTER
HERBERT MARSHALL
STARTS TOMORROW

with VIRGINIA BRUCE
DENNIS MORGAN
WAYNE MORRIS
RALPH BELLAMY
JANE WYMAN
—ADDED TREATS—
JOHN PAYNE
in "THE SINGING DUDE"
In Technicolor

PATRIOTIC FAVORS FOR 4th OF JULY
Flags - Luncheon Sets
Napkins-Table Covers
Post Card Shop
25 N. Centre St.

A Better Feeling by Better Dressing Through Better Cleaning
Ladies' and Men's Coats and Overcoats Cleaned. 50c
Fur Trimmed Coats 75c
CASH & CARRY
Sealed in Moth Proof Bags ..... 15c Extra
HARRY FOOTER & CO.
36 N. LIBERTY ST. PHONE 197
Robert W. Lee—Frostburg Agt. Phone 82-J

Fort Cumberland Hotel
Dining Room
Week Day Specials
Luncheon 50c
Dinner 85c

Farewell Week to Whitey Harry and Billie
last week of their 16 week engagement
Cocktail Hours—3 to 5
Evening—8 to 12
★ ★ ★
MARYLAND HOTEL
Cocktail Lounge
N. Mechanic St.
Just off Baltimore

CLEANED & PRESSED
Ladies' Plain Coats, Plain Dresses, Plain Suits, Men's Suits 50c
Cash and Carry
Call For and Deliver 60c
SOUTH END
TAILOR SHOP
340 Virginia Ave. Phone 3248

LOANS
UP TO $300
AUTO LOANS
FURNITURE LOANS
INDUSTRIAL LOAN SOCIETY, INC.
Liberty Trust Building 3rd Floor Phone 97

DOUBLE FEATURE
GARDEN AIR-COOLED
TODAY LAST TIMES
JACK BENNY and his Radio Rascals in BUCK BENNY RIDES AGAIN
A Paramount Picture
Douglas FAIRBANKS, Jr. Joan BENNETT in "GREEN HELL"
A Universal Picture
WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY — DOUBLE FEATURE
Gene Autry
Jane Withers
"SHOOTING HIGH"
Wayne Morris
Margaret Lindsay
"DOUBLE ALIBI"

THE GRACE M. FISHER THEATRES
HOME OWNED - - HOME OPERATED
STARTS TODAY
EMBASSY
COOLED BY REFRIGERATION
Exclusive & Official Fight Films of LOUIS
vs.
GODOY
Round-By-Round Blow-By-Blow Description
—ALSO—
Ann Sothern
John Carroll
In M-G-M's
"CONGO MAISIE"
—AND—TOM TYLER
in "Orphans Of The Pecos"
3rd Chapter
"Drums Of Fu Manchu"
It's A Swell Show
Don't Miss It

MARYLAND
TOMORROW

EXTRA! "THE FLAG SPEAKS" IN TECHNICOLOR

Bosley To Saddle

(Continued from Page Sixteen)

during the approaching racing at this course.

Others Seek Purses

Others scheduled to strive for purses here are:—V. T. Carter with his wife's Lady Timarole and Lapis; R. B. Jackson with C. E. Grove's Top Shell and his own Prairie Prince; John J. Martin with Veritas; Jack Collins with Ethel Collins Dacotah; Irving Fletcher with George P. Sherman's Stepping In and Custer; Paul C. Corbett with Bynumps Run and Marshall A. Smith with his wife's Wachoo and Mugal.

General Manager G. Ray Bryson reports that he is having the jockey's room rebuilt as room is needed for 75 jockeys, due to both flat and steeplechase races being programmed daily.

The steeplechase course located in the infield, is the finest gracing a three quarter mile track in America. A jumping race will be programmed daily, in addition to the usual seven flat races. Wagering, which wil be through the totalizator, is in charge of Walter McConnell, who has been identifed with American and Canadian racing for more than a quarter century.

Several hundred horses now racing at Charles Town, West Va., will be vanned here July 6 to rest up for the approaching ten days sport. The horsemen figure a rest will put their charges back at tops after forty-eight days sport in West Virginia. Others will be shipped in from Delaware Park when that track closes July 4. The overflow will be cared for at Pimlico and Timonium, which are within easy riding distance of this course.

Nine Times W. Va. Champ Medalist with 81 Score

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Fritzi Stifel Quarrier, ignoring heavy winds which swept the course, celebrated her return to the women's golf tournament today by adding the 1940 medalist position to her other honors.

Out of the tournament since she last won it in 1937, the Wheeling star demonstrated she had lost none of the power and skillful play which made her the champion nine times.

Her qualifying round score of 81 bettered by two strokes the 83 turned in by defending champion Ann Hoblitzell of Parkersburg.

High winds across a course well soaked by days of rain handicapped most of the players and made the 18-hole qualifying scores on the whole higher than they were last year.

Mrs. Quarrier's 81 was one stroke above the 80 posted by Mrs. Henry Payne of Charleston, who was medalist in 1939. Mrs. Payne, apparently out of practice, posted a 92 today.

The women's field of 55 players was one of the largest in many years. Match play for the women will begin tomorrow while the men, completing qualifying rounds, will begin match play Wednesday.

Mrs. E. W. Stifel of Wheeling, often runner-up to her daughter Fritzi and to Mrs. Hoblitzell, offered her usual brand of steady golf to post an 88 and be assured of a place in the championship flight. Mrs. M. G. Geiger of Charleston also had an 88.

This Art Looks Easy? Well, It Is

AP Feature Service

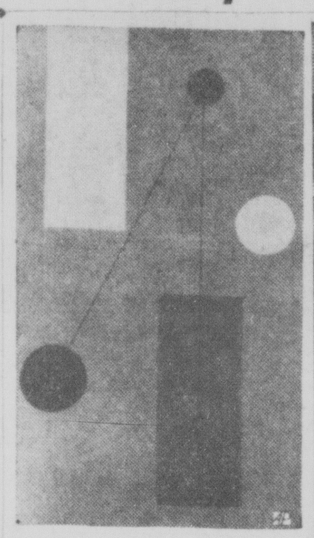

You, too, can be a non-objective artist.

You can use the top of your desk for a canvas, Stephan Lion explains, and move objects around it until they please you. The pattern you make may be conventional, or may not. The idea is to arrive at your pattern by feeling rather than by thought.

Thus, in John von Wicht's "Force" you think you see a bayonet, but you may be wrong. This painter, who has done murals for the New York World's Fair and has shown his work at its San Francisco rival, merely experimented until he had arranged the figures into a pattern which, for him, expressed force.

So, too, with Charles G. Shaw's "Purity." Lines, circles and rectangles are fairly pure mathematical forms, but this is incidental to their meaning to the painter.

Non-objective painters, or abstract painters as you please, are engaged in a crusade for order, disciplined and purity in art, says Mr. Lion. Dali and Manet are equally objectionable; the moment you try to represent a woman or a barnyard you find the reality is better than any representation, he believes.

"Purity," by Charles G. Shaw

"Force," by John von Wicht

The examples shown here are from a large "abstract" show Lion has assembled for New York's Galerie St Etinne. He has had plenty of experience at such matters, having been connected with New York's Museum of Non-Objective Art, otherwise known as the Guggenheim Collection.

Arlington Doubles Pays 13 $1,011 Apiece

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—Thirteen race fans collected $1,011.20 tapiece for a $2 ticket today on the daily double at Arlington Park when two long shots won the first and second races.

Say Judge won the initial race, pay $95.20, $43.20 and $17.60. In the second race, Unquote hit the wire first, paying $11.20, $7.00 and $5.20.

McNeill Defeats Hunt For NIC Tennis Title

HAVERFORD, Pa., July 1. (AP)—In a masterful performance 22-year-old Don McNeill of Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, defeated Joe Hunt of the Naval Academy today for the National Intercollegiate tennis championship. The score was 7-5, 6-1, 6-1.

Stanford University's Larry Dee and Jim Wade won the doubles title from the University of California's Bob Peacock and Robert Harmon in five sets, 6-3, 6-4, 3-6, 2-6, 6-2. California held the title three years straight.

Repeatedly, McNeill lured his sturdier opponent toward the net and looped the ball over his head, or laid swift backhand drives within an eyelash of the sidelines.

The Midshipman began to wilt under the slashing attack after McNeill broke through his service in the first game of the second set.

After that, Hunt was a beaten contender. He fought bravely, but McNeill's dexterity was too sure.

Major League Results

NATIONAL

St. Louis 3, Cincinnati 2.
Brooklyn 4, Philadelphia 3.
Pittsburgh 4, Chicago 3 (10 innings).
New York 7, Boston 1.

AMERICAN

Detroit 3, Chicago 1.
New York 8, Washington 4.
Philadelphia 9, Boston 1.
St. Louis 2, Cleveland 1.

NATIONAL STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Cincinnati	41	22	.651
Brooklyn	39	21	.650
New York	38	22	.633
Chicago	34	34	.500
Pittsburgh	35	34	.417
St. Louis	25	34	.417
Boston	20	36	.357
Philadelphia	21	40	.344

AMERICAN STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Cleveland	42	26	.618
Detroit	39	25	.609
Boston	36	27	.571
New York	33	32	.508
St. Louis	32	37	.464
Chicago	28	35	.444
Philadelphia	25	38	.397
Washington	27	42	.391

Today's Pitchers

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Probable pitchers in the Major leagues tomorrow (won-lost records in parentheses):

National League

Cincinnati at St. Louis (night)—Derringer (9-6) vs McGee (5-5).

Brooklyn at Philadelphia—Carleton (3-1) vs Beck (2-5).

Boston at New York—Errickson (4-2) vs Schumacher (5-6).

Pittsburgh at Chicago—Bowman (4-5) vs. Lee (5-10).

American League

Philadelphia at Boston (2)—Caster (2-11) and Heusser (2-4) vs Harris (4-2) and Galehouse (4-3).

New York at Washington—Gomez (1-0) vs Leonard (8-6).

Chicago at Detroit—Dietrich (4-1) vs Seats (1-1) or Trout (1-2).

St. Louis at Cleveland—A. Harris (5-4) vs Harder (3-5).

Molds for making candy have been unearthed from Egyptian tombs.

Bowman Grocers Clip West Side Merchants

Bowman's Grocers entered the .500 class yesterday by defeating the West Side Merchants 5 to 3. Howard Carter allowed only five hits to chalk up his third win in as many starts.

Dave Powell and Louis 'Red' Wolford led their team to victory with four hits. Powell hit a triple with two aboard. The first half of the league has now been completed and the Grocers are anxious to line up new players. Anyone wishing a tryout get in touch with Henry Stroup by calling 3447-J. The line score:

BOWMANS	011	012	0—5	9	0
WEST SIDE	000	101	1—3	6	0

Carter and Wolford. Dawson and Fisher.

Attractive young ladies in New York, are finding employment as sandwich girls.

Financing a Home Locally IS A PLEASANT EVENT!

• When you apply for a home loan here, we are eager to explain in full all the details of our financing plan . . . suggest how your home ownership can most easily be completed. Our officers are friendly, have a real interest in providing you a "budgetable" and safe financing arrangement. So if you anticipate buying or building a home soon, let us show you how pleasantly and easily home financing can be arranged.

First Federal Savings & Loan Association
Cor. S. Centre & Pershing Sts. Telephone 362

Plumbing Fixtures
Plumbing and Heating Supplies
Warm Air Furnaces
Air Conditioning Systems
Steam and Hot Water Heating Systems
STOKERS
ALSO A Complete Line of INDUSTRIAL SUPPLIES
Structural Steel
Pipe and Pipe Fittings of all kinds
Woodworking Machinery
Industrial Pumps
Water Systems
Industrial Lubricants
Mc KAIG'S
CUMBERLAND • • • MARYLAND
Established 1845
Corner Centre and Harrison St. Phone 754-755

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
The liver should pour 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.
It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10¢ and 25¢.
Advertisement

Maurice's ALWAYS RELIABLE
SHOPPER TUNITIES For July 4th
Men's Sanforized SLACKS 97¢
New striped, checked, plain colors and novelty patterns. Sanforized shrunk. All sizes. Main Floor.
Men's 50c POLO SHIRTS 39¢
Rayon ribbed or plain weave in assorted colors, short sleeve style, wide collars. All sizes. Main Floor.
69c American FLAGS 29¢
3x5 ft., a good size for home decoration. Sewed stripes and star field, fast color. 3rd Floor.
3x6 GRASS RUGS 69¢
A regular 89c value. Convenient size for average porch, or may be used in pairs. Modern patterns. 3rd Floor.
"E-Z-DO" Mothproof ROBES WITH FREE CHEST $1.19
Preserve your woolens in one of these mothproof robes. Sliding door. Chest Free with robe. 3rd Floor.
MEN'S DRESS SHIRTS 79¢
CHILDREN'S ANKLETS, Sizes 6½ to 10½ at 10¢
TOT'S FAST COLOR SUN SUITS 12¢
LADIES' PURE SILK HOSE 2 prs. $1
LADIES' RAYON UNDIES 2 for 49¢

P. S. FIRST ANNIVERSARY SALE!
FREE DISHES! TICKET WITH EVERY 20c PURCHASE
Honeydew Pure Strawberry PRESERVES 2 lb. jar 29c
Dill or Sour Pickles 2 quart jar 23c
Kraft's Loaf Cheese 2 lb. box 49c
Alaska Pink Salmon 2 1-lb. cans 27c
Grantsville Fresh Country EGGS 2 doz. 37c
• Everyday • Carnation MILK 10 tall cans 65c
BLUE RIBBON PASTRY FLOUR 5 lb. bag 15c
FREE! Cannon Dish Towel Giant Box Rinso 53c
FREE! 2 P & G Soap Oxydol large box 19c
MEAT SPECIALS!
Lean Boil Beef 8c lb.
Small Shankless Picnics 15c lb.
Hamburg lb. 13c
Pork Chops lb. 15c
Pork Liver lb. 8c
Canadian Bacon lb. 35c
Lamb Steaks lb. 30c
FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
SOLID RIPE Tomatoes 2 lbs. 13c
LGE. RIPE MELONS 49c
Juicy Lemons 17c doz.
PUBLIC SERVICE FOOD
ORIGINAL SERVE SELF GIANT MARKET
26 N. GEORGE ST. CUMBERLAND, MD.

Youth In The News

Rock-A-Bye Baby, High In The Sky

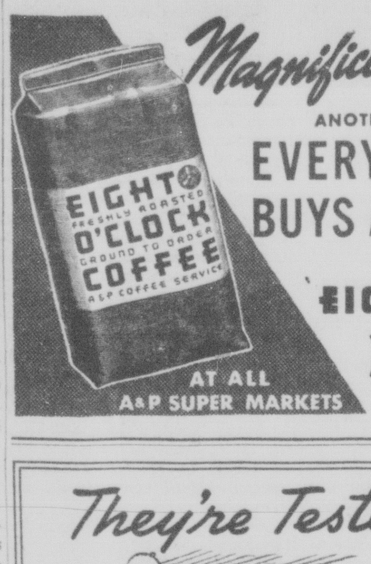

YOUNGEST
Matchdeld van Fredenburg, five-months-old daughter of a Washington Netherlands legation official, is the youngest passenger ever to fly the ocean. She crossed on a Clipper plane from Lisbon, Portugal.

OLD HAND
Bobie Sweetman is only three but knows all the ups and downs of aviation. He made his first hop at the age of eight months. That's Bobie behind the goggles, during a flying meet at Lock Haven, Pa.

REFUGEE
One-year-old Joan Desy, daughter of the Belgian minister to Canada, arrived in New York with her mother, sister and nurse on a Clipper plane from Lisbon. The family fled Brussels when it was invaded.

Magnificent Flavor
ANOTHER REASON WHY
EVERY 7th FAMILY BUYS A&P COFFEE!
EIGHT O'CLOCK 3 LB. BAG 39¢
AT ALL A&P SUPER MARKETS

DENTIST Dr. Hedrick
HOURS 9 to 8
Phone 3018
Hedrick's Home
223 BALT. AVE.
ABOVE Y.M.C.A.

EXCURSIONS VIA B&O
LOW ROUND-TRIP FARES
EVERY SUNDAY
$3.00 Pittsburgh
$2.85 Braddock
$2.60 McKeesport
Lv. Cumberland 3:18 A. M.
Return Sunday Night
A FULL DAY FOR SIGHTSEEING THOUSANDS OF ATTRACTIONS
Consult Local Ticket Agent for Details
BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD

They're Tested for Coolness!

Cool Luxury in 90° Heat!

Perforations are the reason why
Air rushes through the tiny punches to cool your feet like water through a sieve! It's a miracle discovery in shoe construction that's for your comfort and doesn't cost a cent more!
• White • Tan and White
• Two Tone Tan
$3.25
Others $4 and $5.50
Smith TENDER FEET SHOE SHOP
123--125 BALTIMORE ST.

DOLLARS that reach to next week

People who make a study of such things say there are three ways to make money S-T-R-E-T-C-H.

• First. Budget. Plan your expenses and keep a record of what's spent.

• Second. Watch the pennies. It's the little savings that mount up.

• Third. Buy carefully. That's where advertising comes in. Printed news in this paper, from store and manufacturer, keeps you advised of the best buys of the day.

Read the advertisements—carefully. They'll give you the kind of information that makes this week's dollars reach over to next week!

Bosley To Saddle

(Continued from Page Sixteen)

during the approaching racing at this course.

Others Seek Purses

Others scheduled to strive for purses here are:—V. T. Carter with his wife's Lady Timarole and Lapis; R. B. Jackson with C. E. Grove's Top Shelf and his own Prairie Prince; John J. Martin with Veritas; Jack Collins with Ethel Collins Dacotah; Irving Fletcher with George P. Sherman's Stepping In and Custer; Paul C. Corbett with Bynumns Run and Marshall A. Smith with his wife's Wachoo and Mugal.

General Manager G. Ray Bryson reports that he is having the jockey's room rebuilt, as room is needed for 75 jockeys, due to both flat and steeplechase races being programmed daily.

The steeplechase course located in the infield, is the finest gracing a three quarter mile track in America. A jumping race will be programmed daily, in addition to the usual seven flat races. Wagering, which wil be through the totalizator, is in charge of Walter McConnell, who has been identifed with American and Canadian racing for more than a quarter century.

Several hundred horses now racing at Charles Town, West Va., will be vanned here July 6 to rest up for the approaching ten days sport. The horsemen figure a rest will put their charges back at tops after forty-eight days sport in West Virginia. Others will be shipped in from Delaware Park when that track closes July 4. The overflow will be cared for at Pimlico and Timonium, which are within easy riding distance of this course.

Nine Times W. Va. Champ Medalist with 81 Score

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Fritzi Stifel Quarrier, ignoring heavy winds which swept the course, celebrated her return to the women's golf tournament today by adding the 1940 medalist position to her other honors.

Out of the tournament since she last won it in 1937, the Wheeling star demonstrated she had lost none of the power and skillful play which made her the champion nine times.

Her qualifying round score of 81 bettered by two strokes the 83 turned in by defending champion Ann Hoblitzell of Parkersburg.

High winds across a course well soaked by days of rain handicapped most of the players and made the 18-hole qualifying scores on the whole higher than they were last year.

Mrs. Quarrier's 81 was one stroke above the 80 posted by Mrs. Henry Payne of Charleston, who was medalist in 1939. Mrs. Payne, apparently out of practice, posted a 92 today.

The women's field of 55 players was one of the largest in many years. Match play for the women will begin tomorrow while the men, completing qualifying rounds, will begin match play Wednesday.

Mrs. E. W. Stifel of Wheeling, often runner-up to her daughter Fritzi and to Mrs. Hoblitzell, offered her usual brand of steady golf to post an 88 and be assured of a place in the championship flight. Mrs. M. G. Geiger of Charleston also had an 88.

This Art Looks Easy? Well, It Is

AP Feature Service

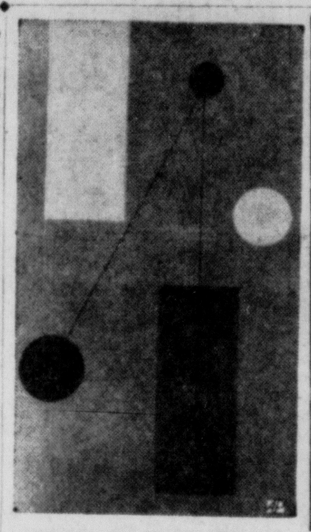

You, too, can be a non-objective artist.

You can use the top of your desk for a canvas, Stephan Lion explains, and move objects around it until they please you. The pattern you make may be conventional, or may not. The idea is to arrive at your pattern by feeling rather than by thought.

Thus, in John von Wicht's "Force" you think you see a bayonet, but you may be wrong. This painter, who has done murals for the New York World's Fair and has shown his work at its San Francisco rival, merely experimented until he had arranged the figures into a pattern which, for him, expressed force.

So, too, with Charles G. Shaw's "Purity." Lines, circles and rectangles are fairly pure mathematical forms, but this is incidental to their meaning to the painter.

Non-objective painters, or abstract painters as you please, are engaged in a crusade for order, disciplined and purity in art, says Mr. Lion. Dali and Manet are equally objectionable; the moment you try to represent a woman or a barnyard you find the reality is better than any representation, he believes.

"Purity," by Charles G. Shaw

"Force," by John von Wicht

The examples shown here are from a large "abstract" show Lion has assembled for New York's Galerie St. Etinne. He has had plenty of experience at such matters, having been connected with New York's Museum of Non-Objective Art, otherwise known as the Guggenheim Collection.

Bowman Grocers Clip West Side Merchants

Bowman's Grocers entered the .500 class yesterday by defeating the West Side Merchants 5 to 3. Howard Carter allowed only five hits to chalk up his third win in as many starts.

Dave Powell and Louis 'Red' Wolford led their team to victory with four hits. Powell hit a triple with two aboard. The first half of the league has now been completed and the Grocers are anxious to line up new players. Anyone wishing a tryout get in touch with Henry Stroup by calling 3447-J. The line score:

BOWMANS	011	012	0	5	9
WEST SIDE	000	101	1	3	6

Carter and Wolford. Dawson and Fisher.

Attractive young ladies in New York, are finding employment as sandwich girls.

Magnificent Flavor

ANOTHER REASON WHY

EVERY 7th FAMILY BUYS A&P COFFEE!

EIGHT O'CLOCK COFFEE — FRESHLY ROASTED GROUND TO ORDER — A&P COFFEE SERVICE

EIGHT O'CLOCK 3 LB. BAG 39¢

AT ALL A&P SUPER MARKETS

Financing a Home Locally IS A PLEASANT EVENT!

• When you apply for a home loan here, we are eager to explain in full all the details of our financing plan . . . suggest how your home ownership can most easily be completed. Our officers are friendly, have a real interest in providing you a "budgetable" and safe financing arrangement. So if you anticipate buying or building a home soon, let us show you how pleasantly and easily home financing can be arranged.

First Federal Savings & Loan Association

Cor. S. Centre & Pershing Sts. Telephone 362

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 10¢ and 25¢.

Advertisement

Arlington Doubles Pays 13 $1,011 Apiece

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—Thirteen race fans collected $1,011.20 tapiece for a $2 ticket today on the daily double at Arlington Park when two long shots won the first and second races.

Say Judge won the initial race, pay $95.20, $43.20 and $17.60. In the second race, Unquote hit the wire first, paying $11.20, $7.00 and $5.20.

McNeill Defeats Hunt For NIC Tennis Title

HAVERFORD, Pa., July 1. (AP)—In a masterful performance 22-year-old Don McNeill of Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, defeated Joe Hunt of the Naval Academy today for the National Intercollegiate tennis championship. The score was 7-5, 6-1, 6-1.

Stanford University's Larry Dee and Jim Wade won the doubles title from the University of California's Bob Peacock and Robert Harmon in five sets, 6-3, 6-4, 3-6, 2-6, 6-2. California held the title three years straight.

Repeatedly, McNeill lured his sturdier opponent toward the net and looped the ball over his head, or laid swift backhand drives within an eyelash of the sidelines.

The Midshipman began to wilt under the slashing attack after McNeill broke through his service in the first game of the second set.

After that, Hunt was a beaten contender. He fought bravely, but McNeill's dexterity was too sure.

Major League Results

NATIONAL

St. Louis 3, Cincinnati 2.
Brooklyn 4, Philadelphia 3.
Pittsburgh 4, Chicago 3 (10 innings).
New York 7, Boston 1.

AMERICAN

Detroit 3, Chicago 1.
New York 8, Washington 4.
Philadelphia 9, Boston 1.
St. Louis 2, Cleveland 1.

NATIONAL STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Cincinnati	41	22	.651
Brooklyn	39	21	.650
New York	38	22	.633
Chicago	34	34	.500
Pittsburgh	35	34	.417
St. Louis	25	34	.417
Boston	20	36	.357
Philadelphia	21	40	.344

AMERICAN STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct.
Cleveland	42	26	.618
Detroit	39	25	.609
Boston	36	27	.571
New York	33	32	.508
St. Louis	32	37	.464
Chicago	28	35	.444
Philadelphia	25	38	.397
Washington	27	42	.391

Today's Pitchers

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Probable pitchers in the Major leagues tomorrow (won-lost records in parentheses):

National League

Cincinnati at St. Louis (night)—Derringer (9-6) vs McGee (5-5).

Brooklyn at Philadelphia—Carleton (3-1) vs Beck (2-5).

Boston at New York—Errickson (4-2) vs Schumacher (5-6).

Pittsburgh at Chicago—Bowman (4-5) vs. Lee (5-10).

American League

Philadelphia at Boston (2)—Caster (2-11) and Heusser (2-4) vs Harris (4-2) and Galehouse (4-3).

New York at Washington—Gomez (1-0) vs Leonard (8-6).

Chicago at Detroit—Dietrich (4-1) vs Seats (1-1) or Trout (1-2).

St. Louis at Cleveland—A. Harris (5-4) vs Harder (3-5).

Molds for making candy have been unearthed from Egyptian tombs.

EXCURSIONS VIA B&O

LOW ROUND-TRIP FARES

EVERY SUNDAY

$3.00 Pittsburgh

$2.85 Braddock

$2.60 McKeesport

Lv. Cumberland 3:18 A. M.
Return Sunday Night

A FULL DAY FOR SIGHTSEEING THOUSANDS OF ATTRACTIONS

Consult Local Ticket Agent for Details

BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD

They're Tested for Coolness!

Cool Luxury in 90° Heat!

Perforations are the reason why

Air rushes through the tiny punches to cool your feet like water through a sieve! It's a miracle discovery in shoe construction that's for your comfort and doesn't cost a cent more!

• White • Tan and White

• Two Tone Tan

$3.25

Others $4 and $5.50

Smith TENDER FEET SHOE SHOP

123--125 BALTIMORE ST.

Plumbing Fixtures

Plumbing and Heating Supplies

Warm Air Furnaces
Air Conditioning Systems

Steam and Hot Water Heating Systems

STOKERS

ALSO

A Complete Line of INDUSTRIAL SUPPLIES

Structural Steel

Pipe and Pipe Fittings of all kinds

Woodworking Machinery

Industrial Pumps

Water Systems
Industrial Lubricants

Mc KAIG'S

CUMBERLAND • • • MARYLAND

Established 1845

Corner Centre and Harrison St. Phone 754-755

Maurice's

ALWAYS RELIABLE

SHOPPER TUNITIES For July 4th

Men's Sanforized SLACKS 97¢

New striped, checked, plain colors and novelty patterns. Sanforized shrunk. All sizes. Main Floor.

Men's 50c POLO SHIRTS 39¢

Rayon ribbed or plain weave in assorted colors, short sleeve style, wide collars. All sizes. Main Floor.

69c American FLAGS 29¢

3x5 ft., a good size for home decoration. Sewed stripes and star field, fast color. 3rd Floor.

3x6 GRASS RUGS 69¢

A regular 89c value. Convenient size for average porch, or may be used in pairs. Modern patterns. 3rd Floor.

"E-Z-DO" Mothproof ROBES WITH FREE CHEST $1.19

Preserve your woolens in one of these mothproof robes. Sliding door. Chest Free with robe. 3rd Floor.

MEN'S DRESS SHIRTS 79¢

CHILDREN'S ANKLETS, Sizes 6½ to 10½ at 10¢

TOT'S FAST COLOR SUN SUITS 12¢

LADIES' PURE SILK HOSE 2 prs. $1

LADIES' RAYON UNDIES 2 for 49¢

—Youth In The News—

Rock-A-Bye Baby, High In The Sky

YOUNGEST

Matchdeld van Fredenburg, five-months-old daughter of a Washington Netherlands legation official, is the youngest passenger ever to fly the ocean. She crossed on a Clipper plane from Lisbon, Portugal.

OLD HAND

Bobie Sweetman is only three but knows all the ups and downs of aviation. He made his first hop at the age of eight months. That's Bobie behind the goggles, during a flying meet at Lock Haven, Pa.

REFUGEE

One-year-old Joan Desy, daughter of the Belgian minister to Canada, arrived in New York with her mother, sister and nurse on a Clipper plane from Lisbon. The family fled Brussels when it was invaded.

DENTIST Dr. Hedrick

HOURS 9 to 8
Phone 3018
Hedrick's Home
223 BALT. AVE.
ABOVE Y.M.C.A.

P. S. FIRST ANNIVERSARY SALE!

FREE DISHES! TICKET WITH EVERY 20c PURCHASE

Honeydew Pure Strawberry PRESERVES 2 lb. jar 29c

Dill or Sour Pickles 2 quart jar 23c

Kraft's Loaf Cheese 2 lb. box 49c

Alaska Pink Salmon 2 1-lb. cans 27c

Grantsville Fresh Country EGGS 2 doz. 37c

• Everyday • Carnation MILK 10 tall cans 65c

BLUE RIBBON PASTRY FLOUR 5 lb. bag 15c

FREE! Cannon Dish Towel Giant Box Rinso 53c

FREE! 2 P & G Soap Oxydol large box 19c

MEAT SPECIALS!

Lean Boil Beef 8c lb.

Small Shankless Picnics 15c lb.

Hamburg lb. 13c
Pork Chops lb. 15c
Pork Liver lb. 8c
Canadian Bacon lb. 35c
Lamb Steaks lb. 30c

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

SOLID RIPE Tomatoes 2 lbs. 13c

LGE. RIPE MELONS 49c

Juicy Lemons 17c doz.

PUBLIC SERVICE FOOD — ORIGINAL SERVE SELF GIANT MARKET

26 N. GEORGE ST. CUMBERLAND, MD.

DOLLARS that reach to next week

People who make a study of such things say there are three ways to make money S-T-R-E-T-C-H.

• First. Budget. Plan your expenses and keep a record of what's spent.

• Second. Watch the pennies. It's the little savings that mount up.

• Third. Buy carefully. That's where advertising comes in. Printed news in this paper, from store and manufacturer, keeps you advised of the best buys of the day.

Read the advertisements—carefully. They'll give you the kind of information that makes this week's dollars reach over to next week!

Uncle Sam Plays 'I Spy' with Farmers

AP Feature Service

WASHINGTON — Peeping Toms are getting up in the world—the Department of Agriculture is equipping them with planes for a game of aerial "I spy" on U. S. farmers.

Contracts totaling $200,700 have been let for areial photography of 102,800 square miles in 16 states.

They didn't order the pictures just because they wanted a nice portrait of a country for the family album. They wanted to see if Farmer Brown was fudging on his AAA soil conservation contracts.

Some of the farmers took the conservation benefit payments, and then didn't reduce acreage as contracted. But the too-candid areial camera put the stopper on that stunt.

Farmer Brown's acres show up in the aerial pictures, and a gadget called a planimeter quickly tells how much land Farmer Brown has planted, how much is lying fallow and all the other facts.

Aerial photographs of California, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin are scheduled.

Lay down a smoke screen, Hiram, here come the gov'ment men.

The "planimeter," in operation here, checks aerial photographs as to the area planted to certain crops.

Dies at Age of 91

QUINCY, Ill., July 1 (AP) — Capt. John E. Andrew, 91, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, died here in the Soldiers and Sailors Home hospital.

Capt. Andrew, who was elected leader of the now rapidly dwindling group of Civil war veterans at the National encampment at Pittsburgh last September, suffered a paralytic stroke Thursday and never regained consciousness.

The aged veteran also was Illinois state commander of the G. A. R. for three years and he fought in fifteen battles of the Civil war.

Galento and Baer Ring Battle Is Booked by Radio

Jersey City Fight Will Come on Air at 9 o'Clock

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD
Associated Press Radio Editor

NEW YORK, July 1.—Tony Galento and Max Baer in the ring at Jersey City, N. J., on Tuesday night will find WJZ-NBC broadcasting about the blows that whack back and forth. The winner of this heavyweight battle is to meet Joe Louis (Barrow) in September. Description is to start at 9 o'clock.

Jimmy Durante, all fortified with encyclopedia reading and everything, has promised to offer his all when he joins the answering board of Clifton Fadiman's Information Please on WJZ-NBC at 7:30. Jimmy had been billed for an earlier appearance but postponed it for reasons. Christopher Morley will be the second guest.

Musical Americana, moving from Thursday nights to the 8 o'clock time following Information Please on WJZ-NBC, will use Jane Froman, beauty of the radio, in a return engagement series.

To replace for the summer the Fibber and Molly McGee vacationers, WEAF-NBC is beginning at 8:30 a musical revue production by Meredith Willson. Vocalists will be Kay St. Germain and Ray Hendricks.

About the war, here's the schedule: NBC 7 a. m., 12:45, 11 p. m.; CBS 7 a. m., 5:45, 7:55, 9:30 p. m.; WEAF-NBC 5:15, 6:15; MBS 8, 9. This list is subject to change to fit conditions.

The Radio Log

TUESDAY, JULY 2

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CST., 2 Hrs. for MT.—Daylight Time One Hour Later

(Changes in programs as listed due to last minute network corrections.)

4:30—Jack Armstrong—nbc-weaf-east
"Daily Serial" Series—nbc-red-west
Ireene Wicker and Stories—nbc-wjz
The Golden Gate Quartet—cbs-wabc
Dance Music Orchestra—mbs-chain
4:45—The O'Neills, Sketch—nbc-weaf
Bud Barton's serial — nbc-wjz-east
B. Barrett's Songs — nbc-blue-west
Scattergood Baines Serial—cbs-wabc
Little Orphan Annie—mbs-wor-east
5:00—L'l Abner's Sketch — nbc-weaf
News; Dancing Program — wjz-east
Children's Hour rpt.—nbc-blue-west
News Broadcasting Period—cbs-wabc
Music of the Strings—cbs-midwest
News; Dancing Orchestra—mbs-chain
5:05—Edwin C. Hill—cbs-wabc-basic
5:15—Dance Music Orch. — nbc-weaf
Bill Stern Sports; Music — wjz-only
Michael Loring in Songs—cbs-wabc
5:30—Yvette and Her Song—nbc-weaf
To Be Announced—nbc-wjz-east
Paul Sullivan News—cbs-wabc-basic
Music of the Americas — cbs-west
5:45—Paul Douglas Sports—nbc-weaf
Lowell Thomas, Talk—nbc-wjz-basic
European War Broadcast—cbs-wabc
Orphan Annie in repeat—mbs-west
6:00—F. Waring Time—nbc-weaf-east
H. Foote and Organ—nbc-red-west
Easy Aces, Dramatic Serial—nbc-wjz
Amos & Andy, Skit—cbs-wabc-east
Lynn Cole's Frog. — cbs-chain-west
Fulton Lewis, Jr., Talk—mbs-chain
6:15—Europe's War News—nbc-weaf
Mr. Keen, Dramatic Serial—nbc-wjz
Lanny Ross in Song—cbs-wabc-east
Paul Sullivan News repeat—cbs-west
To Be Announced (15 m.)—mbs-wor
6:30—Dance Music Orch.—nbc-weaf
One of the Finest, Sketch—wjz-wwj
Dancing Music Orchestra—nbc-blue
"Second Husband"—cbs-wabc-basic
To Be Announced (15 m.)—mbs-wor
6:45—H. V. Kaltenborn—nbc-red-ch
Sam Balter in Sports Talk—mbs-east
7:00—Johnny Presents Or.—nbc-weaf
Roy Shield's Radio Revue—nbc-wjz
Uncle Jim Question Bee—cbs-wabc
Ned Jordon, Spy Story—mbs-chain
Symphonic Strings — wor-New Eng.
7:30—Horace Heidt's Show—nbc-weaf
"Information Please" Quiz—nbc-wjz
Court of Missing Heirs — cbs-wabc
Dancing Music Orchestra—mbs-wor
7:55—Elmer Davis, News—cbs-wabc
8:00—Battle of the Sexes—nbc-weaf
Dancing Music Orchestra—nbc-wjz
We the People via Radio—cbs-wabc
Comment on War; Feature—mbs-ch.
8:30—M. Willson Musical — nbc-weaf
Fun With the Reviewers — nbc-wjz
Prof. Quiz & the Quizzes—cbs-wabc
Laugh and Swing Club — mbs-wor
9:00—Bob Hope's Variety—nbc-weaf
War Comment; Dance Orc.—nbc-wjz
Glenn Miller & Orchestra—cbs-wabc
Raymond G. Swing's Talk—mbs-wor
9:15—Public Affairs Talks—cbs-wabc
News; Dancing Orchestra — mbs-wor
9:30—Uncle Walt Doghouse—nbc-weaf
Monsieur le Capitaine, Play—nbc-wjz
War News from Overseas—cbs-wabc
Composer's Series Concert—mbs-net
9:45—Four Clubmen; News—cbs-wabc
10:00—News & Dance—nbc-weaf-east
Freg. Waring's repeat—nbc-red-west
News; Dancing Music Orc.—nbc-wjz
Sports; News Period—cbs-wabc-east
Amos and Andy repeat — cbs-west
Dancing Music Orchest.—mbs-chain
10:05—Ed Hill repeat (10 m.)—cbs-Dixie
10:15—Dance & News till 1—nbc-chains
Dance Orch. & News to 1—cbs & mbs
J. Fidler's repeat (15 m.)—cbs-west

Germany Threatens To Govern Norway

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—Germany has threatened to put Norway "fully" under Nazi control and administration if the Norwegian Parliament does not remove King Haakon and his refugee government, now in London, said an Exchange Telegraph (British news agency) dispatch from Goteborg, Sweden.

The dispatch stated that Joseph Terboven, German commissioner for Norway, had demanded that Parliament be summoned to oust King Haakon and Johan Nygaardsvold, head of the refugee government.

The Goteberg newspaper Posten was reported as saying that the king had been asked to abdicate, and if a new cabinet is not formed, the Germans would take over complete administration.

Report Heavy Rainfall

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Nearly three-fourths of an inch of rain fell Sunday in the Wheeling district, bringing the total for the month of June to more than five inches.

The high temperature was seventy-one degrees.

The prison population of the United States generally is about 125,000.

Noah's Ark, judging by its description, was a 20,000-ton ship.

COMPLETE GLASSES
COMPLETE $8.50 NO HIGHER
DR. GRANT'S Has Only ONE PRICE
This Includes
- Single or Double Vision Lenses
- 30 Styles Frames or Mountings
- Examination by Medical Eye Specialist
- Case—Two Years FREE Service

COME IN AND CONVINCE YOURSELF

Choice of 30 Styles
Our Rimless Pink or White Gold F. Mountings are beautifully engraved and of guaranteed quality.
Oxfords, Fulvues, Perimetric, Drop Octagon, Round or Ovals. Tinted Lenses the same price.

Dr. Grant's Eye Clinic
58 N. Mechanic Street Cumberland, Md.
Hours: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. Phone 3528

PERMANENT WAVES
$1.50 to $5.00
No Appointment Necessary
La Mona Wave Shop
Next to Post Office — 2nd Floor
59 Pershing St. Phone 447

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED FOR A Grand Picnic

DELICIOUS
Cre-Mels
Marshmallow peak with cake base covered with icing and cocoanut in six delicious flavors — Chocolate, Pineapple, Cherry, Butterscotch, Maple and Orange.
15¢ lb.

Murphy's Famous
Baked Ham
Baked with pineapple and luscious cherries — sliced as you like it!
Very Special 39¢ lb.

Skinless WIENERS 19¢ lb.

SPECIAL! ..... 2 lb. CAKES
Full 2 lb. layer and banquet cakes . . . the kind that mother likes! Devils Food, Marble, Plain Sponge, Plain Layer, Cherry, Pineapple, Caramel, Orange . . . . all in individual boxes.
25¢ ea.

CHICKENS
TENDER YOUNG FRYERS
2-lb. Average 35¢ lb.

DELICATESSEN STYLE
CHICKENS
Ready Cut Springers
BREAST ..... lb. 50¢
LEGS ..... lb. 49¢
WINGS ..... lb. 27¢
BACKS ..... lb. 15¢

SANDWICH CUTS assorted 14¢ lb.
Cheese Salad .... pt. 33¢
Ham Salad ..... pt. 30¢
Asst. Cheese Cuts .. lb. 26¢ - 28¢
Pickles, Olives, Mustard, Ketchup ... bottle 10¢

PICNIC SUPPLIES
Wax Paper .. roll 10c
Picnic Plates 10 for 5c
Compartment Plates .... 5 for 5c
Salad Dishes .. 24 for 5c
Drinking Cups .... 6 for 5c
Forks and Spoons Wood—Pkg. of 14 ..... 10c
Table Covers 4 In Pkg. 10c
Sandwich Bags Pkg of 25 .... 5c
Paper Napkins 1000 to a Box, 10c
Camp Jugs 98c, $1.19, $1.98

POTATO SALAD home made 20¢ pt.
FRESH BAKED PICNIC ROLLS
Poppy Seed Rolls, doz. 20c
Hard Crust Rolls, doz. 20c
Finger Rolls .... doz. 18c
Sandwich Buns, doz. 18c

★ ★ ★ HOLIDAY FOUNTAIN SPECIAL ★ ★ ★
25¢ Cold Plate with Whole Ripe Tomatoe stuffed with Chicken Salad—Diced Rich Potato Salad and Crisp Saltines — Choice of Coffee, Iced Tea or Fresh Lemonade. 25¢

G. C. MURPHY CO.
136-146 BALTIMORE ST. CUMBERLAND

1st FIRST CHOICE OF MILLIONS WHO HAVE MADE IT THE WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER AT 10¢
St. Joseph ASPIRIN

VACATION SPECIAL
WAVES $1.50
Shampoo and Wave ... 50c
Other Waves from $2.50.
MARY'S OIL-O-WAVE SHOP
Formerly Stan's
Next to Algonquin Hotel
PHONE 1-1-1-3

SHOE REPAIR SPECIAL!
HALF SOLES
GENUINE OAK LEATHER
Men's, Women's or Children's 49¢ pr.
SEWED ON
SHOES MADE LONGER or WIDER
WE FEATURE INVISIBLE SOLING
LADIES PRIME LEATHER HEEL TAPS 14¢ pr.
Shoe Repair Dept.—Second Floor
G. C. Murphy Co.
136-146 Baltimore St.

Auto loans
BRING TITLE
DRIVE AWAY WITH
$25, $50, $100 or more
Safe - Private - Service
EASY REPAYMENTS
Millenson Co.
Irving Millenson, In Charge
106 S. Liberty St. Phone 8-4-7

BOOM BANG SALE
Sensational Fourth of July Shoe Values!
LADIES, LADIES . . . LOOK AT THESE VALUES
WHITE SLIPPERS
$1.48 $1.75 and
All the Newest Summer Styles
- Straps
- Sandals
- Oxfords
- Pumps

Plain white and white combined with colors. All height heels. All sizes.

Ladies' SUN KIX Canvas Oxfords 95c
SPECIAL GROUP LADIES' White Novelties All sizes and styles $1.00

Ladies' Beach Sandals 45c
Sizes 3½ to 9

Growing Girls' SADDLE OXFORDS
Brown and white, Cork soles. Very popular for summer wear!
1.48

Ladies' Dark Blue Straw Oxfords . . . 50c

Growing Girls' Oxfords and Straps
Ventilated oxfords and crepe sole white oxfords.
$1.00

Children's White Oxfords and Straps
79¢
Sizes 8½ to 2

Odd Lot . . . Infants' Summer Oxfords
Mothers — these are really fine values!
50¢
Sizes 2 to 5

Tennis Shoes
White with Brown, Blue or Black
45¢
With heavy soles and leather insoles.
69¢

BOYS' OXFORDS
McKay Soles Sizes 1 to 6 $1.00
Boys' White Crepe Sole
OXFORDS Sizes 1 to 6 ..... $1.65

Kiddies' Canvas Top Cork Sole OXFORDS
Brown and white. White with plaid saddle. Brown and white. Sizes 8½ to 3.
69¢

Men's Bob Gray Oxfords
$1.98
White
Black - Brown

Men's Ventilated Oxfords
Black and Brown Leather Soles
$1.39

Men's WORK SHOES
$1.48
All composition soles. Sizes 6 to 11.

Cut Rate Shoe Stores
Cumberland Frostburg Keyser

Uncle Sam Plays 'I Spy' with Farmers

AP Feature Service

WASHINGTON — Peeping Toms are getting up in the world—the Department of Agriculture is equipping them with planes for a game of aerial "I spy" on U. S. farmers.

Contracts totaling $200,700 have been let for areial photography of 102,800 square miles in 16 states.

They didn't order the pictures just because they wanted a nice portrait of a country for the family album. They wanted to see if Farmer Brown was fudging on his AAA soil conservation contracts.

Some of the farmers took the conservation benefit payments, and then didn't reduce acreage as contracted. But the too-candid areial camera put the stopper on that stunt.

Farmer Brown's acres show up in the aerial pictures, and a gadget called a planimeter quickly tells how much land Farmer Brown has planted, how much is lying fallow and all the other facts.

Aerial photographs of California, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin are scheduled.

Lay down a smoke screen, Hiram, here come the gov'ment men.

The "planimeter," in operation here, checks aerial photographs as to the area planted to certain crops.

Dies at Age of 91

QUINCY, Ill., July 1 (AP) — Capt. John E. Andrew, 91, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, died here in the Soldiers and Sailors Home hospital.

Capt. Andrew, who was elected leader of the now rapidly dwindling group of Civil war veterans at the National encampment at Pittsburgh last September, suffered a paralytic stroke Thursday and never regained consciousness.

The aged veteran also was Illinois state commander of the G. A. R. for three years and he fought in fifteen battles of the Civil war.

Galento and Baer Ring Battle Is Booked by Radio

Jersey City Fight Will Come on Air at 9 o'Clock

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD
Associated Press Radio Editor

NEW YORK, July 1.—Tony Galento and Max Baer in the ring at Jersey City, N. J., on Tuesday night will find WJZ-NBC broadcasting about the blows that whack back and forth. The winner of this heavyweight battle is to meet Joe Louis (Barrow) in September. Description is to start at 9 o'clock.

Jimmy Durante, all fortified with encyclopedia reading and everything, has promised to offer his all when he joins the answering board of Clifton Fadiman's Information Please on WJZ-NBC at 7:30. Jimmy had been billed for an earlier appearance but postponed it for reasons. Christopher Morley will be the second guest.

Musical Americana, moving from Thursday nights to the 8 o'clock time following Information Please on WJZ-NBC, will use Jane Froman, beauty of the radio, in a return engagement series.

To replace for the summer the Fibber and Molly McGee vacationers, WEAF-NBC is beginning at 8:30 a musical revue production by Meredith Willson. Vocalists will be Kay St. Germain and Ray Hendricks.

About the war, here's the schedule: NBC 7 a. m., 12:45, 11 p. m.; CBS 7 a. m., 5:45, 7:55, 9:30 p. m.; WEAF-NBC 5:15, 6:15; MBS 8, 9. This list is subject to change to fit conditions.

The Radio Log

TUESDAY, JULY 2

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CST., 2 Hrs. for MT.—Daylight Time One Hour Later

(Changes in programs as listed due to last minute network corrections.)

4:30—Jack Armstrong—nbc-weaf-east
"Daily Serial" Series—nbc-red-west
Ireene Wicker and Stories—nbc-wjz
The Golden Gate Quartet—cbs-wabc
Dance Music Orchestra—mbs-chain
4:45—The O'Neills, Sketch—nbc-weaf
Bud Barton's serial — nbc-wjz-east
B. Barrett's Songs — nbc-blue-west
Scattergood Baines Serial—cbs-wabc
Little Orphan Annie—mbs-wor-east
5:00—Li'l Abner's Sketch — nbc-weaf
News; Dancing Program — wjz-east
Children's Hour rpt.—nbc-blue-west
News Broadcasting Period—cbs-wabc
Music of the Strings—cbs-midwest
News; Dancing Orchestra—mbs-chain
5:05—Edwin C. Hill—cbs-wabc-basic
5:15—Dance Music Orch. — nbc-weaf
Bill Stern Sports; Music — wjz-only
Michael Loring in Songs—cbs-wabc
5:30—Yvette and Her Song—nbc-weaf
To Be Announced—nbc-wjz-east
Paul Sullivan News—cbs-wabc-basic
Music of the Americas — cbs-west
5:45—Paul Douglas Sports—nbc-weaf
Lowell Thomas, Talk—nbc-wjz-basic
European War Broadcast—cbs-wabc
Orphan Annie in repeat—mbs-west
6:00—F. Waring Time—nbc-weaf-east
H. Foote and Organ—nbc-red-west
Easy Aces, Dramatic Serial—nbc-wjz
Amos & Andy, Skit—cbs-wabc-east
Lynn Cole's Prog. — cbs-chain-west
Fulton Lewis, Jr., Talk—mbs-chain
6:15—Europe's War News—nbc-weaf
Mr. Keen, Dramatic Serial—nbc-wjz
Lanny Ross in Song—cbs-wabc-east
Paul Sullivan News repeat—cbs-west
To Be Announced (15 m.)—mbs-wor
6:30—Dance Music Orch.—nbc-weaf
One of the Finest, Sketch—wjz-wwj
Dancing Music Orchestra—nbc-blue
"Second Husband"—cbs-wabc-basic
To Be Announced (15 m.)—mbs-wor
6:45—H. V. Kaltenborn—nbc-red-ch
Sam Balter in Sports Talk—mbs-east
7:00—Johnny Presents Or.—nbc-weaf
Roy Shield's Radio Revue—nbc-wjz
Uncle Jim Question Bee—cbs-wabc
Ned Jordon, Spy Story—mbs-chain
Symphonic Strings — wor-New Eng.
7:30—Horace Heidt's Show—nbc-weaf
"Information Please" Quiz—nbc-wjz
Court of Missing Heirs — cbs-wabc
Dancing Music Orchestra—mbs-wor
7:55—Elmer Davis, News—cbs-wabc
8:00—Battle of the Sexes—nbc-weaf
Dancing Music Orchestra—nbc-wjz
We the People via Radio—cbs-wabc
Comment on War; Feature—mbs-ch.
8:30—M. Willson Musical — nbc-weaf
Fun With the Reviewers — nbc-wjz
Prof. Quiz & the Quizees—cbs-wabc
Laugh and Swing Club — mbs-wor
9:00—Bob Hope's Variety—nbc-weaf
War Comment; Dance Orc.—nbc-wjz
Glenn Miller & Orchestra—cbs-wabc
Raymond G. Swing's Talk—mbs-wor
9:15—Public Affairs Talks—cbs-wabc
News; Dancing Orchestra — mbs-wor
9:30—Uncle Walt Doghouse—nbc-weaf
Monsieur le Capitaine, Play—nbc-wjz
War News from Overseas—cbs-wabc
Composer's Series Concert—mbs-net
9:45—Four Clubmen; News—cbs-wabc
10:00—News & Dance—nbc-weaf-east
Fred. Waring's repeat—nbc-red-west
News; Dancing Music Orc.—nbc-wjz
Sports; News Period—cbs-wabc-east
Amos and Andy repeat — cbs-west
Dancing Music Orchest.—mbs-chain
10:05—Ed Hill repeat (10 m.)—cbs-Dixie
10:15—Dance & News till 1—nbc-chains
Dance Orch. & News to 1—cbs & mbs
J. Fidler's repeat (15 m.)—cbs-west

1st FIRST CHOICE OF MILLIONS WHO HAVE MADE IT THE WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER AT 10¢
St. Joseph ASPIRIN

VACATION SPECIAL

WAVES $1.50
Shampoo and Wave ... 50c
Other Waves from $3.50.
MARY'S OIL-O-WAVE SHOP
Formerly Stan's
Next to Algonquin Hotel
PHONE 1-1-1-3

SHOE REPAIR SPECIAL!

HALF SOLES
GENUINE OAK LEATHER
Men's, Women's or Children's
49¢ pr.
SHOES MADE LONGER or WIDER
WE FEATURE INVISIBLE SOLING
LADIES PRIME LEATHER HEEL TAPS 14¢ pr.
Shoe Repair Dept.—Second Floor
G. C. Murphy Co.
136-146 Baltimore St.

Auto loans

BRING TITLE
DRIVE AWAY WITH
$25, $50, $100 or more
Safe - Private - Service
EASY REPAYMENTS
Millenson Co.
Irving Millenson, In Charge
106 S. Liberty St. Phone 8-4-7

Report Heavy Rainfall

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Nearly three-fourths of an inch of rain fell Sunday in the Wheeling district, bringing the total for the month of June to more than five inches.

The high temperature was seventy-one degrees.

Germany Threatens To Govern Norway

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—Germany has threatened to put Norway "fully" under Nazi control and administration if the Norwegian Parliament does not remove King Haakon and his refugee government, now in London, said an Exchange Telegraph (British news agency) dispatch from Goteborg, Sweden.

The dispatch stated that Joseph Terboven, German commissioner for Norway, had demanded that Parliament be summoned to oust King Haakon and Johan Nygaardsvold, head of the refugee government.

The Goteberg newspaper Posten was reported as saying that the king had been asked to abdicate, and if a new cabinet is not formed, the Germans would take over complete administration.

The prison population of the United States generally is about 125,000.

Noah's Ark, judging by its description, was a 20,000-ton ship.

COMPLETE GLASSES
DR. GRANT'S
COMPLETE $8.50 NO HIGHER
Has Only ONE PRICE

This Includes
- Single or Double Vision Lenses
- 30 Styles Frames or Mountings
- Examination by Medical Eye Specialist
- Case—Two Years FREE Service

COME IN AND CONVINCE YOURSELF
Our Rimless Pink or White Gold P. Mountings are beautifully engraved and of guaranteed quality
Choice of 30 Styles
Oxfords, Fulvues, Perimetric, Drop Octagon, Round or Ovals. Tinted Lenses the same price.
Dr. Grant's Eye Clinic
58 N. Mechanic Street Cumberland, Md.
Hours: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. Phone 3528

PERMANENT WAVES

$1.50 to $5.00
No Appointment Necessary
La Mona Wave Shop
Next to Post Office — 2nd Floor
59 Pershing St. Phone 447

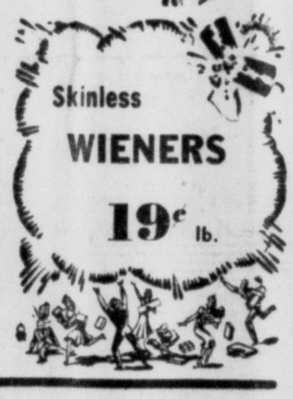

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED FOR A Grand Picnic

DELICIOUS
Cre-Mels
Marshmallow peak with cake base covered with icing and cocoanut in six delicious flavors — Chocolate, Pineapple, Cherry, Butterscotch, Maple and Orange.
15¢ lb.

Murphy's Famous
Baked Ham
Baked with pineapple and luscious cherries — sliced as you like it!
Very Special 39¢ lb.

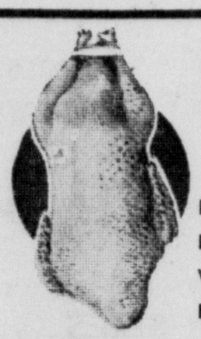

Skinless WIENERS 19¢ lb.

SPECIAL! ..... 2 lb. CAKES
Full 2 lb. layer and banquet cakes . . . the kind that mother likes! Devils Food, Marble, Plain Sponge, Plain Layer, Cherry, Pineapple, Caramel, Orange . . . . all in individual boxes.
25¢ ea.

CHICKENS
TENDER YOUNG FRYERS

2-lb. Average 35¢ lb.

DELICATESSEN STYLE CHICKENS
Ready Cut Springers
BREAST ..... lb. 50¢
LEGS ..... lb. 49¢
WINGS ..... lb. 27¢
BACKS ..... lb. 15¢

SANDWICH CUTS assorted
14¢ lb.
Cheese Salad .... pt. 33¢
Ham Salad ..... pt. 30¢
Asst. Cheese Cuts .. lb. 26¢ -- 28¢
Pickles, Olives, Mustard, Ketchup ... bottle 10¢

PICNIC SUPPLIES
Wax Paper .. roll 10c
Picnic Plates 10 for 5c
Compartment Plates .... 5 for 5c
Salad Dishes .. 24 for 5c
Drinking Cups .... 6 for 5c
Forks and Spoons Wood—Pkg. of 14 ..... 10c
Table Covers 4 In Pkg. 10c
Sandwich Bags Pkg of 25 .... 5c
Paper Napkins 1000 to a Box, 10c
Camp Jugs 98c, $1.19, $1.98

POTATO SALAD home made 20¢ pt.
FRESH BAKED PICNIC ROLLS
Poppy Seed Rolls, doz. 20¢
Hard Crust Rolls, doz. 20¢
Finger Rolls .... doz. 18¢
Sandwich Buns, doz. 18¢

★ ★ ★ HOLIDAY FOUNTAIN SPECIAL ★ ★ ★
25¢ Cold Plate with Whole Ripe Tomatoes stuffed with Chicken Salad—Diced Rich Potato Salad and Crisp Saltines — Choice of Coffee, Iced Tea or Fresh Lemonade. 25¢

G. C. MURPHY CO.
136--146 BALTIMORE ST. CUMBERLAND

BOOM BANG SALE!
Sensational Fourth of July Shoe Values!
LADIES, LADIES . . . LOOK AT THESE VALUES
WHITE SLIPPERS
$1.48 $1.75 and
All the Newest Summer Styles
- Straps
- Sandals
- Oxfords
- Pumps

Plain white and white combined with colors. All height heels. All sizes.

Ladies' SUN KIX Canvas Oxfords 95c
SPECIAL GROUP LADIES' White Novelties All sizes and styles $1.00

Ladies' Beach Sandals
45c
Sizes 3½ to 9

Growing Girls' SADDLE OXFORDS
Brown and white. Cork soles. Very popular for summer wear!
1.48

Ladies' Dark Blue Straw Oxfords . . . 50c

Growing Girls' Oxfords and Straps
Ventilated oxfords and crepe sole white oxfords.
$1.00

Children's White Oxfords and Straps
79¢
Sizes 8½ to 2

Odd Lot . . . Infants' Summer Oxfords
Mothers — these are really fine values!
Sizes 2 to 5
50¢

Tennis Shoes
White with Brown, Blue or Black
45¢
With heavy soles and leather insoles.
69¢

BOYS' OXFORDS
McKay Soles Sizes 1 to 6
$1.00
Boys' White Crepe Sole OXFORDS Sizes 1 to 6 ..... $1.65

Kiddies' Canvas Top Cork Sole OXFORDS
Brown and white. White with plaid saddle. Brown and white. Sizes 8½ to 3.
69c

Men's Bob Gray Oxfords
$1.98
White
Black - Brown

Men's Ventilated Oxfords
Black and Brown Leather Soles
$1.39

Men's WORK SHOES
$1.48
All composition soles. Sizes 6 to 11.

Cut Rate Shoe Stores
Cumberland Frostburg Keyser

Willkie Makes Friends, Amazes People By Speaking Out on Timely Topics

This is the first of a series of three stories about the unique new star of American politics—Wendell L. Willkie.

By MORGAN M. BEATTY
AP Feature Service Writer

One day back in 1937 when the New Deal utility scrap was making Washington weather stickier than usual, I had to get some information about Commonwealth & Southern, the big holding company Wendell L. Willkie runs.

A utility representative in Washington said:

"Sorry, I can't speak for C. & S., but I'll pass on your questions."

Then the phone rang.

"This is Wendell Willkie," said the voice, crisp like iceberg lettuce.

"But I didn't know you were in Washington, Mr. Willkie."

"I'm not," he snapped, "but when a reporter wants my side of this scrap, I'm ready to give it to him. Shoot!"

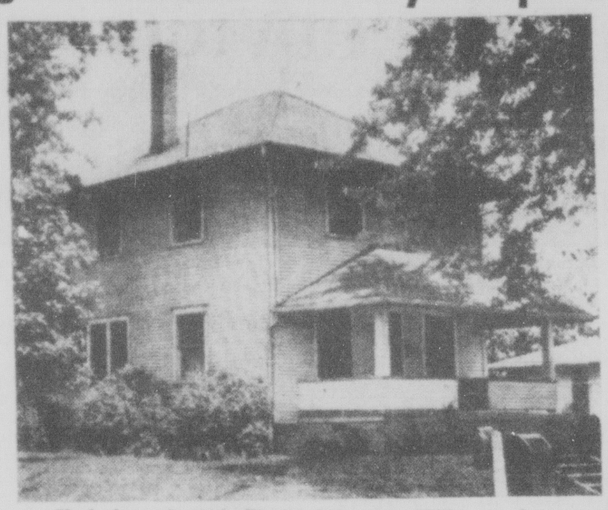

From his New York office right next to Wall Street, Wendell Willkie rattled off his answers.

"Call me any time," he finished.

And as I wrote my account I wondered, as a lot of people have lately, what manner of man this Willkie was.

He Surprises 'Em All

Willkie's the man who joked about a presidential boom while others were desperately trying to launch theirs. He's the fellow who actually shooed away able young men who insisted on throwing up good jobs to help Willkie bring down the moon, but finally failed to dissuade them.

Shady frame house in Elwood, Ind., where Willkie was born.

Wendell Willkie, age 6 months. Grew to 6-feet-1, 220 pounds.

He's the tobacco-chewing, fist-slinging young man who once challenged the Bible on the campus of Indiana University, about-faced, listened to the Methodists, and ultimately chose the Episcopalians.

He's the hobo with book learning who once turned down a farmer's daughter and her 150 acres of Iowa corn land.

(A few weeks ago, more than a quarter of a century later, an Iowan told that story on Willkie at a political rally. After the meeting an elderly farmer stepped up and asked the candidate what year he had been a hobo farm hand in Iowa. Willkie counted back for his inquirer. "Nope," said the old fellow, "you ain't the man; I'm looking for a chap that didn't exactly turn down the farmer's daughter.")

Ousted The Bankers

Willkie's the rough and tumble Hoosier who went to New York a dozen years ago with a chip on his shoulder for bankers, and fired all but one out of Commonwealth and Southern swivel chairs. Then he turned right around and accepted an invitation to lunch from a group of Morgan partners.

(They fooled him for fair. Instead of trying to tell him how to run his business on the strength of their small stock holdings in his company, they just talked about flowers and the weather. And there sat Willkie with a useless chip on his shoulder.)

And Wendell Willkie's the man whose slim, lovely wife had rather just stroll down the street with her husband than do most anything else.

The biography broadcast from the Willkie-for-President headquarters is, in the words of William Allen White, the slickest literary goose grease that has burdened the second class mail in sometime. It skips part of the lofty hokum usually used to doll up a candidate, cheerfully paints Willkie in his youth as Peck's Bad Boy, whom no mother would take as a model for her son.

Typical American Boy

"He was always in trouble," it says, "fighting, tipping over neighbors' privies, using his Sunday School text cards from the Methodist church to play a gambling game with his five brothers and sisters."

But in its more serious passages, the campaign biographer is also earnestly eager to give you a portrait of a "big shot" utility executive who undeniably is a self-made man.

It tells you how the ailing B. C. Cobb, executive of Commonwealth, called the able lawyer from the Middle West to New York at three times his midwest income, and in 1933 made Willkie the boss of the whole show at $75,000 a year.

"No wonder," the biographer adds, "that Wendell Willkie believes there is still opportunity today in America. From hobo to corporation chief is a long stride. If he made it, he thinks other men can do as well. . . ."

Father Herman Francis Willkie was lawyer, too. There were six children.

Mother Henrietta Tusch Willkie was one of first women admitted to Indiana bar.

"Semi-Religious Movement"

But the biography might have left off the next sentence:

"He has no powerful friends, no personal influence, no 'pull'."

No man who has done the things he has done, or possessed the Willkie fire and dash could help but attract friends from many walks of life, as well as make a few enemies along the way.

When the Willkie boom was in its infancy, an old lady wrote a Philadelphia newspaper that to her way of thinking, the Lord had sent us (presumably the Republicans) Wendell Willkie.

William L. Harman, vice-president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works and head of the Pennsylvania Willkie-for-President Clubs, added:

"I regard this as a semi-religious movement, and we are trying to get it on a revival basis." To which the Republican convention said, "Amen!"

(Tomorrow: Willkie, the young man about the countryside.)

Just Baby Talk Carries a Lot Of Meaning

Twelve Month Old Child Has Usually Mastered Several Words

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

A number of vocabularies of young children have been published, each word being recorded when first heard or at various intervals. Dr. Arnold Gesell of Yale University studied fifty babies twelve months old and fifty more eighteen months old. He says:

"The median twelve-month-old child not only can say dada and mama, or its equivalent, but has mastered at least three or four distinguishable words which he articulates with much precision."

The other words most popular were bye-bye and baby. At eighteen months, bye-bye, ta-ta, hello and how'do were most frequent. A study by M. E. Smith at the University of Iowa concludes that the words used most frequently up to and at the sixth year are: I, is, it, you, that, do a, this, not, the.

Here's Chart

Many children have not begun to talk at one year and some have not at eighteen months. Of the children studied the average vocabularies are as follows:

At one year, seven words.
At eighteen moths, 71 words.
At two years, 328 words.
At two and a half years, 690 words.
At three years, 896 words.
At three and a half years, 1,222 words.
At four years, 1,540 words.
At four and a half years, 1,870 words.
At five years, 2,070 words.
At five and a half years, 2,289 words.
At six years, 2,562 words.

Since emotional expresion is a large factor in the development of speech, words of exclamation are among the first. Nouns and verbs rank high in the first few years and adjectives develop earlier, as a rule, than adverbs.

Piaget, after careful and extensive observation of children from four to eight, concludes that the child tends to talk a great deal as if he were carrying on a monologue while with other children, rather than with the purpose of communicating what he wants to say to other children, and that the social phase of speech develops relatively late—more evidence that speech is principally emotional matter and a means of self-expression.

Wants Attention

On the other hand, the child even at three or four, while mingling with us parents, does talk to us and is often very much annoyed when we do not look at him then and listen courteously and attentively. Moreover, children learn to carry on conversation with one another even before entering school.

Language becomes a social matter in proportion to the growth of social interests and social contacts among those of the same age and in proportion, furthermore, as older persons understand and treat courteously and sympathetically the child from his earliest years.

Columbus discovered South America, in 1498, on his third voyage west, he touched near the mouth of the Orinoco river.

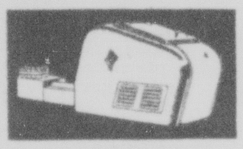

Chinese Jewelry Mart Destroyed by Fire

PEIPING, North China, (AP)—Over fifty shops and small factories of the widely-known "Flower Street" jewelry market were restroyed by fire recently. This market makes a large amount of jade, agate, turquois, lapis, gold and silver costume jewelry for American trade.

COAL SPECIAL

Before you buy coal, let us tell you how modern stoker coal is "treated" to make it clean and dust-free. And how Combustioneer burns this coal without wasting it. For more heat—even heat—at lower cost, install Combustioneer.

Combustioneer
AUTOMATIC COAL BURNER

The only stoker with the Breathing Fuel Bed, Automatic Respirator and Patented Transmission, which mean more heat for your money. Phone or write for our Special Summer Plan.

STERLING ELECTRIC CO.
100 N. Center St.

Protect Your Investment...

Accuracy and dependability are the first requisites of any watch. Why not demand them when they cost no more, and perhaps less? Here, every new watch and every watch left for repair comes to you with a printed record of its performance—a proof of accuracy made scientifically by the

Watch Master

Exclusive with

John A. Nierman

Pershing St., Between Strand Theater and Post Office

Hot Weather Hints for Busy Housewives...

When the pavement is sizzling hot and your shopping list seems miles long and you'd give anything to keep cool with a good book you can do just that if you shop and market by telephone

If you've ever been upstairs on a hot day and the telephone rang on the first floor and you were just completely exhausted by the time you got back from answering it you will be interested to know that you can have an extension telephone upstairs or anywhere in your home for only about two cents a day.

Shop by Telephone and keep Cool

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City
Cumberland 9900

The Cage School of Beauty Culture

The School of Preference

We are now accepting enrollments for a July class.

This school lives up to a standard and not down to a price.

15 S. Centre St. Phone 571-J

Men's Sport Oxfords

$3.25 _ $5.50

White - White and Tan
Two-Tone Tan

Smiths Tender Feet Shoe Shop

123-125 Baltimore St.

See the NEW Hotpoint ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR WITH Measured Humidity

BENNETT'S
56 N. Centre St.
219 Virginia Ave.

AUTO LOANS
CASH
ON YOUR CAR
IMMEDIATELY

We Specialize

Auto Loans are our specialty. We believe we can offer you a better service — more cash and longer terms. We place highest loan value on your car—1931 to 1939 models

SEE US TODAY

NATIONAL LOAN COMPANY
201 S. George St. at Harrison
Phone 2017 Cumberland
Lester Millenson, Mgr.

NO INCREASE IN PRICE!
(IN MARYLAND)
PHILIP MORRIS

pays the new National Defense Tax for you —on Philip Morris—America's finest cigarette—proved better for your nose and throat!

15¢ including National Defense Tax

CALL FOR PHILIP MORRIS

Timely....Sensational Savings!

HUNDREDS OF GLORIOUS NEW DRESSES
PRICED WAY LOW FOR HOLIDAY BUDGETS

SIZES FOR ALL
11 to 17
12 to 20
38 to 44
46 to 52

$1.
$2.
$3.

Summer's most exciting . . . most colorful . . . most value-packed dress event! . . . Actually over 500 brand new dresses just unpacked . . . specially purchased and priced dramatically LOW! Dresses for sports . . . vacation . . . traveling . . . office . . . and even your most important "dressy" affairs . . . Sheer cottons . . . Bembergs . . . Sharkskins . . . Spuns . . . Chambrays . . . Dotted Swisses . . . Flock Dot Sheers . . . Washable Crepe . . . Whites . . . Pastels . . . Stripes . . . Dots . . . Black and Whites . . . and vivid new Reds.

Cumberland Cloak & Suit Store
48 to 58 Baltimore St. Cumberland, Md.

Willkie Makes Friends, Amazes People By Speaking Out on Timely Topics

This is the first of a series of three stories about the unique new star of American politics—Wendell L. Willkie.

By MORGAN M. BEATTY
AP Feature Service Writer

One day back in 1937 when the New Deal utility scrap was making Washington weather stickier than usual, I had to get some information about Commonwealth & Southern, the big holding company Wendell L. Willkie runs.

A utility representative in Washington said:

"Sorry, I can't speak for C. & S., but I'll pass on your questions."

Then the phone rang.

"This is Wendell Willkie," said the voice, crisp like iceberg lettuce.

"But I didn't know you were in Washington, Mr. Willkie."

"I'm not," he snapped, "but when a reporter wants my side of this scrap, I'm ready to give it to him. Shoot!"

From his New York office right next to Wall Street, Wendell Willkie rattled off his answers.

"Call me any time," he finished.

And as I wrote my account I wondered, as a lot of people have lately, what manner of man this Willkie was.

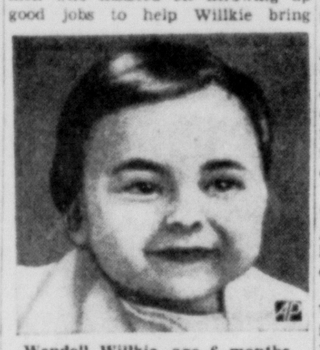

He Surprises 'Em All

Willkie's the man who joked about a presidential boom while

Shady frame house in Elwood, Ind., where Willkie was born.

others were desperately trying to launch theirs. He's the fellow who actually shooed away able young men who insisted on throwing up good jobs to help Willkie bring down the moon, but finally failed to dissuade them.

Wendell Willkie, age 6 months. Grew to 6-feet-1, 220 pounds.

He's the tobacco-chewing, fist-slinging young man who once challenged the Bible on the campus of Indiana University, about-faced, listened to the Methodists, and ultimately chose the Episcopalians.

He's the hobo with book learning who once turned down a farmer's daughter and her 150 acres of Iowa corn land.

(A few weeks ago, more than a quarter of a century later, an Iowan told that story on Willkie at a political rally. After the meeting, an elderly farmer stepped up and asked the candidate what year he had been a hobo farm hand in Iowa. Willkie counted back for his inquirer. "Nope," said the old fellow, "you ain't the man; I'm looking for a chap that didn't exactly turn down the farmer's daughter.")

Ousted The Bankers

Willkie's the rough and tumble Hoosier who went to New York a dozen years ago with a chip on his shoulder for bankers, and fired all but one out of Commonwealth and Southern swivel chairs. Then he turned right around and accepted an invitation to lunch from a group of Morgan partners.

(They fooled him for fair. Instead of trying to tell him how to run his business on the strength of their small stock holdings in his company, they just talked about flowers and the weather. And there sat Willkie with a useless chip on his shoulder.)

And Wendell Willkie's the man whose slim, lovely wife had rather just stroll down the street with her husband than do most anything else.

The biography broadcast from the Willkie-for-President headquarters is, in the words of William Allen White, the slickest literary goose grease that has burdened the second class mail in sometime. It skips part of the lofty hokum usually used to doll up a candidate.

Father Herman Francis Willkie was lawyer, too. There were six children.

cheerfully paints Willkie in his youth as Peck's Bad Boy, whom no mother would take as a model for her son.

Typical American Boy

"He was always in trouble," it says, "fighting, tipping over neighbors' privies, using his Sunday School text cards from the Methodist church to play a gambling game with his five brothers and sisters."

But in its more serious passages, the campaign biographer is also earnestly eager to give you a portrait of a "big shot" utility executive who undeniably is a self-made man.

It tells you how the ailing B. C. Cobb, executive of Commonwealth, called the able lawyer from the Middle West to New York at three times his midwest income, and in 1933 made Willkie the boss of the whole show at $75,000 a year.

"No wonder," the biographer adds, "that Wendell Willkie believes there is still opportunity today in America. From hobo to corporation chief is a long stride. If he made it, he thinks other men can do as well. . . ."

Mother Henrietta Tusch Willkie was one of first women admitted to Indiana bar.

"Semi-Religious Movement"

But the biography might have left off the next sentence:

"He has no powerful friends, no personal influence, no 'pull'."

No man who has done the things he has done, or possessed the Willkie fire and dash could help but attract friends from many walks of life, as well as make a few enemies along the way.

When the Willkie boom was in its infancy, an old lady wrote a Philadelphia newspaper that to her way of thinking, the Lord had sent us (presumably the Republicans) Wendell Willkie.

William L. Harman, vice-president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works and head of the Pennsylvania Willkie-for-President Clubs, added:

"I regard this as a semi-religious movement, and we are trying to get it on a revival basis." To which the Republican convention said, "Amen!"

(Tomorrow: Willkie, the young man about the countryside.)

Just Baby Talk Carries a Lot Of Meaning

Twelve Month Old Child Has Usually Mastered Several Words

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

A number of vocabularies of young children have been published, each word being recorded when first heard or at various intervals. Dr. Arnold Gesell of Yale University studied fifty babies twelve months old and fifty more eighteen months old. He says:

"The median twelve-month-old child not only can say dada and mama, or its equivalent, but has mastered at least three or four distinguishable words which he articulates with much precision."

The other words most popular were bye-bye and baby. At eighteen months, bye-bye, ta-ta, hello and how'do were most frequent. A study by M. E. Smith at the University of Iowa concludes that the words used most frequently up to and at the sixth year are: I, is, it, you, that, do a, this, not, the.

Here's Chart

Many children have not begun to talk at one year and some have not at eighteen months. Of the children studied the average vocabularies are as follows:

At one year, seven words.
At eighteen moths, 71 words.
At two years, 328 words.
At two and a half years, 690 words.
At three years, 896 words.
At three and a half years, 1,222 words.
At four years, 1,540 words.
At four and a half years, 1,870 words.
At five years, 2,070 words.
At five and a half years, 2,289 words.
At six years, 2,562 words.

Since emotional expresion is a large factor in the development of speech, words of exclamation are among the first. Nouns and verbs rank high in the first few years and adjectives develop earlier, as a rule, than adverbs.

Piaget, after careful and extensive observation of children from four to eight, concludes that the child tends to talk a great deal as if he were carrying on a monologue while with other children, rather than with the purpose of communicating what he wants to say to other children, and that the social phase of speech develops relatively late—more evidence that speech is principally emotional matter and a means of self-expression.

Wants Attention

On the other hand, the child even at three or four, while mingling with us parents, does talk to us and is often very much annoyed when we do not look at him then and listen courteously and attentively. Moreover, children learn to carry on conversation with one another even before entering school.

Language becomes a social matter in proportion to the growth of social interests and social contacts among those of the same age and in proportion, furthermore, as older persons understand and treat courteously and sympathetically the child from his earliest years.

Columbus discovered South America. In 1498, on his third voyage west, he touched near the mouth of the Orinoco river.

Chinese Jewelry Mart Destroyed by Fire

PEIPING, North China, (AP)—Over fifty shops and small factories of the widely-known "Flower Street" jewelry market were restroyed by fire recently. This market makes a large amount of jade, agate, turquois, lapis, gold and silver costume jewelry for American trade.

COAL SPECIAL

Before you buy coal, let us tell you how modern stoker coal is "treated" to make it clean and dust-free. And how Combustioneer burns this coal without wasting it. For more heat—even heat—at lower cost, install Combustioneer.

Combustioneer
AUTOMATIC COAL BURNER

The only stoker with the Breathing Fuel Bed, Automatic Respirator and Patented Transmission, which mean more heat for your money. Phone or write for our Special Summer Plan.

STERLING ELECTRIC CO.
100 N. Center St.

Protect Your Investment...

Accuracy and dependability are the first requisites of any watch. Why not demand them when they cost no more, and perhaps less? Here, every new watch and every watch left for repair comes to you with a printed record of its performance—a proof of accuracy made scientifically by the

Watch Master

Exclusive with

John A. Nierman
Pershing St., Between Strand Theater and Post Office

Hot Weather Hints for Busy Housewives...

When the pavement is sizzling hot and your shopping list seems miles long and you'd give anything to keep cool with a good book you can do just that if you shop and market by telephone

If you've ever been upstairs on a hot day and the telephone rang on the first floor and you were just completely exhausted by the time you got back from answering it you will be interested to know that you can have an extension telephone upstairs or anywhere in your home for only about two cents a day.

Shop by Telephone and keep Cool

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City
Cumberland 9900

The Cage School of Beauty Culture

The School of Preference

We are now accepting enrollments for a July class.

This school lives up to a standard and not down to a price.

15 S. Centre St. Phone 571-J

Men's Sport Oxfords
$3.25 _ $5.50
White - White and Tan
Two-Tone Tan

Smiths Tender Feet Shoe Shop
123-125 Baltimore St.

See the NEW Hotpoint
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR
WITH Measured Humidity

BENNETT'S
56 N. Centre St.
219 Virginia Ave.

AUTO LOANS
CASH
ON YOUR CAR
IMMEDIATELY

We Specialize

Auto Loans are our specialty. We believe we can offer you a better service — more cash and longer terms. We place highest loan value on your car—1931 to 1939 models

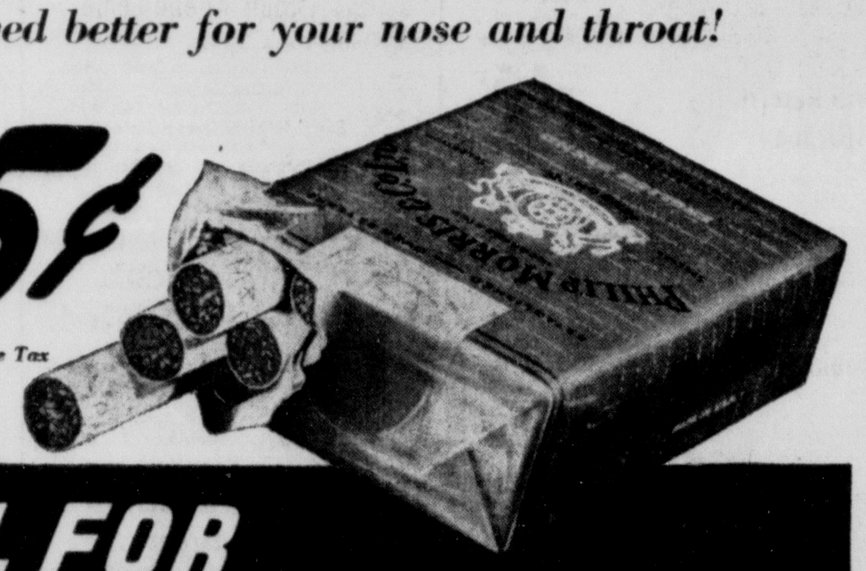

SEE US TODAY

NATIONAL LOAN COMPANY
201 S. George St. at Harrison
Phone 2017 Cumberland
Lester Millenson, Mgr.

NO INCREASE IN PRICE!
(IN MARYLAND)
PHILIP MORRIS

pays the new National Defense Tax for you—on Philip Morris—America's finest cigarette—proved better for your nose and throat!

15¢ including National Defense Tax

CALL FOR PHILIP MORRIS

Timely....Sensational Savings!

HUNDREDS OF GLORIOUS NEW DRESSES
PRICED WAY LOW FOR HOLIDAY BUDGETS

SIZES FOR ALL
11 to 17
12 to 20
38 to 44
46 to 52

$1. $2. $3.

Summer's most exciting . . . most colorful . . . most value-packed dress event! . . . Actually over 500 brand new dresses just unpacked . . . specially purchased and priced dramatically LOW! Dresses for sports . . . vacation . . . traveling . . . office . . . and even your most important "dressy" affairs . . . Sheer cottons . . . Bembergs . . . Sharkskins . . . Spuns . . . Chambrays . . . Dotted Swisses . . . Flock Dot Sheers . . . Washable Crepe . . . Whites . . . Pastels . . . Stripes . . . Dots . . . Black and Whites . . . and vivid new Reds.

Cumberland Cloak & Suit Store
48 to 58 Baltimore St. Cumberland, Md.

Tri-State, Sports, Amusements, Comics and Local News

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations

The Cumberland News

TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1940

Second Section—Pages 13 to 20

Lonaconing Firemen Will Hold Memorial Services Sunday

William J. Elvin New Chairman Of Boy Scouts

Frostburg Man Is Appointed To Succeed the Rev. Karl H. Beck

FROSTBURG, July 1—William J. Elvin has been appointed chairman of the Frostburg district, Potomac Council Boy Scouts of America, succeeding the Rev. Karl H. Beck who will shortly leave for mission service in China. Mr. Elvin served for a number of terms as vice-chairman while a member of the district committee. He is a member and past president of the Frostburg Rotary Club.

Council Proceedings

City water superintendent Chalmers Livingston who recently purchased the Rupp property on East Main street, appeared before the Mayor and city council tonight and requested permission to tear down the present frame structure, stating that he has arranged to construct a fire proof building of either steel or concrete blocks, measuring 28x42 feet for the purpose of handling the products of a nationally known oil company.

He was advised to first secure a permit for the new structure, it being pointed out by city clerk Roland A. Lemmert that it would be foolish to tear down the present building before being assured he could secure a permit for a new structure. The matter was tabled until the next meeting of the council.

Robert Lee, representing the American Legion baseball team requested the council to give the Legion a lease on the Frostburg basball park for two years. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

Miss Elizabeth Workman whose garage was flooded last winter freezing her motor car to the floor submitted a request that the council take some action on a bill for $70 damages, which she submitted to the City Clerk, March 19. The matter was referred to the city attorney with authority to make settlement.

Requests were made by residents of Frost avenue extended and Bowery street extended for street improvements. The Frost avenue request presented by Russell Dennison on behalf of a group of petitioners was referred to Street Commissioner Marshall Skidmore and City Engineer Maxwell Mathias. The Bowery street request presented by George Bender was referred to Mr. Skidmore and Street Supervisor Evan Lloyd.

Vernon Rodda and Henry Glime, Ormond street extended and Walter Close, East Main street complained of unsanitary and impassable conditions in alleys near their residences. The complaint was referred to Commissioner Skidmore.

Floyd Walters, East Main street, complained of water conditions on his property on Barnard Place, but no action was taken. Ithan Powell who conducts a printing establishment informed the council that he was being discriminated against by the city clerk in the matter of printing, stating that he received no orders this year for tax and water bills which he had been printing for the past six years. The matter was referred to Fire Commissioner Conrad Kroll with instructions to investigate Mr. Powell's charges.

City Commissioner William Lemmert offered a resolution that the city employ an outside auditing company to audit the books of the city clerk, the city tax and water collector and all other city departments at a cost not to exceed $500.

The motion after much discussion was approved and referred to Finance Commissioner Conrad Kroll with instructions to obtain bids for the proposed audit.

Mr. Lemmert stated that he requested the audit with no idea of questioning or criticizing the present administration, or of any city employe. He said he felt an audit would be in line with sound business policies and that the taxpayers of the community were entitled to information which a competent audit would contain.

Mrs. Ruby Hurt

Mrs. Lily Ruby, 40, of McCullough street, was painfully but not seriously injured last night when she was knocked down by a car at the corner of Grant and Washington streets.

Mrs. Ruby suffered abrasions on the right hip and severe bruises on the left leg and arm when struck by a car driven by Clarence Edward Taylor, of 11 Mill street. She was taken to Miners rospital, where she remained overnight for observation.

Postpone Meeting

The meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, scheduled for Wednesday evening, July 3, will be postponed until Wednesday evening,

(Continued on Page Fourteen)

Missionary To Return to U. S.

Former Meyersdale Resident Will Take Furlough from India Field

MEYERSDALE, Pa., July 1—In a letter postmarked in Khergam, Surat District, India, April 27, written by Miss Ida C. Shumaker, missionary teacher in India, and received by relatives here, she states that plans are under way for her to sail for America as early in January, 1941, as sailing can be made, and will in all probability come home by way of the Pacific ocean, being the most feasible route on account of the war in Europe. On former furloughs, with the exception of the one during the World war, she came home by way of the Suez Canal, Mediterranean Sea and Gibraltar.

Miss Shumaker, who is a native of Meyersdale, taught twenty-one terms in the beginner department of the local public schools before enlisting for service on the foreign field for the Church of the Brethren in 1910. During her service in the rural sections of India, practically the jungle sections, she has been quite active, having raised the funds for the erection of a church edifice at Kergham, and also organized the congregation, composed, of course, entirely of natives, with a native that she educated as pastor of the church.

She possesses a wealth of information concerning the natives, with many experiences of an amusing nature, and some that were more of a thrilling character, such as disposing of the deadly cobra that found its way into her living quarters, meeting up with wild animals on her walks through the jungle in going from one school to another, with numerous narrow escapes.

It is not known at present whether she wil return to India following expiration of her furlough, which will begin sometime in January, 1941.

Hospital Notes

Savilla Hostetler, 23, Saturday underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids in Wenzel hospital, Salisbury street. The patient's home is in Belleville, Pa.

Mrs. Merle Speicher, of nearby Summit township,submitted to an operation for the removal of tonsils yesterday.

Miss Ora Bach, Accident, is a medical patient in the hospital here.

Improvement is noted in the condition of Mrs. Mary Meese, Frostburg, who is undergoing medical treatment.

Robert, Jr., 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindeman, who sustained a fractured leg several weeks ago, was discharged yesterday and is convalescing nicely at his home, Sherman street.

Mrs. Simon H. Marteney, who is living with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Speicher, was stricken with apoplexy the latter part of last week, and her condition is described as serious.

Personals

Jack McCartney, spent the past weekend with friends at Pennsylvania State College.

Miss Mary Ryland, left yesterday to enter Pennsylvania State College for a summer course.

George and Paul Griffith, Philadelphia, spent the past several days here visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mankamyer, and aunt, Mrs. Mary Griffith. They were enroute to their ranch in Arizona to spend the summer and autumn.

George C. Pfeiffer, who spent the past week visiting his granddaughter, Mrs. Robert McWilliams, and other relatives left last evening for Brownsville, where he is living with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mason.

Miss Mildred Pfeiffer, Cleveland, Ohio, arrived here yesterday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs Harvey A. Pfeiffer.

Miss Mae Lynch, student nurse in Germantown hospital, Philadelphia, is here to spend a three weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn, Huntingdon, are guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Dalton Cook.

Miss Malinda Bird, R. N., Pittsburgh, was the guest for the past several days of her brother, C. M. Bird.

Mrs. Mary Seggie returned yesterday to Akron, Ohio, after a visit of several weeks wtih relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoenicka, Cumberland, spent the weekend visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beall.

Increase Shown in Beer Licenses

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—A gain of 195 in the number of beer licenses issued through July 1, was reported today by the State Tax Commissioner's office.

At the close of today's business, 3,110 permits had been granted as compared with 2,915 last year.

Wedding of Avilton Girl Is Announced

Miss Anna Stark Becomes the Bride of Cecil Brenneman

GRANTSVILLE, July 1 — The marriage of Miss Anna Helena Stark, Avilton, and Cecil Edward Brenneman, Washington, D. C., took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Evangelical and Reformed church at New Germany The wedding was a very simple one with only the immediate families and a few close friends witnessing the ceremony. The Rev. A. M. Wright, pastor of the Salisbury (Pa.) Evangelical and Reformed church, who officiated, used the ring service. His wife, who presided at the organ, played Lohengrin's "Wedding March" as the couple entered the room.

The bride's gown was of white crepe and she wore a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds and babysbreath. A wide picture hat and accessories completed her costume. For her maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Stark chose Miss Jennie Durst, College Park, who was attired in a frock of powder blue chiffon. Her brother, Ira Stark, Washington, D. C., served as best man.

Following the ceremony the wedding party and guests returned to the Stark home at Avilton where a reception was held in their honor. Pink roses and mountain laurel furnished the floral decorations for the house where the colors of pink and white predominated. A two-tier wedding cake formed the centerpiece for the table from which refreshments were served. The newlyweds left immediately afterward by motor for a trip to Niagara Falls and other eastern points. For her going away costume Mrs. Brenneman chose a frock of powder blue crepe.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Stark, prominent residents of the Avilton community, is an attractive and charming young lady. She graduated from the Avilton school and attended Grantsville high school.

Mr. Brenneman is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Brenneman, Bittinger, who are also well known in this section, and is a graduate of the Bittinger school. For the past four years he has made his home in Washington, D. C., where he is connected with the Clark Manufacturing Company.

The couple expect to reside in Washington where they will be at home after July 15.

Brief Items

Mary Burke, Meyersdale, forfeited collateral of $11.45 when she failed to appear for a hearing before the Trial Magistrate here this morning. She was arrested yesterday by State Motor Police Officer Carl G. Storm, who charged she was driving without a license. Wedo Polvinale, Meyersdale, who was summoned to appear before the court this morning on charges of permitting an unlicensed person to operate his car, also forfeited collateral in a like amount.

Mrs. Fred Livengood, Mrs. C. A. Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Hershberger and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Folk attended the farewell services honoring the Rev. Karl H. Beck at the Salem Reformed church at Frostburg yesterday. The Rev. Mr. Beck, who is a former Grantsville pastor, will sail July 9 for China. Dr. A. V. Casselman, Philadelphia, head of the Mission Board, was present and addressed the congregation.

Sara Lyman Winterberg, eleven-months-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Winterberg, Knoxville, Tenn., and granddaughter of William Winterberg, Grantsville, was christened at services held at the Lutheran church here yesterday. The Rev. Samuel D. Sigler, pastor, officiated. A family dinner party at the home of Miss Christina and William Winterberg was given following the services.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Stanton and Harold E. Stanton, Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived Saturday to spend this week here as the guests of the Messrs. Stanton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Urban Stanton. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stanton, Aurora, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Markel Stanton, Piedmont, W. Va., were also here for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stahl and two daughters, Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Charles Brandt and Peter Stahl, Berlin, Pa., arrived Saturday for a brief visit with Mrs. Lottie Guinn and other relatives in this community.

Daniel McLaughlin and James Blocher, Munhall, Pa., are here for a few days visit with the latter's father, V. Llewellyn Blocher and family, at Little Crossings. Rita Blocher, who had spent a brief vacation with them at Munhall, accompanied them here and later returned to the Allegany hospital, Cumberland, where she is in training.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Daniels and

(Continued on Page Fourteen)

HE'S FIRST OF NAVAL RESERVISTS

Commander McCrary — Ernest Foster

Ernest F. Foster, of Washington, D. C., first member of the United States naval reserves under the new training program for 5,000 men, is sworn in by Commander McCrary, U. S. N., as an apprentice seaman. After one month's training and an examination he may become a midshipman. After two months' additional training Foster may become an ensign in the naval reserve.

West Virginia Coal Industry Is Ready To Meet Any Emergency

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1 —The 62,200,000 tons of coal which West Virginia produced in the first half of 1940 served to confirm the bituminous industry's declaration to President Roosevelt it is prepared to meet any defensive emergency, official sources said today.

The preliminary estimate indicated that if the rate continues—and it likely will be accelerated — the state's 1940 production will be the largest since 1929, when 139,000,000 tons came oupt of the mines.

The board of directors of the National Coal Association, headed by C. C. Dickinson of Charleston, several days ago sent this message to President Roosevelt:

"The existing facilities of our industry, mines, machines and men, are sufficient to step up the production of bituminous coal to whatever extent may become necessary to meet the needs of national defense."

An indication of what might be expected from the mines of West Virginia, which holds top rank in bituminous production, was obtained today from an observation by Jesse V. Sullivan, secretary of the West Virginia Coal Association, who said:

"Increased production in 1940 has been achieved without the mines in full aperation. Many are operating only three and four days weekly.

"The chart shows that in the twenty-six weeks of the first six months the West Virginia mines exceeded 2,500,000 tons in only five weeks. They are capable of producing 3,000,000 tons weekly, operating on a five-day week, seven-hour day and in an emergency could exceed this tonnage."

The first six months of 1939, during which period occurred the Appalachian shutdown during wage negotiations, saw a production of 39,173,000 tons in West Virginia. The same period of 1940 showed a 58.8 per cent increase.

Population of Several Counties Made Public

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Census Supervisor John Lennon, annonncing the closing of district offices at Charleston, Morgantown and Martinsburg, said the remainer of the state would be "cleaned up" this month.

Lennon announced the following county populations.

Randolph, 30,165, was 25,049 in 1930; Taylor 19,902, was 19,114; Preston, 30,396, was 29,034; Brooke, 25,165, was 24,663; Harrison, 82,952, was 78,567; Lewis, 22,269, was 21,794; Lincoln 22,899, was 19,156; Monongalia, 51,249, was 50,083.

The town of Wellsburg, Brooke county, lost population, from 6,389 to 6,256. The steel town of Follansbee also dropped slightly from 4,841 to 4,835.

Kitzmiller Youth's Skull Crushed In Fall From Truck

Keyser, W. Va., July 1—Charles Schwinabart, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwinabart, Kitzmiller, Md., fell from a truck on Friday and crushed his skull. He is in a serious condition at Potomac Valley Hospital.

Injuries Are Fatal

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Garnett Seibert of Pikeside, injured in an automobile accident near Charles Town, died last night. Three men in another car who stopped to give aid were struck and killed by a passing motorist. They were Emery Lee Painter, Jeffers C. Peck and George Raymond Peck.

Trout Season in West Virginia Is Extended 10 Days

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1 (AP) — Conservation Commissioner Shawhan announced today a ten-day extension of the trout fishing season, through July 17.

"High waters and cold water temperature put the trout streams in poor shape for fishing during the greater part of the season," he explained.

The season opened April 27 and was to have extended through July 7.

Few trout were caught during the regular season, the commissioner reported.

The extension will give anglers an additional period during which they may fish for both trout and bass. The bass season opened Saturday.

Thirty-eight Persons Die In Accidents

Highway Fatalities in West Virginia Total 171 for Six Months

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1 (AP) —Highway accidents killed thirty-eight persons last month to make the thirty-day period the most deadly of any June since 1936. Eight were added Saturday and Sunday.

State police counted a total of 171 highway fatalities for the first six months of 1940.

Safety Director Will G. Easley said more automobiles—and increased gasoline consumption indicating that they are being driven—mostly cauhed the gaon from 142 deaths for the first six months of 1939.

Kanawha county led the six-month toll of sixteen reported deaths.

Only ten counties were left without a 1940 fatality. They were Lincoln, Jackson, Wirt, Dodridge, Braxton, Nicholas, Monroe, Pocahontas, Taylor and Tucker.

Twenty-six persons were killed in June 1939, a like number in June, 1928, and fifty-five in June, 1936.

NYA Will Receive $964,182 Soon

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—An allocation of $964,182 for West Virginia was included today in $67,884,000 allotted to the National Youth Administration for operation of an out-of-school work program which officials said would be geared to the national defense program.

Mrs. Robinson Dies

McCoole, Md., July 1—Mrs. Samantha Robinson, 66, widow of Charles A. Robinson died early Sunday from paralysis. A daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ravenscroft, she is survived by seven daughters, Mrs. C. L. Yonker, Mrs. Chester Lewis, Terra Alta; Mrs. Roy Clarke, Mrs. Albert F. Robinson, McCoole; Mrs. Harry Whetsell, Mrs. R. E. Keller, Mrs. Wilson Jenkins, Keyser; four sons, Luther, Orlando and Boyd, McCoole, and Edward M. Robinson, an invalid at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore; sister, Mrs. Mae McKenzie, McCoole; 27 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Youth Drowns

MASONTOWN, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Howard McMillen, 15, drowned in Cheat river yesterday.

Vacation Bible School Closes At Westernport

Students Present Interesting Program at Church of Brethren

WESTERNPORT, July 1—The daily vacation Bible school which was held for two weeks in the Church of the Brethren here, under the direction of the Rev. N. D. Cosner, pastor of the church closed Friday evening. There were five classes namely kindergarden, taught by Miss Maxine Ritchie; beginners, by Miss Frances Kidwell; primary, by Mrs. Victor Liller, Mrs. R. F. DeVore and Mrs. James Randall,, junior, by Mrs. Harry Fazenbaker, Miss Ester Bell Wilt, Miss Helen Parker; intermediate by Mrs. N. D Cosner and Miss Ruth Fike.

The program consisted of songs, Scripture texts, Bible stories, explanation of note books and art in the way of religious pictures.

Brief Items

The Poetry Guild of the Tri-Towns will meet Tuesday evening July 2 at the home of Miss Agnes Walsh, East Hampshire street, Piedmont. Misses Louise Peyton and Wanda Cunningham will have charge of the program.

The Epworth League sponsored a musical program and booth festival Friday evening at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Eileen Camp Campbell had charge of the fine arts exhibit and Mrs. Anne Grandle was in charge of the Poetry Guild exhibit.

The B. Y. P. D. of the Church of the Brethren will feature a play entitled "Thanksgiving Ann," Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the church.

Personals

Milton Sivley and Miss Anne Dellinger spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dellinger and Miss Martha Dellinger, Arbutus.

Mrs. Eltin Davis Gourley, Baltimore, who is a guest of her mother, Mrs. J. W. W. Davis, Hampshire street, Piedmont, was the guest soloist at St. John's Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Fritz, Bristol, Conn., are visiting Mayor Donald and Mrs. Mellor, Ashfield street, Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wildt and daughter Dianne, Parkersburg, W. Va., visited Misses Mary and Lena Maybury, Spruce street.

Mrs. A. F. Determan, Westernport, is attending the summer term at Maryland University, College Park.

Mrs. John Cosgrove, Westernport, is visiting relatives in Hagerstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Werble, Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Lillyan Cole, East Fairvilew street, Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Martin, Martinsburg, W. Va., spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. anud Mrs. Francis Chambers, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMahon and family, York, Pa., have returned home after visiting her father, E. J. Noone, Church street.

School Teacher Finds Negro Under Her Bed

PRINCETON, W. Va., July 1. (AP) —As Mrs. Hazel Yeago prepared for bed she glanced downward and saw a pair of feet protruding.

The Princeton high school teacher's screams brought her sisters, Judy and Phyllis Simpson. The three women could not prevent the escape of the intruder but today Sheriff G. H. Crumpecker announced the arrest of Jim "Dock" Hines, 23, negro, on a breaking and entering charge.

The sheriff said Hines confessed when shown a coat he left behind.

Mackay Will Coach Spencer High

SPENCER, W. Va., July 1. (AP)— The appointment of Melvin T. Mackey of Seth, Boone county, as Spencer high school principal was announced today.

During his career as principal and coach at Seth high school Mackey coached the brothers Zontini—John, who was a star at Marshall college, and Lou who made a name for himself at Notre Dame.

"Mother Abbott" Dies

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Abbott, affectionately known as "Mother Abbott" to the students and faculty of West Virginia university, was found dead today in her room at Woman's Hall.

Mrs. Abbott was with the university for twenty years at one time in charge of the old Woman's Hall Annex.

She was the widow of J. H. Abbott, manager of a Fairmont hotel. A son Jack, now in England, survives.

Deneen Repairs Hyndman Home

Will Move into Property on Church Street from Cairn Brook

HYNDMAN, Pa., July 1 — J. E. Deneen, of Cairn Brook, is spending $300 in renovating and repairing his Church street residence.

He has built a new porch, has laid some new flooring, has papered throughout and will paint both inside and out. When the work is completed he and Mrs. Deneen will move into it from Cairn Brook. He expects to retire from coal mining and reside in Hyndman.

Personals

Harry Sproul, Vernon Maddon, Harry Lynn Ahlburn, and H. Sommors Fishers, are spending a few days at Seabalt Hunting Lodge, Huntingdon county.

Miss Mayme Ake spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Diehl, Osterburg.

Mrs. Richard Sproul is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Sproul, Rockwood. She was accompanied by the latter's daughter, Peggy.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Elliott are visiting relatives in Dunkinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, and children, Buffalo Mills, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Ahlburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rizer, are camping for the week near State College.

Mrs. David Mason, and son, David, Jr., Stringtown, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Pearl Rizer.

Miss Margaret Moore, Cumberland, and Miss Margaret Holt, Paw Paw, W. Va., have returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer R. Emerick.

Mr. Russel Shoupe, Lansing, Michigan, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Laura Shoupe and sister, Mrs. Earl Shaffer.

The Misses Grace Lingenfelter and Barbara Lewis, East Freedom, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Milton Elliott.

Mrs. Frank Dalrimple, Warren, and Mr. and Mrs. Strickenburger, Harrisonburg, Virginia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Stahlman.

$82.88 Collected At Midland for War Relief Fund

Collections Will Be Made for Another Week; More Money Sought

MIDLAND, July 1 — The Midland chapter of the Red Cross war relief fund reports the following contributions to date: St. Joseph's church, $30, Methodist church and Sunday school, $14.20, Allegany County Social and Sport Club, $10, United Mine Workers of Midland, $5, Order of Red Men, $5, Midland Opera House, $13.68, Midland Fire Department, $5, for a total collection to date of $82.88. The box containers are still in prominent places and will remain out for another week. Everyone is urged to make a final effort to make the quota go much higher within the coming week. Donations may be made to Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Richard Elliott or Thomas E. Stakem.

Scouts Attend Camp

The Midland Girl Scout troop No. 1 have returned home after attending camp on Hay Stack Mountain for the past week. The local troop was represented with as many members as any other troop in the section. Attending were Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, scout leader, Edith Elliott, assistant scout leader, Phyllis Cunningham, Carleta Briner, Verna Craze, Lillian Gray, Jean Shearer, Elva Sears, Annabelle Muir, Lois Eisentrout, Wilma Elliott, Jean Shillingburg, Louise Williams, Marie Loar, Regina Stakem, Margaret Stakem, Betsy Robertson, Alma Miller and Esther Woods. The girls wish to thank Miss Florence Schlott and the others who prepared the camp for them.

Three Prisoners Fail To Escape

PINEVILLE, W. Va., July 1. (AP)— Three prisoners, who hid behind a door, took Jailer Wirth Barrett's gun and keys but their escape from the Wyoming county jail was halted last night by Sheriff Lon H. Byrd.

Byrd heard Barrett's shouts and stood guard outside the cells until state troopers could arrive from Mullens. Byrd identified the men as Roy McClintock, Carl Lambert and Tom Griffith, all awaiting grand jury action

The Rev. Lewis Ransom Is To Deliver Sermon

Will Be Open Evening of Activities for the State Convention

LONACONING, July 1—Memorial services for deceased members of the Goodwill Fire company, No. 1, and Ladies Auxiliary, will be conducted 7:30 p. m. Sunday, July 7, at the Methodist church. The Rev. Lewis F. Ransom, pastor will preach.

The annual religious services are held by the fire company each year prior to the State Firemen's convention. This year the event will open a week of activity, to be climaxed by the Maryland State Firemens' Association convention which is being held here, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 10, 11 and 12.

It has just been announced by general chairman, George Eichhorn, that Governor Herbert O'Conor, who had been invited to attend and take an active part in the convention, will not be present. The governor, it was learned has a previous engagement.

Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Janet Wallace entertained with a miscellaneous shower last night in honor of Mrs. James H. Wallace, the former Miss Zetta Boggs, Cumberland. The home was decorated for the occasion. The bride was the recipient of many gifts. Refreshments were served. Music was furnished by George Wallace, and Edward Hunter, soloists.

Those present include: Margaret Milford, Leona Nines, Ora Nines, Marie Crosser, Glenna Compton, Keyser, W. Va.; Grace Whitfield, Westernport; Jane Oglebay, Catherine Winn, Loretta Smith, James Smith and Walter Smith, Cumberland; Nettie Richardson, Margaret and George Richardson, Detroit, Mich.; Christina and Etta Agnew, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Christina Wallace, George and Janet Wallace, Mary and Marion Agnew and Melvin Whitfield, Westernport.

Personals

George Meyers, East Main street, of the executive committee of the Celanese Union, today, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Alegany Hospital, Cumberland. His condition is reported as fine.

Miss Esther Holzshu, East Main street, public school teacher of Allegany county, is attending summer sessions at the Columbia University, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livingston, and daughter, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Robert Matthews fell Saturday at her home, fracturing her left arm above the wrist.

Mrs. Margaret Hutchison and Mrs. Cleo Gervin, Knoxville, Tenn., were the guests of Misses Margaret, Sadie and Fannie Skilling over the past week-end. Mrs. Hutchison is the former Miss Margaret Johnston, niece of the Misses Skilling.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Peebles, Parkersburg, W. Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peebles. The couple left today to spend the next several days in Washington, D. C., they will stop here on the return trip, Wednesday, for the remainder of the week.

Miss Mary Meyers, East Main street, pubic school teacher, is attending summer sesions at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Pharmacists Hold Annual Convention

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Members of the West Virginia Pharmaceutical Association were told today that fair trade legislation must be sold to consumers, retailer and wholesaler to make it serve the purpose for which it was intended.

Theodore Christianson, former governor of Minnesota, spoke at the thirty-fourth convention of the association, saying that consumers still do not quite understand what fair trade laws and products means.

Retention of fair trade acts in forty-four states, he said, must depend upon education to show that such laws can be the means of saving retail trade in independent stores.

Fred A McFarlin of Clarksburg, association president, announced that J. Lester Hayman, dean of the College of Pharmacy at West Virginia university, had reconsidered a previous decision and would continue as secretary-treasurer.

McFarlin in his report called for legislative action to restrict sales of drugs to drug stores. Hayman urged a large appropriation for the state board of pharmacy to permit expansion of drug store inspection.

Warth Is Candidate

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 1 (AP) —Common Pleas Judge H. Clay Warth, on the bench since 1935, announced today he was a candidate for one of the Democratic nominations for State Supreme Court, subject to the Judicial convention here August 9.

Tri-State, Sports, Amusements, Comics and Local News

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations

The Cumberland News

TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1940

Second Section—Pages 13 to 20

THIRTEEN

Lonaconing Firemen Will Hold Memorial Services Sunday

William J. Elvin New Chairman Of Boy Scouts

Frostburg Man Is Appointed To Succeed the Rev. Karl H. Beck

FROSTBURG, July 1—William J. Elvin has been appointed chairman of the Frostburg district, Potomac Council Boy Scouts of America, succeeding the Rev. Karl H. Beck who will shortly leave for mission service in China. Mr. Elvin served for a number of terms as vice-chairman while a member of the district committee. He is a member and past president of the Frostburg Rotary Club.

Council Proceedings

City water superintendent Chalmers Livingston who recently purchased the Rupp property on East Main street, appeared before the Mayor and city council tonight and requested permission to tear down the present frame structure, stating that he has arranged to construct a fire proof building of either steel or concrete blocks, measuring 28x42 feet for the purpose of handling the products of a nationally known oil company.

He was advised to first secure a permit for the new structure, it being pointed out by city clerk Roland A. Lemmert that it would be foolish to tear down the present building before being assured he could secure a permit for a new structure. The matter was tabled until the next meeting of the council.

Robert Lee, representing the American Legion baseball team requested the council to give the Legion a lease on the Frostburg basball park for two years. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

Miss Elizabeth Workman whose garage was flooded last winter freezing her motor car to the floor submitted a request that the council take some action on a bill for $70 damages, which she submitted to the City Clerk, March 19. The matter was referred to the city attorney with authority to make settlement.

Requests were made by residents of Frost avenue extended and Bowery street extended for street improvements. The Frost avenue request presented by Russell Dennison on behalf of a group of petitioners was referred to Street Commissioner Marshall Skidmore and City Engineer Maxwell Mathias. The Bowery street request presented by George Bender was referred to Mr. Skidmore and Street Supervisor Evan Lloyd.

Vernon Rodda and Henry Glime, Ormond street extended and Walter Close, East Main street complained of unsanitary and impassable conditions in alleys near their residences. The complaint was referred to Commissioner Skidmore.

Floyd Walters, East Main street, complained of water conditions on his property on Barnard Place, but no action was taken. Ithan Powell who conducts a printing establishment informed the council that he was being discriminated against by the city clerk in the matter of printing, stating that he received no orders this year for tax and water bills which he had been printing for the past six years. The matter was referred to Fire Commissioner Conrad Kroll with instructions to investigate Mr. Powell's charges.

City Commissioner William Lemmert offered a resolution that the city employ an outside auditing company to audit the books of the city clerk, the city tax and water collector and all other city departments at a cost not to exceed $500. The motion after much discussion was approved and referred to Finance Commissioner Conrad Kroll with instructions to obtain bids for the proposed audit.

Mr. Lemmert stated that he requested the audit with no idea of questioning or criticizing the present administration, or of any city employe. He said he felt an audit would be in line with sound business policies and that the taxpayers of the community were entitled to information which a competent audit would contain.

Mrs. Ruby Hurt

Mrs. Lily Ruby, 40, of McCullough street, was painfully but not seriously injured last night when she was knocked down by a car at the corner of Grant and Washington streets.

Mrs. Ruby suffered abrasions on the right hip and severe bruises on the left leg and arm when struck by a car driven by Clarence Edward Taylor, of 11 Mill street. She was taken to Miners rospital, where she remained overnight for observation.

Postpone Meeting

The meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, scheduled for Wednesday evening, July 3, will be postponed until Wednesday evening,

(Continued on Page Fourteen)

Missionary To Return to U. S.

Former Meyersdale Resident Will Take Furlough from India Field

MEYERSDALE, Pa., July 1—In a letter postmarked in Khergam, Surat District, India, April 27, written by Miss Ida C. Shumaker, missionary teacher in India, and received by relatives here, she states that plans are under way for her to sail for America as early in January, 1941, as sailing can be made, and will in all probability come home by way of the Pacific ocean, being the most feasible route on account of the war in Europe. On former furloughs, with the exception of the one during the World war, she came home by way of the Suez Canal, Mediterranean Sea and Gibraltar.

Miss Shumaker, who is a native of Meyersdale, taught twenty-one terms in the beginner department of the local public schools before enlisting for service on the foreign field for the Church of the Brethren in 1910. During her service in the rural sections of India, practically the jungle sections, she has been quite active, having raised the funds for the erection of a church edifice at Kergham, and also organized the congregation, composed, of course, entirely of natives, with a native that she educated as pastor of the church.

She possesses a wealth of information concerning the natives, with many experiences of an amusing nature, and some that were more of a thrilling character, such as disposing of the deadly cobra that found its way into her living quarters, meeting up with wild animals on her walks through the jungle in going from one school to another, with numerous narrow escapes.

It is not known at present whether she wil return to India following expiration of her furlough, which will begin sometime in January, 1941.

Hospital Notes

Savilla Hostetler, 23, Saturday underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids in Wenzel hospital, Salisbury street. The patient's home is in Belleville, Pa.

Mrs. Merle Speicher, of nearby Summit township,submitted to an operation for the removal of tonsils yesterday.

Miss Ora Bach, Accident, is a medical patient in the hospital here.

Improvement is noted in the condition of Mrs. Mary Meese, Frostburg, who is undergoing medical treatment.

Robert, Jr., 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindeman, who sustained a fractured leg several weeks ago, was discharged yesterday and is convalescing nicely at his home, Sherman street.

Mrs. Simon H. Marteney, who is living with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Speicher, was stricken with apoplexy the latter part of last week, and her condition is described as serious.

Personals

Jack McCartney, spent the past weekend with friends at Pennsylvania State College.

Miss Mary Ryland, left yesterday to enter Pennsylvania State College for a summer course.

George and Paul Griffith, Philadelphia, spent the past several days here visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mankamyer, and aunt, Mrs. Mary Griffith. They were enroute to their ranch in Arizona to spend the summer and autumn.

George C. Pfeiffer, who spent the past week visiting his granddaughter, Mrs. Robert McWilliams, and other relatives left last evening for Brownsville, where he is living with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mason.

Miss Mildred Pfeiffer, Cleveland, Ohio, arrived here yesterday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs Harvey A. Pfeiffer.

Miss Mae Lynch, student nurse in Germantown hospital, Philadelphia, is here to spend a three weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn, Huntingdon, are guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Dalton Cook.

Miss Malinda Bird, R. N., Pittsburgh, was the guest for the past several days of her brother, C. M. Bird.

Mrs. Mary Seggie returned yesterday to Akron, Ohio, after a visit of several weeks wtih relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoenicka, Cumberland, spent the weekend visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beall.

Increase Shown in Beer Licenses

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—A gain of 195 in the number of beer licenses issued through July 1, was reported today by the State Tax Commissioner's office.

At the close of today's business, 3,110 permits had been granted as compared with 2,915 last year.

Wedding of Avilton Girl Is Announced

Miss Anna Stark Becomes the Bride of Cecil Brenneman

GRANTSVILLE, July 1 — The marriage of Miss Anna Helena Stark, Avilton, and Cecil Edward Brenneman, Washington, D. C., took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Evangelical and Reformed church at New Germany The wedding was a very simple one with only the immediate families and a few close friends witnessing the ceremony. The Rev. A. M. Wright, pastor of the Salisbury (Pa.) Evangelical and Reformed church, who officiated, used the ring service. His wife, who presided at the organ, played Lohengrin's "Wedding March" as the couple entered the room.

The bride's gown was of white crepe and she wore a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds and babysbreath. A wide picture hat and accessories completed her costume. For her maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Stark chose Miss Jennie Durst, College Park, who was attired in a frock of powder blue chiffon. Her brother Ira Stark, Washington, D. C., served as best man.

Following the ceremony the wedding party and guests returned to the Stark home at Avilton where a reception was held in their honor. Pink roses and mountain laurel furnished the floral decorations for the house where the colors of pink and white predominated. A two-tier wedding cake formed the centerpiece for the table from which refreshments were served. The newlyweds left immediately afterward by motor for a trip to Niagara Falls and other eastern points. For her going away costume Mrs. Brenneman chose a frock of powder blue crepe.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Stark, prominent residents of the Avilton community, is an attractive and charming young lady. She graduated from the Avilton school and attended Grantsville high school.

Mr. Brenneman is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Brenneman, Bittinger, who are also well known in this section, and is a graduate of the Bittinger school. For the past four years he has made his home in Washington, D. C., where he is connected with the Clark Manufacturing Company.

The couple expect to reside in Washington where they will be at home after July 15.

Brief Items

Mary Burke, Meyersdale, forfeited collateral of $11.45 when she failed to appear for a hearing before the Trial Magistrate here this morning. She was arrested yesterday by State Motor Police Officer Carl G. Storm, who charged she was driving without a license. Wedo Polvinale, Meyersdale, who was summoned to appear before the court this morning on charges of permitting an unlicensed person to operate his car, also forfeited collateral in a like amount.

Mrs. Fred Livengood, Mrs. C. A. Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Hershberger and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Folk attended the farewell services honoring the Rev. Karl H. Beck at the Salem Reformed church at Frostburg yesterday. The Rev. Mr. Beck, who is a former Grantsville pastor, will sail July 9 for China. Dr. A. V. Casselman, Philadelphia, head of the Mission Board, was present and addressed the congregation.

Sara Lyman Winterberg, eleven-months-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Winterberg, Knoxville, Tenn., and granddaughter of William Winterberg, Grantsville, was christened at services held at the Lutheran church here yesterday. The Rev. Samuel D. Sigler, pastor, officiated. A family dinner party at the home of Miss Christina and William Winterberg was given following the services.

Personals

Mr and Mrs. Paul G. Stanton and Harold E. Stanton, Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived Saturday to spend this week here as the guests of the Messrs. Stanton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Urban Stanton. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stanton, Aurora, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Markel Stanton, Piedmont, W. Va., were also here for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stahl and two daughters, Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Charles Brandt and Peter Stahl, Berlin, Pa., arrived Saturday for a brief visit with Mrs. Lottie Guinn and other relatives in this community.

Daniel McLaughlin and James Blocher, Munhall, Pa., are here for a few days visit with the latter's father, V. Llewellyn Blocher and family, at Little Crossings. Rita Blocher, who had spent a brief vacation with them at Munhall, accompanied them here and later returned to the Allegany hospital, Cumberland, where she is in training.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Daniels and

(Continued on Page Fourteen)

HE'S FIRST OF NAVAL RESERVISTS

Commander McCrary — Ernest Foster

Ernest F. Foster, of Washington, D. C., first member of the United States naval reserves under the new training program for 5,000 men, is sworn in by Commander McCrary, U. S. N., as an apprentice seaman. After one month's training and an examination he may become a midshipman. After two months' additional training Foster may become an ensign in the naval reserve.

West Virginia Coal Industry Is Ready To Meet Any Emergency

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1 —The 62,200,000 tons of coal which West Virginia produced in the first half of 1940 served to confirm the bituminous industry's declaration to President Roosevelt it is prepared to meet any defensive emergency, official sources said today.

The preliminary estimate indicated that if the rate continues—and it likely will be accelerated — the state's 1940 production will be the largest since 1929, when 139,000,000 tons came oupt of the mines.

The board of directors of the National Coal Association, headed by C. C. Dickinson of Charleston, several days ago sent this message to President Roosevelt:

"The existing facilities of our industry, mines, machines and men, are sufficient to step up the production of bituminous coal to whatever extent may become necessary to meet the needs of national defense."

An indication of what might be expected from the mines of West Virginia, which holds top rank in bituminous production, was obtained today from an observation by Jesse V. Sullivan, secretary of the West Virginia Coal Association, who said:

"Increased production in 1940 has been achieved without the mines in full aperation. Many are operating only three and four days weekly.

"The chart shows that in the twenty-six weeks of the first six months the West Virginia mines exceeded 2,500,000 tons in only five weeks. They are capable of producing 3,000,000 tons weekly, operating on a five-day week, seven-hour day and in an emergency could exceed this tonnage."

The first six months of 1939, during which period occurred the Appalachian shutdown during wage negotiations, saw a production of 39,173,000 tons in West Virginia. The same period of 1940 showed a 58.8 per cent increase.

Population of Several Counties Made Public

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Census Supervisor John Lennon, annonncing the closing of district offices at Charleston, Morgantown and Martinsburg, said the remainer of the state would be "cleaned up" this month.

Lennon announced the following county populations.

Randolph, 30,165, was 25,049 in 1930; Taylor 19,902, was 19,114; Preston, 30,396, was 29,034; Brooke, 25,165, was 24,663; Harrison, 82,952, was 78,567; Lewis, 22,269, was 21,794; Lincoln 22,899, was 19,156; Monongalia, 51,249, was 50,083.

The town of Wellsburg, Brooke county, lost population, from 6,389 to 6,256. The steel town of Follansbee also dropped slightly from 4,841 to 4,835.

Kitzmiller Youth's Skull Crushed In Fall From Truck

Keyser, W. Va., July 1—Charles Schwinabart, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwinabart, Kitzmiller, Md., fell from a truck on Friday and crushed his skull. He is in a serious condition at Potomac Valley Hospital.

Injuries Are Fatal

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Garnett Seibert of Pikeside, injured in an automobile accident near Charles Town, died last night. Three men in another car who stopped to give aid were struck and killed by a passing motorist. They were Emery Lee Painter, Jeffers C. Peck and George Raymond Peck.

Trout Season in West Virginia Is Extended 10 Days

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1 (AP) — Conservation Commissioner Shawhan announced today a ten-day extension of the trout fishing season, through July 17.

"High waters and cold water temperature put the trout streams in poor shape for fishing during the greater part of the season," he explained.

The season opened April 27 and was to have extended through July 7.

Few trout were caught during the regular season, the commissioner reported.

The extension will give anglers an additional period during which they may fish for both trout and bass. The bass season opened Saturday.

Thirty-eight Persons Die In Accidents

Highway Fatalities in West Virginia Total 171 for Six Months

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1 (AP) —Highway accidents killed thirty-eight persons last month to make the thirty-day period the most deadly of any June since 1936. Eight were added Saturday and Sunday.

State police counted a total of 171 highway fatalities for the first six months of 1940.

Safety Director Will G. Easley said more automobiles—and increased gasoline consumption indicating that they are being driven—mostly cauhed the gaon from 142 deaths for the first six months of 1939.

Kanawha county led the six-month toll of sixteen reported deaths.

Only ten counties were left without a 1940 fatality. They were Lincoln, Jackson, Wirt, Dodridge, Braxton, Nicholas, Monroe, Pocahontas, Taylor and Tucker.

Twenty-six persons were killed in June 1939, a like number in June, 1928, and fifty-five in June, 1936.

NYA Will Receive $964,182 Soon

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—An allocation of $964,182 for West Virginia was included today in $67,884,000 allotted to the National Youth Administration for operation of an out-of-school work program which officials said would be geared to the national defense program.

Mrs. Robinson Dies

McCoole, Md., July 1—Mrs. Samantha Robinson, 66, widow of Charles A. Robinson died early Sunday from paralysis. A daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ravenscroft, she is survived by seven daughters, Mrs. C. L. Yonker, Mrs. Chester Lewis, Terra Alta; Mrs. Roy Clarke, Mrs. Albert F. Robinson, McCoole; Mrs. Harry Whetsell, Mrs. R. E. Keller, Mrs. Wilson Jenkins, Keyser; four sons, Luther, Orlando and Boyd, McCoole, and Edward M. Robinson, an invalid at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore; sister, Mrs. Mae McKenzie, McCoole; 27 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Youth Drowns

MASONTOWN, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Howard McMillen, 15, drowned in Cheat river yesterday.

Vacation Bible School Closes At Westernport

Students Present Interesting Program at Church of Brethren

WESTERNPORT, July 1—The daily vacation Bible school which was held for two weeks in the Church of the Brethren here, under the direction of the Rev. N. D. Cosner, pastor of the church closed Friday evening. There were five classes namely kindergarden, taught by Miss Maxine Ritchie; beginners, by Miss Frances Kidwell; primary, by Mrs. Victor Liller, Mrs. R. F. DeVore and Mrs. James Randall,; junior, by Mrs. Harry Fazenbaker, Miss Ester Bell Wilt, Miss Helen Parker; intermediate by Mrs. N. D Cosner and Miss Ruth Fike.

The program consisted of songs, Scripture texts, Bible stories, explanation of note books and art in the way of religious pictures.

Brief Items

The Poetry Guild of the Tri-Towns will meet Tuesday evening July 2 at the home of Miss Agnes Walsh, East Hampshire street, Piedmont. Misses Louise Peyton and Wanda Cunningham will have charge of the program.

The Epworth League sponsored a musical program and booth festival Friday evening at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Eileen Camp Campbell had charge of the fine arts exhibit and Mrs. Anne Grandle was in charge of the Poetry Guild exhibit.

The B. Y. P. D. of the Church of the Brethren will feature a play entitled "Thanksgiving Ann," Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the church.

Personals

Milton Sivley and Miss Anne Dellinger spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dellinger and Miss Martha Dellinger, Arbutus.

Mrs. Eltin Davis Gourley, Baltimore, who is a guest of her mother, Mrs. J. W. W. Davis, Hampshire street, Piedmont, was the guest soloist at St. John's Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Fritz, Bristol, Conn., are visiting Mayor Donald and Mrs. Mellor, Ashfield street, Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wildt and daughter Dianne, Parkersburg, W. Va., visited Misses Mary and Lena Maybury, Spruce street.

Mrs. A. F. Determan, Westernport, is attending the summer term at Maryland University, College Park.

Mrs. John Cosgrove, Westernport, is visiting relatives in Hagerstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Werble, Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Lillyan Cole, East Fairvilew street, Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Martin, Martinsburg, W. Va., spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. anud Mrs. Francis Chambers, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMahon and family, York, Pa., have returned home after visiting her father, E. J. Noone, Church street.

School Teacher Finds Negro Under Her Bed

PRINCETON, W. Va., July 1. (AP) —As Mrs. Hazel Yeago prepared for bed she glanced downward and saw a pair of feet protruding.

The Princeton high school teacher's screams brought her sisters, Judy and Phyllis Simpson. The three women could not prevent the escape of the intruder but today Sheriff G. H. Crumpecker announced the arrest of Jim "Dock" Hines, 23, negro, on a breaking and entering charge.

The sheriff said Hines confessed when shown a coat he left behind.

Mackay Will Coach Spencer High

SPENCER, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The appointment of Melvin T. Mackey of Seth, Boone county, as Spencer high school principal was announced today.

During his career as principal and coach at Seth high school Mackey coached the brothers Zontini—John, who was a star at Marshall college, and Lou who made a name for himself at Notre Dame.

"Mother Abbott" Dies

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Abbott, affectionately known as "Mother Abbott" to the students and faculty of West Virginia university, was found dead today in her room at Woman's Hall.

Mrs. Abbott was with the university for twenty years at one time in charge of the old Woman's Hall Annex.

She was the widow of J. H. Abbott, manager of a Fairmont hotel A son Jack, now in England, survives.

Deneen Repairs Hyndman Home

Will Move into Property on Church Street from Cairn Brook

HYNDMAN, Pa., July 1 — J. E. Deneen, of Cairn Brook, is spending $300 in renovating and repairing his Church street residence.

He has built a new porch, has laid some new flooring, has papered throughout and will paint both inside and out. When the work is completed he and Mrs. Deneen will move into it from Cairn Brook. He expects to retire from coal mining and reside in Hyndman.

Personals

Harry Sproul, Vernon Maddon, Harry Lynn Ahlburn, and H. Sommors Fishers, are spending a few days at Seabalt Hunting Lodge, Huntingdon county.

Miss Mayme Ake spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Diehl, Osterburg.

Mrs. Richard Sproul is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Sproul, Rockwood. She was accompanied by the latter's daughter, Peggy.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Elliott are visiting relatives in Dunkinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, and children, Buffalo Mills, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Ahlburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rizer, are camping for the week near State College.

Mrs. David Mason, and son, David, Jr., Stringtown, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Pearl Rizer.

Miss Margaret Moore, Cumberland, and Miss Margaret Hott, Paw Paw, W. Va., have returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer R. Emerick.

Mr. Russel Shoupe, Lansing, Michigan, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Laura Shoupe and sister, Mrs. Earl Shaffer.

The Misses Grace Lingenfelter and Barbara Lewis, East Freedom, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Milton Elliott.

Mrs. Frank Dalrimple, Warren, and Mr. and Mrs. Strickenburger, Harrisonburg, Virginia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Stahlman.

$82.88 Collected At Midland for War Relief Fund

Collections Will Be Made for Another Week; More Money Sought

MIDLAND, July 1 — The Midland chapter of the Red Cross war relief fund reports the following contributions to date: St. Joseph's church, $30, Methodist church and Sunday school, $14.20, Allegany County Social and Sport Club, $10, United Mine Workers of Midland, $5, Order of Red Men, $5, Midland Opera House, $13.68, Midland Fire Department, $5, for a total collection to date of $82.88. The box containers are still in prominent places and will remain out for another week. Everyone is urged to make a final effort to make the quota go much higher within the coming week. Donations may be made to Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Richard Elliott or Thomas E. Stakem.

Scouts Attend Camp

The Midland Girl Scout troop No. 1 have returned home after attending camp on Hay Stack Mountain for the past week. The local troop was represented with as many members as any other troop in the section. Attending were Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, scout leader, Edith Elliott, assistant scout leader, Phyllis Cunningham, Carleta Briner, Verna Craze, Lillian Gray, Jean Shearer, Elva Sears, Annabelle Muir, Lois Eisentrout, Wilma Elliott, Jean Shillingburg, Louise Williams, Marie Loar, Regina Stakem, Margaret Stakem, Betsy Robertson, Alma Miller and Esther Woods. The girls wish to thank Miss Florence Schlott and the others who prepared the camp for them.

Three Prisoners Fail To Escape

PINEVILLE, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—Three prisoners, who hid behind a door, took Jailer Wirth Barrett's gun and keys but their escape from the Wyoming county jail was halted last night by Sheriff Lon H. Byrd.

Byrd heard Barrett's shouts and stood guard outside the cells until state troopers could arrive from Mullens. Byrd identified the men as Roy McClintock, Carl Lambert and Tom Griffith, all awaiting grand jury action

The Rev. Lewis Ransom Is To Deliver Sermon

Will Be Open Evening of Activities for the State Convention

LONACONING, July 1—Memorial services for deceased members of the Goodwill Fire company, No. 1, and Ladies Auxiliary, will be conducted 7:30 p. m. Sunday, July 7, at the Methodist church. The Rev. Lewis F. Ransom, pastor will preach.

The annual religious services are held by the fire company each year prior to the State Firemen's convention. This year the event will open a week of activity, to be climaxed by the Maryland State Firemen's Association convention which is being held here, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 10, 11 and 12.

It has just been announced by general chairman, George Eichhorn, that Governor Herbert O'Conor, who had been invited to attend and take an active part in the convention, will not be present. The governor, it was learned has a previous engagement.

Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Janet Wallace entertained with a miscellaneous shower last night in honor of Mrs. James H. Wallace the former Miss Zetta Boggs, Cumberland. The home was decorated for the occasion. The bride was the recipient of many gifts. Refreshments were served. Music was furnished by George Wallace, and Edward Hunter, soloists.

Those present include: Margaret Milford, Leona Nines, Ora Nines, Marie Crosser, Glenna Compton, Keyser, W. Va.; Grace Whitfield, Westernport; Jane Oglebay, Catherine Winn, Loretta Smith, James Smith and Walter Smith, Cumberland; Nettie Richardson, Margaret and George Richardson, Detroit, Mich.; Christina and Etta Agnew, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Christina Wallace, George and Janet Wallace, Mary and Marion Agnew and Melvin Whitfield, Westernport.

Personals

George Meyers, East Main street, of the executive committee of the Celanese Union, today, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Alegany Hospital, Cumberland. His condition is reported as fine.

Miss Esther Holzshu, East Main street, public school teacher of Allegany county, is attending summer sessions at the Columbia University, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livingston, and daughter, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Robert Matthews fell Saturday at her home, fracturing her left arm above the wrist.

Mrs. Margaret Hutchison and Mrs. Cleo Gervin, Knoxville, Tenn., were the guests of Misses Margaret, Sadie and Fannie Skilling over the past week-end. Mrs. Hutchison is the former Miss Margaret Johnston, niece of the Misses Skilling.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Peebles, Parkersburg, W. Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peebles. The couple left today to spend the next several days in Washington, D. C., they will stop here on the return trip, Wednesday, for the remainder of the week.

Miss Mary Meyers, East Main street, pubic school teacher, is attending summer sesions at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Pharmacists Hold Annual Convention

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—Members of the West Virginia Pharmaceutical Association were told today that fair trade legislation must be sold to consumers, retailer and wholesaler to make it serve the purpose for which it was intended.

Theodore Christianson, former governor of Minnesota, spoke at the thirty-fourth convention of the association, saying that consumers still do not quite understand what fair trade laws and products means.

Retention of fair trade acts in forty-four states, he said, must depend upon education to show that such laws can be the means of saving retail trade in independent stores.

Fred A McFarlin of Clarksburg, association president, announced that J. Lester Hayman, dean of the College of Pharmacy at West Virginia university, had reconsidered a previous decision and would continue as secretary-treasurer.

McFarlin in his report called for legislative action to restrict sales of drugs to drug stores. Hayman urged a large appropriation for the state board of pharmacy to permit expansion of drug store inspection.

Warth Is Candidate

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 1 (AP) —Common Pleas Judge H. Clay Warth, on the bench since 1935, announced today he was a candidate for one of the Democratic nominations for State Supreme Court, subject to the Judicial convention here August 9.

New Officers Of Rotary Club Are Installed

Cecil Smith Is New President of Oakland Civic Group

OAKLAND, July 1.—Newly elected officers of the Oakland Rotary club assumed their duties last Friday evening following installation. Cecil Smith, elected president several weeks ago, was elevated to head the organization and plans to name his committees shortly.

Grover Stemple was retiring president and became a member of the board of directors. The club now has a membership of forty-two, six of whom were taken into the club during the year. Two were also reinstated.

During the past eleven months the club had an average attendance of about ninety-three per cent. Officers installed included the president; O. T. Graser, vice-president; Delbert Davis, treasurer, and W. O. Davis, secretary. Members of the board of directors include Cecil Smith, O. T. Graser, G. C. Stemple, Emory Bolden, Frank C. Kley, C. E. Sharps, Prentiss DeBerry.

A committee of Rotarians is now endeavoring to obtain rights of way for four parking areas at points of scenic interest along main highways in the county.

These areas will be located at Table Rock on U. S. 50; Hooppole Ridge and along Deep Creek Lake, route 219; and one on the Kitzmiller road. Permission must be obtained from property owners allowing construction of areas 25 feet wide and 200 feet long. They will be built by WPA of earth and rock, choked with stone dust and provided with a guard rail. Space must be deeded the State Roads Commission for $1 as no funds are available for purchase of such property.

The project has approval of the U. S. Bureau of Roads and the State Roads Commission.

Firemen's Jubilee

The Oakland Boys' Band and Oakland Fire Department paraded this evening to "whoop it up" for the Firemen's jubilee which began today and will continue through July 6.

There was nothing scheduled this evening but shows and entertainment and a free act. The Sam Lawrence Shows arrived yesterday and erected their tents and rides in spite of a constant downpour of rain.

Thursday, July 4, is the big day when at least twenty fire companies and five bands will arrive to participate in a mammoth parade.

Special Election

A notice of election has been posted in Mountain Lake Park calling attention of residents to a special election to be held at the new city hall office on Tuesday, July 9, from 1 to 7 p. m.

A councilman to fill the unexpired term of Mason Callis, resigned, will be chosen. The town charter provides for the appointment by the council to fill vacancies, but the election was provided to meet the wishes of citizens.

WARMING UP

William B. Bankhead

Pictured in a typical speaking pose, William B. Bankhead, speaker of the House of Representatives, was named to serve as keynoter at the Democratic national convention in Chicago. Bankhead is mentioned as a vice presidential candidate.

Wedding of

(Continued from Page Thirteen)

Mrs. Paul Beiler and three children, Spring Gap, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Yonkin and family yesterday.

Guests of Mrs. Simpson over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Broadwater and son, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Simpson and Mrs. W. Simons, Lonaconing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Durst and children have returned from a weekend visit with Mrs. Durst's mother, Mrs. Virginia Broadwater, at Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Otto and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Broadwater returned last night from New York city where they had spent the past week visiting the Worlds Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stanton were guests of Mrs. Stanton's brother, John Van Sickle, at Somerfield, Pa., yesterday.

George Winter, Baltimore, who was here for a weekend visit returned home yesterday. He was accompanied by his wife, who had spent several weeks here. Their daughter, May, who came here with her father, will remain for the holidays.

Bite of Spider Fatal to Baby

SPENCER, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The bite of a spider was blamed for the death today of the six-weeks old twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Church.

The father said he found a spider in the baby's crib on June 22, shortly after she was heard to cry out.

Youth's Body Found

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The body of Paul Luskashewich, 21, missing since Sunday, was found today in a barn on his father's farm, ten miles east of Wheeling. Coroner S. S. Robes said the youth shot himself.

McKeesport Couple Wed In Frostburg

Miss Margaret Woods Becomes the Bride of Charles McCurry

GILMOUR, July 1.—Miss Margaret Woods and Charles McCurry, McKeesport, Pa., were married Saturday, June 22 in Frostburg by the Rev. Father Bradley. Miss Woods was formerly from Lonaconing and is a sister of Mrs. Albert Beeman with whom they spent the weekend. They also visited Miss Rita Woods, Lonaconing.

Personals

Leo Lancaster, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lancaster, is seriously ill in the Memorial hospital, Cumberland.

John Kennedy remains seriously ill in the Allegany hospital.

James McFarland, Knapp's Meadow, is a patient at a sanatorium near Baltimore.

Mrs. Argell Wilson and sons, Carl and Edward, Youngstown, Ohio, arrived Saturday to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Mary Donald. She was accompanied by her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagus who returned to their homes Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wagus are formerly from Midland and visited Mr. Wagus' father who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tichnell and children, Dorothea Jean and Delbert, Jr., New Creek Drive, W. Va., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Kroll and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGann. Olive Barnard, Bloomington, returned to their home with them after visiting Ethel Kroll the past week.

Miss Virginia Cutter is spending the week with her aunt, Keyser, W. Va.

Joseph Mills, Charles Beeman, H. Ravenscraft, William Kroll, Hugh McGann, members of Midland Fire Company attended the firemen's parade and street carnival in Ridgeley, Saturday night.

Mrs. George Kroll, Mrs. Ralph Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eisentrout and Edward Muir were in Cumberland Sunday attending the funeral of their cousin Thomas Robertson.

Chester Landis, an enrollee of the CCC camp, Marmon's River, Va., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Landis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leake and children, John, Bob, Marie and Grace, and Harry Sleeman spent Saturday on a fishing trip at Deer Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scharr and Edward Clem have returned to Baltimore after spending four days with Mrs. Scharr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers.

Miss Elizabeth Meyers left yesterday for Camp St. Rose, near Washington, where she will spend six weeks as counsellor and will teach swimming in Junior and Senior life saving.

Mrs. Jane Plummer spent the week-end visiting relatives in Cresaptown and Ridgeley.

Mr and Mrs. Wilbert Rennie and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rennie spent Sunday at Dan's Rock.

A WELCOME TO ALL--EXCEPT SPIES

Canada's war-time spirit is expressed in this sign above the Canadian customs station in Windsor, Ontario. The Royal Canadian Mounted policeman in the foreground is on guard to prevent any Fifth Columnists getting into Canada.

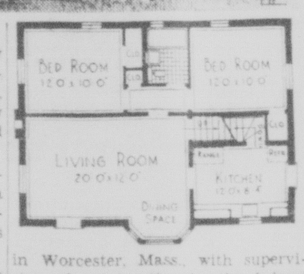

A New England Theme Built Of Concrete Masonry

By The (AP) Feature Service

A happy combination of economy and charm features this small-family home. It's a four-room design, its wide, low front and bay window heavily influenced by New England tradition.

Construction of concrete masonry, finished in stucco, provides a novel variant. The concrete construction is essentially practical as insulation in cold-winter areas.

Bright, cheerful dining space is integral in the bay window alcove. There is ample attic space.

This home should cost between $4,000 and $5,000, exclusive of lot. Canada's war-time spirit is expressed in this sign above the Canadian customs station in Windsor, Ontario. The Royal Canadian Mounted policeman in the foreground is on guard to prevent any Fifth Columnists getting into Canada.

Driver Exonerated In Auto Accident

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—A coroner's jury verdict of "unavoidable accident" freed James Marshall Stout of (1421 Girard street, N.W.) Washington, D. C., today of a manslaughter charge in the death of four persons in an automobile accident near here Sunday.

Stout had been charged with manslaughter after the car he was operating skidded on the crest of a hill and careened into a crowd of people standing at the scene of a head-on collision that had occurred a few minutes earlier. Three persons in the crowd and the driver of one of the automobiles involved in the first collision were killed.

The dead:

Garnett Seibert of Martinsburg, whose automobile stalled as he backed onto the highway from a side road and collided with a car driven by Albert Johnson, negro, of Martinsburg.

Jefferson Peck and son, Raymond, both of Charleston, and E. L. Painter of Martinsburg, who with about fifty others were crowded around the scene of the Seibert-Johnson crash when Stout's car skidded into them.

Oldest Tommy Is 70

LONDON (AP) — Tom Scrase, 70, claims to be the oldest soldier in the British Army. Now a private in the Royal Sussex Regiment, Tom was in the 14th Hussars in South Africa and the Veterinary Corps in 1914-18. Tom slipped by the recruiting officer this time by giving his age as 54. Everything went fine until it was discovered he was in the army 52 years ago. Authorities allowed him to remain.

Courts in many parts of the United States will not free a man from further payment of alimony when his ex-wife remarries, if they are convinced that the new husband is unable to support the lady in her former style and comfort.

Aw Phooey

He's a Mocking Bird and a Good Pet

Paul Reiner and Friend

The mocking bird, Florida's favorite songster, usually is shy and elusive, but Paul Reiner, 17, and his brother Pete, 8, of Miami, have made a real playmate of a mocking bird named, for no good reason, "Aw Phooey."

Aw Phooey was rescued from a neighborhood cat and after a few weeks of home life with the Reiners became quite tame. He sings for his supper, drinks milk from a spoon and shares his playmates' dessert. He earns his way by keeping the house rid of insects.

ETTA KETT By ROBINSON

DICK TRACY—Yes, Everything

Cresaptown Girl Honored at Party

CRESAPTOWN, July 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greathouse entertained Thursday night with a farewell party in honor of Dorothy Beiver, who moved Saturday to Lebanon, Pa. Those attending were Dorothy Biever, John Millar, Rose Alice Clark, Sonny Hughes, Virginia Greathouse, Virginia Mick, Violet and Joy Greathouse, John Evans, Virginia Stouffer, Edna Hounshell, Arelia Robinette, Thomas Greathouse, Veronica Robinette, Freddie Willison, Robert Hershberger and Ruth Hosier.

Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Robert Roblyer entertained Friday night with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, who were recently married. Mrs. Martin was the former Miss Beulah Roblyer.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Blubaugh entertained Thursday night in honor of their son Charles's ninth birthday. Those present were Patsy Vivian and Tommy Raley, Peggy and Donald Carns, Phyllis Jean Blubaugh, Charles Blubaugh, Barbara and Janice Bowman, Nina Lee Shank, Betty Smith, Mrs. Edna Hale and son Charles, Jr.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Harold O'Neal announced the birth of a son Saturday morning at the Allegany hospital.

Joe Logsden remains seriously ill at Allegany hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sherman, Fairgrounds, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remanoff, Bowling Green, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherman Friday.

Mrs. Parker Breedlove visited Mrs. Sarah Leasure, Cumberland, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Riffey and son, Potomac Park, visited Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Riffey Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Garrett and daughters Beatrice and Mary Catherine, and Price Riggleman, Moorefield, W. Va., visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherman.

Mrs. Servatius Roblyer and son returned home Saturday from visiting in Dry Fork, W. Va.

Gladys White and James Smith spent Sunday at Savage River dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Riffey and family spent the weekend at Lost River, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones and family returned home Friday from Federalsburg.

Mrs. John Moffatt and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson visited Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Richardson Sunday.

Mrs. George Shepherd, Cumberland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sindy.

Jack Lewis spent the weekend in Hedgesville, W. Va.

Edward Lewis and Jacob Richardson sang Friday night at the revival services being held in Levels, W. Va. Others attending the services were from here, Mr. and Mrs. John Moffatt, Mrs. John Biever and Miss Dorothy McDonald.

Mrs. Harrison Lewis and daughter Marjorie visited in Buffalo Mills, Pa., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frankenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lochney are visiting in Scranton, Pa.

The junior choir of the Methodist church will hold a social Saturday night at Robinette's confectionery.

Mesdames W. O. Winters and Marshall Willison will entertain the Ladies' Golden Rule Bible class Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., at the home of the former.

Mrs. Ralph Quattro and son Lewis, returned to Belington, W. Va., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kane.

Miss Mary Catherine Kane is visiting in Houston, Pa.

Mrs. Edith Breedlove returned to Thomas, W. Va., after visiting Mrs. G. W. Breedlove.

Jacob Hollenback, Houston, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Edward Kane.

William J.

(Continued from Page Thirteen)

July 10 and will be in the form of a picnic and outing in Garrett county.

Honor Miss Barnard

Miss Catherine Thomas, Ormond street, entertained Friday evening with a miscelloneous shower in honor of Miss Mary Barnard, Cumberland, whose marriage to Albert Marple will take place July 14. Miss Thomas will be Miss Barnard's attendant at the wedding.

Those present at the shower were Misses Eula Liller, Helen White, Bertha Connor, Mary Barnard, and Mrs. Philip Lucas, Cumberland; Miss Jennie McMillan, Lonaconing; Miss Christine Porter, Mt. Savage; Misses Virginia Neff, Mabel Myers, Winifred Greene, Veronica Sleeman, Kathleen Footen, Mollie Johns, Gatherine Thomas and Mesdames Lee Grim, William Thomas and Elizabeth Thomas, Frostburg.

Officers Installed

At the annual installation of officers of Frostburg Chapter No. 221 Women of the Moose, held Thursday evening, with Mrs. Eva L. Conroy, State Regent, as the installing officers, the following were inducted into office to serve for the ensuing year:

Mrs. Eva L. Conroy, graduate regent; Miss Mary Nicht, senior regent; Mrs. Nellie Ritchie, junior regent; Mrs. Grace Thomas, chaplain; Mrs. Edna Engle, recorder; Mrs. Margaret Shriver, treasurer; Mrs. Anna Struntz, sentinel; Mrs. Margaret Higgins, organist; Mrs. Bertha Ort and Mrs. Henrietta Struntz, guides; Mrs. Elizabeth Sires, pianist.

The following committee chairmen were also named:

Mrs. Katie Wilson, Moosehaven; Mrs. Clara Tippen, social service; Mrs. Harriett Sluss, library; Mrs. Tracy Kiddy, child care and training; Mrs. Henrietta Struntz, Moosheart; Mrs. Clara Walbert, homemaking; Mrs. Josephine Robinson, ritual; Mrs. Billy Ort, alumni and Mrs. Elizabeth Sires, publicity.

Mrs. Conroy, who served four years as senior regent, was presented gifts. Mrs. Martha Komatz, refreshments chairman, also received a gift. The program of the evening was in charge of Mrs. Grace Thomas.

Club To Meet

The L. B. C. Club will meet Tuesday night, 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Ruth Legeer, East Main street.

Frostburg Personals

David Thomas, Carlos, suffering with blood poisoning in his left hand for the past three weeks, is gradually improving. The injury was caused from splinters.

Andrew Nash, a former resident who spends his winters in the South, arrived here last week to spend the summer.

Mrs. Edgar W. Beckett is home after visiting her father at Tompkinsville. Her son, Robert, remained for the summer months. Miss Beverly Beckett is spending the summer with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. George M. Beckett, Washington, D. C.

Joseph Pryor, Eckhart, who has been seriously ill, was received at the Miners' hospital today for treatment.

Mrs. Orgie Hawkins Norris, who had been teaching at Upper Marlboro, is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. James B. Lewis, Ormond street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chambers, Woodstown, N. J., came here last week to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary B. Chambers, Uhl street.

Miss Jesse Riggleman, Borden Shaft, is taking a summer course at the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Theresa Bommicino, New York, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Patsy Sacco, this city.

Patsy Sacco is recovering from a major operation at Miners' hospital.

Robert Karlowa, Davenport, Iowa, newly appointed manager of the Hitchins Brothers store arrived here Saturday to assume his new duties. He was accompanied here by J. H. Palmer who will also be employed at the Hitchins store.

June Is Wet Month in W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The 7.30 inches of rain which fell last month made it the wettest June in West Virginia since 1928 when the total was 8.06 inches.

DIAMOND WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nolen, Jr., are pictured as they left St. Madeleine Sophie's Catholic Church, Germantown, Pa., following their marriage. She is the former Betty McGillicuddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colrelius McGillicuddy. Her father is Connie Mack, pilot of the Philadelphia Athletics baseball team.

Petersburg Couple Wed In Virginia

Miss Ruby Crites Becomes the Bride of Jettie Simmons

PETERSBURG, W. Va., July 1.—Jettie Simmons son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Simmons, Petersburg, and Miss Ruby Crites, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Crites, near Petersburg, were married at Monterey, Virginia, at the Lutheran parsonage. Mr. Simmons is manager of the Blue Valley Creamery Company, Petersburg, and is a graduate of Petersburg high school, class of 1940. After a short trip through Virginia they will reside in Petersburg.

County Court Meets

The County Court is sitting today as a board of Review and Equalization for Grant County at the Court house for the purpose of reviewing and equalizing the assessment of the county as returned by the Assessor, W. F. Hiser.

New Creamery

The Blue Valley Creamery Company, Johnstown, Pa., opened a creamery plant today in the property of Mrs. C. H. Park, on Highland avenue, and will buy cream and ship it to Pennsylvania. Jettie Simmons will manage the plant.

Brief Items

County Agent C. L. Stickler who has been a patient in the Rockingham Memorial hospital, Harrisburg, Va., for the past week returned to his home here yesterday.

Mrs. Delphia Hanlin and Miss Anna Jean Evans, Greenland, who spent the past week with Mrs. Hanlin's daughters in Cumberland returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, Uniontown, Pa., Job Welton and Mrs. James Tinney, Moorefield, were here yesterday to see Clarence Welton, who has been sick but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dayton and son have returned from Randolph County where they spent several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oce Smith, Franklin, spent yesterday here with Mr. and Mrs. Brown Shobe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bear and children, Summerset, Pa., who have been visiting Mrs. B. Grant Rob for the past week have returned home.

Misses Sallie and Annie Johnson, Keyser, who spent from Friday until today visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. VanMeter have gone home.

Mrs. W. F. Hiser who spent the past week with her daughter Mrs. Robert Snyder, Summersville, returned home yesterday.

The Rev. D. L. Whitner, Clarksburg, assisted with the H. E. Coo funeral here yesterday.

Mrs. H. A. Cokeley has returned from Nebraska where she spent the past eight weeks with her daughter and relatives.

Emory Alt, Washington, D. C. spent the week end here with h parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Alt south Petersburg.

Miss Jane Vossler, Keyser spen the week end visiting Mr. and M Roy Babb, Maysville and Mr Charlotte Hamstead, Petersburg.

Romney Negro Is In Keyser Jail

KEYSER, W. Va., July 1 Charles McDaniel, 22-year-o negro waiter of Romney, was the Mineral county jail here toda awaiting a hearing in Justice o the Peace court on a charge o violating the motor vehicle law.

McDaniel was arrested at 2 a. yesterday by State Police troope L. W. Kelly and R. R. Karickho and Constable William Adams afte the car he was driving crashe through a highway fence into cornfield on the property of Jam Stewart, about three miles sout of here on New Creek Drive.

PALACE
TODAY - TONIGHT WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
THE ROAD TO SINGAPORE
with Bing Crosby - Dorothy Lamour - Bob Hope
LYRIC
DOUBLE FEATURE TONIGHT AND WEDNESDAY
"Murder on the Yukon" with James Newill, Chief Thundercloud
"Opened by Mistake" with Charlie Ruggles, James Logan

Personal Loans on your own Signature
. . . LOANS FROM $25 to $300
• Employed people can get $25 to $250 or more entirely on earning capacity and personal responsibility. No co-makers required. No security necessary. No employers or friends notified. Come in today.
PICK YOUR OWN LOAN

Cash Loan	Monthly Payments for 5 Mo.	12 Mo.	20 Mo.
$ 50	$11.07	$ 5.17	$ 3.52
100	22.15	10.35	7.04
200	44.30	20.70	14.07
300	66.44	31.05	21.11

Above payments cover everything. Repayments on other loans, or for other periods, are in proportion.
Personal FINANCE CO.
LIBERTY TRUST BLDG.
2nd. Floor Room 1 Phone 83

New Officers Of Rotary Club Are Installed

Cecil Smith Is New President of Oakland Civic Group

OAKLAND, July 1.—Newly elected officers of the Oakland Rotary club assumed their duties last Friday evening following installation. Cecil Smith, elected president several weeks ago, was elevated to head the organization and plans to name his committees shortly.

Grover Stemple was retiring president and became a member of the board of directors. The club now has a membership of forty-two, six of whom were taken into the club during the year. Two were also reinstated.

During the past eleven months the club had an average attendance of about ninety-three per cent. Officers installed included the president; O. T. Graser, vice-president; Delbert Davis, treasurer, and W. O. Davis, secretary. Members of the board of directors include Cecil Smith, O. T. Graser, G. C. Stemple, Emory Bolden, Frank C. Kley, C. E. Sharps, Prentiss DeBerry.

A committee of Rotarians is now endeavoring to obtain rights of way for four parking areas at points of scenic interest along main highways in the county.

These areas will be located at Table Rock on U. S. 50; Hooppole Ridge and along Deep Creek Lake, route 219; and one on the Kitzmiller road. Permission must be obtained from property owners allowing construction of areas 25 feet wide and 200 feet long. They will be built by WPA of earth and rock, choked with stone dust and provided with a guard rail. Space must be deeded the State Roads Commission for $1 as no funds are available for purchase of such property.

The project has approval of the U. S. Bureau of Roads and the State Roads Commission.

Firemen's Jubilee

The Oakland Boys' Band and Oakland Fire Department paraded this evening to "whoop it up" for the Firemen's jubilee which began today and will continue through July 6.

There was nothing scheduled this evening but shows and entertainment and a free act. The Sam Lawrence Shows arrived yesterday and erected their tents and rides in spite of a constant downpour of rain.

Thursday, July 4, is the big day when at least twenty fire companies and five bands will arrive to participate in a mammoth parade.

Special Election

A notice of election has been posted in Mountain Lake Park calling attention of residents to a special election to be held at the new city hall office on Tuesday, July 9, from 1 to 7 p. m.

A councilman to fill the unexpired term of Mason Callis, resigned, will be chosen. The town charter provides for the appointment by the council to fill vacancies, but the election was provided to meet the wishes of citizens.

WARMING UP

William B. Bankhead

Pictured in a typical speaking pose, William B. Bankhead, speaker of the House of Representatives, was named to serve as keynoter at the Democratic national convention in Chicago. Bankhead is mentioned as a vice presidential candidate.

Wedding of

(Continued from Page Thirteen)

Mrs. Paul Beiler and three children, Spring Gap, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Yonkin and family yesterday.

Guests of Mrs. Simpson over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Broadwater and son, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Simpson and Mrs. W. Simons, Lonaconing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Durst and children have returned from a weekend visit with Mrs. Durst's mother, Mrs. Virginia Broadwater, at Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Otto and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Broadwater returned last night from New York city where they had spent the past week visiting the Worlds Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stanton were guests of Mrs. Stanton's brother, John Van Sickle, at Somerfield, Pa., yesterday.

George Winter, Baltimore, who was here for a weekend visit returned home yesterday. He was accompanied by his wife, who had spent several weeks here. Their daughter, May, who came here with her father, will remain for the holidays.

Bite of Spider Fatal to Baby

SPENCER, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The bite of a spider was blamed for the death today of the six-weeks old twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Church.

The father said he found a spider in the baby's crib on June 22, shortly after she was heard to cry out.

Youth's Body Found

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The body of Paul Luskashewich, 21, missing since Sunday, was found today in a barn on his father's farm, ten miles east of Wheeling. Coroner S. S. Robes said the youth shot himself.

McKeesport Couple Wed In Frostburg

Miss Margaret Woods Becomes the Bride of Charles McCurry

GILMOUR, July 1.—Miss Margaret Woods and Charles McCurry, McKeesport, Pa., were married Saturday, June 22 in Frostburg by the Rev. Father Bradley. Miss Woods was formerly from Lonaconing and is a sister of Mrs. Albert Beeman with whom they spent the weekend. They also visited Miss Rita Woods, Lonaconing.

Personals

Leo Lancaster, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lancaster, is seriously ill in the Memorial hospital, Cumberland.

John Kennedy remains seriously ill in the Allegany hospital.

James McFarland, Knapp's Meadow, is a patient at a sanatorium near Baltimore.

Mrs. Argell Wilson and sons, Carl and Edward, Youngstown, Ohio, arrived Saturday to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Mary Donald. She was accompanied by her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagus who returned to their homes, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wagus are formerly from Midland and visited Mr. Wagus' father who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tichnell and children, Dorothea Jean and Delbert, Jr., New Creek Drive, W. Va., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Kroll and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGann. Olive Barnard, Bloomington, returned to their home with them after visiting Ethel Kroll the past week.

Miss Virginia Cutter is spending the week with her aunt, Keyser, W. Va.

Joseph Mills, Charles Beeman, H. Ravenscraft, William Kroll, Hugh McGann, members of Midland Fire Company attended the firemen's parade and street carnival in Ridgeley, Saturday night.

Mrs. George Kroll, Mrs. Ralph Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eisentrout and Edward Muir were in Cumberland Sunday attending the funeral of their cousin Thomas Robertson.

Chester Landis, an enrollee of the CCC camp, Marmon's River, Va., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Landis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leake and children, John, Bob, Marie and Grace, and Harry Sleeman spent Saturday on a fishing trip at Deer Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scharr and Edward Clem have returned to Baltimore after spending four days with Mrs. Scharr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers.

Miss Elizabeth Meyers left yesterday for Camp St. Rose, near Washington, where she will spend six weeks as counsellor and will teach swimming in Junior and Senior life saving.

Mrs. Jane Plummer spent the week-end visiting relatives in Cresaptown and Ridgeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Rennie and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rennie spent Sunday at Dan's Rock.

A WELCOME TO ALL--EXCEPT SPIES

Canada's war-time spirit is expressed in this sign above the Canadian customs station in Windsor, Ontario. The Royal Canadian Mounted policeman in the foreground is on guard to prevent any Fifth Columnists getting into Canada.

A New England Theme Built Of Concrete Masonry

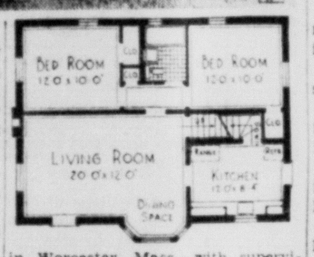

By The (AP) Feature Service

A happy combination of economy and charm features this small-family home. It's a four-room design, its wide, low front and bay window heavily influenced by New England tradition.

Construction of concrete masonry, finished in stucco, provides a novel variant. The concrete construction is essentially practical as insulation in cold-winter areas.

Bright, cheerful dining space is integral in the bay window alcove. There is ample attic space.

This home should cost between $4,000 and $5,000, exclusive of lot, in Worcester, Mass., with supervision of construction by the federal home building service plan. Local lending agencies or the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Washington, D. C., have full information.

Driver Exonerated In Auto Accident

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—A coroner's jury verdict of "unavoidable accident" freed James Marshall Stout of (1421 Girard street, N.W.) Washington, D. C., today of a manslaughter charge in the death of four persons in an automobile accident near here Sunday.

Stout had been charged with manslaughter after the car he was operating skidded on the crest of a hill and careened into a crowd of people standing at the scene of a head-on collision that had occurred a few minutes earlier. Three persons in the crowd and the driver of one of the automobiles involved in the first collision were killed.

The dead:

Garnett Seibert of Martinsburg, whose automobile stalled as he backed onto the highway from a side road and collided with a car driven by Albert Johnson, negro, of Martinsburg.

Jefferson Peck and son, Raymond, both of Charleston, and E. L. Painter of Martinsburg, who with about fifty others were crowded around the scene of the Seibert-Johnson crash when Stout's car skidded into them.

Oldest Tommy Is 70

LONDON (AP) — Tom Scrase, 70, claims to be the oldest soldier in the British Army. Now a private in the Royal Sussex Regiment, Tom was in the 14th Hussars in South Africa and the Veterinary Corps in 1914-18. Tom slipped by the recruiting officer this time by giving his age as 54. Everything went fine until it was discovered he was in the army 52 years ago. Authorities allowed him to remain.

Courts in many parts of the United States will not free a man from further payment of alimony when his ex-wife remarries, if they are convinced that the new husband is unable to support the lady in her former style and comfort.

Aw Phooey

He's a Mocking Bird and a Good Pet

Paul Reiner and Friend

The mocking bird, Florida's favorite songster, usually is shy and elusive, but Paul Reiner, 17, and his brother Pete, 8, of Miami, have made a real playmate of a mocking bird named, for no good reason, "Aw Phooey."

Aw Phooey was rescued from a neighborhood cat and after a few weeks of home life with the Reiners became quite tame. He sings for his supper, drinks milk from a spoon and shares his playmates' dessert. He earns his way by keeping the house rid of insects.

ETTA KETT By ROBINSON

DICK TRACY—Yes, Everything

Cresaptown Girl Honored at Party

CRESAPTOWN, July 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greathouse entertained Thursday night with a farewell party in honor of Dorothy Beiver, who moved Saturday to Lebanon, Pa. Those attending were Dorothy Biever, John Millar, Rose Alice Clark, Sonny Hughes, Virginia Greathouse, Virginia Mick, Violet and Joy Greathouse, John Evans, Virginia Stouffer, Edna Hounshell, Arelia Robinette, Thomas Greathouse, Veronica Robinette, Freddie Willison, Robert Hershberger and Ruth Hosier.

Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Robert Roblyer entertained Friday night with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, who were recently married. Mrs. Martin was the former Miss Beulah Roblyer.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Blubaugh entertained Thursday night in honor of their son Charles's ninth birthday. Those present were Patsy Vivian and Tommy Raley, Peggy and Donald Carns, Phyllis Jean Blubaugh, Charles Blubaugh, Barbara and Janice Bowman, Nina Lee Shank, Betty Smith, Mrs. Edna Hale and son Charles, Jr.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Harold O'Neal announced the birth of a son Saturday morning at the Allegany hospital.

Joe Logsden remains seriously ill at Allegany hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sherman, Fairgrounds, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remanoff, Bowling Green, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherman Friday.

Mrs. Parker Breedlove visited Mrs. Sarah Leasure, Cumberland, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Riffey and son, Potomac Park, visited Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Riffey Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Garrett and daughters Beatrice and Mary Catherine, and Price Riggleman, Moorefield, W. Va., visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherman.

Mrs. Servatius Roblyer and son returned home Saturday from visiting in Dry Fork, W. Va.

Gladys White and James Smith spent Sunday at Savage River dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Riffey and family spent the weekend at Lost River, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones and family returned home Friday from Federalsburg.

Mrs. John Moffatt and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson visited Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Richardson Sunday.

Mrs. George Shepherd, Cumberland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sindy.

Jack Lewis spent the weekend in Hedgesville, W. Va.

Edward Lewis and Jacob Richardson sang Friday night at the revival services being held in Levels, W. Va. Others attending the services were from here, Mr. and Mrs. John Moffatt, Mrs. John Biever and Miss Dorothy McDonald.

Mrs. Harrison Lewis and daughter Marjorie visited in Buffalo Mills, Pa., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frankenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lochney are visiting in Scranton, Pa.

The junior choir of the Methodist church will hold a social Saturday night at Robinette's confectionery.

Mesdames W. O. Winters and Marshall Willison will entertain the Ladies' Golden Rule Bible class Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., at the home of the former.

Mrs. Ralph Quattro and son Lewis, returned to Belington, W. Va., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kane.

Miss Mary Catherine Kane is visiting in Houston, Pa.

Mrs. Edith Breedlove returned to Thomas, W. Va., after visiting Mrs. G. W. Breedlove.

Jacob Hollenback, Houston, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Edward Kane.

William J.

(Continued from Page Thirteen)

July 10 and will be in the form of a picnic and outing in Garrett county.

Honor Miss Barnard

Miss Catherine Thomas, Ormond street, entertained Friday evening with a miscelloneous shower in honor of Miss Mary Barnard, Cumberland, whose marriage to Albert Marple will take place July 14. Miss Thomas will be Miss Barnard's attendant at the wedding.

Those present at the shower were Misses Eula Liller, Helen White, Bertha Connor, Mary Barnard, and Mrs. Philip Lucas, Cumberland; Miss Jennie McMillan, Lonaconing; Miss Christine Porter, Mt. Savage; Misses Virginia Neff, Mabel Myers, Winifred Greene, Veronica Sleeman, Kathleen Footen, Mollie Johns, Catherine Thomas and Mesdames Lee Grim, William Thomas and Elizabeth Thomas, Frostburg.

Officers Installed

At the annual installation of officers of Frostburg Chapter No. 221 Women of the Moose, held Thursday evening, with Mrs. Eva L. Conroy, State Regent, as the installing officers, the following were inducted into office to serve for the ensuing year:

Mrs. Eva L. Conroy, graduate regent; Miss Mary Nicht, senior regent; Mrs. Nellie Ritchie, junior regent; Mrs. Grace Thomas, chaplain; Mrs. Edna Engle, recorder; Mrs. Margaret Shriver, treasurer; Mrs. Anna Struntz, sentinel; Mrs. Margaret Higgins, organist; Mrs. Bertha Ort and Mrs. Henrietta Struntz, guides; Mrs. Elizabeth Sires, pianist.

The following committee chairmen were also named:

Mrs. Katie Wilson, Moosehaven; Mrs. Clara Tippen, social service; Mrs. Harriett Sluss, library; Mrs. Tracy Kiddy, child care and training; Mrs. Henrietta Struntz, Mooseheart; Mrs. Clara Walbert, homemaking; Mrs. Josephine Robinson, ritual; Mrs. Billy Ort, alumni and Mrs. Elizabeth Sires, publicity.

Mrs. Conroy, who served four years as senior regent, was presented gifts. Mrs. Martha Komatz, refreshments chairman, also received a gift. The program of the evening was in charge of Mrs. Grace Thomas.

Club To Meet

The L. B. C. Club will meet Tuesday night, 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Ruth Legeer, East Main street.

Frostburg Personals

David Thomas, Carlos, suffering with blood poisoning in his left hand for the past three weeks, is gradually improving. The injury was caused from splinters.

Andrew Nash, a former resident who spends his winters in the South, arrived here last week to spend the summer.

Mrs. Edgar W. Beckett is home after visiting her father at Tompkinsville. Her son, Robert, remained for the summer months. Miss Beverly Beckett is spending the summer wtih her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. George M. Beckett, Washington, D. C.

Joseph Pryor, Eckhart, who has been seriously ill, was received at the Miners' hospital today for treatment.

Mrs. Orgie Hawkins Norris, who had been teaching at Upper Marlboro, is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. James B. Lewis, Ormond street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chambers, Woodstown, N. J., came here last week to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary B. Chambers, Uhl street.

Miss Jesse Riggleman, Borden Shaft, is taking a summer course at the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Theresa Bommicino, New York, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Patsy Sacco, this city.

Patsy Sacco is recovering from a major operation at Miners' hospital.

Robert Karlowa, Davenport, Iowa, newly appointed manager of the Hitchins Brothers store arrived here Saturday to assume his new duties. He was accompanied here by J. H. Palmer who will also be employed at the Hitchins store.

June Is Wet Month in W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 1. (AP)—The 7.30 inches of rain which fell last month made it the wettest June in West Virginia since 1928 when the total was 8.06 inches.

DIAMOND WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nolen, Jr., are pictured as they left St. Madeleine Sophie's Catholic Church, Germantown, Pa., following their marriage. She is the former Betty McGillicuddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coirelius McGillicuddy. Her father is Connie Mack, pilot of the Philadelphia Athletics baseball team.

Petersburg Couple Wed In Virginia

Miss Ruby Crites Becomes the Bride of Jettie Simmons

PETERSBURG, W. Va., July 1.—Jettie Simmons son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Simmons, Petersburg, and Miss Ruby Crites, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Crites, near Petersburg, were married at Monterey, Virginia, at the Lutheran parsonage. Mr. Simmons is manager of the Blue Valley Creamery Company, Petersburg, and is a graduate of Petersburg high school, class of 1940. After a short trip through Virginia they will reside in Petersburg.

County Court Meets

The County Court is sitting today as a board of Review and Equalization for Grant County at the Court house for the purpose of reviewing and equalizing the assessment of the county as returned by the Assessor, W. P. Hiser.

New Creamery

The Blue Valley Creamery Company, Johnstown, Pa., opened a creamery plant today in the property of Mrs. C. H. Park, on Highland avenue, and will buy cream and ship it to Pennsylvania. Jettie Simmons will manage the plant.

Brief Items

County Agent C. L. Stickler who has been a patient in the Rockingham Memorial hospital, Harrisburg, Va., for the past week returned to his home here yesterday.

Mrs. Delphia Hanlin and Miss Anna Jean Evans, Greenland, who spent the past week with Mrs. Hanlin's daughters in Cumberland returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, Uniontown, Pa., Job Welton and Mrs. James Tinney, Moorefield, were here yesterday to see Clarence Welton, who has been sick but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dayton and son have returned from Randolph County where they spent several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oce Smith, Franklin, spent yesterday here with Mr. and Mrs. Brown Shobe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bear and children, Summerset, Pa., who have been visiting Mrs. B. Grant Rob for the past week have returned home.

Misses Sallie and Annie Johnson, Keyser, who spent from Friday until today visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. VanMeter have gone home.

Mrs. W. F. Hiser who spent the past week with her daughter Mrs. Robert Snyder, Summersville, returned home yesterday.

The Rev. D. L. Whitner, Clarksburg, assisted with the H. E. Coo funeral here yesterday.

Mrs. H. A. Cokeley has returned from Nebraska where she spent the past eight weeks with her daughter and relatives.

Emory Alt, Washington, D. C. spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Alt in south Petersburg.

Miss Jane Vossler, Keyser spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Babb, Maysville and Mrs. Charlotte Hamstead, Petersburg.

Romney Negro Is In Keyser Jail

KEYSER, W. Va., July 1.—Charles McDaniel, 22-year-old negro waiter of Romney, was in the Mineral county jail here today awaiting a hearing in Justice of the Peace court on a charge of violating the motor vehicle law.

McDaniel was arrested at 2 a. m. yesterday by State Police troopers L. W. Kelly and R. R. Karickhoff and Constable William Adams after the car he was driving crashed through a highway fence into a cornfield on the property of James Stewart, about three miles south of here on New Creek Drive.

PALACE
TODAY - TONIGHT WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
THE ROAD TO SINGAPORE
with Bing Crosby - Dorothy Lamour - Bob Hope
LYRIC
DOUBLE FEATURE TONIGHT AND WEDNESDAY
"Murder on the Yukon" with James Newill, Chief Thundercloud
"Opened by Mistake" with Charlie Ruggles, James Logan

Personal Loans on your own Signature
. . . LOANS FROM $25 to $300
● Employed people can get $25 to $250 or more entirely on earning capacity and personal responsibility. No co-makers required. No security necessary. No employers or friends notified. Come in today.
PICK YOUR OWN LOAN

Cash Loan	Monthly Payments for 6 Mo.	12 Mo.	20 Mo.
$ 50	$11.07	$ 5.17	$ 3.52
100	22.15	10.35	7.04
200	44.30	20.70	14.07
300	66.44	31.05	21.11

Above payments cover everything. Repayments on other loans, or for other periods, are in proportion.
Personal FINANCE CO.
LIBERTY TRUST BLDG.
2nd. Floor Room 1 Phone 83

Galento Favored To Win over Baer Tonight

Two Ton Suffers Gashed Chin but Agrees To Go On

Beer Glass Hurled by Brother Bashes "Beezer"

All Concerned Declare Injury Will Not Affect Him

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 1. (AP)—The case of the gashed chin, the final daffiest touch to an already hilarious set-up, was more or less cleared up today, and it appeared only the constabulary could prevent Tony Galento and Max Baer from keeping their fistic date in the local ball park tomorrow night.

A beer glass, thrown by Tony's brother, Russell, picked out Tony's chin in Galento's "soft-drink emporium" in Orange last night, and the results threatened for a time to force a postponement of the "Battle of the Bums." The glass sliced Tony's chin for about an inch, right where his dimple would be if he had a dimple.

A couple of doctors looked it over today however, and reported to State Boxing Commissioner Abe J. Greene that if the sliced chin was the only cut Tony received in there tomorrow from the playboy of the Pacific, he needn't worry. So, Greene asked Promoter Mike Jacobs and Herman Taylor, one of Two-Ton's managers how they felt about it. All hands, including Tony, decided the "minor abrasion" was not serious enough to keep this epic from an eager public.

Tony and Max both did a stretch of roadwork today to put the finishing touches on their training.

Inasmuch as this battle for the championship of the screwballs has a certain appeal to lovers of both the sublime and the ridiculous, officials expect more than 30,000 and a gate flirting with the $150,000-mark.

Sliced chin and all, Galento still was the betting "cherce" tonight. The only change made by his little scrape was that the betting fraternity cut the price from 5-9 to 5-8 with Tony favored.

The SPORT TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Johnny Vander Meer has gone back to the minors. The six-foot lad with the crinkly brown hair and hazel eyes has been optioned by the Reds to Indianapolis, and those who know him and recall his wholesome "why all the fuss?" manner in his brief hour of glory hope he'll be coming back up again soon.

Johnny Vander Meer never was a fellow to do things by halves. When it came to pitching a no-hit game, he didn't stop at one. He made it two in a row. When it came to having his tonsils removed, he had them removed three times. And when he was wild, he wasn't just wild. He was frantic.

Couldn't Find Plate

That wildness, combined with that bugaboo of pitchers vaguely referred to as a "sore arm," is responsible for his current step downward. He couldn't find the plate with a knife and fork, and it's not difficult to imagine gentle Deacon McKechnie calling him aside and saying:

"We're sending you to Indianapolis, John. We'll call you back here when you have had a chance to work out those kinks."

Johnny Vander Meer was just another young pitcher until June 11, 1938. He had a measure of fame in minor league ball. In fact, he had been named the No. 1 player of the minors in 1936 as a member of the Durham club of the Piedmont league.

But he was just another pitcher in 1938 until that June day when he blanked the Boston Bees without a hit. That alone was something, but when he followed it up four days later with the same kind of a performance against the Dodgers, he was the toast of baseball.

15 Wins, 10 Defeats

He kept his head, but not the stuff which enabled him to turn in his phenomenal performance. He did well in the all-star game of that year, but otherwise he was unimpressive, and his season's record was fifteen wins against ten losses.

Fate turned thumbs down on him before the 1939 season was under way. He was ill with the flu, and topped that with an operation for appendicitis. He missed all of the spring training, and when he finally did report, he wasn't the same Johnny Vander Meer.

He complained of a sore arm, but doctors could not discover what was wrong. Sometimes those things are in the mind, and just as real as if they existed. At any rate, he said it was sore, and he should know.

Poor Record Last Year

His record last year was five victories against nine defeats, but everyone made allowances for that, considering his unfortunate start and all.

We talked with him down in Tampa this spring. He looked fine, said he felt fine, and that his arm trouble appeared to have vanished. But when he took the mound he had no more control than a marble on a platter.

Vander Meer is only 25, too young to start saying: "Now, when I was pitching in the majors...." All he needs is a thermostat for that fire ball of his.

DiMaggio Slower?

Detroit, July 1.—Del Baker believes Joe DiMaggio's knee still bothers him. The Detroit manager believes the Yankee center-fielder is a step or two slower than he was before he injured his knee in the spring.

ADDS ANOTHER TITLE

Alice Marble, above, queen of the tennis courts, and Mary Arnold won the National Clay Courts ladies' doubles title in the finals played in Cincinnati. The pair won in a straight set victory over Helen Bernhard and Gracyn Wheeler, 6-3, 6-4.

Newsom Hangs Up 11th Victory with Chicago Victim

Detroit Takes 3 to 1 Win as Mound Ace Is in Top Form

DETROIT, July 1 (AP) — Louis (Buck) Newsom won his eleventh consecutive pitching victory today, holding Chicago White Sox batters to six hits and fanning seven as the Detroit Tigers won a 3-1 decision.

Except in the fourth inning when the Sox scored their only run, Newsom did not permit a single runner to pass second base.

Even the one Chicago run would not have scored except for an error by Dick Bartell, Detroit shortstop. After Mike Kreevich doubled, Newsom picked him off base with a throw to Bartell who tagged the runner but dropped the ball. Kreevich moved to third on a sacrifice and scored when Moose Solters singled.

Hank Greenberg batted in Detroit's first run in the first inning, his double scoring Charlie Gehringer who walked.

Gehringer tripled in the sixth and scored as Eric McNair fumbled Greenberg's grounder. A wild pitch sent Greenberg to second; he took third on a sacrifice and scored when Red Kress lifted a fly to center.

CHICAGO	AB	R	H	O	A
Webb, ss	4	0	0	1	3
Kreevich, cf	4	1	1	5	0
Kuhel, 1b	3	0	1	2	0
Solters, lf	4	0	2	2	0
Rosenthal, rf	4	0	1	1	0
McNair, 2b	4	0	0	3	0
Tresch, c	3	0	1	3	0
Kennedy, 3b	3	0	0	4	3
Rigney, p	2	0	0	0	0
Sylvestri, x	0	0	0	0	0
Appleton, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	31	1	6	24	5

x—Batted for Rigney in 8th.

DETROIT	AB	R	H	O	A
Bartell, ss	4	0	1	3	4
McCosky, cf	4	0	0	1	0
Gehringer, 2b	3	2	1	0	4
Greenberg, lf	3	1	2	1	0
York, 1b	3	0	0	12	0
Campbell, rf	3	0	0	1	0
Kress, 3b	4	0	1	2	3
Sullivan, c	2	0	0	7	1
Newsom, p	2	0	0	0	2
Totals	29	3	5	27	14

CHICAGO	000 100 000—1
DETROIT	100 002 00x—3

Errors—Bartell, McNair. Runs batted in—Greenberg 2, Kress, Solters. Two base hits—Greenberg, Kreevich. Three base hit—Gehringer. Sacrifices—Kuhel, Campbell. Double plays — Gehringer, Bartell and York. Left on bases—Chicago 3, Detroit 7. Bases on balls—off Rigney 4, off Newsom 1. Struck out—by Rigney 2, by Appleton 1, by Newsom 7. Hits—off Rigney 4 in 7 innings; off Appleton 1 in 1. Wild pitches—Rigney 2. Losing pitcher—Rigney.

Young Kid McCoy Sets Goal To Perpetuate Selby Monicker

DETROIT, July 1 — A few old-timers gathered around the ring, blinked their eyes and looked again as they watched a tousle-haired youngster box in a Detroit gymnasium last week.

His right hand had a peculiar yet familiar twist that brought back memories of a time when Kid McCoy was swaggering through life and beating down all opposition with his famed "corkscrew punch."

But the original "Kid" died a few months ago. He committed suicide because he couldn't stand this "troubled world." But he left behind a lad who is determined to make the name McCoy again the most feared in the ring.

Tuesday night the new McCoy—he calls himself "Young Kid McCoy" — reaches the first important step in his career. He fights Mansfield Driskell, a long-armed Negro with a stunning punch, for the Michigan welterweight title in Arena Gardens.

The modern Kid was born Adam Flanga twenty-one years ago in Dearborn, Mich., one of three sons in a poor, immigrant family. And when he was thirteen years old his path crossed that of Norman Selby, the real name of the original Kid McCoy.

Adam wanted to be a fighter and one of his neighbors was John McIntyre, now his manager. McIntyre, a former boxer, at that time worked in the Ford Motor Company with Selby.

McIntyre told the great McCoy of this youth who wanted to be a fighter. While they worked McCoy would tell McIntyre of the tricks and strategy he once used in the ring, and each night that information was passed on to young Adam.

This teaching by proxy went on for some time until one day the original McCoy decided to see the youngster. He watched one sparring session and then told the youth to adopt the name of McCoy.

"Kid, you're worthy of my name," he said.

The years spun by and the new McCoy worked hard developing the "corkscrew punch." He made a recent tour through the East and had great success. To date he has had forty fights, winning thirty-five, losing three by decisions and fighting two draws.

Ever since he first drew on gloves the young Kid has been working in the Ford stockroom. Last week, however, he decided he was good enough to devote his life to fighting. He quit his job and now is aiming at the world welterweight title.

BASEBALL'S BIG 6

By The Associated Press

Batting (Three leaders in each league.)

PLAYER, CLUB	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Radcliff, Browns	64	247	38	91	.368
Danning, Giants	57	220	37	81	.368
Finney, Red Sox	58	239	44	93	.359
Walker, Dodgers	52	199	32	69	.347
McCosky, Tigers	58	240	35	82	.342
Max, Phillies	53	188	23	62	.330
Gustine, Pirates	49	188	23	62	.330

HOME RUNS

American League		National League
Foxx, Red Sox	17	Mize, Cardinals	20
Trosky, Indians	17	Danning, Giants	11
Greenberg, Tigers	15	Fletcher, Pirates	11

RUNS BATTED IN

American League		National League
Greenberg, Tigers	61	Danning, Giants	55
Foxx, Red Sox	59	Mize, Cardinals	51
Walker, Senators	52	Fletcher, Pirates	50

Melton Wins His Seventh of Season

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Cliff Melton, one of the National League stars not chosen for the all-star game, rang up his seventh victory of the season today as the New York Giants overpowered the Boston Bees 7 to 1.

Melton, who has lost only one game, kept six hits scattered and struck out nine.

The Giants got only seven safeties off Al Piechota, but they included three home runs and a triple. Hank Danning, who batted in three of the victors' runs, hit his 11th homer, Mel Ott his sixth and Tony Cuccinello his third.

BOSTON	AB	R	H	O	A
Hassett, 1b	4	0	1	9	0
Sisti, 3b	4	1	2	1	1
E. Moore, rf	2	0	0	0	0
Ross, lf	4	0	1	2	0
Miller, ss	4	0	1	1	4
Glossop, 2b	3	0	1	2	3
West, cf	3	0	0	6	0
Berres, c	3	0	0	2	1
Piechota, p	3	0	0	0	2
Totals	30	1	6	24	11

NEW YORK	AB	R	H	O	A
Whitehead, 3b	4	0	0	1	3
Rucker, cf	4	0	0	3	0
J. Moore, rf	4	0	0	0	0
Young, 1b	3	3	2	8	0
Danning, c	3	2	1	9	1
Ott, rf	3	1	2	1	0
Cuccinello, 2b	4	1	1	2	2
Witek, ss	3	0	1	3	4
Melton, p	3	0	0	0	2
Totals	31	7	7	27	12

BOSTON	000 001 000—1
NEW YORK	020 202 01x—7

Errors—None. Runs batted in—Danning 3, Cuccinello, Miller, Ott 2, Witek. Three base hits—Glossop, Young. Home runs—Danning, Cuccinello, Ott. Stolen base—Miller. Sacrifice—E. Moore. Double play—Cuccinello, Witek and Young. Left on bases—New York 4, Boston 6. Bases on balls—off Melton 3, off Piechota 4. Struck out—by Melton 9, by Piechota 2.

Dodgers Push Way To 4-3 Triumph Over Philadelphia

Three Run Splurge Gives Brooklyn Win in Sloppy Game

PHILADELPHIA, July 1 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers pushed their way to a 4 to 3 triumph over the Phillies today in a sloppy session that was decided principally through a three-run first inning assault on Hugh Mulcahy.

The Dodgers were outhit, 8-7, but in that big first inning Cookie LaVagetto walked, Dixie Walker doubled, Joe Medwick tripled and scored on a wild pitch.

Brooklyn's other run crossed the plate in the fourth on one of two errors by Bobby Bragan. Two were on base and two were out at the time.

Tot Presnell gave up a run in the first on Ham Schulte's double and Chuck Klein's single. The Phils filled the bases in the fourth on a single, an error and a hit batsman and scored on an infield out. Their other run came in the seventh on an error, a single and a wild pitch.

BROOKLYN	AB	R	H	O	A
Reese, ss	5	0	0	2	5
Lavagetto, 3b	4	1	0	1	0
Walker, cf	3	1	2	2	0
Medwick, lf	4	1	1	5	0
Phelps, c	3	0	0	5	0
Camilli, 1b	4	0	0	7	0
Vosmik, rf	4	1	2	3	0
Coscarart, 2b	3	0	2	2	3
Pressnell, p	3	0	0	0	1
Davis, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	4	7	27	9

PHILADELPHIA	AB	R	H	O	A
Schulte, 2b	5	1	1	3	3
Klein, rf	4	1	2	2	0
Mueller, lf	4	1	3	2	0
Rizzo, cf	5	0	1	2	0
May, 3b	3	0	1	0	2
Bragan, ss	4	0	0	2	6
Atwood, c	4	0	0	5	0
Mahan, 1b	3	0	1	12	0
Mulcahy, p	2	0	0	0	0
Berger, x	1	0	0	0	0
Si. Johnson, p	0	0	0	0	1
Marty, xx	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	3	8	27	12

x—Batted for Mulcahy in 8th.
xx—Batted for Si. Johnson in 9th.

BROOKLYN	300 100 000—4
PHILADELPHIA	100 100 100—3

Errors — Bragan 2, Reese, Coscarart. Runs batted in—Klein, Bragan, Walker, Medwick. Two base hits—Schulte, Walker. Three base hits — Medwick, Coscarart, Walker. Stolen base—Reese. Sacrifice—Pressnell. Double plays—Coscarart, Reese and Camilli; Schulte, Bragan and Mahan. Left on bases—Philadelphia 10, Brooklyn 7. Bases on balls—off Mulcahy 3, off Pressnell 3. Struck out—by Pressnell 4, by Mulcahy 2, by Si Johnson 2. Hits—off Mulcahy 5 in 6 innings; off Pressnell 8 in 8⅔; off Si Johnson 2 in 3; off Davis 0 in ⅓. Hit by pitcher—by Mulcahy (Walker); by Pressnell (May). Wild pitches—Mulcahy, Pressnell. Winning pitcher—Pressnell. Losing pitcher—Mulcahy.

FASHION FOR FISHIN'

The ladies fishing in Atlantic City's ocean surf are upsetting the "old clothes" tradition so firmly adhered to by the male anglers. Here we see a young lady ready to entice the fish and she believes in doing it in style. Who knows? Maybe she's right!

Athletics Bang Ball and Batter Boston by 9 to 1

BOSTON, July 1 (AP)—The high-powered slugging of Frank Hayes, all-star game catcher, and Al Rubeling, whose combined total of seven hits went for 15 bases, enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to overwhelm the Red Sox, 9-1, in today's series opener.

Both of those A's had perfect days at bat but led the attack by knocking out two homers, a double and a single to score four runs and drive in three more. Rubeling connected for a two-bagger and a pair of singles.

PHILADELPHIA	AB	R	H	O	A
Brancato, ss	5	0	0	2	1
Moses, rf	4	0	0	1	0
McCoy, 2b	5	1	1	1	6
Simmons, lf	5	2	2	2	0
Siebert, 1b	3	2	2	8	0
Hayes, c	4	2	3	6	0
D. Miles, cf	5	0	0	3	0
Rubeling, 3b	5	2	2	0	2
Potter, p	3	0	0	0	0
Totals	41	9	10	23	9

BOSTON	AB	R	H	O	A
Finney, rf	4	0	0	2	0
Cramer, cf	4	0	0	3	0
Williams, lf	3	0	2	2	0
Foxx, 1b	3	0	0	8	1
Tabor, 3b	4	0	0	1	3
Doerr, 2b	4	0	2	6	1
Cronin, ss	3	0	0	2	4
Desautels, c	4	0	0	5	1
Bagby, p	2	0	0	0	1
Ostermueller, p	1	0	0	0	0
DiMaggio, x	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	1	4	27	8

Batted for Ostermueller in 9th.

PHILADELPHIA	020 140 002—9
BOSTON	001 000 000—1

Errors—Siebert, Doerr. Runs batted in—Hayes 2, D. Miles 2, Rubeling 2, Simmons, Potter, Williams. Two base hits—Simmons, Hayes, Rubeling. Three base hit—Williams. Home runs—Hayes 2. Stolen base—Rubeling. Double plays—Brancato, McCoy and Siebert; Bagby and Cronin. Left on bases—Philadelphia 8, Boston 10. Bases on balls—off Potter 3, off Bagby 3, off Ostermueller 1. Struck out—by Potter 1, by Ostermueller 5, Hits off Bagby 9 in 4⅓ innings; off Ostermueller 6 in 4⅔. Losing pitcher—Bagby.

Holiday Favorite

Brewed with Mountain Spring Water

Steinhaus

The BEST BEER Yet!

LOUIS PASTEUR . . .

1822-1895. French chemist and scientist who made many valuable contributions to the control of bacteria in food, surgery and other fields. His theory on the control of fermentation of milk (pasteurization) was announced in 1860.

In 1860 Pasteurization was the new miracle of food chemistry!

Today— NU-BLUE SUNOCO is the new miracle of gasoline chemistry

1. AN AMAZING DISCOVERY

A pure petroleum product, made possible by a revolutionary new refining process.

2. PROVED MILEAGE

Proved unsurpassed in mileage . . . in recent scientific tests against 14 leading extra-priced gasolines. Tests conducted by nationally known Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory.

3. VERIFIED KNOCKLESS POWER

In an independent survey last fall, 1475 users of extra-priced gasolines voted 9 to 1 that Nu-Blue Sunoco equalled or excelled extra-priced gasolines in knockless power, pickup and all-around road performance.

4. NO EXTRA COST

Nu-Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price. Test a tankful.

TRULY NEW in the way it's made . . . in the way it performs!

Galento Favored To Win over Baer Tonight

Two Ton Suffers Gashed Chin but Agrees To Go On

Beer Glass Hurled by Brother Bashes "Beezer"

All Concerned Declare Injury Will Not Affect Him

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 1. (AP)—The case of the gashed chin, the final daffiest touch to an already hilarious set-up, was more or less cleared up today, and it appeared only the constabulary could prevent Tony Galento and Max Baer from keeping their fistic date in the local ball park tomorrow night.

A beer glass, thrown by Tony's brother, Russell, picked out Tony's chin in Galento's "soft-drink emporium" in Orange last night, and the results threatened for a time to force a postponement of the "Battle of the Bums." The glass sliced Tony's chin for about an inch, right where his dimple would be if he had a dimple.

A couple of doctors looked it over today however, and reported to State Boxing Commissioner Abe J. Greene that if the sliced chin was the only cut Tony received in there tomorrow from the playboy of the Pacific, he needn't worry. So, Greene asked Promoter Mike Jacobs and Herman Taylor, one of Two-Ton's managers how they felt about it. All hands, including Tony, decided the "minor abrasion" was not serious enough to keep this epic from an eager public.

Tony and Max both did a stretch of roadwork today to put the finishing touches on their training.

Inasmuch as this battle for the championship of the screwballs has a certain appeal to lovers of both the sublime and, the ridiculous, officials expect more than 30,000 and a gate flirting with the $150,000-mark.

Sliced chin and all, Galento still was the betting "cherce" tonight. The only change made by his little scrape was that the betting fraternity cut the price from 5-9 to 5-8 with Tony favored.

ADDS ANOTHER TITLE

Alice Marble, above, queen of the tennis courts, and Mary Arnold won the National Clay Courts ladies' doubles title in the finals played in Cincinnati. The pair won in a straight set victory over Helen Bernhard and Gracyn Wheeler, 6-3, 6-4.

Newsom Hangs Up 11th Victory with Chicago Victim

Detroit Takes 3 to 1 Win as Mound Ace Is in Top Form

DETROIT, July 1 (AP) — Louis (Buck) Newsom won his eleventh consecutive pitching victory today, holding Chicago White Sox batters to six hits and fanning seven as the Detroit Tigers won a 3-1 decision.

Except in the fourth inning when the Sox scored their only run, Newsom did not permit a single runner to pass second base.

Even the one Chicago run would not have scored except for an error by Dick Bartell, Detroit shortstop. After Mike Kreevich doubled, Newsom picked him off base with a throw to Bartell who tagged the runner but dropped the ball. Kreevich moved to third on a sacrifice and scored when Moose Solters singled.

Hank Greenberg batted in Detroit's first run in the first inning, his double scoring Charlie Gehringer who walked.

Gehringer tripled in the sixth and scored as Eric McNair fumbled Greenberg's grounder. A wild pitch sent Greenberg to second; he took third on a sacrifice and scored when Red Kress lifted a fly to center.

CHICAGO	AB	R	H	O	A
Webb, ss	4	0	0	1	3
Kreevich, cf	4	1	1	5	0
Kuhel, 1b	3	0	1	2	0
Solters, lf	4	0	2	2	0
Rosenthal, rf	4	0	1	3	0
McNair, 2b	4	0	0	3	0
Tresh, c	3	0	1	3	0
Kennedy, 3b	3	0	0	4	3
Rigney, p	2	0	0	0	0
Sylvestri, x	0	0	0	0	0
Appleton, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	31	1	6	24	5

x—Batted for Rigney in 8th.

DETROIT	AB	R	H	O	A
Bartell, ss	4	0	1	3	4
McCosky, cf	4	0	0	1	0
Gehringer, 2b	3	2	1	0	4
Greenberg, lf	3	1	2	1	0
York, 1b	3	0	0	12	0
Campbell, rf	3	0	0	1	0
Kress, 3b	4	0	1	2	3
Sullivan, c	2	0	0	7	1
Newsom, p	3	0	0	0	2
Totals	29	3	5	27	14

CHICAGO	000 100 000—1
DETROIT	100 002 00x—3

Errors—Bartell, McNair. Runs batted in—Greenberg 2, Kress, Solters. Two base hits—Greenberg, Kreevich. Three base hit—Gehringer. Sacrifices—Kuhel, Campbell. Double plays — Gehringer, Bartell and York. Left on bases—Chicago 5, Detroit 7. Bases on balls—off Rigney 4, off Newsom 1. Struck out—by Rigney 2, by Appleton 1, by Newsom 7. Hits—off Rigney 4 in 7 innings; off Appleton 1 in 1. Wild pitches—Rigney 2. Losing pitcher—Rigney.

DiMaggio Slower?

Detroit, July 1.—Del Baker believes Joe DiMaggio's knee still bothers him. The Detroit manager believes the Yankee center-fielder is a step or two slower than he was before he injured his knee in the spring.

considering his unfortunate start and all.

We talked with him down in Tampa this spring. He looked fine, said he felt fine, and that his arm trouble appeared to have vanished. But when he took the mound he had no more control than a marble on a platter.

Vander Meer is only 25, too young to start saying: "Now, when I was pitching in the majors..." All he needs is a thermostat for that fire ball of his.

Young Kid McCoy Sets Goal To Perpetuate Selby Monicker

DETROIT, July 1 — A few old-timers gathered around the ring, blinked their eyes and looked again as they watched a tousle-haired youngster box in a Detroit gymnasium last week.

His right hand had a peculiar yet familiar twist that brought back memories of a time when Kid McCoy was swaggering through life and beating down all opposition with his famed "corkscrew punch."

But the original "Kid" died a few months ago. He committed suicide because he couldn't stand this "troubled world." But he left behind a lad who is determined to make the name McCoy again the most feared in the ring.

Tuesday night the new McCoy—he calls himself "Young Kid McCoy" — reaches the first important step in his career. He fights Mansfield Driskell, a long-armed Negro with a stunning punch, for the Michigan welterweight title in Arena Gardens.

The modern Kid was born Adam Pianga twenty-one years ago in Dearborn, Mich., one of three sons in a poor, immigrant family. And when he was thirteen years old his path crossed that of Norman Selby, the real name of the original Kid McCoy.

Adam wanted to be a fighter and one of his neighbors was John McIntyre, now his manager. McIntyre, a former boxer, at that time worked in the Ford Motor Company with Selby.

McIntyre told the great McCoy of this youth who wanted to be a fighter. While they worked McCoy would tell McIntyre of the tricks and strategy he once used in the ring, and each night that information was passed on to young Adam.

This teaching by proxy went on for some time until one day the original McCoy decided to see the youngster. He watched one sparring session and then told the youth to adopt the name of McCoy.

"Kid, you're worthy of my name," he said.

The years spun by and the new McCoy worked hard developing the "corkscrew punch." He made a recent tour through the East and had great success. To date he has had forty fights, winning thirty-five, losing three by decisions and fighting two draws.

Ever since he first drew on gloves the young Kid has been working in the Ford stockroom. Last week, however, he decided he was good enough to devote his life to fighting. He quit his job and now is aiming at the world welterweight title.

BASEBALL'S BIG 6

By The Associated Press

Batting (Three leaders in each league)

PLAYER, CLUB	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Radcliff, Browns	64	247	38	91	.368
Danning, Giants	57	220	37	81	.368
Finney, Red Sox	58	259	44	93	.359
Walker, Dodgers	52	199	22	69	.347
McCosky, Tigers	58	240	55	82	.342
May, Phillies	53	188	23	62	.330
Gustine, Pirates	49	188	23	62	.330

HOME RUNS

American League		National League
Foxx, Red Sox	17	Mize, Cardinals	20
Trosky, Indians	17	Danning, Giants	11
Greenberg, Tigers	15	Fletcher, Pirates	11

RUNS BATTED IN

American League		National League
Greenberg, Tigers	63	Danning, Giants	55
Foxx, Red Sox	59	Mize, Cardinals	51
Walker, Senators	52	Fletcher, Pirates	50

Melton Wins His Seventh of Season

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Cliff Melton, one of the National League stars not chosen for the all-star game, rang up his seventh victory of the season today as the New York Giants overpowered the Boston Bees 7 to 1.

Melton, who has lost only one game, kept six hits scattered and struck out nine.

The Giants got only seven safeties off Al Piechota, but they included three home runs and a triple. Hank Danning, who batted in three of the victors' runs, hit his 11th homer, Mel Ott his sixth and Tony Cuccinello his third.

BOSTON	AB	R	H	O	A
Hassett, 1b	4	0	1	9	0
Sisti, 2b	4	1	2	1	1
E. Moore, rf	2	0	0	0	0
Ross, lf	4	0	1	2	0
Miller, ss	4	0	1	1	4
Glossop, 2b	3	0	1	3	3
West, cf	3	0	0	6	0
Berres, c	3	0	0	2	1
Piechota, p	3	0	0	0	2
Totals	30	1	6	24	11

NEW YORK	AB	R	H	O	A
Whitehead, 3b	4	0	0	1	3
Rucker, cf	4	0	0	3	0
J. Moore, rf	4	0	0	0	0
Young, 1b	3	3	2	8	0
Danning, c	3	2	1	9	1
Ott, rf	3	1	2	1	0
Cuccinello, 2b	4	1	1	2	2
Witek, ss	3	0	1	3	4
Melton, p	3	0	0	0	2
Totals	31	7	7	27	12

BOSTON	000 001 000—1
NEW YORK	020 202 01x—7

Errors—None. Runs batted in—Danning 3, Cuccinello, Miller, Ott 2, Witek. Three base hits—Glossop, Young. Home runs—Danning, Cuccinello, Ott. Stolen base—Miller. Sacrifice—E. Moore. Double play—Cuccinello, Witek and Young. Left on bases—New York 4, Boston 6. Bases on balls—off Melton 3, off Piechota 4. Struck out—by Melton 9, by Piechota 2.

Dodgers Push Way To 4-3 Triumph Over Philadelphia

Three Run Splurge Gives Brooklyn Win in Sloppy Game

PHILADELPHIA, July 1 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers pushed their way to a 4 to 3 triumph over the Phillies today in a sloppy session that was decided principally through a three-run first inning assault on Hugh Mulcahy.

The Dodgers were outhit, 8-7, but in that big first inning Cookie LaVagetto walked, Dixie Walker doubled, Joe Medwick tripled and scored on a wild pitch.

Brooklyn's other run crossed the plate in the fourth on one of two errors by Bobby Bragan. Two were on base and two were out at the time.

Tot Presnell gave up a run in the first on Ham Schulte's double and Chuck Klein's single. The Phils filled the bases in the fourth on a single, an error and a hit batsman and scored on an infield out. Their other run came in the seventh on an error, a single and a wild pitch.

BROOKLYN	AB	R	H	O	A
Reese, ss	5	0	0	2	5
Lavagetto, 3b	4	1	0	1	0
Walker, cf	3	1	2	2	0
Medwick, lf	4	1	1	5	0
Phelps, c	3	0	0	5	0
Camilli, 1b	4	0	0	7	0
Vosmik, rf	4	1	2	2	0
Coscarart, 2b	3	0	2	2	0
Presnell, p	3	0	0	0	1
Davis, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	4	7	27	9

PHILADELPHIA	AB	R	H	O	A
Schulte, 2b	5	1	1	2	3
Klein, rf	4	1	1	2	0
Mueller, lf	4	1	3	2	0
Rizzo, cf	5	0	1	2	0
May, 3b	3	0	1	0	2
Bragan, ss	4	0	0	2	5
Atwood, c	4	0	0	5	0
Mahan, 1b	3	0	1	12	0
Mulcahy, p	2	0	0	0	1
Berger, x	1	0	0	0	0
St. Johnson, p	0	0	0	0	1
Marty, xx	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	3	8	27	13

x—Batted for Mulcahy in 6th.
xx—Batted for St. Johnson in 9th.

BROOKLYN	300 100 000—4
PHILADELPHIA	100 100 100—3

Errors — Bragan 2, Reese, Coscarart. Runs batted in—Klein, Bragan, Walker, Medwick. Two base hits—Schulte, Walker. Three base hits — Medwick, Coscarart, Walker. Stolen base—Reese. Sacrifice—Presnell. Double plays—Coscarart, Reese and Camilli; Schulte, Bragan and Mahan 2. Left on bases—Philadelphia 10, Brooklyn 7. Bases on balls—off Mulcahy 3, off Pressnell 3. Struck out—by Pressnell 4, by Mulcahy 2, by St. Johnson 2. Hits—off Mulcahy 5 in 6 innings; off Pressnell 8 in 8⅓; off St. Johnson 2 in 3; off Davis 0 in ⅓. Hit by pitcher—by Mulcahy (Walker); by Pressnell (May). Wild pitches—Mulcahy, Pressnell. Winning pitcher—Pressnell. Losing pitcher—Mulcahy.

FASHION FOR FISHIN'

The ladies fishing in Atlantic City's ocean surf are upsetting the "old clothes" tradition so firmly adhered to by the male anglers. Here we see a young lady ready to entice the fish and she believes in doing it in style. Who knows? Maybe she's right!

Athletics Bang Ball and Batter Boston by 9 to 1

BOSTON, July 1 (AP)—The high-powered slugging of Frank Hayes, all-star game catcher, and Al Rubeling, whose combined total of seven hits went for 15 bases, enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to overwhelm the Red Sox, 9-1, in today's series opener.

Both of those A's had perfect days at bat but led the attack by knocking out two homers, a double and a single to score four runs and drive in three more. Rubeling connected for a two-bagger and a pair of singles.

PHILADELPHIA	AB	R	H	O	A
Brancato, ss	5	0	0	2	1
Moses, rf	4	0	0	2	0
McCoy, 2b	5	1	1	1	5
Simmons, lf	5	2	2	3	0
Siebert, 1b	5	1	2	8	0
Hayes, c	4	4	4	1	0
D. Miles, cf	5	0	2	5	0
Rubeling, 3b	3	0	1	0	2
Potter, p	5	0	1	0	0
Totals	41	9	13	27	12

BOSTON	AB	R	H	O	A
Finney, rf	5	1	1	5	0
Cramer, cf	5	0	0	2	0
Williams, lf	3	0	1	2	0
Tabor, 1b	4	0	2	9	0
Doerr, 2b	4	0	2	2	1
Cronin, ss	4	0	0	1	1
Desautels, c	4	0	1	5	1
Bagby, p	2	0	1	1	1
Ostermueller, p	1	0	0	0	0
DiMaggio, x	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	1	8	27	5

x—Batted for Ostermueller in 9th.

PHILADELPHIA	020 140 002—9
BOSTON	001 000 000—1

Errors—Siebert, Doerr. Runs batted in—Hayes 3, D. Miles 2, Rubeling 2, Simmons, Potter, Williams. Two base hits—Simmons, Hayes, Rubeling. Three base hit—Williams. Home runs—Hayes 2. Stolen base—Rubeling. Double plays—Brancato, McCoy and Seibert; Bagby and Cronin. Left on bases—Philadelphia 9, Boston 16. Bases on balls—off Potter 3, off Bagby 5, off Ostermueller 1. Struck out—by Potter 1, by Ostermueller 5. Hits off Bagby 9 in 4⅓ innings; off Ostermueller 8 in 4⅔. Losing pitcher—Bagby.

Holiday Favorite
Brewed with Mountain Spring Water
Steinhaus
The BEST BEER Yet!

The SPORT TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Johnny Vander Meer has gone back to the minors. The six-foot lad with the crinkly brown hair and hazel eyes has been optioned by the Reds to Indianapolis, and those who know him and recall his wholesome "why all the fuss?" manner in his brief hour of glory hope he'll be coming back up again soon.

Johnny Vander Meer never was a fellow to do things by halves. When it came to pitching a no-hit game, he didn't stop at one. He made it two in a row. When it came to having his tonsils removed, he had them removed three times. And when he was wild, he wasn't just wild. He was frantic.

Couldn't Find Plate

That wildness, combined with that bugaboo of pitchers vaguely referred to as a "sore arm," is responsible for his current step downward. He couldn't find the plate with a knife and fork, and it's not difficult to imagine gentle Deacon McKechnie calling him aside and saying:

"We're sending you to Indianapolis, John. We'll call you back here when you have had a chance to work out those kinks."

Johnny Vander Meer was just another young pitcher until June 11, 1938. He had a measure of fame in minor league ball. In fact, he had been named the No. 1 player of the minors in 1936 as a member of the Durham club of the Piedmont league.

But he was just another pitcher in 1938 until that June day when he blanked the Boston Bees without a hit. That alone was something, but when he followed it up four days later with the same kind of a performance against the Dodgers, he was the toast of baseball.

15 Wins, 10 Defeats

He kept his head, but not the stuff which enabled him to turn in his phenomenal performance. He did well in the all-star game of that year, but otherwise he was unimpressive, and his season's record was fifteen wins against ten losses.

Fate turned thumbs down on him before the 1939 season was under way. He was ill with the flu, and topped that with an operation for appendicitis. He missed all of the spring training, and when he finally did report, he wasn't the same Johnny Vander Meer.

He complained of a sore arm, but doctors could not discover what was wrong. Sometimes those things are in the mind, and just as real as if they existed. At any rate, he said it was sore, and he should know.

Poor Record Last Year

His record last year was five victories against nine defeats, but everyone made allowances for that,

LOUIS PASTEUR . . .
1822-1895. French chemist and scientist who made many valuable contributions to the control of bacteria in food, surgery and other fields. His theory on the control of fermentation of milk (pasteurization) was announced in 1860.

In 1860 Pasteurization was the new miracle of food chemistry!

Today— NU-BLUE SUNOCO is the new miracle of gasoline chemistry

1. AN AMAZING DISCOVERY
A pure petroleum product, made possible by a revolutionary new refining process.

2. PROVED MILEAGE
Proved unsurpassed in mileage . . . in recent scientific tests against 14 leading extra-priced gasolines. Tests conducted by nationally known Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory.

3. VERIFIED KNOCKLESS POWER
In an independent survey last fall, 1475 users of extra-priced gasolines voted 9 to 1 that Nu-Blue Sunoco equalled or excelled extra-priced gasolines in knockless power, pickup and all-around road performance.

4. NO EXTRA COST
Nu-Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price. Test a tankful.

TRULY NEW in the way it's made . . . in the way it performs!

Bosley To Saddle 12 Horse String In Bel Air Meet

Flat Racers and Jumpers In Group under His Care

BEL AIR, Md., July 1.—John Bosley, who is making a name for himself as trainer of both steeplechase and flat horses, will campaign twelve horses for various owners during the ten days racing here, July 24 to August 3, inclusive.

Heading the flat runners that Bosley will race is W. S. Sprague's Erada, winner of four races this year. This six year old brown gelded son of Masked Marvel 2nd and Artistic has won this year at a mile and one sixteenth, a mile and one eighth and a mile and one quarter. He can also jump, therefore, Trainer Bosley is considering starting him through the field before the session ends.

In addition to Erada, Bosley will strive for purses with Maitland Riely's Senoria, A. S. Sprague's Bud's Light, William Elder's Capstick, Miss Sara Bosley's Last Chase, Mrs. Van Lear Black's Furr Buckle and Pleasant Lady, John Bosley's Artist and Caffeine.

Trainer Bosley has signed Willie Dufford to do his flat riding. He plans to go to New York and Delaware in a few days to sign a capable steeplechase jockey to handle the leppers he is bringing over from his farm at Monkton. Judging by the string he will campaign here, Bosley is the one they all have to whip for the leading winning trainer's crown.

Sophia (Toby) Flammia of Richmond, Va., wired that he will bring Stand By, Timber Storm, Chief Hollis, Pandoramint and Queen Meadow over from Charles Town, West Va., for Owner E. H. Titmus of Richmond, Va. Pandoramint, winner of three races this year, is the "ace" of Flammia's stable. He is seeking a call on Jockey Al Veselli, who will also do the booting for Owner-Trainer Victor P. Noyes

(Continued on Page Ten)

Race Selections

Delaware Selections

FIRST RACE—Fitmiss, Light Of Morn, Druidesse II.
SECOND—Briar Bird, Izarra, Leonardtown.
THIRD—Mad Policy, Tarbrush, Horner Wood.
FOURTH — War Hazard, Weatherite, Bud's Bell, Sky Lawyer.
SIXTH — Quatredom, Cheer Me, Busy Fingers.
SEVENTH—Love Mark, Furr Buckle, Hide.
EIGHTH—Alsang, Jolly Glag, Brandon Prince.

Empire City Selections

(For Fast Track)

FIRST RACE—Egress, Cody, Mahdi.
SECOND—Latour, Albiona, Tarot.
THIRD—Idle Sun, Naadja, Grand Duke.
FOURTH — Inkling, Ara-Ornis, Perfect Love.
FIFTH—De Icer, Great Albert, Dungeon.
SIXTH—Sun Fox, Watersplash, Mintson.
SEVENTH — Sweepstaff, Conde Rico, Capt. James.
BEST BET—Inkling.

Suffolk Downs Selections

(For Fast Track)

FIRST RACE—Night Glow, Milk And Honey, Stolen Tryst.
SECOND — Count Fitz, Inconceivable, Meadow Gold.
THIRD—Rough Brigade, Air Actress, Ever After.
FOURTH — Sargazo, Xanthein, Grandeem.
FIFTH—Domkin, Bright Trace, Limitation.
SIXTH—Dolly Val, Orcades, Flying Lee.
SEVENTH—Totache, Dark Melus, The Loom.
EIGHTH—Blackbirder, Reminding, Pepper Patch.

Charles Town Selections

(For Sloppy Track)

FIRST RACE—Smoke Gal, Sun Scene, Don Barr.
SECOND—Golden Key, Chide, John Werring.
THIRD—Night Rider, Welsh Star, Mariyah.
FOURTH—Royal Veil, Rare Gem, Doctor's Nurse.
FIFTH—Dixie S, Amerlee, Top Shell.
SIXTH—Prince Turley, Hi-Blaze, Lickety Split.
SEVENTH—Khils, Sea Finn, Zump.
EIGHTH—Pencader, Trixie Lass, Hickory Lad.
NINTH—Bubbleworth, Goldun, Counter Pass.
TENTH — Frederick, Last Revue, Way Out.

Scratches

Delaware Park Scratches

FIRST RACE — High Plume, Quizzle, Bacon Princess, Bar Ship, Homeward Bound, Nargilleh.
SECOND RACE — Democracy, Sistaur, Black Grouse, Night Watch, Kermess, Mr. Duncannon.
THIRD RACE—Redlander, Danny D'-ster, Blanket, Frozen North.
FOURTH RACE—Serrano.
FIFTH RACE — Miss Brideaux, Discouraged.
SIXTH RACE—Red Lad, Sting Pal, In Memory, Brown Knight, Barbed Retort, Syracuse, Sure Touch.
SEVENTH RACE—Donas Pal, Kimesha, Cafe Society, olly Macdun, Vallia, Cherry's Child.
EIGHTH RACE—Lizzie, Scoria, Flying Zelma, Hustle Home, Fair Rock, Upset Dove.

Empire City Scratches

FIRST RACE — Ebony Fly, Grindine, Toneypandy, Be Prepared.
SECOND RACE—Laugh and Play.
THIRD RACE—Offender.
FOURTH RACE — Middecombe, Cynic Miss.
FIFTH RACE—North Anna.
SIXTH RACE—Ballyhaste.
SEVENTH RACE — Portet, Borrowed Time, Definer.

Suffolk Downs Scratches

FIRST RACE—Jacquella, Indiana Spa.
SECOND RACE—Twinkatys, Miss Chris.
THIRD RACE — Chancer, Bobbin, Ball O' Fire, Carnarvon.
FOURTH RACE—High Fair.
FIFTH RACE—Doubt Not.
SIXTH RACE—Sassy Lady.
SEVENTH RACE—Saxonian.
EIGHTH RACE—Eva R, Liberty's Love, Sea Gull, Bad Day.

Charles Town Scratches

FIRST RACE—Blenheim Rose, Lady Science, Duck Blind, Stormy Passage, Swift Light, War Target.
SECOND—Barraca, Irish Vote, Blind Talk, Lapis, Jumulus, Last Scamp.
THIRD—Marshall A, Prairie Prince, Shining Knight, Miss Anderby, Wahl, Gray Glean.
FOURTH—Time Saver, Wam, Man At Arms, Ivonia, Rock Miss, Nanci's Best.
FIFTH—Romney Royal, Little Harpist, Beaming Lady.
SIXTH—Tobias, Ann Groucher, Spout Run, Counora, Hi Blaze, Cat's Cradle.
SEVENTH—Black Demon, Lacy Miss, Huppy, Sylacauga.
EIGHTH—Kai Vin, Stingaree, Blue Boo, Super John, Star On, Sea Finn.

Other Sports on Page 10

Race Entries Results Scratches and Selections

Charles Town Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse $400; allowances, for 2-year-olds; four an da half furlongs.

Don Barr	113	Lord Longworth	113
xMiss Roxie	105	Coulander	113
xSmoke Gal	110	Tellemoff	116
Valentine Ann	110	Arrow Lady	110
Sun Scene	119	xGlitter Girl	110
xBanbury Belle	105	Fred's First	118
Kneepin	110	Danzig	110

aHillbrook Farm and Royston entry.

SECOND—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs.

xAnchors Down	107	John Werring	112
Little Schley	112	xRoving Eye	119
xChide	113	xKing Dominant	107
Golden Key	124	Countermarch	113
Georgetown	112	Nay Nay	107
Harp O' Gold	107	Frostbite	107
Regal Sun	118	Rocky Mount	118

THIRD—Purse $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

xNight Rider	106	Salburne	110
Bienheim Rose	100	Kamari	100
Swift Light	104	Hurdy Gurdy	106
Mariyah	104	Beacon Queen	110
Congo Prince	109	xRide J	101
xWelsh Star	110	xPumice Stone	101
Devils Broth	105	Olivilo	100

FOURTH—Purse $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; Charles Town course (120 feet more than six furlongs).

Schley Al	108	Happy Host	110
Royal Veil	112	xXmas Carol	100
Cats Cradle	109	Radio Wave	105
Rare Gem	113	xWar Target	99
Runout	110	Din	110
Doctors Nurse	115	Ace Of Trumps	116
Canzock	112	Grand Waltz	99

FIFTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

Betwick	115	Col. Hatchfield	111
Deodo	115	Dacotah	110
xAmerlee	110	xGold Sweep	110
xNanels Best	99	Expected Belle	100
Miss Kantar	100	Lucky Jean	106
Top Shell	106	Netta Wood	100
xSome Groucher	110
Dixie S	106

SIXTH—Purse $500; allowances; for 3-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs.

Hi-Blaze	116	Lickety Split	107
xPrince Turley	111	Wicka	103
xMiss Wing	106	xCharming Boy	114
Yum Yum	103	Miss Maker	107
xRoyal Dot	105	Conamista	103
Mr. Chain	108

SEVENTH—Purse $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth.

Quaternary	116	Abbots Lark	111
Edgemont	113	xBentaur	113
xExtra Good	103	Dear Gracie	108
xEblis	108	Ira L	113
xChief Evergreen	111	xTightwad	108
Zump	116	Goantell	111
xSea Finn	106	Cupids Arrow	113

EIGHTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds an up; mile and an eighth.

Lateral Pass	115	xAylward	116
Pencader	115	Custer	115
xMarbrian	110	xLake Shore	110
xSnow Girl	110	Wander Bird	110
Lady Grandace	103	Lucky Roll	113
Trixie Lass	116	Count Me	115
Hickory Lad	115	xReal Money	110

NINTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth. (Substitute, to be used if needed.)

xLecture	108	xChilly Sbbie	103
Goldun	116	Overplay	113
xSmada	103	Nugget	116
Channing	116	Stepping In	116
xBubbleworth	111	xRouge Catalan	111
Local Boy	113	xBlue Cyclone	106
Counter Pass	111	Cora Kay	108

TENTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs. Substitute, to be used if needed.)

xLady Buck	105	xPeetomar	113
xLast Revue	107	xBalkanese	113
Way Out	113	Remolee	124
Frederick	124	Prosit	124
Happy Marlene	107	Goodwin	119
Ann Groucher	107	Tavern	118
xLeading Ways	102	Vee Eight	118

xFive pounds appretice allowance claimed.
First Post—2:30 p. m.

Delaware Park Results

FIRST RACE—Duces Wild, $12.10, $4.90, $3.90; Indie Pass, $3.30, $2.80; Ophelia, $4.20.
SECOND RACE—Counsuello, $8.20, $3.70, $2.60; Rolls Buzzy, $9.10, $4.50; Escohigh, $2.60.
THIRD RACE—Deanslaw, $6.00, $4.30, $2.90; Farragut, $5.20, $3.30; Sussex, $2.90.
FOURTH RACE—Furlough, $12.40, $4.60, $3.00; The Mount, $2.80, $2.40; Ceiling Zero, $2.70.
FIFTH RACE—Prince Valiant, $28.30, $10.40, $6.30; Ballarosa, $6.40, $4.60; Maesaca, $7.00.
SIXTH RACE — Head Hunter, $4.20, $3.20, $2.70; Bull Terrier, $4.80, $3.00; Royal Teddy, $2.90.
SEVENTH RACE—Nicky, $10.20, $5.30, $4.00; Crossvine, $7.90, $4.50; Eight Rolls, $6.80.
EIGHTH RACE—Walkon, $12.70, $7.00, $5.00; Sky Hostess, $38.40, $9.30; Gimpey, $11.50.

Charles Town Results

FIRST RACE—Jewell Song, $4.40, $2.80, $3.40; Ace Chance, $5.40, $4.20; Connamista, $3.40.
SECOND RACE—Blue Prelude, $15.20, $6.40, $3.60; Lady Solace, $5.60, $3.40; Mighty Busy, $2.00.
THIRD RACE—Star Mint, $8.40, $4.20, $3.40; Gay Jack, $4.20, $3.20; Postponement, $3.20.
DAILY DOUBLE—Blue Prelude and Star Mint paid $125.60 for $2.
FOURTH RACE—Small Change, $16.80, $7.80, $4.20; Sun Voter, $5.00, $3.20; Molasses Julia, $2.60.
FIFTH RACE—Red Wrack, $9.40, $3.60, $2.20; a-Vendors Lein, $2.60, $2.20; Irish Moon, $2.20.
a-Vendors Lein-Caldon entry.
SIXTH RACE—Luly Khayyam, $10.00, $4.80, $3.60; Dabs Tilden, $8.20, $5.40; Happy Hostess, $4.60.
SEVENTH RACE—Darby Du, $6.60, $4.20, $3.20; Chalotaur, $4.80, $3.60; Petite Lad, $3.40.
EIGHTH RACE—Hagerstown Boy, $6.20, $10.40, $5.20; The Swagman, $6.00, $4.60; Dian, $3.00.

Delaware Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 2-year-olds; five and a half furlongs.

Sunington	110	Druidesse II	107
Fitmiss	107	Beneksar	107
aBar Ship	110	Sir Broadside	110
aLight Of Morn	111	Secret Summons	107
Poneio	107	Queat D'Or	104
Dosage	107	Bright Goldie	107
Running Lights	110

aL. C. Luth-Edgar G. Horn entry.

SECOND—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs.

Dan's Folly	105	aLevena	107
Izarra	113	Graeme Park	113
Briar Bird	114	Golden Dial	109
Paradise Girl	105	Leonardtown	108
Career Girl	105	Catstar	105
Hillthorn	105	Witchfin	110
Razacla	112	Innovia	105
Summer Stock	105	Circus Wings	105
xaMarin	110	Daddy	110

aMrs. D. K. Kerr-H. R. Dullaney entry.

THIRD — Purse $1,000; Steeplechase Handicap, for 4-year-olds and up; about two miles.

Mad Policy	151	Bois Chabot	134
Yemase	138	Big Rbet	136
Tarbrush	137	Horner Wood	138

FOURTH—Purse $1,000; for 2-year-old maiden fillies; five and a half furlongs.

bAdmiralette	117	aMitza	117
xbWar Hazard	112	Nargileh	117
Weatherite	117	Daring Lady	117
Misty Eye	117	Locked Out	117
Landfall	117	Valley Belle	117
Swynstan	117	Queens Barge	117
xMachree	115

aMr. and Mrs. J. V. Stewart entry.
bGlen Riddle Farm entry.

FIFTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; six furlongs.

Wise Shine	116	Wintona	109
xMy Lawyer	116	She Knows	112
Fair Rock	109	Eltonhead	118
Santiago	112	Black Grouse	114
Dark Friend	114	Shall We Dance	109
Dorothy Pomp	112	Patsey Begone	112
Broomoria	119	The Miamian	114
Riotous	111	Bud's Bell	112
Speed Ship	109	Mugai	109

SIXTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-old fillies; mile and seventy yards.

xInterlace	106	Streamer	111
xWildmute	108	Irish Mirth	108
Challante	111	Pamunkey	108
Cheer Me	113	Quatredom	111
Busy Fingers	113

SEVENTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; mile and a sixteenth.

Hide	110	Questre	112
Donas Pal	115	Love Mark	110
Furr Buckle	110	Polly Macdun	107
xMac's Cantor	107	Cafe Society	110
Nick	112	Kittiwake	107
xJabiru	104

EIGHTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and an eighth.

Alsang	113	Chainwick	108
xJolly Flag	115	xUpset Dove	103
xEaster Holiday	115	Pallee	113
Scarlet O	108	Mason B	113
Red Label	108	Time Beater	113
Hustle Home	108	Sun Victor	113
Maimaison	113	Actress	115
Brilliant One	120	Bright Gem	115
Brandon Prince	113	Capstan	113

x5 pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
First Post—2 P. M.
Weather clear; track fast.

Suffolk Downs Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse 1,000; maidens; for 2-year-olds; five furlongs.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

Blumere	115	Rough News	115
Night Glow	115	Jumna	115
Milk And Honey	115	Stolen Tryst	115
xaDeitor Music	110	Jug Heels	115
Rebbina	115	xaYesteryear	110
Bernardine	115	Bettie Nux	115
In Sang	115	xWeaving Thru	110

aProctor and Crinn entry.

SECOND—Purse $1,000; claiming; maidens; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs (chute).

Mister Maor	116	Count Fitz	106
Candrillon	103	Pari Curtis	106
Sun High	116	Rexair	110
Meadow Gold	105	Indiana Spa	116
Secret Service	101	xArdour	105
xIlconceivable	105	Brave Light	106

THIRD—Purse $1,000; claimin ; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs (chute).

Ever After	110	Rough Brigade	120
Baggrave	112	xCopin	110
Pluto	112	xAir Actress	105
Knitetta	110	xSet	107
Flash Flash	107	Last Rose	113
Smilin Jack	108	High Fair	110
Race Rider	112

FOURTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; six furlongs (chute).

Lisson Lad	115	Rippler	112
xBargazo	107	West Acre	111
Grandeem	113	Chance	111
Xanthein	112	Repeller	112
Bucket Head	112	Night Alarm	112

FIFTH—Purse $1,300; Grade C Handicap; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs (chute).

Domkin	120	Monida	104
Limitation	110	xPari Earnest	110
Evanded	112	Bright Trace	107
xCharitable	113	Gambit	112

SIXTH—Purse $1,500; Chearton Handicap; for 3-year-olds and up; mile.

Housework	105	Dolly Val	116
Sketchbook	104	Flying Lee	109
Trina	104	Orcades	109

SEVENTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; mile and a sixteenth.

Victory March	112	Darkmelus	111
xNoodles	97	xMichillinda	101
Success Story	110	The Loom	107
Totache	112	Miss Mogul	107
Shasta Mollie	105

EIGHTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a quarter.

Brass Monkey	110	Pedant	105
Pepper Patch	100	Sandwrack	110
xRayeart	105	Blackbirder	110
Klevs Pennant	110	xCrafty Fox	105
Idolon	110	Reminding	105

x5 pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
First Post—1:15 P. M.

Suffolk Downs Results

FIRST RACE—Red Rouge, $4.40, $2.80, $2.40; Devils Pace, $4.40, $3.20; Congrierron, $2.60.
SECOND RACE — Nospil, $8.00, $4.40, $3.00; Gertrude K, $15.00, $5.20; Overflowing, $2.60.
DAILY DOULE—Red Rouge and Nospil paid $26.00 for $2.
THIRD RACE—Erin Torch, $7.00, $3.60, $3.00; Madison, $3.20, $2.60; Sun Antioch, $3.40.
FOURTH RACE — Army Song, $4.40, $2.80, $2.40; Purcellville, $3.40, $2.80; Carrie, $4.80.
FIFTH RACE—Prairie Dog, $4.60, $3.00, $2.40; Zoic, $6.00, $3.40; Indian Lodge, $3.80.
SIXTH RACE—Speed To Spare, $4.40, $2.60, $2.20; Allegro, $3.00, $2.40; Dona Leona, $2.40.
SEVENTH RACE—Sun Breeze, $16.80, $9.60, $8.00; Bow And Arrow, $11.40, $7.60; Top Queen, $7.20.
EIGHTH RACE — San Antiocs, $6.00, $3.80, $2.60; Bereit, $4.80, $3.20; Wee Bag, $4.80.

Empire City Results

FIRST RACE—Dixie Man, $11.10, $6.50, $4.40; Merry Marine, $10.90, $5.00; Michigan Flyer, $3.90.
SECOND RACE—Highland Queen, $6.30, $4.30, $3.50; Milk Bar, $23.70, $11.80; Flu Gent, $5.00.
THIRD RACE—Bright Sonina, $6.80, $4.20, $3.00; Fire Marshall, $2.40.
FOURTH RACE — Dividend, $205.70, $55.20, $20.00; Kiosk, $9.90, $6.90; Dogana, $4.10.
FIFTH RACE — Fenelon, $3.90, $3.00, $2.20; Skin Deep, $4.10, $2.60; Call To Colors, $2.40.
SIXTH RACE—Plot, $60.40, $18.40, $7.80; Gay Troubador, $11.80, $6.10; Dark May, $4.00.
SEVENTH RACE—Microphobia, $15.30, $7.90, $6.40; Sun Mica, $8.30, $5.50; Shambles, $4.50.

Arlington Entries

FIRST RACE — Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs.

Buttons B	110	Macawlee	110
Tonyman	115	Connie Ann	110
Sir Franklin	109	xMorning Mail	107
Deep Summer	104	xPeter Pumpkin	107
Dons Nutter	110	Matchless	104
Anark	110	xOur Haven	102
Honey Roll	112	xMiss Lampley	102
Divided Skirt	107	xKosse	107
Some Polly	101	xBlaufuss	107

SECOND—Purse $1,000; for maiden 2-year-olds; five and one-half furlongs.

Simalaris	108	My Bobby	111
Happy Khayyam	111	xPuck	103
Second Sound	116	Black Fairy	108
Just Verdict	108	Miss Discovery	113
Art Of War	111	Lucky Major	111
Valdina Luxury	108	Birka Boy	111
Gretchen B	113	Ladies First	108
Neutrality	116	Like Greenock	111
Aljack	111	xAgronomy	116

THIRD—Purse $1,000; maidens; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs.

aValita	111	xStray Chord	106
Miss Sun Valley	111	xFair Jule	106
xLexbrook	111	Mouser	111
xPyrexin	111	Blue Flyer	116
bLady Delight	111	Westerns Sun	116
Black Cherry	111	Sidetrack	116
Ranger II	116	Valdina Jack	116
xGrey Pertors	111	bWauchula	116
Van	116	aToney Butler	116

aImburgio and Doyle entry.
bMrs. Thelma Ott entry.

FOURTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs.

My Jock	112	xJoe W.	102
xKay Diane	103	xWinkle	97
Duck Stans	107	Maenarva	107
Mingling	113

FIFTH—Purse $1,000; allowances; for 2-year-olds; five and a half furlongs.

Hi Pov	118	bEpiget	115
Flying Streak	115	Dekalb	118
Buckboard	118	bAir Hostess	108
Darby Dulcet	113	aValdina Groom	118
aValdina Paul	111	xWhirlaway	111
Pate's Boy	118	Silvestra	115

aValdina Farm entry. bThomas Piatt entry.

SIXTH—Purse $1,200; allowance; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

Bayview	109	Balmy Spring	112
Tunica	109	Robert I.	109
Raphael II	106	Connaught	106
xValdina Star	104

SEVENTH— Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

Al Au Feu	113	Air Flame	113
Gold Flag	109	xCount Morse	108
Sir Jim James	113	xSmart Crack	103
xMatch Up	108	Predicate	110
American Byrd	113	xBalinderry	98
Busy Morn	111

EIGHTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; mile and an eighth.

Dead Calm	110	Inviting	118
xDeduce	113	Sweet Adeline	105
Adoress	105	Diabroom	118
Utica	115	Knee Deep	105
Kandahar	118	Worpoise	110

NINTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs. (Substitute, to be used if needed.)

Empty Bottle	112	xMarbold	110
xImeblue	107	Purple Wrack	115
xLingerawhile	105	Hard Biscuit	105
Prince Torch	112	Good Soldier	115
xPerryboat	110	xBarbara S	105
Fly Ahead	112	Band O Silver	109
Abanico	107	Melva Jane	107
Idaho Maid	110	xOK Mullen	104
xRich Cream	102	xSweepsoan	102

xFive pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
First Post—2:15 p. m.
Weather clear; track fast.

Empire City Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; about six furlongs.

Mahdi, Richards			120
Transvine, Nash			114
Hardy, no boy			114
Steam Roller, no boy			114
Mr. Knick, no boy			114
Epwar, Roberts			114
Cody, Arcaro			114
Golden Vein, no boy			118
Tgress, no boy			114
Peggy Mine, no boy			109

Also Eligible—Tedall, Gilbert, 114; xKey Man, no boy, 115; Gennaro, no boy, 118; Elwawa, Anderson, 114; Gold Buckle, Roberts, 114; Brannon, no boy, 114.

SECOND—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 2-year-old fillies; five furlongs.

Bellewick, Meade			110
All Gray, Anderson			114
Tarot, Woolf			118
Stadium, Roberts			118
Tessie, Schmidt			114
Our Sal, no boy			110
Selanni, Stout			110
Our Grace, Bailey			110
Albiona, Richards			118
Coy Vixen, Eccard			110
Basila, Johnson			110
Latour, Sheihamer			118

Also Eligible—Sting-Me-Not, Gilbert, 118; Jassion, E. Arcaro, 114; My Dottie, Huff, 110; xHup Nancy, Warren, 105; Lady Haste, no boy, 110; Super Show, Johnson, 110.

THIRD—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth.

Cross Question, Huff			116
Idle Sun, Eccard			113
Quince, Anderson			116
Naadja, E. Arcaro			111
Knight's Haven, Barba			114
Grand Duke, Woolf			122

FOURTH — Purse $1,200; the Wistful; maidens; for 3-year-olds and up; fillies and mares; about six furlongs.

Ara-Ornis, no boy			115
Dusky Girl, Richards			115
Recoy, Roberts			115
Inkling, Meade			115
Abyssinia, Arcaro			115
Charlene, Barba			115
Black Gnat, no boy			115
Blue Tack, Stout			115
Perfect Love, Eccard			115
xInnuendo, S. Renick			110

Also Eligible—Chaipeggy, no boy, 115.

FIFTH—Purse $1,500; claiming; for 3-year-olds; about six furlongs.

Dungeon, Arcaro			113
Stepinfred, no boy			113
Countrglow, Anderson			116
Great Albert, Stout			113
Dudie, Barba			113
Harry's Pal, J. Renick			116
xGrandee, Canning			111
Last Frontier, Nash			113
Winged Hoofs, Roberts			113
North Anna, Meade			111

Also Eligible—De Icer, Schmidl, 116; Wood Chopper, Shelhamer, 116.

SIXTH—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth (first division).

Clap In, J. Renick			113
Count Sneezy, Roberts			102
White Label, Gilbert			117
Mintson, no boy			117
xBe Prepared, no boy			93
Sun Fox, Meade			113
Attracting, Finnegan			102
Perth Amboy, Castille			113
Watersplash, Anderson			108

SEVENTH—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth (division of sixth race).

Captain James, Anderson			117
Baby Talk, no boy			113
Sweepstaff, Arcaro			117
Billy's Folly, Nash			108
Yannie Sid, Roberts			110
Conde Rico, Meade			117
Orchids Next, Tryon			108
Modern Age, no boy			113
xThe Queen, Boyle			103

x5 pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather clear; track fast.
First Post—1:15 P. M.

Hick's Aces Win

Hick's Aces defeated the Senators yesterday at Golden Field, 4 to 3, for their fifth straight win in the East Side League. Smith, Nailor and Yates led the Aces' attack with Bernard and Davis showing the way for the Senators.

Line score:—

SENATORS	000	120	000	3	12	0
HICK'S ACES	001	200	001	4	16	3

Bernard and Valentine; Nailor and Yates.

Police Boys Club Wins 8-1

The Police Boys Club topped Potomac News Co. ten yesterday 8-1, on the Community diamond. Lashorn with three hits and Reihert led the victors. While Troutman and Perkins had four of the losers' hits. Wilkinson gave up five

Line score:—

P. B. C.	101	041	1	8	9	0
P. N. Co.	000	000	1	1	5	1

Wilkinson and McMullen, Conway (6), Shears and Roberts.

PRICE SMASHING 4TH
METRO'S TROPICAL SUITS
AT LOWEST PRICES IN TOWN!

Men! Save dollars on a smart light weight, all wool tropical worsted suit . . . Snappy single and double breasted styles. Light and dark shades. All sizes. Dress up for the "4th."

$11.95

Men's Famous College Park SUITS $14.50 $16.50 All New! All Styles!

Men! Save Up To 50% Special Group SUITS Reg. values to $19.50. Light and dark shades. $10

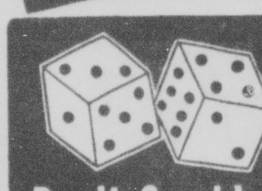

MEN'S STRAW HATS ..... 79¢ & $1.00
MEN'S SWIM TRUNKS, from ..... 95¢
MEN'S POLO SHIRTS, from ..... 49¢
Men's Summer Shoes and Oxfords ..... $1.95 up
Men's Slacks or Work Pants ..... $1.00 up
Men's Summer Slack Sets ..... $1.95 up
Cool, washable. Smart and comfortable. Best values in town.

METRO STORE
Men's and Boy's Wear Cor. Balto. and Mech. Sts.
OPEN EVENINGS

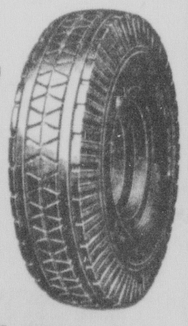

USE YOUR CREDIT TO ENJOY SAFE DRIVING

Keep most of your cash for your vacation—and still make your vacation safer and more enjoyable. Have some of these tough Armorubber Kellys put on today. Take as long as 20 weeks to pay. Terms

Don't Gamble!
Equip all around with tough
KELLY Springfield TIRES
Buy them on our HANDY PAY PLAN!

AS LOW AS 38¢ Per Week

Kelly-Springfield tires are guaranteed — not for 12 months, not for 18 months, but for their full long life. You must be satisfied and we're here to see that you are.

See Jim Weber Budget Manager
The Kelly-Springfield Service Store
119 SOUTH MECHANIC STREET
Cumberland, Md.

BIG 4th of JULY SALE

Firestone STANDARD

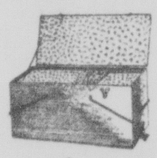

$7.77 6.00-16 AND YOUR OLD TIRE

SIZE	PRICE
4.40/4.50-21	$5.58
4.75/5.00-19	5.78
5.25/5.50-17	7.08
6.00-16	7.77

Price Includes Your Old Tire. Other Sizes Priced Proportionately Low

LUBRICATION SAVES WEAR AND TEAR ON YOUR CAR AND POCKETBOOK — Let us prepare your car for your HOLIDAY TRIP with our Engineered Lubrications by experts.

REFRIGERATED PICNIC BOXES

$1.39 up
Just the thing for that Fourth of July Picnic Lunch.

SPORTING GOODS

Bosley To Saddle 12 Horse String In Bel Air Meet

Flat Racers and Jumpers In Group under His Care

BEL AIR, Md., July 1.—John Bosley, who is making a name for himself as trainer of both steeplechase and flat horses, will campaign twelve horses for various owners during the ten days racing here, July 24 to August 3, inclusive.

Heading the flat runners that Bosley will race is W. S. Sprague's Erada, winner of four races this year. This six year old brown gelded son of Masked Marvel 2nd and Artistic has won this year at a mile and one sixteenth, a mile and one eighth and a mile and one quarter. He can also jump, therefore, Trainer Bosley is considering starting him through the field before the session ends.

In addition to Erada, Bosley will strive for purses with Maitland Riely's Senoria, A. S. Sprague's Bud's Light, William Elder's Capstick, Miss Sara Bosley's Last Chase, Mrs. Van Lear Blac's Furr Buckle and Pleasant Lady, John Bosley's Artist and Caffeine.

Trainer Bosley has signed Willie Dufford to do his flat riding. He plans to go to New York and Delaware in a few days to sign a capable steeplechase jockey to handle the leppers he is bringing over from his farm at Monkton. Judging by the string he will campaign here, Bosley is the one they all have to whip for the leading winning trainer's crown.

Sophia (Toby) Flammia of Richmond, Va., wired that he will bring Stand By, Timber Storm, Chief Hollis, Pandoramint and Queen Meadow over from Charles Town, West Va., for Owner E. H. Titmus of Richmond, Va. Pandoramint, winner of three races this year, is the "ace" of Flammia's stable. He is seeking a call on Jockey Al Veselli, who will also do the booting for Owner-Trainer Victor P. Noyes

(Continued on Page Ten)

Race Selections

Delaware Selections

FIRST RACE—Fitmiss, Light Of Morn, Druidesse II.
SECOND—Briar Bird, Izarra, Leonardtown.
THIRD—Mad Policy, Tarbrush, Horner Wood.
FOURTH — War Hazard, Weatherite.
FIFTH—Bud's Bell, Wise Shine, My Lawyer.
SIXTH — Quatredom, Cheer Me, Busy Fingers.
SEVENTH—Love Mark, Furr Buckle, Ride.
EIGHTH—Alsang, Jolly Glag, Brandon Prince.

Empire City Selections

(For Fast Track)
FIRST RACE—Egress, Cody, Mahdi.
SECOND—Latour, Albiona, Tarot.
THIRD—Idle Sun, Naadja, Grand Duke.
FOURTH — Inkling, Ara-Ornie, Perfect Love.
FIFTH—De Icer, Great Albert, Dungeon.
SIXTH—Sun Fox, Watersplash, Mintson.
SEVENTH — Sweepstaff, Conde Rico, Capt. James.
BEST BET—Inkling.

Suffolk Downs Selections

(For Fast Track)
FIRST RACE—Night Glow, Milk And Honey, Stolen Tryst.
SECOND — Count Fitz, Inconceivable, Meadow Gold.
THIRD—Rough Brigade, Air Actress, Ever After.
FOURTH — Sargazo, Xanthein, Grandeem.
FIFTH—Domkin, Bright Trace, Limitation.
SIXTH—Dolly Val, Orcades, Flying Lee.
SEVENTH—Totache, Dark Melus, The Loom.
EIGHTH—Blackbirder, Reminding, Pepper Patch.

Charles Town Selections

(For Sloppy Track)
FIRST RACE—Smoke Gal, Sun Scene, Don Barr.
SECOND—Golden Key, Chide, John Werring.
THIRD—Night Rider, Welsh Star, Mariyah.
FOURTH—Royal Veil, Rare Gem, Doctor's Nurse.
FIFTH—Dixie S, Amerlee, Top Shell.
SIXTH—Prince Turley, Hi-Blaze, Lickety Split.
SEVENTH—Ebils, Sea Finn, Zump.
EIGHTH—Pencader, Trixie Lass, Hickory Lad.
NINTH—Bubbleworth, Goldun, Counter Pass.
TENTH — Frederick, Last Revue, Way Out.

Scratches

Delaware Park Scratches

FIRST RACE — High Plume, Quizzle, Saxon Princess, Bar Ship, Homeward Bound, Narghileh.
SECOND RACE — Democracy, Sistaur, Black Grouse, Night Watch, Kermess, Mr. Duncannon.
THIRD RACE—Rediander, Danny D., Over, Blanket, Frozen North.
FOURTH RACE—Serrano.
FIFTH RACE — Miss Brideaux, Discouraged.
SIXTH RACE—Red Lad, Sting Pal, In Memory, Brown Knight, Barbed Retort, Syracuse, Sure Touch.
SEVENTH RACE—Donas Pal, Kimesha, Cafe Society, olly Maedun, Vallia, Cherry's Child.
EIGHTH RACE—Lizzie, Scoria, Flying Zelma, Hustle Home, Fair Rock, Upset Deve.

Empire City Scratches

FIRST RACE — Ebony Fly, Grindine, Toneypandy, Be Prepared.
SECOND RACE—Laugh and Play.
THIRD RACE—Offender.
FOURTH RACE — Middecombe, Cynic Miss.
FIFTH RACE—North Anna.
SIXTH RACE—Ballyhaste.
SEVENTH RACE — Portet, Borrowed Time, Definer.

Suffolk Downs Scratches

FIRST RACE—Jacquella, Indiana Spa.
SECOND RACE—Twinkatys, Miss Chris.
THIRD RACE — Chancer, Bobbin, Ball O' Fire, Carnarvon.
FOURTH RACE—High Fair.
FIFTH RACE—Doubt Not.
SIXTH RACE—Sassy Lady.
SEVENTH RACE—Saxonian.
EIGHTH RACE—Eva R, Liberty's Love, Sea Gull, Bad Day.

Charles Town Scratches

FIRST RACE—Blenheim Rose, Lady Science, Duck Blind, Stormy Passage, Swift Light, War Target.
SECOND—Barraca, Irish Vote, Blind Talk, Lapis, Jumulus, Last Scamp.
THIRD—Marshall A, Prairie Prince, Shining Knight, Miss Anderby, Walli, Gray Gleam.
FOURTH—Time Saver, Wam, Man At Arms, Ivonia, Rock Miss, Nanci's Best.
FIFTH—Romney Royal, Little Harpist, Beaming Lady.
SIXTH—Tobias, Ann Groucher, Spout Run, Counora, Hi Blaze, Cat's Cradle.
SEVENTH—Black Demon, Lacy Miss, Huppy, Sylacauga.
EIGHTH—Kai Vin, Stingaree, Blue Boo, Super John, Star On, Sea Finn.

Other Sports on Page 10

Race Entries Results Scratches and Selections

Charles Town Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse $400; allowances, for 2-year-olds; four an da half furlongs.

Don Barr	113	Lord Longworth	113
xMiss Roxie	105	Coulander	113
xSmoke Gal	110	Tellemoff	116
Valentine Ann	110	Arrow Lady	116
Sun Scene	110	xGlitter Girl	110
xBanbury Belle	105	Fred's First	118
Knespin	110	Dannig	110

aHillbrook Farm and Royston entry.

SECOND—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs.

xAnchors Down	107	John Werring	112
Little Schley	112	xRoving Eye	119
xChide	113	xKing Dominant	107
Golden Key	124	Countermarch	112
Georgetown	112	Nay Nay	107
Harp O' Gold	107	Frostbite	107
Regal Sun	118	Rocky Mount	118

THIRD—Purse $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

xNight Rider	106	Salburne	110
Blenheim Rose	100	Kamari	100
Swift Light	104	Hurdy Gurdy	106
Mariyah	104	Beacon Queen	110
Congo Prince	109	xElsie J	101
xWelsh Star	110	xPumice Stone	101
Devils Broth	105	Olivilo	100

FOURTH—Purse $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; Charles Town course (120 feet more than six furlongs).

Schley Al	108	Happy Host	110
Royal Veil	112	xXmas Carol	100
Cais Cradle	109	Radio Wave	105
Rare Gem	113	xWar Target	99
Runout	110	Din	110
Doctors Nurse	115	Ace Of Trumps	110
Canrock	112	Grand Waltz	99

FIFTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs.

Betwick	115	Col. Hattenfield	111
Deodo	115	Dacotah	110
xAmerlee	110	xGold Sweep	110
xNancis Best	99	Expected Belle	100
Miss Kantar	100	Lucky Jean	106
Top Shell	106	Netta Wood	100
xSome Groucher	110
Dixie S	106

SIXTH—Purse $500; allowances; for 3-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs.

Hi-Blaze	116	Lickety Split	107
xPrince Turley	111	Wicka	103
xMiss Wing	106	xCharming Boy	114
Yum Yum	103	Miss Maker	107
xRoyal Dot	105	Conamista	102
Mr. Chain	108

SEVENTH—Purse $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth.

Quaternary	116	Abbots Lark	111
Edgemont	113	xBentaur	111
xExtra Good	103	Dear Gracie	108
xEbils	108	Ira L	113
xChief Evergreen	111	xTightwad	108
Zump	116	Goantell	111
xSea Finn	106	Cupids Arrow	113

EIGHTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 3-year-olds an up; mile and an eighth.

Veral Pass	115	xAylward	116
Pencader	115	Custer	115
xMarbran	110	xLake Shore	110
Arrow Girl	103	Wander Bird	110
Lady Grandace	103	Lucky Roll	115
Trixie Lass	110	Count Me	115
Hickory Lad	115	xReal Money	110

NINTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth. (Substitute, to be used if needed.)

xLecture	108	xChilly Sbbie	103
Goldun	116	Overplay	113
xSmada	103	Nugget	116
Channing	116	Stepping In	116
xBubbleworth	111	xRouge Catalan	111
Local Boy	113	xBlue Cyclone	106
Counter Pass	111	Cora Kay	108

TENTH—Purse $400; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; four and a half furlongs. Substitute, to be used if needed.

xLady Buck	105	xPeetomar	113
xLast Revue	107	xBalkanese	113
Way Out	113	Remolee	124
Frederick	124	Prosit	124
Happy Marlene	107	Goodwin	119
Ann Groucher	107	Tavern	118
xLeading Ways	102	Vee Eight	118

xFive pounds aprpetice allowance claimed.
Weather clody; track sloppy.
First Past—2:30 p. m.

Delaware Park Results

FIRST RACE—Duces Wild, $12.10, $4.90, $3.90; India Pass, $3.30, $2.80; Ophelia, $4.20.
SECOND RACE—Counsuello, $6.20, $3.70, $2.60; Rolls Buzzy, $9.10, $4.50; Escohigh, $2.60.
THIRD RACE—Deansiaw, $6.00, $4.30, $2.90; Farragut, $5.20, $3.30; Sussex, $2.90.
FOURTH RACE—Furlough, $12.40, $4.60, $3.00; The Mount, $2.80, $2.40; Ceiling Zero, $2.70.
FIFTH RACE—Prince Valiant, $28.30, $10.40, $6.30; Ballarosa, $6.40, $4.60; Maezaca, $7.00.
SIXTH RACE — Head Hunter, $4.30, $3.20, $2.70; Bull Terrier, $4.80, $3.00; Royal Teddy, $2.90.
SEVENTH RACE—Nicky, $10.20, $5.30, $4.00; Crossvine, $7.90, $4.50; Eight Rolls, $6.80.
EIGHTH RACE—Walkon, $12.70, $7.00, $5.00; Sky Hostess, $38.40, $9.30; Gimpey, $11.50.

Delaware Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 2-year-olds; five and a half furlongs.

Sunington	110	Druidesse II	107
Fitmiss	107	Beneksar	107
aBar Ship	110	Sir Broadside	110
aLight Of Morn	111	Secret Summons	107
Pomelo	107	Quest D'Or	104
Dosage	107	Bright Goldie	107
Running Lights	110

aL. C. Luth-Edgar G. Horn entry.

SECOND—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs.

Dan's Folly	105	aLevena	107
Izarra	113	Graeme Park	113
Briar Bird	114	Golden Dial	109
Paradise Girl	105	Leonardtown	108
Career Girl	105	Catstar	105
Hillthorn	105	Witchfin	110
Razacla	112	Innovia	105
Summer Stock	105	Circus Wings	109
xaMarin	110	Daddy	110

aMrs. D. K. Kerr-H. R. Dullaney entry.

THIRD — Purse $1,000; Steeplechase Handicap; for 4-year-olds and up; about two miles.

Mad Policy	151	Bois Chabot	134
Yemase	138	Big Rbel	136
Tarbrush	137	Horner Wood	138

FOURTH—Purse $1,000; for 2-year-old maiden fillies; five and a half furlongs.

bAdmiralette	117	aMitza	117
xbWar Hazard	112	Nargileh	117
Weatherite	117	Daring Lady	117
Misty Eye	117	Locked Out	117
Landfall	117	Valley Belle	117
Swynstan	117	Queens Barge	117
xMachree	117

aMr. and Mrs. J. V. Stewart entry.
bGlen Riddle Farm entry.

FIFTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; six furlongs.

Wise Shine	116	Wintona	109
xMy Lawyer	116	She Knows	112
Fair Rock	109	Eltonhead	118
Santiago	112	Black Grouse	114
Dark Friend	114	Shall We Dance	109
Dorothy Pomp	112	Patsey Begone	112
Broomoria	119	The Miamian	114
Riotous	111	Bud's Bell	112
Speed Ship	109	Mugal	109

SIXTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-old fillies, mile and seventy yards.

xInterlace	106	Streamer	111
xWildmute	108	Irish Mirth	108
Challante	111	Pamunkey	108
Cheer Me	113	Quatredom	111
Busy Fingers	113

SEVENTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; mile and a sixteenth.

Hide	110	Questre	112
Dona's Pal	115	Love Mark	110
Furr Buckle	110	Polly Macdun	107
xMac's Cantor	107	Cafe Society	110
Nick	112	Kittiwake	107
xJabiru	104

EIGHTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and an eighth.

Alsang	115	Chainwick	108
xJolly Flag	115	xUpset Dove	103
xEaster Holiday	113	Paliee	113
Scarlet O	108	Mason B	113
Red Label	108	Time Beater	113
Hustle Home	108	Sun Victor	113
Maimaison	113	Actress	115
Brilliant One	120	Bright Gem	115
Brandon Prince	113	Capstan	113

x5 pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
First Post—2 P. M.
Weather clear; track fast.

Charles Town Results

FIRST RACE—Jewell Song, $4.40, $2.80, $3.40; Ace Chance, $5.40, $4.20; Connamista, $3.40.
SECOND RACE—Blue Prelude, $15.20, $6.40, $3.60; Lady Solace, $5.60, $3.40; Mighty Busy, $3.00.
THIRD RACE—Star Mint, $8.40, $4.20, $3.40; Gay Jack, $4.20, $3.20; Postponement, $3.20.
DAILY DOUBLE—Blue Prelude and Star Mint paid $125.60 for $2.
FOURTH RACE—Small Change, $16.80, $7.80, $4.20; Sun Voter, $5.00, $3.20; Molasses Julia, $2.60.
FIFTH RACE—Red Wrack, $9.40, $3.60, $2.20; a-Vendors Lein, $2.60, $2.20; Irish Moon, $2.20.
a-Vendors Lein-Caldon entry.
SIXTH RACE—Luly Khayyam, $10.00, $4.80, $3.60; Dabs Tilden, $8.20, $5.40; Happy Hostess, $4.60.
SEVENTH RACE—Darby Du, $6.60, $4.20, $3.20; Chalotaur, $4.80, $3.60; Pette Lad, $3.40.
EIGHTH RACE—Hagerstown Boy, $26.20, $10.40, $5.20; The Swagman, $6.00, $4.60; Dian, $3.00.

Suffolk Downs Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse 1,000; maidens; for 2-year-olds; five furlongs.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

Blumere	115	Rough News	115
Night Glow	115	Jumna	115
Milk And Honey	115	Stolen Tryst	115
xaDeltor Music	110	Jug Heels	115
Rebbina	115	xaYesteryear	110
Bernardine	115	Bettie Nux	115
In Sang	115	xWeaving Thru	110

aProctor and Crinn entry.

SECOND—Purse $1,000; claiming; maidens; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs (chute).

Mister Maor	116	Count Fitz	108
Candrillon	103	Pari Curtis	106
Sun High	116	Rexair	110
Meadow Gold	105	Indiana Spa	116
Secret Service	101	xArdour	105
xInconceivable	105	Brave Light	106

THIRD—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs (chute).

Ever After	110	Rough Brigade	120
Baggrave	112	xCopin	110
Pluto	112	xAir Actress	105
Knitetta	110	xSet	107
Flash Flash	107	Last Rose	113
Smilin Jack	108	High Fair	110
Race Rider	112

FOURTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; six furlongs (chute).

Lissom Lad	115	Rippler	112
xSargazo	107	West Acre	111
Grandeem	115	Chance	111
Xanthein	112	Repeller	112
Bucket Head	112	Night Alarm	112

FIFTH—Purse $1,300; Grade C Handicap; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs (chute).

Domkin	120	Monida	104
Limitation	110	xPari Earnest	110
Evanded	112	Bright Trace	107
xCharitable	113	Gambit	112

SIXTH—Purse $1,500; Chearton Handicap; for 3-year-olds and up; mile.

Housework	105	Dolly Val	116
Sketchbook	104	Flying Lee	109
Trina	104	Orcades	109

SEVENTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; mile and a sixteenth.

Victory March	112	Darkmetus	111
xNoodles	97	xMichillinda	101
Success Story	110	The Loom	107
Totache	112	Miss Mogul	107
Shasta Mollie	105

EIGHTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a quarter.

Brass Monkey	110	Pedant	105
xPepper Patch	100	Sandwrack	110
xRaycart	105	Blackbirder	110
Kievs Pennant	110	xCrafty Fox	105
Idolon	110	Reminding	105

x5 pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
First Post—1:15 P. M.

Suffolk Downs Results

FIRST RACE—Red Rouge, $4.40, $2.80, $2.40; Devils Pace, $4.40, $3.20; Congrierron, $3.60.
SECOND RACE — Nospil, $8.00, $4.40, $3.00; Gertrude K, $15.00, $5.20; Overflowing, $2.60.
DAILY DOULE—Red Rouge and Nospil paid $26.00 for $2.
THIRD RACE—Erin Torch, $7.00, $3.60, $3.00; Madison, $3.20, $2.60; Sun Antioch, $3.40.
FOURTH RACE — Army Song, $4.40, $2.80, $2.40; Purcellville, $3.40, $2.80; Carrie, $4.80.
FIFTH RACE—Prairie Dog, $4.60, $3.00, $2.40; Zolc, $6.00, $3.40; Indian Lodge, $3.80.
SIXTH RACE—Speed To Spare, $4.40, $2.60, $2.20; Allegro, $3.00, $2.40; Dona Leona, $2.40.
SEVENTH RACE—Sun Breeze, $16.80, $9.60, $8.00; Bow And Arrow, $11.40, $7.60; Top Queen, $7.20.
EIGHTH RACE — San Antioca, $6.00, $3.80, $2.60; Bereit, $4.80, $3.20; Wee Bag, $4.80.

Empire City Results

FIRST RACE—Dixie Man, $11.10, $6.50, $4.40; Merry Marine, $10.90, $5.00; Michigan Flyer, $3.90.
SECOND RACE—Highland Queen, $6.30, $4.30, $3.50; Milk Bar, $23.70, $11.80; Flu Gent, $5.00.
THIRD RACE—Bright Sonina, $6.80, $4.20, $2.80; Budos, $5.10, $3.10; Fire Marshall, $2.40.
FOURTH RACE — Dividend, $205.70, $55.20, $20.00; Kiosk, $9.90, $6.90; Dogana, $4.10.
FIFTH RACE — Fenelon, $3.90, $3.00, $2.20; Skin Deep, $4.10, $2.60; Call To Colors, $2.40.
SIXTH RACE—Plot, $60.40, $18.40, $7.80; Gay Troubador, $11.80, $6.10; Dark May, $4.00.
SEVENTH RACE—Microphobia, $15.30, $7.90, $6.40; Sun Mica, $8.30, $5.50; Shambles, $4.50.

Arlington Entries

FIRST RACE — Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs.

Buttons B	110	Macawlee	110
Tonyman	115	Connie Ann	116
Sir Franklin	109	xMorning Mail	107
Deep Summer	104	xPeter Pumpkin	107
Dona Nutter	110	Matchless	104
Anark	110	xOur Haven	102
Honey Roll	112	xMiss Lampley	102
Divided Skirt	107	xKoase	107
Some Polly	101	xBlaufuss	107

SECOND—Purse $1,000; for maiden 2-year-olds; five and one-half furlongs.

Simalaris	108	My Bobby	111
Happy Khayyam	111	xPuck	103
Second Sound	116	Black Fairy	108
Just Verdict	108	Miss Discovery	113
Art Of War	111	Lucky Major	111
Valdina Luxury	108	Birka Boy	111
Gretchen B	113	Ladies First	108
Neutrality	116	Like Greenock	111
Aljack	111	xAgronomy	116

THIRD—Purse $1,000; maidens; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs.

xValita	111	xStray Chord	106
Miss Sun Valley	111	xFair Jule	106
xLexbrook	111	Monster	111
xPyrexin	111	Blue Flyer	116
bLady Delight	111	Westerns Sun	116
Black Cherry	M1	Sidetrack	116
Ranger II	116	Valdina Jack	116
xGrey Pertors	111	bWauchula	116
Van	116	aToney Butler	116

aImburgio and Doyle entry.
bMrs. Thelma Ott entry.

FOURTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds; six furlongs.

My Jock	112	xJoe W.	102
xKay Diane	103	xWinkle	97
Duck Stans	107	Maenarva	107
Mingling	113

FIFTH—Purse $1,000; allowances; for 2-year-olds; five and a half furlongs.

Hi Poy	118	bEpiget	115
Flying Streak	115	Dekalb	118
Buckboard	118	bAir Hostess	108
Darby Dulcet	113	aValdina Groom	115
aValdina Paul	111	xWhirlaway	111
Pate's Boy	118	Silvestra	115

aValdina Farm entry. bThomas Piatt entry.

SIXTH—Purse $1,200; allowance; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

Bayview	109	Balmy Spring	112
Tunica	109	Robert L	109
Raphael II	106	Connaught	106
xValdina Star	104

SEVENTH— Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; seven furlongs.

Al Au Feu	113	Air Plane	113
Gold Flag	109	xCount Morse	108
Sir Jim James	113	xSmart Crack	103
xMatch Up	108	Predicate	110
American Byrd	113	xBalinderry	98
Busy Morn	111

EIGHTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; mile and an eighth.

Dead Calm	110	Inviting	118
xDeduce	113	Sweet Adeline	105
Adoress	105	Diabroom	118
Utica	115	Knee Deep	105
Kandahar	118	Worpoise	110

NINTH—Purse $1,000; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; six furlongs (Substitute, to be used if needed.)

Empty Bottle	112	xMarbold	110
xImeblue	107	Purple Wrack	115
xLingerawhile	105	Hard Biscuit	105
Prince Torch	112	Good Soldier	115
xFerryboat	110	xBarbara S	105
Fly Ahead	112	Band O Silver	109
Abanico	107	Melva Jane	107
Idaho Maid	110	xOK Mullen	104
xRich Cream	102	xSweepogan	102

xFive pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
First Post—2:15 p. m.
Weather clear; track fast.

Empire City Entries

FIRST RACE—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; about six furlongs.

Mahdi, Richards			120
Transvine, Nash			114
Hardy, no boy			114
Steam Roller, no boy			114
Mr. Knick, no boy			114
Epwar, Roberts			114
Cody, Arcaro			114
Golden Vein, no boy			118
Xgress, no boy			114
Peggy Mine, no boy			109

Also Eligible—Tedall, Gilbert, 114; xKey Man, no boy, 115; Gennaro, no boy, 118; Elwawa, Anderson, 114; Gold Buckle, Roberts, 114; Brannon, no boy, 114.

SECOND—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 2-year-old fillies; five furlongs.

Bellewick, Meade			110
Ali Gray, Anderson			114
Tarot, Woolf			118
Stadium, Roberts			118
Tessie, Schmidl			118
Our Sal, no boy			110
Selann, Stout			110
Our Grace, Bailey			110
Albiona, Richards			118
Coy Vixen, Eccard			110
Basila, Johnson			110
Latour, Sheihamer			118

Also Eligible—Sting-Me-Not, Gilbert, 118; Jassion, E. Arcaro, 114; My Dottie, Huff, 110; xHup Nancy, Warren, 105; Lady Haste, no boy, 110; Super Show, Johnson, 110.

THIRD—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 4-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth.

Cross Question, Huff			116
Idle Sun, Eccard			113
Quincy, Anderson			116
Naadja, E. Arcaro			111
Knight's Haven, Barba			116
Grand Duke, Woolf			122

FOURTH — Purse $1,200; the Wistful; maidens; for 3-year-olds and up; fillies and mares; about six furlongs.

Ara-Ornia, no boy			115
Dusky Girl, Richards			115
Recoy, Roberts			115
Inkling, Meade			115
Abyssinia, Arcaro			115
Charlene, Barba			115
Black Gnat, no boy			115
Blue Tack, Stout			115
Perfect Love, Eccard			115
xInnuendo, S. Renick			110

Also Eligible—Chalpeggy, no boy, 115.

FIFTH—Purse $1,500; claiming; for 3-year-olds; about six furlongs.

Dungeon, Arcaro			113
Stepinfred, no boy			113
Counterglow, Anderson			116
Great Albert, Stout			116
Dudie, Barba			113
Harry's Pal, J. Renick			116
xGrandee, Canning			111
Last Frontier, Nash			113
Winged Hoofs, Roberts			113
North Anna, Meade			111

Also Eligible—De Icer, Schmidl, 116; Wood Chopper, Shelhamer, 116.

SIXTH—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth (first division).

Cap In, J. Renick			113
Count Sneezy, Roberts			103
White Label, Gilbert			117
Mintson, no boy			117
xBe Prepared, no boy			93
Sun Fox, Meade			110
Attracting, Finnegan			102
Perth Amboy, Castille			113
Watersplash, Anderson			108

SEVENTH—Purse $1,200; claiming; for 3-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth (division of sixth race).

Captain James, Anderson			117
Baby Talk, no boy			113
Sweepstaff, Arcaro			117
Billy's Folly, Nash			108
Yannie Sid, Roberts			110
Conde Rico, Meade			117
Orchids Next, Tryon			108
Modern Age, no boy			113
xThe Queen, Boyle			103

x5 pounds apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather clear; track fast.
First Post—1:15 P. M.

Hick's Aces Win

Hick's Aces defeated the Senators yesterday at Golden Field, 4 to 3, for their fifth straight win in the East Side League. Smith, Nailor and Yates led the Aces' attack with Bernard and Davis showing the way for the Senators.

Line score:—

SENATORS	000	120	000	3	12	0
HICK'S ACES	001	200	001	4	16	3

Bernard and Valentine; Nailor and Yates.

Police Boys Club Wins 8-1

The Police Boys Club topped Potomac News Co. ten yesterday 8-1, on the Community diamond. Lashorn with three hits and Reihert led the victors, While Troutman and Perkins had four of the losers' hits. Wilkinson gave up five

Line score:—

P. B. C.	101	041	1	8	9
P. N. Co.	000	000	1	1	5

Wilkinson and McMullen, Conway (8). Shears and Roberts.

PRICE-SMASHING 4TH
METRO'S TROPICAL SUITS
AT LOWEST PRICES IN TOWN!

Men! Save dollars on a smart light weight, all wool tropical worsted suit . . . Snappy single and double breasted styles . . . Light and dark shades. All sizes. Dress up for the "4th."

$11.95

Men's Famous College Park SUITS $14.50 $16.50 All New! All Styles!

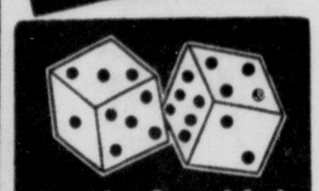

Men! Save Up To 50% Special Group SUITS Reg. values to $19.50. Light and dark shades. $10

MEN'S STRAW HATS ..... 79¢ & $1.00
MEN'S SWIM TRUNKS, from ..... 95¢
MEN'S POLO SHIRTS, from ..... 49¢
Men's Summer Shoes and Oxfords ..... $1.95 up
Men's Slacks or Work Pants ..... $1.00 up
Men's Summer Slack Sets ..... $1.95 up
Cool, washable. Smart and comfortable. Best values in town.

METRO STORE
Men's and Boy's Wear Cor. Balto. and Mech. Sts.
OPEN EVENINGS

USE YOUR CREDIT TO ENJOY SAFE DRIVING

Don't Gamble!
Equip all around with tough
KELLY Springfield TIRES
Buy them on our HANDY PAY PLAN!

Keep most of your cash for your vacation—and still make your vacation safer and more enjoyable. Have some of these tough Armorubber Kellys put on today. Take as long as 20 weeks to pay. Terms AS LOW AS 38¢ Per Week

Kelly-Springfield tires are guaranteed — not for 12 months, not for 18 months, but for their full long life. You must be satisfied and we're here to see that you are.

See Jim Weber Budget Manager
The Kelly-Springfield Service Store
119 SOUTH MECHANIC STREET
Cumberland, Md.

BIG 4th of JULY SALE

Firestone STANDARD
$7.77 6.00-16 AND YOUR OLD TIRE

SIZE	PRICE
4.40/4.50-21	$5.58
4.75/5.00-19	5.78
5.25/5.50-17	7.08
6.00-16	7.77

Price Includes Your Old Tire. Other Sizes Priced Proportionately Low

LUBRICATION SAVES WEAR AND TEAR ON YOUR CAR AND POCKETBOOK — Let us prepare your car for your HOLIDAY TRIP with our Engineered Lubrications by experts.

REFRIGERATED PICNIC BOXES

$1.39 up
Just the thing for that Fourth of July Picnic Lun

Slaughter, Warneke and Koy Defeat Reds

Prove Key Men in St. Louis Victory Over Cincinnati

Koy Saves Game in Ninth after Warneke Holds Reds in Check

Slaughter's Two Homers Decisive in 3-2 Triumph

ST. LOUIS, July 1 (AP) — Enos Slaughter, Lon Warneke and Ernie Koy were key men in St. Louis' 3 to 2 defeat of the Cincinnati Reds today.

Slaughter's two home runs accounted for all the Cardinals' runs. Warneke allowed only seven hits and was tight in the pinches. Koy made a great catch of Bill Werber's long clout for the last out of the game which, had it been a hit, would have tied up the score.

And it might have been a hit. Koy crashed into the left field wall but held onto the ball and apparently was unhurt. Morrie Arnovich was on second at the time through his lone hit of the game plus Eddie Joost's sacrafice.

Werber opened the game with a double into left field which the Cardinals futilely argued was foul. After Lonny Frey flied to Koy, Ival Godman singled off Warneke's glove, sending Werber to third. He scored as Frank McCormick forced Goodman.

In the eighth Frey walked, stayed on first as Goodman and McCormick popped to the infield, but raced home on Ernie Lombardi's double.

CINCINNATI	AB	R	H	O	A
Werber 3b	5	1	1	1	0
Frey 2b	3	1	0	3	1
Goodman rf	4	0	2	3	0
F. McCormick 1b	4	0	0	7	1
Lombardi c	4	0	2	5	0
M. McCormick xx	0	0	0	0	0
Baker c	0	0	0	0	0
Craft cf	4	0	0	2	0
Arnovich lf	4	0	1	1	0
Joost ss	2	0	0	1	2
L. Moore p	2	0	1	1	0
Hershberger x	1	0	0	0	0
Hutchings p	0	0	0	0	0
Riggs xxx	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	2	7	24	4

x—Batted for L. Moore in 7th.
xx—Ran for Lombardi in 8th.
xxx—Batted for Hutchings in 9th.

ST. LOUIS	AB	R	H	O	A
S. Martin 3b	4	0	0	0	0
Slaughter rf	4	2	2	3	0
Koy lf	4	0	2	5	0
Mize 1b	4	0	0	6	1
T. Moore cf	3	0	1	2	0
Orengo 2b	2	0	0	6	3
Marion ss	3	0	0	4	1
Owen c	3	0	0	1	0
Warneke p	2	1	0	0	1
Totals	29	3	5	27	6

CINCINNATI	100	000	010—2
ST. LOUIS	002	010	00x—3

Errors—L. Moore, Marion 2, Frey. Runs batted in—F. McCormick, Slaughter 3, Lombardi. Two base hits—Werber, Lombardi. Home runs—Slaughter 2. Sacrifices — Orengo, Joost. Double play — Orengo, Marion and Mize. Left on bases—Cincinnati 8, St. Louis 6. Bases on balls—off Warneke 2, off L. Moore 3. Struck out—by Warneke 1, by L. Moore 3, by Hutchings 1. Hits—off L. Moore 4 in 6 innings; off Hutchings 1 in 2. Losing pitcher—L. Moore.

Cubs Suffer Fourth Straight Defeat 4 to 3

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs suffered their fourth straight defeat today when Claude Passeau, a relief pitcher, walked Paul Waner with the bases filled in the 10th inning to give Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory. Vince DiMaggio had tied the score with a home run off Vern Olsen in the ninth.

The homer yas the ninth of the season for DiMaggio, who previously had singled, doubled and stolen a base off Ken Raffensberger, Chicago's starting pitcher.

PITTSBURGH	AB	R	H	O	A
Handley, 3b	4	1	1	0	0
Gustine, 2b	5	0	2	1	5
Elliott, rf	4	0	0	2	0
Vaughan, ss	2	0	0	0	1
Young, ss	1	0	0	3	1
Garms, xx	0	0	0	0	0
Brubaker, ss	0	0	0	0	1
Fletcher, 1b	4	0	0	11	1
Van Robays, lf	4	1	1	2	0
P. Waner, xxx	0	0	0	0	0
L. Waner, lf	0	0	0	0	0
DiMaggio, cf	5	2	3	4	0
Lopez, c	4	0	0	7	1
MacFayden, p	3	0	1	0	1
Heintzelman, p	0	0	0	0	1
Davis, xx	1	0	0	0	0
Brown, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	4	8	30	12

x—Batted for Heintzelman in 9th.
xx—Batted for Young in 10th.
xxx—Batted for Van Robays in 10th.

CHICAGO	AB	R	H	O	A
Hack, 3b	5	0	1	1	1
Herman, 2b	5	0	1	1	3
Gleeson, cf	5	1	1	3	0
Nicholson, rf	5	0	2	3	0
Dallessandro, lf	5	0	1	1	0
Cavaretta 1b	3	1	1	10	2
Collins, c	4	0	0	6	1
Mattick, ss	2	0	0	1	5
Galan, z	1	0	1	0	0
Rogel, ss	1	0	0	2	0
Rafensberger, p	2	1	1	1	0
Russell, zz	1	0	1	0	0
Olsen, p	1	0	1	1	1
Passeau, p	0	0	0	0	1
Totals	40	3	11	30	14

x—Batted for Mattick in 7th.
zz—Batted for Raffensberger in 7th.

PITTSBURGH	000	010	101 1—4
CHICAGO	000	010	110 0—3

Errors—Vaughan, Collins. Runs batted in—Dimaggio 2, P. Waner, Lopez, Herman, Nicholson, Russell. Two base hit—DiMaggio, Nicholson. Three base hits—Van Robays, Cavarretta. Home run—DiMaggio. Stolen base—Dimaggio. Sacrifice — Elliott. Doubl play—Heintzelman, Young and Fletcher. Left on bases—Pittsburgh 9, Chicago 8. Bases on balls—off MacFayden 1; off Raffensberger 1; off Olsen 2; off Passeau 2. Struck out—by MacFayden 4; by Heintzelman 1; by Brown 1; by Raffensberger 2; by Olsen 1; by Passeau 1. Hits—off MacFayden 7 in 6 1-3 innings; off Heintzelman 2 in 1 2-3; off Brown 2 in 2; off Raffensberger 5 in 7; off Olsen 3 in 2 (none out in 10th); off Passeau 0 in 1. Winning pitcher—Brown. Losing pitcher—Olsen.

Look Out, Carl!

NORMAN, Okla., July 1 (AP) — Mildred Hubbell, sister of the serious-faced Carl who flips 'em for the New York Giants, has started her career in softball.

Pitching for the Buck Sporting Goods girls of Oklahoma City, she defeated the Jones Drug, of Norman, 10 to 4, in her first league game.

She allowed only four hits and drove in a pair of runs with a single.

From the

PRESS BOX

Entering Politics Proves Johnson Is Really Tough

NEW YORK, July -.—A glutton for punishment is Walter Johnson, the Big Train of Washington. Not satisfied with having served a term as manager in Cleveland, the city of broken managers, Mr. Johnson now plans to do a stretch in Congress of his own free will.

The great fireball pitcher called around at the Republican convention in Philadelphia last week and presented Chairman Joe Martin with certain baseball equipment.

"Thanks," said Mr. Martin, peering curiously at the Big Train. It is Mr. Martin's experience that when people give him something, they usually want something. "What can I do for you?"

"I am running for Congress," said Walter.

Mr. Martin looked astonished.

"On the Republican ticket," added Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Martin whistled.

"And I am paying my respects," said the candidate modestly.

McNary Becomes Wistful

At the moment, Mr. Martin was short one vice-presidential nominee, and I do not doubt that he speculated briefly on the possibility of drafting Mr. Johnson for this highly desirable post, toward which the attitude of most of the politicians at the convention—including Mr. Martin himself—was, that they wouldn't take it if you handed it to them on a silver platter.

Speaking of which reminds me of the reaction of Senator Charles McNary, a good, solid man, when they finally rung the job on him. The Senator was downright wistful.

"I guess they have to have somebody from the west," he said, guessing right, as usual, "and it might as well be me. Okay, boys, take me away."

To the average man, with a happy home and a stake in the world, the sight of the Republicans assembled in convention—or the Democrats, for that matter—should be enough to keep him out of politics for life. However, Walter Johnson, as I said before, is a tough fellow.

For the best part of twenty years, he worked for a ball club in the submerged half of the second division of the American League. I am not drawing an ana gy between the Washington team and the Republicans I am me y saying that the team was wel buried, and that Mr. Johnson ignored this fact and worked his heart out. At least, part of it. He had heart to spare.

Nowadays—and in former days too—you often find ball players working for second-division cubs who are frankly angling for jobs with better teams, and doing their best to make the boss get rid of them. They loaf and grouse and slump—except when the team they have their eyes on reaches town. Then, for the education of the rival manager, they hit .400 and go forty miles to pull down fly balls.

Picked A Tough Job

All clubs looked alike to Mr. Johnson, except Washington. Washington was the club he worked for. The other clubs were the ones he had to beat, and he beat them without pity or favor or a backward glance at the team behind him, the sight of which was sometimes enough to frighten stronger men than Mr. Johnson.

The Big Train worked without faltering at one of baseball's toughest jobs. When he could pitch no longer, he looked around for a managing job, and again picked baseball's toughest. He selected Cleveland, where he shared the office with a couple of hundred thousand fans, half a dozen baseball writers, and various guests from out of town. Walter was the only one who was paid to manage, but he was also the one to take the raps when the raps came.

He suffered most, perhaps, over his pitchers. They were not very good pitchers. They got kicked around considerably. Single-minded fellow that he was, Johnson remembered the countless innings he pitched for the lowly Nationals, toiling away without fear or assistance, never even reaching for the rosin bag—and he could not understand why these fellows lost their stuff halfway through a ball game, with five or six days' rest.

That was the hardest part of his job, which they finally took away from him. And now, not content with his honorable discharge and a life of peace and retirement, the Big Train wants to run for Congress.

If Joe Martin had had his welfare in mind last week, he would have said, "Stay out of it, Walter. You deserve better than that."

Cleveland Drops Game to Browns

CLEVELAND, July 1 (AP) — The St. Louis Browns, currently the American league's No. 1 troublemakers, defeated the Cleveland Indians 2 to 1, tonight under the lights to cut the Tribe's lead over second-place Detroit to a single game.

A homer by Harlond Clift in the sixth inning with the bases empty after two were out gave the Browns their first run. The other came in the eighth after Ray Radcliff doubled and came home on a wild pitch.

The Indians got their ninth inning run gratis after Elden Auker, whose victory was his seventh in thirteen starts this season, walked Hal Trosky with the bases loaded, scoring Lou Boudreau.

Dirt Track Auto Race Stars Enter Uniontown Event

Winners Six Trial Heats To Compete in 50 Lap Final

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 1.—Everything is in readiness for the inaugural race at the new Uniontown Speedway, Thursday, July 4, at 2:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time. The new track is on the site of the famous Uniontown mile-and-one-eighth board track, two miles east of the city on Route 40. It has been just 24 years since the original Uniontown track was dedicated with all of the champion board track drivers entered to compete for the prize money.

The new track is vastly different from the old board track. It is a perfect saucer with high banked turns and with banked contours following both of the straightaways, thus enabling the spectators to see every turn of the wheel on each car any place on the track. It was constructed with the thought in mind of super-speed. Drivers can ride three-abreast at any portion of the new course. It has a black top surface of liquid asphalt. Those attending this inaugural race will see the finest, fastest and highest banked speedway in the eastern United States.

Champs To Compete

As was the case of the opening of the old wooden bowl 24 years ago, the entry list for the opening of this new track includes practically all of America's champion dirt track drivers. In this list are drivers from eleven different states, a number of whom are coming from as far away as California.

For the first time in the history of eastern automobile racing, the fans will be given an opportunity of seeing the nationally famous rim-riders of the CSRA compete for the largest purse ever offered in dirt track driving. After the qualifying events there will be six trial heats of ten laps each, the drivers finishing first and second to compete at the final event of fifty laps, thus assuring a full afternoon of sensational driving and super-thrills.

The new grandstand has been completed and every safety feature possible has been provided both for the drivers and the spectators. A feature of the new track will be free automobile parking for everyone, space having been provided to park approximately 7,500 cars.

Tutwiler Leads in W. Va. Qualifying

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—A seven-over-par 147 for thirty-six holes, brought on largely by a struggle to curb an erratic putter, gave defending champion Ed Tutwiler a shaky lead for qualifying honors today in West Virginia's twenty-seventh amateur golf tournament.

The twenty-year-old Mount Hope player, who with the rest of the first-day qualifiers had to contend with a blustery wind and a soggy course, put together a morning round of seventy-four and an afternoon seventy-three to score his 147.

Hot on his trail were three other contenders, who contented themselves with eighteen holes today and will finish qualifying play tomorrow.

Fred Bannerot of Charleston, the poker-faced champion of 1932 and 1933, also had a seventy-four for his first eighteen-hole round, and a good chance to do better if course conditions improve on the morrow.

Ray Vaughan, Lewisburg high school golfer who learned the game from his father, pro at the Lewisburg club, came around the old White Course in seventy-five to put himself in striking position for medal honors.

Jack Grimes of Wheeling, son of a Wheeling steel company executive, also posted seventy-five on his first round.

Gusty winds blew throughout the day. "King Tut", who breezed in from the eastern interscholastic championships last July to go through the state amateur and win, was a little rusty on the greens.

Jack Hoblitzel of Parkersburg put together a seventy-nine and seventy-three for a thirty-six-hole score of 153, making himself a berth in the championship flight when match play begins Wednesday.

The eighty entrants in the amateur had the choice of playing all thirty-six holes today, eighteen today and eighteen tomorrow, or thirty-six tomorrow. Those who finished on the first day were assured of a rest before the title grind started.

Keegan's Gassers Win

Bill Keegan's Gassers again handed the North End Merchants a setback yesterday, 9-4, to prove their earlier triumph was no fluke.

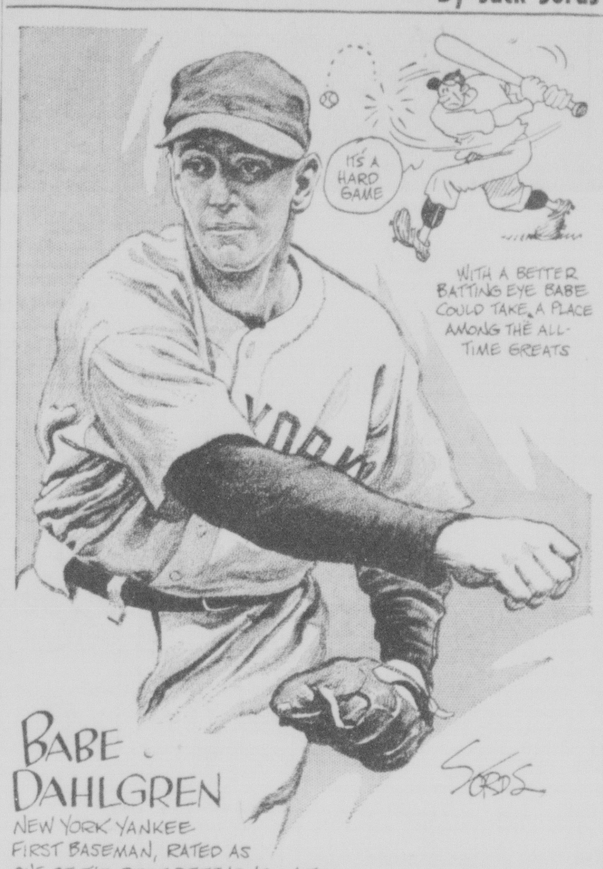

Twigg let the Merchants down with four hits, with J. Rice getting a triple.

The Gassers got eight hits off the slants of Sheetz, C. Lapp, Mulvey and Henderson getting two each, with one of Henderson's being good for the circuit.

KEEGANS	004	301	1—9 8 2
MERCHANTS	000	400	0—4 4 1

Twigg and C. Lapp; Sheetz and Skidmore.

BEST AFIELD - - - - - By Jack Sords

The Sportlight

by

GRANTLAND RICE

(Released by North Americans Newspaper Alliance)

BAER, THE QUESTION MARK

The main matter in the Baer-Galento extravaganza in Jersey City has no connection whatsoever with anything pertaining to the artistic side of this badly-mottled existence. It will bring you no keen memories of James J. Corbett or Gene Tunney at their peak.

But it can be an entertaining and boisterous brawl one one condition—that Max Baer decides to keep swinging until something happens.

Among all the libelous cracks you might chuck at Tony Galento as an uplift to the race, no one can accuse him of any desire to quit at any time. No one can say that he shrinks from body contact, from heel to head, including both fists.

Unfortunately, the same thing can't be said about Maxie Baer, who has his varying moods. Max can fight a bit when he wants to, but he is afflicted by no unending urge to keep on taking punches that may happen to ruffle him up.

He never liked the fight game—and he likes it no better today. But he happened to be equipped by nature with a pair of hard-punching hands and a tough jaw. Also, no man ever looked as much like a heavyweight champion ought to look — six feet three, 215 pounds, lean and highly impressive in his ring appearance.

THE BAER CASE

You don't have to make out a case for Galento any more than you would for a gorilla led to action. Whether it be fantastic or terrible, Tony at least will be interested only in the complete demolition of his opponent.

Baer is equipped with more weapons. But it might interest Max to know that any number of keen observers are still confident that Baer will be the first to wilt when the roughhouse opens, and that he may decide on fairly short notice to spend the remainder of the evening in much softer pursuits.

Being a lover of luxury and the softer life, Max has never been able to understand just why he should keep on fighting after it ceases being fun. To keep on getting punched, when you can subside at almost any moment, doen't make any sense to his highly pliable nature.

He may switch around and change his nature against Galento. If he does the New Jersey air should be replete with flying fur, splinters, and gore.

THE MIGHT-HAVE-BEEN

Max Baer is one of the star Might-Have-Beens of the ring. Powerfully built, a terrific puncher at his best, equipped with a granite jaw and a cast iron body, he never had any real liking for his game and he had, least of all, no liking for the training grind.

Always thoroughly likeable, all he cared for was the brightest of the bright lights. He painted the Primrose Path a far deeper crimson than it had ever known. He let it overflow with splashes of carmine.

He was never willing to pay the price for ring success. Always good-natured, no one could keep him mad for over a few minutes. And no set of melancholy circumstances could suppress his clowning of his wise-cracking.

Physically, he was all set up to be a great fighter—but not inwardly. I've known times when he had Jack Dempsey almost raving. Jack sensed the possibilities that Baer carried, but even Dempsey could never make him fight when the mood was missing. As it was too often.

For all practical purposes Baer's fists killed Frankie Campbell. Don't think he couldn't hit. And don't think he couldn't take it, when he had no other party on for the rest of the evening.

MAD CLOWNS

Here are two of the maddest clowns in ring history. On copy paper, at least, it is a natural.

Max will open his series of facial contortions at the start of the first round. Tony doesn't need any artificial aid to build up or enliven his frontispiece.

But while Max is liable to clown through at least part of the fight, Tony will remain serious. His peculiar form of fun making ends with the opening gong.

Baer might just as well set aside certain precautions against Galento's looping left. Tony likes tall targets for this boomerang attack, since tall targets give him more leverage. This looping left is about as hard a punch as the ring knows today—when it happens to land.

While rules are supposed to be rules, there is a healthy chance tonight that the pair involved will be allowed to make up their own regulations as they go along. Neither will be permitted to use an axe, machine gun or cleaver. But such minor matters as arson, mayhem, head locks, gouging and such will be encouraged.

The raw material is on hand for a lively evening—an evening that should be crowded with crude but punishing action if the two main entries simply let nature take its primeval course. No other trimmings are needed.

Leading Outfits Clash Thursday In Pen-Mar Loop

PEN-MAR LEAGUE
STANDING OF CLUBS

	W.	L.	Pct.
Lonaconing	10	2	.833
Bard	8	4	.667
Wellersburg	6	6	.500
Centerville	6	6	.500
Cumberland	6	7	.462
Mt. Savage	4	7	.364
Barton	4	8	.333
Eckhart	4	8	.333

SUNDAY'S RESULTS

Cumberland 8, Mt. Savage 2 (6).
Bard 12, Wellersburg 4.
Eckhart 6, Barton 2 (7).
Lonaconing 10, Centerville 6 (5).

GAMES THURSDAY

Wellersburg at Centerville.
Barton at Cumberland.
Bard at Lonaconing.
Eckhart at Mt. Savage.

GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

Centerville at Cumberland.
Wellersburg at Barton.
Lonaconing at Mt. Savage.
Bard at Eckhart.

Lonaconing and Bard tossers scored Pen-Mar Baseball League victories on Sunday to remain separated by a two-game margin, but the Pennsylvanians will have an opportunity to shave a full game off Coney's lead Thursday in one of four Fourth of July loop engagements.

Nat Hurler Hands Game to Yankees

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Lefty Ken Chase was as wild as an antelope and his teammates looked like something out of a menagerie today as the Washington Senators blew an 8 to 4 ball game to the New York Yankees.

Chase gave up four bases on balls, hit three batsmen and made two wild pitches over the nine inning route while his defense produced five errors.

These goings on overshadowed the fact that each club collected ten hits, but there was little enough comparison even here. The Yanks' quota included home runs by Joe Dimaggio and George Selkirk and a triple and two doubles.

NEW YORK	AB	R	H	O	A
Crosetti, ss	5	0	0	0	1
Rolfe, 3b	4	0	0	2	0
Keller, rf	5	2	2	2	0
Dimaggio, cf	5	2	2	2	0
Selkirk, lf	3	2	1	4	0
Gordon, 2b	5	1	2	1	0
Rosar, c	3	1	2	7	0
Dahlgren, 1b	5	0	2	5	0
Ruffing, p	4	0	0	0	1
Totals	37	8	10	27	3

WASHINGTON	AB	R	H	O	A
Case, cf	5	1	1	4	1
West, rf	5	0	0	2	0
Walker, lf	5	0	1	1	0
Bonura, 1b	5	1	2	14	0
Travis, 2b	4	1	2	6	5
Myer, 2b	2	0	1	3	2
Gelbert, ss	3	0	1	2	1
Early, c	3	0	0	2	0
Chase, p	3	0	1	0	1
Welaj, z	1	1	1	0	0
Totals	37	4	10	27	13

z—Batted for Chase in 9th.

NEW YORK	004	012	010—8
WASHINGTON	000	000	031—4

Errors—Selkirk, Bonura, Travis 2, Gelbert, Early. Runs batted in—DiMaggio 2, Dahlgren 3, Gordon, Selkirk, Travis, Myer 2, Walker. Two base hits—Keller, Dahlgren, Bonura, Travis. Three base hit—Rosar. Home runs—DiMaggio, Selkirk. Stolen bases—Crosetti, Rolfe. Sacrifices—Rosar, Selkirk. Left on bases—New York 11, Washington 8. Bases on balls—off Chase 4, off Ruffing 2. Struck out—by Chase 2; by Ruffing 7. Hit by pitcher—by Chase 3 (Selkirk, Crosetti, DiMaggio); by Ruffing (Gelbert). Wild pitches — Chase 2.

Lacy's, Golden's and Sam's Win S. E. Games

Lacy's won from Trozzo's 2-0; Sam's defeated Liberty Dairy, 9-2, and Golden's topped the Kings 10-9 in South End Boster League games yesterday.

W. Yolder made a shoestring catch of Jim Geatz' bid for a single to provide the fielding of the Lacy-Trozzo tilt. Weltman held the Trozzo team to two hits, while Saum was yielding only five to suffer a setback.

Hoyle let the Dairy down with three hits, as the Sam's smacked Dyer from the dias in the third and ran into tougher throwing when Mertens replaced him on the hillock.

E. Golden and J. Golden divided the hurling duties for their team the latter taking over when the King's counted five times to take the lead in the last inning, only to lose out when the ultimate winners worked in thre runs in their half.

The Davis Gassers forfeited to Post's.

SAM'S	034	011	x—9	8	4
Liberty	100	001	0—2	3	3

Hoyle and Lassanti. Dyer, Mertens and Irons.

TROZZO	000	000	0—0	2	1
LACY	010	001	x—2	5	1

Saum and J. Geatz, Weltman and Sarver.

KING'S	120	001	5—9	8	2
GOLDEN'S	103	001	3—10	8	2

E. Golden, J. Golden and Boden, Watson and Long.

Davis forfeited to Post's.

Murphy Slipping

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — One reason why the Yankees haven't been as successful this year as during the last four seasons is that their star reliefer has been in a slump. Johnny Murphy, who once could be depended on to come in and save a game, has been far off stride this year. And the Yanks are in need of a new pinch pitcher.

FIGHT TO-NIGHT
9 P. M. Cumberland Time
NBC BLUE NETWORK WJZ
GALENTO vs. BAER
15 Round
Heavyweight Bout
Sponsored by ADAM HATS

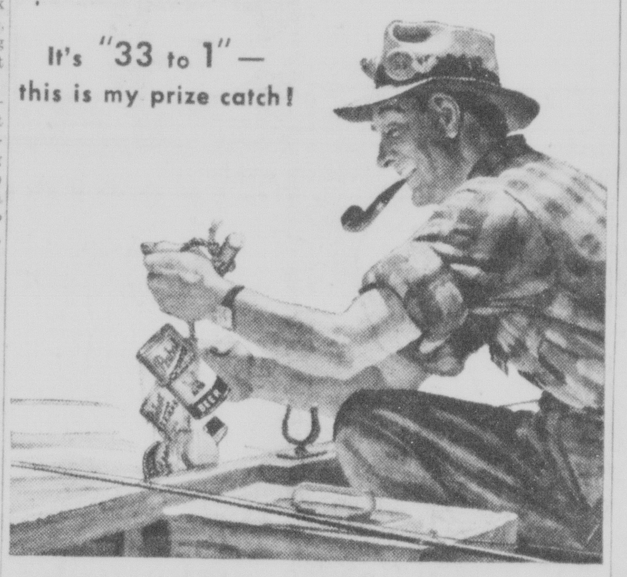

Heinrich & Jenkins
20 N. Centre St.

ARROW KEEPS YOU COOL, CALM, AND RESPECTED

Arrow Summer Shirts — of which we have a very handsome assortment — are made of feather-weight fabrics, with tiny pores to let fresh air in, warm air out. They keep you cool always . . . and smart-looking too, for they come in pleasing patterns as well as whites, with perfect Arrow tailoring . . . . . $2 up

the Manhattan
Apparel for Gentlemen
67 Baltimore St. Phone 684
ARROW SHIRTS SANFORIZED

BLENDED 33 TIMES TO MAKE ONE GREAT BEER!

It takes 33 separate brews to bring you a single glass of beer so smooth and delicious!

YOU'LL enjoy the very look of this beer—its clarity, its sparkle, its creamy collar.

But wait till you taste it!

Such flavor, such smoothness, can only come from the blending of 33 separate brews . . . not two, or five, or ten, but 33—from 33 separate kettles!

Each brew is as fine as choicest ingredients and Pabst's 96 years of experience can make it. Then all 33 are brought together in perfect balance.

An expensive way to brew? Of course! It's like blending champagne, coffee, or tobacco to produce the finest. And that's what makes it America's Premium Beer . . . with a smoothness that is unique, and a goodness that never varies.

Meet Blue Ribbon today!

It's the BLEND that Betters the Beer
Try Pabst Blue Ribbon and Prove it

Copyright 1940 Pabst Brewing Company, Milwaukee

OPEN EVENINGS

"Your Guide To Motor Economy"

LOU'S AUTO STORES
Cut-Rate Auto Accessories, Sporting Goods and Tires
6-10 BALTIMORE ST. CUMBERLAND, MD.
67 E. Main St. Frostburg, Md.

OPEN EVENINGS

Slaughter, Warneke and Koy Defeat Reds

Prove Key Men in St. Louis Victory Over Cincinnati

Koy Saves Game in Ninth after Warneke Holds Reds in Check

Slaughter's Two Homers Decisive in 3-2 Triumph

ST. LOUIS, July 1 (AP) — Enos Slaughter, Lon Warneke and Ernie Koy were key men in St. Louis' 3 to 2 defeat of the Cincinnati Reds today.

Slaughter's two home runs accounted for all the Cardinals' runs. Warneke allowed only seven hits and was tight in the pinches. Koy made a great catch of Bill Werber's long clout for the last out of the game which, had it been a hit, would have tied up the score.

And it might have been a hit. Koy crashed into the left field wall but held onto the ball and apparently was unhurt. Morrie Arnovich was on second at the time through his lone hit of the game plus Eddie Joost's sacrafice.

Werber opened the game with a double into left field which the Cardinals futilely argued was foul. After Lonny Frey flied to Koy, Ival Godman singled off Warneke's glove, sending Werber to third. He scored as Frank McCormick forced Goodman.

In the eighth Frey walked, stayed on first as Goodman and McCormick popped to the infield, but raced home on Ernie Lombardi's double.

CINCINNATI	AB	R	H	O	A
Werber 3b	5	1	1	1	0
Frey 2b	3	1	0	3	1
Goodman rf	4	0	2	3	0
F. McCormick 1b	4	0	0	7	1
Lombardi c	4	0	2	5	0
M. McCormick xx	0	0	0	0	0
Baker c	0	0	0	0	0
Craft cf	4	0	0	2	0
Arnovich lf	4	0	1	1	0
Joost ss	2	0	0	1	2
L. Moore p	2	0	1	1	0
Hershberger x	1	0	0	0	0
Hutchings p	0	0	0	0	0
Riggs xxx	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	2	7	24	4

x—Batted for L. Moore in 7th.
xx—Ran for Lombardi in 8th.
xxx—Batted for Hutchings in 9th.

ST. LOUIS	AB	R	H	O	A
S. Martin 3b	4	0	0	0	0
Slaughter rf	4	2	2	3	0
Koy lf	4	0	2	5	0
Mize 1b	4	0	0	6	1
T. Moore cf	3	0	1	2	0
Orengo 2b	2	0	0	6	3
Marion ss	3	0	0	4	1
Owen c	3	0	1	1	0
Warneke p	2	1	0	0	1
Totals	29	3	5	27	6

CINCINNATI	100 000 010—2
ST. LOUIS	002 010 00x—3

Errors—L. Moore, Marion 2, Frey. Runs batted in—F. McCormick, Slaughter 3, Lombardi, Two base hits—Werber, Lombardi. Home runs—Slaughter 2. Sacrifices — Orengo, Joost. Double play — Orengo, Marion and Mize. Left on bases—Cincinnati 8, St. Louis 6. Bases on balls—off Warneke 2, off L. Moore 3. Struck out—by Warneke 1, by L. Moore 3, by Hutchings 1. Hits—off L. Moore 4 in 6 innings; off Hutchings 1 in 2. Losing pitcher—L. Moore.

Cubs Suffer Fourth Straight Defeat 4 to 3

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs suffered their fourth straight defeat today when Claude Passeau, a relief pitcher, walked Paul Waner with the bases filled in the 10th inning to give Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory. Vince DiMaggio had tied the score with a home run off Vern Olsen in the ninth.

The homer yas the ninth of the season for DiMaggio, who previously had singled, doubled and stolen a base off Ken Raffensberger, Chicago's starting pitcher.

PITTSBURGH	AB	R	H	O	A
Handley, 3b	4	1	1	0	0
Gustine, 2b	5	0	2	1	5
Elliott, rf	4	0	0	2	0
Vaughan, ss	2	0	0	0	1
Young, ss	1	0	0	3	1
Garms, xx	0	0	0	0	0
Brubaker, ss	0	0	0	0	1
Fletcher, 1b	4	0	0	11	1
Van Robays, lf	4	1	1	2	0
P. Waner, xxx	0	0	0	0	0
L. Waner, lf	0	0	0	0	0
DiMaggio, cf	5	2	3	4	0
Lopez, c	4	0	0	7	1
MacFayden, p	3	0	1	0	1
Heintzelman, p	0	0	0	0	1
Davis, xx	1	0	0	0	0
Brown, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	4	8	30	12

x—Batted for Heintzelman in 9th.
xx—Batted for Young in 10th.
xxx—Batted for Van Robays in 10th.

CHICAGO	AB	R	H	O	A
Hack, 3b	5	0	1	1	1
Herman, 2b	5	0	1	1	3
Gleeson, cf	5	1	1	3	0
Nicholson, rf	5	0	2	1	0
Dallessandro, lf	5	0	1	1	0
Cavaretta 1b	3	1	1	10	2
Collins, c	4	0	0	6	1
Mattick, ss	2	0	0	1	5
Galan, z	1	0	1	0	0
Rogel, ss	1	0	0	2	0
Raffensberger, p	2	1	1	1	0
Russell, zz	1	0	1	0	0
Olsen, p	1	0	1	1	1
Passeau, p	0	0	0	0	1
Totals	40	3	11	30	14

x—Batted for Mattick in 7th.
zz—Batted for Raffensberger in 7th.

PITTSBURGH	000 010 101 1—4
CHICAGO	000 010 110 0—3

Errors—Vaughan, Collins. Runs batted in—Dimaggio 2, P. Waner, Lopez, Herman, Nicholson, Russell. Two base hit—DiMaggio, Nicholson. Three base hits—Van Robays, Cavarretta. Home run—DiMaggio. Stolen base—Dimaggio. Sacrifice — Elliott. Doubit play—Heintzelman, Young and Fletcher. Left on bases—Pittsburgh 9, Chicago 8. Bases on balls— off MacFayden 1; off Raffensberger 1; off Olsen 2; off Passeau 2. Struck out—by MacFayden 4; by Heintzelman 1; by Brown 1; by Raffensberger 2; by Olsen 1; by Passeau 1. Hits—off MacFayden 7 in 6 1-3 innings; off Heintzelman 2 in 1 2-3; off Brown 2 in 2; off Raffensberger 5 in 7; off Olsen 3 in 2 (none out in 10th); off Passeau 0 in 1. Winning pitcher—Brown. Losing pitcher—Olsen.

Look Out, Carl!

NORMAN, Okla., July 1 (AP) — Mildred Hubbell, sister of the serious-faced Carl who flips 'em for the New York Giants, has started her career in softball.

Pitching for the Buck Sporting Goods girls of Oklahoma City, she defeated the Jones Drug, of Norman, 10 to 4, in her first league game.

She allowed only four hits and drove in a pair of runs with a single.

From the

PRESS BOX

Entering Politics Proves Johnson Is Really Tough

NEW YORK, July -.—A glutton for punishment is Walter Johnson, the Big Train of Washington. Not satisfied with having served a term as manager in Cleveland, the city of broken managers, Mr. Johnson now plans to do a stretch in Congress of his own free will.

The great fireball pitcher called around at the Republican convention in Philadelphia last week and presented Chairman Joe Martin with certain baseball equipment.

"Thanks," said Mr. Martin, peering curiously at the Big Train. It is Mr. Martin's experience that when people give him something, they usually want something. "What can I do for you?"

"I am running for Congress," said Walter.

Mr. Martin looked astonished.

"On the Republican ticket," added Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Martin whistled.

"And I am paying my respects," said the candidate modestly.

McNary Becomes Wistful

At the moment, Mr. Martin was short one vice-presidential nominee, and I do not doubt that he speculated briefly on the possibility of drafting Mr. Johnson for this highly desirable post, toward which the attitude of most of the politicians at the convention—including Mr. Martin himself—was, that they wouldn't take it if you handed it to them on a silver platter.

Speaking of which reminds me of the reaction of Senator Charles McNary, a good, solid man, when they finally rung the job on him. The Senator was downright wistful.

"I guess they have to have somebody from the west," he said, guessing right, as usual, "and it might as well be me. Okay, boys, take me away."

To the average man, with a happy home and a stake in the world, the sight of the Republicans assembled in convention—or the Democrats, for that matter—should be enough to keep him out of politics for life. However, Walter Johnson, as I said before, is a tough fellow.

For the best part of twenty years, he worked for a ball club in the submerged half of the second division of the American League. I am not drawing an analogy between the Washington team and the Republicans I am merely saying that the team was well buried, and that Mr. Johnson ignored this fact and worked his heart out. At least, part of it. He had heart to spare.

Nowadays—and in former days too—you often find ball players working for second-division cubs who are frankly angling for jobs with better teams, and doing their best to make the boss get rid of them. They loaf and grouse and slump—except when the team they have their eyes on reaches town. Then, for the education of the rival manager, they hit .400 and go forty miles to pull down fly balls.

Picked A Tough Job

All clubs looked alike to Mr. Johnson, except Washington. Washington was the club he worked for. The other clubs were the ones he had to beat, and he beat them without pity or favor or a backward glance at the team behind him, the sight of which was sometimes enough to frighten stronger men than Mr. Johnson.

The Big Train worked without faltering at one of baseball's toughest jobs When he could pitch no longer, he looked around for a managing job, and again picked baseball's toughest. He selected Cleveland, where he shared the office with a couple of hundred thousand fans, half a dozen baseball writers, and various guests from out of town. Walter was the only one who was paid to manage, but he was also the one to take the raps when the raps came.

He suffered most, perhaps, over his pitchers. They were not very good pitchers. They got kicked around considerably. Single-minded fellow that he was, Johnson remembered the countless innings he pitched for the lowly Nationals, toiling away without fear or assistance, never even reaching for the rosin bag—and he could not understand why these fellows lost their stuff halfway through a ball game, with five or six days' rest.

That was the hardest part of his job, which they finally took away from him. And now, not content with his honorable discharge and a life of peace and retirement, the Big Train wants to run for Congress.

If Joe Martin had had his welfare in mind last week, he would have said, "Stay out of it, Walter You deserve better than that."

Cleveland Drops Game to Browns

CLEVELAND, July 1 (AP) — The St. Louis Browns, currently the American league's No. 1 troublemakers, defeated the Cleveland Indians 2 to 1, tonight under the lights to cut the Tribe's lead over second-place Detroit to a single game.

A homer by Harlond Clift in the sixth inning with the bases empty after two were out gave the Browns their first run. The other came in the eighth after Ray Radcliff doubled and came home on a wild pitch.

The Indians got their ninth inning run gratis after Elden Auker, whose victory was his seventh in thirteen starts this season, walked Hal Trosky with the bases loaded, scoring Lou Boudreau.

Dirt Track Auto Race Stars Enter Uniontown Event

Winners Six Trial Heats To Compete in 50 Lap Final

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 1.—Everything is in readiness for the inaugural race at the new Uniontown Speedway, Thursday, July 4, at 2:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time. The new track is on the site of the famous Uniontown mile-and-one-eighth board track, two miles east of the city on Route 40. It has been just 24 years since the original Uniontown track was dedicated with all of the champion board track drivers entered to compete for the prize money.

The new track is vastly different from the old board track. It is a perfect saucer with high banked turns and with banked contours following both of the straightaways, thus enabling the spectators to see every turn of the wheel on each car any place on the track. It was constructed with the thought in mind of super-speed. Drivers can ride three-abreast at any portion of the new course. It has a black top surface of liquid asphalt. Those attending this inaugural race will see the finest, fastest and highest banked speedway in the eastern United States.

Champs To Compete

As was the case of the opening of the old wooden bowl 24 years ago, the entry list for the opening of this new track includes practically all of America's champion dirt track drivers. In this list are drivers from eleven different states, a number of whom are coming from as far away as California.

For the first time in the history of eastern automobile racing, the fans will be given an opportunity of seeing the nationally famous rimriders of the CSRA compete for the largest purse ever offered in dirt track driving. After the qualifying events there will be six trial heats of ten laps each, the drivers finishing first and second to compete at the final event of fifty laps, thus assuring a full afternoon of sensational driving and super-thrills.

The new grandstand has been completed and every safety feature possible has been provided both for the drivers and the spectators. A feature of the new track will be free automobile parking for everyone, space having been provided to park approximately 7,500 cars.

Tutwiler Leads in W. Va. Qualifying

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 1 (AP)—A seven-over-par 147 for thirty-six holes, brought on largely by a struggle to curb an erratic putter, gave defending champion Ed Tutwiler a shaky lead for qualifying honors today in West Virginia's twenty-seventh amateur golf tournament.

The twenty-year-old Mount Hope player, who with the rest of the first-day qualifiers had to contend with a blustery wind and a soggy course, put together a morning round of seventy-four and an afternoon seventy-three to score his 147.

Hot on his trail were three other contenders, who contented themselves with eighteen holes today and will finish qualifying play tomorrow.

Fred Bannerot of Charleston, the poker-faced champion of 1932 and 1933, also had a seventy-four for his first eighteen-hole round, and a good chance to do better if course conditions improve on the morrow.

Ray Vaughan, Lewisburg high school golfer who learned the game from his father, pro at the Lewisburg club, came around the old White Course in seventy-five to put himself in striking position for medal honors.

Jack Grimes of Wheeling, son of a Wheeling steel company executive, also posted seventy-five on his first round.

Gusty winds blew throughout the day. "King Tut", who breezed in from the eastern interscholastic championships last July to go through the state amateur and win, was a little rusty on the greens.

Jack Hoblitzel of Parkersburg put together a seventy-nine and seventy-three for a thirty-six-hole score of 153, making himself a berth in the championship flight when match play begins Wednesday.

The eighty entrants in the amateur had the choice of playing all thirty-six holes today, eighteen today and eighteen tomorrow, or thirty-six tomorrow. Those who finished on the first day were assured of a rest before the title grind started.

Keegan's Gassers Win

Bill Keegan's Gassers again handed the North End Merchants a setback yesterday, 9-4, to prove their earlier triumph was no fluke.

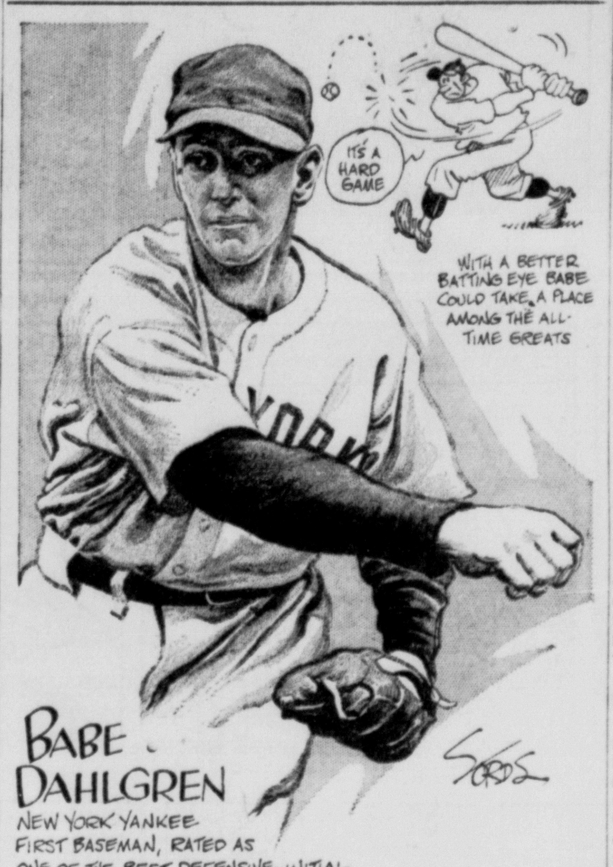

Twigg let the Merchants down with four hits, with J. Rice getting a triple.

The Gassers got eight hits off the slants of Sheetz, C. Lapp, Mulvey and Henderson getting two each, with one of Henderson's being good for the circuit.

KEEGANS	004 301 1—9 8 2
MERCHANTS	000 400 0—4 4 1

Twigg and C. Lapp; Sheetz and Skidmore.

BEST AFIELD - - - - - By Jack Sords

The Sportlight

by

GRANTLAND RICE

(Released by North Americans Newspaper Alliance)

BAER, THE QUESTION MARK

The main matter in the Baer-Galento extravaganza in Jersey City has no connection whatsoever with anything pertaining to the artistic side of this badly-mottled existence It will bring you no keen memories of James J. Corbett or Gene Tunney at their peak.

But it can be an entertaining and boisterous brawl one one condition—that Max Baer decides to keep swinging until something happens.

Among all the libelous cracks you might chuck at Tony Galento as an uplift to the race, no one can accuse him of any desire to quit at any time. No one can say that he shrinks from body contact, from heel to head, including both fists.

Unfortunately, the same thing can't be said about Maxie Baer, who has his varying moods. Max can fight a bit when he wants to, but he is afflicted by no unending urge to keep on taking punches that may happen to ruffle him up.

He never liked the fight game—and he likes it no better today. But he happened to be equipped by nature with a pair of hard-punching hands and a tough jaw. Also, no man ever looked as much like a heavyweight champion ought to look — six feet three, 215 pounds, lean and highly impressive in his ring appearance.

THE BAER CASE

You don't have to make out a case for Galento any more than you would for a gorilla led to action. Whether it be fantastic or terrible, Tony at least will be interested only in the complete demolition of his opponent.

Baer is equipped with more weapons. But it might interest Max to know that any number of keen observers are still confident that Baer will be the first to wilt when the roughhouse opens, and that he may decide on fairly short notice to spend the remainder of the evening in much softer pursuits.

Being a lover of luxury and the softer life, Max has never been able to understand just why he should keep on fighting after it ceases being fun. To keep on getting punched, when you can subside at almost any moment, doen't make any sense to his highly pliable nature.

He may switch around and change his nature against Galento. If he does the New Jersey air should be replete with flying fur, splinters, and gore.

THE MIGHT-HAVE-BEEN

Max Baer is one of the star Might-Have-Beens of the ring. Powerfully built, a terrific puncher at his best, equipped with a granite jaw and a cast iron body, he never had any real liking for his game and he had, least of all, no liking for the training grind.

Always thoroughly likeable, all he cared for was the brightest of the bright lights. He painted the Primrose Path a far deeper crimson than it had ever known. He let it overflow with splashes of carmine.

He was never willing to pay the price for ring success. Always good-natured, no one could keep him mad for over a few minutes. And no set of melancholy circumstances could suppress his clowning of his wisecracking.

Physically, he was all set up to be a great fighter—but not inwardly. I've known times when he had Jack Dempsey almost raving. Jack sensed the possibilities that Baer carried, but even Dempsey could never make him fight when the mood was missing. As it was too often.

For all practical purposes Baer's fists killed Frankie Campbell. Don't think he couldn't hit. And don't think he couldn't take it, when he had no other party on for the rest of the evening.

MAD CLOWNS

Here are two of the maddest clowns in ring history. On copy paper, at least, it is a natural.

Max will open his series of facial contortions at the start of the first round. Tony doesn't need any artificial aid to build up or enliven his frontispiece.

But while Max is liable to clown through at least part of the fight, Tony will remain serious. His peculiar form of fun making ends with the opening gong.

Baer might just as well set aside certain precautions against Galento's looping left. Tony likes tall targets for this boomerang attack, since tall targets give him more leverage. This looping left is about as hard a punch as the ring knows today—when it happens to land.

While rules are supposed to be rules, there is a healthy chance tonight that the pair involved will be allowed to make up their own regulations as they go along. Neither will be permitted to use an axe, machine gun or cleaver. But such minor matters as arson, mayhem, head locks, gouging and such will be encouraged.

The raw material is on hand for a lively evening—an evening that should be crowded with crude but punishing action if the two main entries simply let nature take its primeval course. No other trimmings are needed.

Leading Outfits Clash Thursday In Pen-Mar Loop

PEN-MAR LEAGUE
STANDING OF CLUBS

	W.	L.	Pct.
Lonaconing	10	2	.833
Bard	8	4	.667
Wellersburg	6	6	.500
Centerville	6	6	.500
Cumberland	6	7	.462
Mt. Savage	4	7	.364
Barton	4	8	.333
Eckhart	4	8	.333

SUNDAY'S RESULTS

Cumberland 8, Mt. Savage 2 (6).
Bard 12, Wellersburg 4.
Eckhart 6, Barton 2 (7).
Lonaconing 10, Centerville 6 (5).

GAMES THURSDAY

Wellersburg at Centerville.
Barton at Cumberland.
Bard at Lonaconing.
Eckhart at Mt. Savage.

GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

Centerville at Cumberland.
Wellersburg at Barton.
Lonaconing at Mt. Savage.
Bard at Eckhart.

Lonaconing and Bard tossers scored Pen-Mar Baseball League victories on Sunday to remain separated by a two-game margin, but the Pennsylvanians will have an opportunity to shave a full game off Coney's lead Thursday in one of four Fourth of July loop engagements.

FIGHT TO-NIGHT
9 P. M. Cumberland Time
NBC BLUE NETWORK WJZ
GALENTO vs. BAER
15 Round
Heavyweight Bout
Sponsored by ADAM HATS
Heinrich & Jenkins
20 N. Centre St.

It's "33 to 1"— this is my prize catch!

BLENDED 33 TIMES TO MAKE ONE GREAT BEER!

It takes 33 separate brews to bring you a single glass of beer so smooth and delicious!

YOU'LL enjoy the very look of this beer—its clarity, its sparkle, its creamy collar.

But wait till you taste it!

Such flavor, such smoothness, can only come from the blending of 33 separate brews . . . not two, or five, or ten, but 33—from 33 separate kettles!

Each brew is as fine as choicest ingredients and Pabst's 96 years of experience can make it. Then all 33 are brought together in perfect balance.

An expensive way to brew? Of course! It's like blending champagne, coffee, or tobacco to produce the finest. And that's what makes it America's Premium Beer . . . with a smoothness that is unique, and a goodness that never varies.

Meet Blue Ribbon today!

A BRAND NEW BONNET WITH A BLUE RIBBON ON IT!

It's the BLEND that Betters the Beer

Try Pabst Blue Ribbon and Prove it

Copyright 1940 Pabst Brewing Company, Milwaukee

Nat Hurler Hands Game to Yankees

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Lefty Ken Chase was as wild as an antelope and his teammates looked like something out of a menagerie today as the Washington Senators blew an 8 to 4 ball game to the New York Yankees.

Chase gave up four bases on balls, hit three batsmen and made two wild pitches over the nine inning route while his defense produced five errors.

These goings on overshadowed the fact that each club collected ten hits, but there was little enough comparison even here. The Yanks' quota included home runs by Joe Dimaggio and George Selkirk and a triple and two doubles.

NEW YORK	AB	R	H	O	A
Crosetti, ss	5	0	0	0	1
Rolfe, 3b	4	0	0	3	0
Keller, rf	5	2	2	2	0
Dimaggio, cf	3	2	1	4	0
Selkirk, lf	3	2	1	3	0
Gordon, 2b	5	1	2	1	1
Rosar, c	3	1	2	9	0
Dahlgren, 1b	5	0	2	5	0
Ruffing, p	4	0	0	0	1
Totals	37	8	10	27	3

WASHINGTON	AB	R	H	O	A
Case, cf	5	1	1	4	1
West, rf	5	0	0	2	0
Walker, lf	5	0	1	1	0
Bonura, 1b	5	1	2	14	0
Travis, 3b	4	1	2	0	5
Myer, 2b	3	0	1	3	3
Gelbert, ss	3	0	1	1	3
Earyl, c	3	0	0	2	0
Chase, p	3	0	1	0	1
Welaj, z	1	1	1	0	0
Totals	37	4	10	27	13

z—Batted for Chase in 9th.

NEW YORK	004 012 010—8
WASHINGTON	000 000 031—4

Errors—Selkirk, Bonura, Travis 2, Gelbert, Early. Runs batted in—DiMaggio 2, Dahigren 3, Gordon, Selkirk, Travis, Myer 2, Walker. Two base hits—Keller, Dahigren, Bonura, Travis. Three base hit—Rosar. Home runs—DiMaggio, Selkirk. Stolen bases—Crosetti, Rolfe. Sacrifices—Rosar, Selkirk. Left on bases—New York 11, Washington 9. Bases on balls—off Chase 4, off Ruffing 2. Struck out—by Chase 2; by Ruffing 7. Hit by pitcher—by Chase 3 (Selkirk, Crosetti, DiMaggio); by Ruffing (Gelbert). Wild pitches — Chase 2.

Lacy's, Golden's and Sam's Win S. E. Games

Lacy's won from Trozzo's 2-0; Sam's defeated Liberty Dairy, 9-2, and Golden's topped the Kings 10-9 in South End Boster League games yesterday.

W. Yoider made a shoestring catch of Jim Geatz' bid for a single to provide the fielding of the Lacy-Trozzo tilt. Weltman held the Trozzo team to two hits, while Saum was yielding only five to suffer a setback.

Hoyle let the Dairy down with three hits, as the Sam's smacked Dyer from the dias in the third and ran into tougher throwing when Mertens replaced him on the hillock.

E. Golden and J. Golden divided the hurling duties for their team the latter taking over when the King's counted five times to take the lead in the last inning, only to lose out when the ultimate winners worked in thre runs in their half.

The Davis Gassers forfeited to Post's.

SAM'S	034 011 x—9	8	4
Liberty	100 001 0—2	5	3

Hoyle and Lasanti. Dyer, Mertens and Irons.

TROZZO	000 000 0—0	2	1
LACY	010 001 x—2	5	1

Saum and J. Geats. Weltman and Sarver.

KING'S	120 001 5—9	9	2
GOLDEN'S	105 001 3—10	8	2

E. Golden, J. Golden and Boden. Watson and Long.

Davis forfeited to Post's.

Murphy Slipping

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP) — One reason why the Yankees haven't been as successful this year as during the last four seasons is that their star reliefer has been in a slump. Johnny Murphy, who once could be depended on to come in and save a game, has been far off stride this year. And the Yanks are in need of a new pinch pitcher.

ARROW KEEPS YOU COOL, CALM, AND RESPECTED

Arrow Summer Shirts — of which we have a very handsome assortment — are made of feather-weight fabrics, with tiny pores to let fresh air in, warm air out. They keep you cool always . . . and smart-looking too, for they come in pleasing patterns as well as whites, with perfect Arrow tailoring . . . . . $2 up

the Manhattan
Apparel for Gentlemen
67 Baltimore St. Phone 684
ARROW SHIRTS SANFORIZED

OPEN EVENINGS

AUTO FLAG SETS 3 Flags Complete with Suction Cup 15c

"Your Guide To Motor Economy"

LOU'S AUTO STORES
Cut-Rate Auto Accessories, Sporting Goods and Tires
6-10 BALTIMORE ST. CUMBERLAND, MD.
67 E. Main St. Frostburg, Md.

OPEN EVENINGS

BLONDIE — A Breach of Etiquette — By CHIC YOUNG

EVERYDAY MOVIES — By DENYS WORTMAN

"I hope they don't give me a vacation. I'm afraid they'll find out they can do without me."

BRICK BRADFORD—Seeks the Diamond Doll — Registered U. S. Patent Office — By WILLIAM RITT and CLARENCE GRAY

FUNNY SIDE UP — By ABNER DEAN

"Never mind Niagara Falls . . . after I get this tire fixed, head straight for Reno!"

MUGGS AND SKEETER — By WALLY BISHOP

BIG SISTER — Registered U. S. Patent Office — By LES FORGRAVE

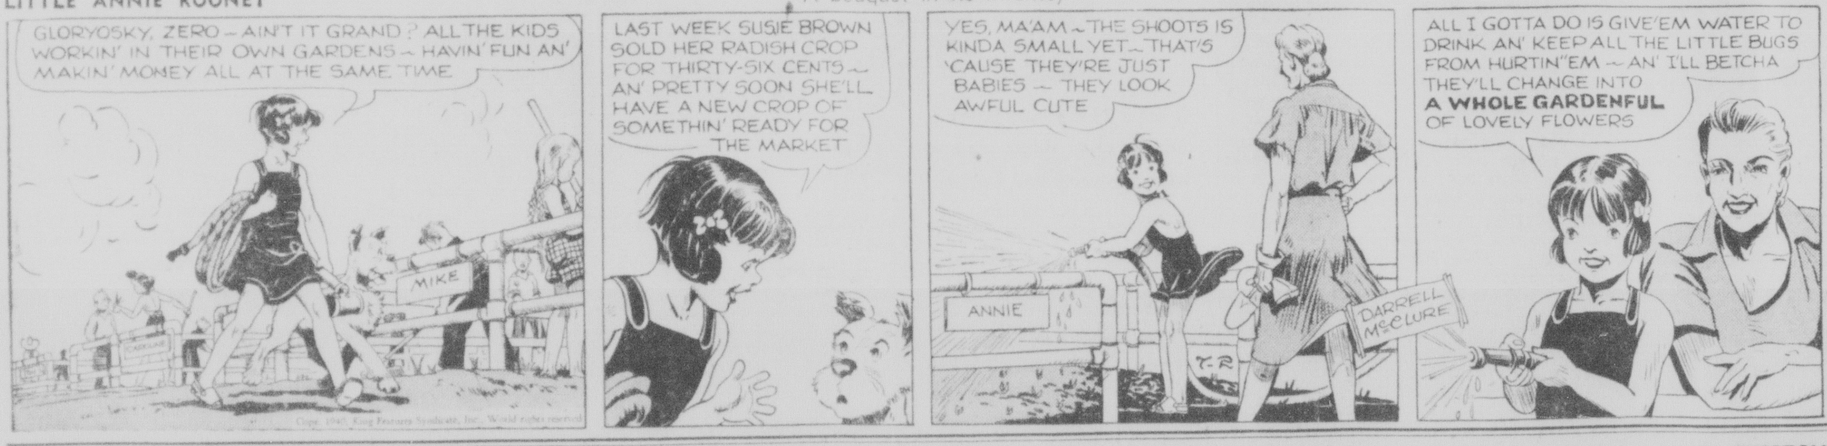

THE OLD HOME TOWN — Registered U. S. Patent Office — By STANLEY

"BARNEY GOOGLE AND SNUFFY SMITH" — "Bedlam and Babel" — By BILLY DeBECK

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY — A Bouquet in Its Infantcy — By BRANDON WALSH

TILLIE THE TOILER — When "Two Strikes" Mean Out — By WESTOVER

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS

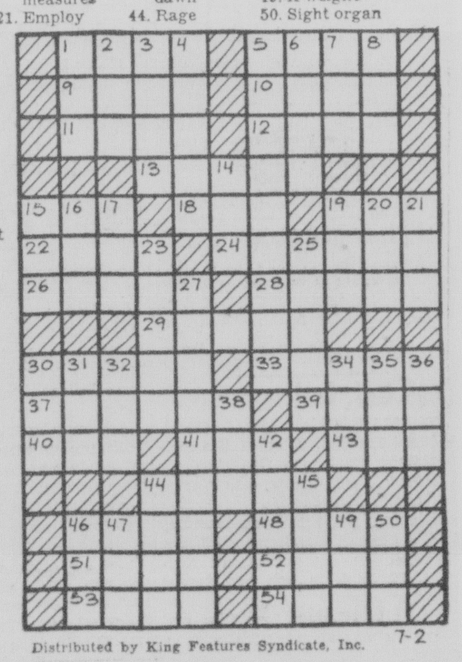

1. Small portions
5. Bermuda grass
9. Mine entrance
10. Body of Kaffir warriors
11. Time long past
12. Clenched hand
13. Tentative outline
15. Cry of a sheep
18. High priest of Israel
19. French town
22. Among
24. Leather-trimming tools
26. Billiard shot
28. Rub out
29. New England state
30. English forest
33. Titter
37. Animals
39. Daybreak
40. Large
41. Sign of indebtedness
43. Marry
44. Well filled
46. Beat and bruise
48. Detest
51. Location of Taj Mahal
52. Hailing term (naut.)
53. Tunis rulers
54. Rational creature
4. Cubic meter
5. Shy
6. Leave out
7. Goddess of harvests
8. Morsel
14. Malt beverage
15. Ferry-boat (var.)
16. Wine receptacle
17. Wind
19. Edible seed
20. Land-measures
21. Employ
23. Cupolas
25. Cupidity
27. Veils worn in Spain
30. Warp-yarn
31. Brazilian coin
32. Loose-hanging point
34. Teamster's command
35. Female sheep
36. Finish
38. French coin
42. Goddess of dawn
44. Rage
45. A sunk fence
46. Insane
47. Grow old
49. A weight
50. Sight organ

DOWN

1. Period of time
2. Fuss
3. Winged

PUMA SPAT
ONUS DILATE
LISP EVENED
ATT FLOW
RE JEER SPA
SOON YUKON
CEDE SENT INC SAT WYE
SOUL TOPE
INLAY AIRS
SET OAST AM
CULT AVE
INCITE BRAT
LOATHE UNGA
LONE NOEL

Yesterday's Answer

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. 7-2

BLONDIE — A Breach of Eitquette — By CHIC YOUNG

BRICK BRADFORD—Seeks the Diamond Doll — Registered U. S. Patent Office — By WILLIAM RITT and CLARENCE GRAY

MUGGS AND SKEETER — By WALLY BISHOP

BIG SISTER — Registered U. S. Patent Office — By LES FORGRAVE

"BARNEY GOOGLE AND SNUFFY SMITH" — "Bedlam and Babel" — By BILLY DeBECK

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY — A Bouquet in Its Infantcy — By BRANDON WALSH

TILLIE THE TOILER — When "Two Strikes" Mean Out — By WESTOVER

EVERYDAY MOVIES — By DENYS WORTMAN

"I hope they don't give me a vacation. I'm afraid they'll find out they can do without me."

FUNNY SIDE UP — By ABNER DEAN

"Never mind Niagara Falls . . . after I get this tire fixed, head straight for Reno!"

THE OLD HOME TOWN — By STANLEY

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS

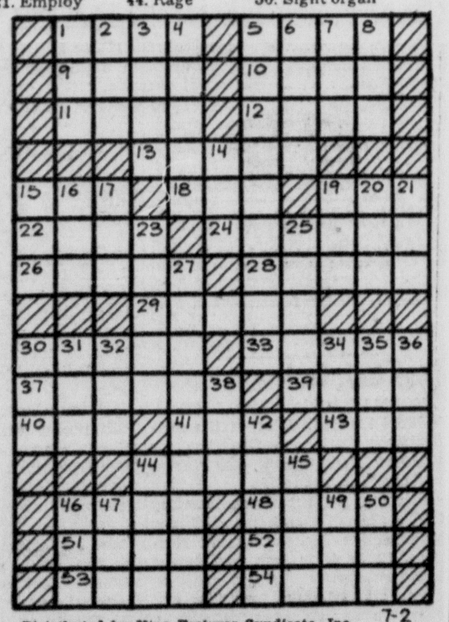

1. Small portions
5. Bermuda grass
9. Mine entrance
10. Body of Kaffir warriors
11. Time long past
12. Clenched hand
13. Tentative outline
15. Cry of a sheep
18. High priest of Israel
19. French town
22. Among
24. Leather-trimming tools
26. Billiard shot
28. Rub out
29. New England state
30. English forest
33. Titter
37. Animals
39. Daybreak
40. Large
41. Sign of indebtedness
43. Marry
44. Well filled
46. Beat and bruise
48. Detest
51. Location of Taj Mahal
52. Hailing term (naut.)
53. Tunis rulers
54. Rational

DOWN

1. Period of time
2. Fuss
3. Winged creature
4. Cubic meter
5. Shy
6. Leave out
7. Goddess of harvests
8. Morsel
14. Malt beverage
15. Ferry-boat (var.)
16. Wine receptacle
17. Wind
19. Edible seed
20. Land-measures
21. Employ
23. Cupolas
25. Cupidity
27. Veils worn in Spain
30. Warp-yarn
31. Brazilian coin
32. Loose-hanging point
34. Teamster's command
35. Female sheep
36. Finish
38. French coin
42. Goddess of dawn
44. Rage
45. A sunk fence
46. Insane
47. Grow old
49. A weight
50. Sight organ

Yesterday's Answer

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. 7-2

Buy a Better, Safer Used Car from a Dealer Listed Here

Funeral Notices

MANTHEIY—Mrs. Frances, aged 42, wife of John Mantheiy, 904 Michigan Ave., died Sunday, June 30th at Memorial Hospital. Funeral Mass 9 a. m., Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Interment in SS. Peter & Paul's Cemetery. Arrangements by Stein's Funeral Service. 7-2-1t-NT

Card of Thanks

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the recent illness and bereavement of Mrs. Harriet Walker, Beryl, W. Va. Also to those who sent floral tributes and donated the use of their automobiles.
JAMES G. WALKER AND FAMILY
7-1-1t—T-N

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to use during the illness and bereavement of Mrs. Cora M. Sullivan. Also to those who offered floral tributes and donated the use of their automobiles.
MR. AND MRS. C. MELVIN SULLIVAN, HARRY BUCY
7-1-1t—T-N

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the kind consideration extended to us during the illness and following the death of our beloved husband and father. We also wish to thank those who sent flowers and offered the use of their cars.
MRS. CHARLES McKENZIE AND CHILDREN
7-1-1t—T-N

1—Announcement

LIVESTOCK SALES
Bring your stock to Moorefield West Virginia Stock Yards and get highest cash prices. Largest sales in Eastern West Virginia.
6-21-2w-N

RAINBOW INN, Triple Lakes, will reopen July 4th under new management: Mr. & Mrs. W. M. McVitty, Jimmy Andrews and his Dixieland Orchestra playing. Admission 50c couple, dancing 9 to 1.
6-30-4t-T

2—Automotive

'35 FORD 1½ Ton Panel, '36 Chevrolet ½ Ton Panel. 15 Harrison St. 7-2-1t-N

USED AUTOMOBILES, 149 N. Mechanic. 6-21-31t-T

CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH. Oscar Gurley, George and Harrison Sts. Phone 1852. 7-30-tf

FOR A BETTER DEAL, BETTER DEAL at HEISKELL MOTOR SALES, Frostburg, Phone 79. 2-8-tf-N

USED CARS at Cumberland's Lowest Prices. M.G.K. Motor Co. 2-26-tf-T

1936 GRAHAM super charger, reasonable, installment plan. M. Mansor, Westernport, Md. 6-29-1w-T

OLDSMOBILE Sales and Service. St. Cloud Motor, Phone 14, Frostburg. 2-16-tf-T

REASONABLY PRICED sedans: 1936 Buick, 1938 Chevrolet. Perfect. Dave VanVoorhis, Hyndman. 6-20-24t-T

1929 NASH, bargain. H. L. Gillard, 422 Valley St. 6-28-31t-T

USED CARS — Collins Garage. Studebaker, Diamond "T" Sales. 125 S. Mechanic. Phone 1542. 2-29-tf-N

Fletcher Motor
Plymouth — De Soto
159 N. Centre Phone 280 Open Evenings

See "Dave" or "Art" at
RELIABLE MOTORS CO.
For a Better Used Car

Glisan's Garage
Distributor
Dodge and Plymouth Cars

SPOERL'S GARAGE, Inc.
38 N. George St. Since 1898 Phone 307

Eiler Chevrolet, Inc.
319 N. Mechanic St. Open Evenings
Phone 143

Taylor Motor Co.
THE BEST IN USED CARS
OPEN EVENINGS
317 N. Mechanic St. Phone 395

Fort Cumberland Motors
Packard Cars & White Trucks
361 Frederick St. Phone 2665

Frantz Oldsmobile
163 Bedford St. Phone 1994

WE PAY CASH FOR LATE MODEL USED CARS
ELCAR SALES
Opp. New Post Office. Phone 344

1940 Buick Trade-Ins
Thompson Buick
CORPORATION
429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

USED Ford CARS
ST. GEORGE MOTOR CO.

STEINLA
MOTOR AND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, INC.
HUDSON GRAHAM INTERNATIONAL
131 S. Mechanic St. Phone 2550

Special Sale
FOR THE FOURTH

'37 Ford Fordor Sedan $270
'35 Ford Coupe $160
'36 Chevrolet Coach $270
'36 Plymouth 4-Dr. Sedan $165
'35 Chevrolet Coupe $175
'34 Chevrolet 4-Dr. Sedan $165
'3 Plymouth 4-Dr. Sedan $135
Some Other Specials

Cut Rate Auto
149 N. Mechanic St.

2—Automotive

The Best Buys In Town
See These Values Today

1937 Chevrolet Town Sedan	$395
1937 Ford Sedan	$345
1938 Chevrolet Town Sedan	$445
1937 Ford Coupe	$295
1937 Plymouth Coupe	$345
1935 Plymouth Coupe	$225

ACT QUICKLY
TERMS—TRADES

EILER Chevrolet, Inc.
219 N. Mechanic St., Open Evenings

1939 Plymouth 4-Door Touring Sedan.
1938 Packard Convertible Coupe, radio, heater, white sidewall tires.
1938 Plymouth Business Coupe.
1937 Chrysler Imperial 4-Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater
1937 Packard Super "8" Sedan.
1937 Packard Six 4-Door Touring Sedan, Black Hawk Gray.
1937 Packard Six 4-Door Touring Sedan, Black Finish.
1937 Pontiac Six 4-Door Touring Sedan.
1937 Chrysler Royal 4-Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater.
1934 Ford Tudor Sedan.
1933 Chevrolet Coach.

EASY A. B. C. TERMS

Fort Cumberland Motors
361 Frederick St. Phone 2665

Repossessed Cars
FOR SALE CHEAP

1938 Dodge 4-Dr. Touring Sedan
1937 Buick 4-Dr. Sedan
1937 Chevrolet Coach
1935 Chrysler 4-Dr. Touring Sedan

Fidelity Finance Co.
48 Liberty Trust Bldg. Phone 734

Don't Gamble
Buy A Good Used Car at Your Olds Dealer

1939 Oldsmobile 2 Dr. Sedan
1939 Pontiac 2 Dr. Sedan
1939 Ford Tudor Sedan
1938 Plymouth Bus. Coupe
1938 Oldsmobile 2 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1938 Oldsmobile Bus. Coupe
1937 Oldsmobile 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1937 Chevrolet Bus. Coupe
1937 Buick 4 Dr. Sedan
1937 Packard Six Sedan
1937 Oldsmobile 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1937 Ford Tudor Sedan
1936 Oldsmobile 2 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1936 Oldsmobile 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan

G.M.A.C. Terms
Frantz Olds. Co.
Phone 1994 Cumberland, Md.

PONTIAC The Horse that SPOERL'S built
IS THE HOME OF GUARANTEED GOOD WILL USED CARS

1938 Chrysler 4 Door Trunk Sedan, Radio and Heater	$595
1937 Dodge 4 Door Sedan, Heater.	$395
1935 Oldsmobile 2 Door Sedan, Heater.	$265
1934 Plymouth Deluxe 4 Door Sedan.	$165

15 Others To Choose From

Spoerl's Garage Inc.
32 N. George St. Phone 307
Since 1898

2—Automotive

1931 BUICK, $65, 1023 Shades Lane. 6-25-1w-T

FORD COPE. $65. 119 Paca. 7-1-40 3t-T

THIS WEEK

1939 Plymouth 4-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers, etc. A dandy	$595
1938 Terraplane 2-door Tr. Sedan. Heater, etc., etc.	$495
1937 Plymouth 4-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers, etc. Fine	$450
1936 Plymouth 4-door Sedan. Perfect. Guaranteed mileage 21,000	$345
1935 Oldsmobile 4-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers. Like new	$335
1935 Plymouth 2-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers. Extra fine	$285
1934 Ford 4-door Sedan. Motor overhauled. New rings	$225
1934 Dodge 4-door Sedan. Fine. New rings, etc.	$235
1933 Chevrolet 4-door Sedan. A nice car	$165
1932 Dodge 4-door Sedan. 8 Cyld. tires and finish —Fine	$225
1932 Studebaker 4-door Sedan. A nice car	$125
1929 Dodge 2-door Sedan. Heater, radio, fine	$135
1929 Reo 4-door Sedan. Fine car	$ 75
1927 Star 4-door Sedan. Fine condition	$ 65

ALWAYS COME HERE FIRST
Trades — Terms — Cash
No Down Payment Plan

Glisan's Garage
North Center Street—At the Viaduct

Ford

1939 Lincoln Zephyr 4-door sedan, radio, heater, white sidewall tires, low mileage	$995
1939 Mercury Convertable Coupe, radio, heater, white sidewall tires	$795
1939 Ford Deluxe Tudor —Radio, heater	$595
1938 Olds Six 4-door touring, heater	$645
1937 Ford Deluxe Fordor touring, heater	$375
1937 Ford Fordor Sedan	$365
1937 Ford Tudor Sedan, heater	$325
1936 Olds Six 4-door touring, heater	$385
1936 Olds Six 2-door sedan, radio, heater	$365

St. George Motor Co.
Cumberland, Md. Phone 580

HEISKELL'S Week End Sales
Free Transfer Charges

Must reduce present stock of Used Cars to make room for trade-ins on new Ford and Mercury Cars. Season's best cars at "Wholesale Prices." Buy now! We will pay your Transfer Charges. Hurry!
Many others to choose from. Buy today and get your Transfer Charges FREE.

1939 Mercury Coupe Sedan, 5 Pass. A Beauty
1939 Mercury Tudor, Fine Condition

1939 Buick Sedan	$795
1938 Ford Deluxe Sedan	$465
1938 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$429
1937 Ford Fordor	$365
1937 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$349
1937 Ford Tudor	$339
1937 Ford Fordor	$295
1936 Ford Deluxe Fordor	$289
1936 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$267
1934 Chevrolet Coach	$124

HEISKELL MOTOR SALES
Frostburg's Ford and Mercury Dealer
Phone 79 Frostburg

2—Automotive

Best Buy's
Buick

1938 Pontiac Convertible Coupe, Radio and Heater	$595
1937 Buick 61 Sedan, Radio and Heater	$575
1937 Buick 41 Sedan, Heater, Mohair	$545
1937 Dodge 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$475
1937 Chrysler 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$475
1937 DeSoto 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$425
1937 Plymouth 2-Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$395
1936 Buick 41 Sedan, Radio and Heater	$475
1936 Plymouth 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$345
1936 Ford Fordor Touring Sedan	$275

Thompson Buick Corp.
429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

4—Repairs, Service Stations

SCHRIVER'S ONE STOP. Phone 172. 9-9-tf

6—Used Auto Parts, Tires

National Auto Wreckers
"House of a Million Parts"
We buy late model wrecked cars.
We sell late model parts.
BEDFORD, PHONE 23 EVERETT, 149

USED AUTO PARTS tires. Tri-State Auto Parts, 804 Lafayette Ave., rear B. & O. Y.M.C.A. Phone 1740. 6-23-31t-T

9—Baby Chicks

BABY CHICKS—The Farmers Feed & Supply Co., Harrison & George Sts. 3-18-tf-T

10—Beauty Parlors

PEARL'S PERMANENTS, $3.00, $5.00. Guaranteed. 3237-W. 9-24-tf-T

11—Business Opportunities

FOR SALE STORE—Small grocery and confectionery. Apply 249 Williams St. 6-27-1w-N

GROCERY BUSINESS and residence. Box 591-A % Times-News. 7-1-40 3t-T

GASOLINE STATION and lunch room, on Route 40 near Tourist Camp. Phone 2984-M. 7-2-2t-N

15—Electric Work, Fixtures

ELECTRIC WORK
MOTOR repairing, wiring and fixtures. Queen City Electric Co., 158 Frederick St. Phone 117. 10-22-tf-N

COOK ELECTRICALLY
Clean, quick, automatic, the most modern cooking method ever enjoyed by mankind.
SEE Your Electric Dealer or Potomac Edison Company

16—Money To Loan

AUTO LOANS
On Your Automobile — See Us Today
NATIONAL LOAN CO.
Lester Millenson, Mgr.
201 So. George at Harrison. Phone 2017

Cumberland Loan Co.
Makes Quick Confidential Loans on Any Article of Value. We Buy Old Gold.
Bargains On Unredeemed Merchandise
42 N. Mechanic St. Phone 607-M

LOANS on Real Estate. Hughes, Heskett, Attorneys, Clark-Keating Bldg. 11-22-tf-N

NEED MONEY?
Loans made on all articles of value. Bargains on unredeemed articles. Highest prices for old gold—33 Baltimore Street.
MORTON LOAN CO.

- LOANS
- MORTGAGES
- FINANCING

McKAIG'S

MONEY TO LOAN on first mortgages. Apply to F. A. Puderbaugh, D. F. McMullen, and Benny F. Epstein, attorneys-at-law, Rooms 58-59 Liberty Trust Building, City. 2-5-tf-T

MONEY LOANED on Real Estate. Morris Baron, Attorney, Law Building. 2-1-tf-N

Automobile Loans
New and Used Cars
New Low Rates
FIDELITY FINANCE CO.
48 Liberty Trust Bldg. Phone 734

17—For Rent

OFFICE ROOMS. Commercial Savings Bank. 11-15-tf-N

FURNISHED COTTAGE, Claude Twigg, below Lake Gordon. 6-23-31t-T

FIVE ROOM Furnished cottage, Town Creek, water, electric, good swimming and fishing. Apply 487 Goethe St. 7-1-40 1t-T

SIX ROOM Modern bungalow, Route 40, near Grantsville. Beautiful grounds, bathing. Dixie Tavern, Grantsville. 7-1-40 1wk-T

19—Furnished Apartments

TWO ROOMS, private, 16 Laing Ave. 6-6-tf-N

TWO, THREE, and four rooms completely furnished, Boulevard Hotel. 6-28-1w-T

THREE ROOMS, Coldspot sink, 158 Bedford St. 6-30-2t-T

TWO ROOM furnished apartment. 218 Columbia St. 6-30-3t-T

COZY APARTMENT, private bath. 312 Park St. 7-2-3t-N

20—Unfurnished Apartments

FOUR ROOMS, bath, adults Schmutz, Vandegrift, Welch. Phone 1180. 6-18-31t-N

FOUR ROOMS, bath, 101 Park St. Phone 3014. 5-8-tf-N

81 GREENE ST., 3 rooms, bath Phone 3453, evenings 2778-J. 5-13-tf-T

FIRST FLOOR apartment, three rooms, modern, adults only, 702 Maryland Ave. 6-12-tf-T

FOUR-ROOM APARTMENT, newly papered and painted, hot water all times, heat furnished, rent reasonable. Apply Macfarlane Bldg., corner Mechanic & Frederick Sts. 6-29-3t-T

804 GEPHART DRIVE, Phone 2849-J. 7-1-40 3t-T

THREE NICE Rooms, modern, private home, adults. 731 Maryland Ave., Phone 954-W. 7-1-40 3t-T

GREENE-LEE Apartments, 109 South Lee Street. Three Rooms, sun parlor, hot water heat. $30. Robert W. Young. 7-2-tf-N

THREE ROOMS, Modern. 721 Louisiana Ave. 7-2-2t-N

21—Apartments

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS. 23 N. Lee. 7-1-5t-N

22—Furnished Rooms

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, 226 Emily St. 6-19-31t-T

FRONT BEDROOM, lady, 204 Fulton. 6-20-tf-N

ROOMS, bath, porch, 233 Henderson Ave. 6-20-tf-T

TWO HOUSEKEEPING rooms, 20 Arch. 6-25-1w-N

TWO ROOMS, 24 Waverly Terrace. 6-27-tf-T

TWO ROOMS, front. Phone 2262-J. 6-27-tf-T

LARGE HOUSEKEEPING ROOM. 201 Paca. 6-27-5t-T

HOUSEKEEPING ROOM, new, 147 Polk. 6-27-1w-T

TWO HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, adults, 408 Park St. 6-29-tf-T

SMALL FURNISHED APARTMENT, 109 Park Street. Adults. 6-30-tf-T

BED-SITTING, 501 Rosehill Ave. 6-30-3t-T

TWO HOUSEKEEPING Rooms, 162 Bedford St. 7-1-40—3t-T

TWO ROOMS. Bath, centrally located. 166 N. Centre. 7-1-40 1t-T

23—Unfurnished Rooms

TWO ROOMS, gas and electric, $12 month, 317 Paca St. 6-29-3t-T

24—Houses for Rent

SIX ROOMS, modern, 419 Beall St., garage. Apply 421 Beall. 6-29-3t-N

26—For Sale Misc.

SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER, flooring, siding and frame in stock. Truckload delivery anywhere. Pennsylvania Lumber and Post Co., Inc., Hyndman, Pa. 6-7-31t-T

WESTERN VENITIAN BLINDS ALL TYPES AND STYLES. DaROL WINDOW SCREENS. DURO CHROME FURNITURE. CALL FOR AN ESTIMATE. Geo. P. Porter, 912-M. 3-29-tf-T

SEWING MACHINES—Singer and others $5 up. Sewing Machine Warehouse, 104 Frederick. Phone 386. 5-16-tf-N

GOOD PIANO $20. Phone 1745. 6-10-tf-T

"BUY NOW—Take up to 30 weeks to pay with our Coupon Charge Books! Maurice's Dept. Store, 42-44-46 Baltimore St. 5-11-tf-N

BLACK RASPBERRIES, 3 miles out Valley Road. Chas. VanPelt. 7-2-2t-N

NOTICE!
Gadabouts and Stay-At-Homers. Buy your summer needs now during Wards great Mid-Summer Sale. Save up to 30%. Montgomery Ward Order Office, 52 N. Centre St. 7-2-1t-N

TEN 7 week old pigs. Chester Borror, Flintstone. 7-2-1t-N

CHERRY DAY will be Friday July 5th. Appalachian Orchards, Pinto, Md. 7-2-3t-N

USED ICE BOX, cheap, used Easy Spinner washer. Cumberland Maytag Co., 66 N. Mechanic, Phone 848. 6-20-tf-N

HEADQUARTERS for porch gliders, oil stoves, all sizes. Reinhart's, People's Furniture Store, 17 Baltimore St. 6-26-1w-T

IMPROVED SOUR cherries now ready at our orchards one mile east Paw Paw, 25¢ gallon on tree. Appalachian Orchards, Inc. 6-27-1w-N

GENERAL ELECTRIC workshop, complete power equipment for workshop. Phone 2600. 6-27-1w-N

USED PIANOS, $35 up. These were traded in on our Weaver Verti Mignons and York Console Pianos. Seifert's, Mechanic at Frederick St. 6-27-tf-T

ELECTROLUX REFRIGERATORS, Cumberland Maytag Co., 66 N. Mechanic, Phone 848. 6-20-tf-N

IMPROVED LOT 60x300, fruit trees, grape arbor, driveways, sewer and water tapped, above sub station. To quick buyer for $300, Phone 2086 or 637 evenings. 6-26-5t-N

26—For Sale Misc.

AIR COMPRESSOR. Piano. Phone 171-W Frostburg. 6-13-31t-N

CONCRETE BLOCKS, 14 inch plain block (cash discounts). Lee Moore. 1546-W, 487 Central Ave. 6-11-31T-N

BLACK COCKER Spaniels, priced right, Phone 4002-F-11, Dr. J. R. Brinham. 6-30-3t-T

TWO ICE refrigerators, 158 Bedford St. 6-30-2t-T

FAMISE FOUNDATION Garments, $7.95 now $5.95; $12.95 now $9.95. Free figure analysis. Phone 3341-W. 6-22-31t-T

9x12 RUG, Four drawer chiffonier, single iron bed, wicker table, two chairs. 227 Wallace St. 7-1-40 2t-T

SAW TIMBER, White oak, red oak, maple and ash. Phone Lonaconing 23. 7-1-40 1t-T

26-A—Pets

SOWERS' PET SHOP, 111 N. Centre St. Complete line of birds, puppies, etc. Phone 2168. 5-27-tf

28-A—Florists

FLOWERS, BOPP'S. Phone 2582. 10-17-tf

29—Furniture, Stoves

USED FURNITURE, Millenson's. 317 Virginia. 1-6-tf-T

USED FURNITURE, Goodman's. 120 N. Centre. 6-4-tf-T

See The New Complete Line Of "Sellers" Kitchen and Breakfast Room Sets.
E. V. Coyle
45 Baltimore St.

29-A—Funeral Service

William H. Kight
Modern Funerals—Moderate Prices
Phone 1454 123 Columbia St.

32—Help Wanted, Female

CALIFRONIA PERFUME company has opening for 5 energetic women to sell AVON PRODUCTS. Full or part time. Good income and opportunity for advancement. Write Box 590-A % Times-News. 6-29-3t-T

WANTED—Cook and housekeeper, permanent job, good wages, small family. Apply after 6 p. m., 506 Patterson Ave. 6-30-4t-T

MIDDLE AGED Woman to help motherless family. Apply James Walker, Beryl, W. Va. 7-1-40 3t-T

GIRL FOR general housework, cook, go home nights. No children. State experience. Wages $7.00. Box 583-A % Times-News. 7-2-1t-N

33—Help Wanted, Male

TWO NEAT Appearing men 25 to 45, good references, to service established food products routes. Car furnished, salary or commission when qualified. Apply Great American Tea Co. 137 Union St., Tuesday 9 a. m. 7-1-40 1t-T

Alert and energetic man for good paying traveling position. Previous experience in organizing, training or selling required. Must be over 35 years of age, have car and be free to travel extensively. Excellent position with fine future possibilities for qualified person. Write, Charles Snyder, Promotion Manager, Commercial Bldg., Newark, N. Y. 7-2-2t-N

34—Salesmen Wanted

MAN WANTED. Good nearby Rawleigh Route now open. If willing to conduct Home service business while earning good living, write immediately. Rawleigh's, Dept. MDG-33-45, Chester, Pa. 7-2-3t-N

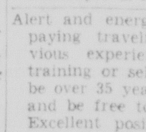

36—Instructions

MARYLAND STATE School of Beauty Culture, 59 Pershing. Tuition reduced. 5-8-tf-N

WESTERN MARYLAND largest and finest equipped Beauty College, full course, special $100. 5 S. Mechanic. 6-18-tf-T

CAGE SCHOOL of Beauty Culture, 15 S. Centre St. Phone 671-J. 1-10-tf-N

37—Musical Instruments

—BARGAINS—
In used instruments

Piano	$25
Trumpets	$20 up
Clarinets	$10 up
Banjo	$15

5 S. Liberty St.
MUSIC SHOP, INC.

38—Lost and Found

LOST—Billfold containing $15. Reward. Return, Times-News. 7-1-40-3t-T

39—Miscellaneous

LAWN MOWERS sharpened the factory way. F. L. Robinette. Phone 1385-M. 6-11-31t-N

RUGS CLEANED. C. W. Kissner, Phone 2990-W. 6-13-31t-N

CARPENTER REPAIR WORK, reasonable. 1840-W. 6-13-31t-T

FOR POWER shovel excavating, call Cement Products Co., Motor Transfer Co., Phone 1565. 3-11-tf-T

BLOCK LAYING, cement work, W. A. McKinney, 451 Henderson Ave. Phone 3525. 2-12-tf-T

LAWN MOWERS sharpened by machine. E. P. Wray, 3232-M. 6-27-tf-N

FOR BUS call W. W. Wilson, 4017-F-5. 6-28-31t-N

Buy Real Estate—It's Safer

WHAT $4700 WILL BUY

A dandy six-room semi-bungalow, brick with shingled gables, bath, full basement, garage and street improvements. An attractively planned dwelling with plenty of day-light, also a brick fire-place and warm-air furnace. Located No. 736 Oldtown Road in the Johnson Heights Addition. Price $4,700.00

Very well located and nicely planned eight-room dwelling, located No. 13 East First Street, with bath, attic, hot-water heat, porches and slate roof. This property is being completely reconditioned inside and out and will make a very attractive and substantial proposition when completed. Price $4,750.00

ROBERT W. YOUNG
1st National Bank Bldg. Phone 632

NARROWS PARK

Modern six room bungalow—all rooms on one floor. Large living room with stone fireplace. Garage in basement. This property is in good condition and would make a most desirable home. Price and terms upon application.

LA VALE

Modern bungalow containing four rooms and bath, near LaVale school. Front and back porches. Garage in basement. Large lot with beautiful shade trees. An ideal little home for a small family. Priced at $2,657 for a quick sale.

D. P. MILLER CO.
INSURANCE & REAL ESTATE
Phone 433 No. 1 N. Liberty St.

MODERN BRICK BUNGALOW

This desirable home is located in LaVale, Woodlawn addition. Has nine rooms planned for two families, hot water heat and oak floors. The lot is 90 x 100 corner Woodlawn Avenue and Third Street. Offered at the bargain price of ..... $5,250.00.

Located in North Cumberland we offer a two-story frame residence with six rooms, modern except furnace. Price $2,800.00.

J. L. HOWSARE
124 Bedford St. Phone 2044-J

Homewood Addition on Mt. Savage Road
$100 Lots For $40

We intend to sell 100 lots that are really worth $100 each for $40 each on the following terms. All cash or $5 cash and $5 each month for seven months, no interest charged if you pay promptly. Or we will sell you land off the upper part of Homewood Addition for $40 an acre on the same terms. As soon as 100 lots or 100 acres of land are sold then the price of $100 a lot and $100 an acre is reestablished. You save $60 a lot if you act quickly.

"see PERRIN about it"
Perrin Bldg. on Pershing St., Phone 422

FOR SALE

Located at 627 Princeton Street is this most desirable four-room bungalow. Lot 50 x 100 feet. This property is offered at a bargain price of $4,200.00. Have us show you this now.

WIEBEL-BEACHAM
Real Estate-Insurance
109 Frederick St. Phone 3453
Evening Phones 2178-J and 1611-M

FOR SALE

Located on Union Grove Road is this most desirable brick dwelling. Three rooms on first floor, two bed rooms and bath on second floor. Recreatin room in basement. Garage for two cars. Five acres of land.

FOR RENT

STOREROOMS

No. 126 Bedford St.	$35.00
No. 144 N. Centre St.	30.00
No. 321 Virginia Ave.	35.00
No. 34 Oak St.	30.00

APARTMENTS

We have several very desirable apartments located on the West Side available for immediate occupancy, ranging from $30 to $70 per month.

M. D. REINHART
Real Estate & Insurance
Phone 1858 Liberty Trust Bldg.

North Cumberland

We have for sale a brand new stone and frame dwelling in Roeder's Addition in North Cumberland. Very modern with six rooms, bath, concrete basement with garage. Steam heat. Priced at $6,300 with convenient terms. Let us show you this house today.

The J. H. HOLZSHU CO.
Insurance-Real Estate-Rentals
71 S. Centre St. Phone 458
Evening Phone 3188-R

FOR SALE

This desirable cottage, completely furnished, is located at Deep Creek Lake, and consists of living room, two bed rooms, bath, kitchen and screened-in porch for a dining room and a large porch completely across the front. There is also an outboard motor boat and canoe.

There are five acres of land with plenty of room for any type of sport. Water is furnished to this property from a drilled well and reservoir. This property is priced at only $4,500.00.

THE CUMBERLAND IMPROVEMENT CO.
Liberty Trust Bldg. Phone 2805

40—Metal Weatherstripping

"WE DEFY THE ELEMENTS"
Defiance Weatherstrip Co., F. C. Haas, 314 Fayette. Phone 2063. 9-23-tf

GUARANTEED WEATHERSTRIPPING Service since 1922. Phone 3270. E. W. Armstrong Co., 28 N. Liberty. 6-6-tf

41—Moving, Storing

JOHN APPEL TRANSFER. Local and Long Distance Moving. Phone 1623. 11-13-tf-T

BENNETT TRANSFER and Storage Co., local and long distance hauling. Phone 3060. 3-11-tf-N

42—Painting, Paperhanging

PAPERHANGING, paper cleaning. H. Rose, 2954-W. 6-1-31t-N

J. H. BROTEMARKLE, paperhanging. Phone 2122-W. 6-3-31t-T

PAPERHANGING, J. D. Breighner. Phone 563-W. 6-14-31t-T

U. E. BUSER, Paperhanger. Phone 2428-J. 6-22-31t-N

PAPERHANGING, general repair work. Phone 796-W. 6-25-31t-N

43-A—Professional Services

HEDRICK—Dentist, 223 Baltimore Ave. 5-21-tf-N

43-B—Photography

POST CARD PICTURES 3 for 50c
Electric Studio 22 Baltimore St.
6-12-31t-T

PHOTOFINISHING, 24 Hour Service. Work guaranteed. Poling's, 105 Henry St. 7-2-tf-N

44—Piano Tuning

LEO C. REICHERT—Phone 3254. 6-18-tf

RAYMOND B. WELLS, Phone 2912-R. 1-9-tf-N

46 — Radio, Service

ANY RADIO tested free. Satisfactory repairs guaranteed. Morrissey's, 135 N. Centre. Phone 1919-W. 6-28-31t-N

47—Real Estate for Sale

TWO LOTS, LaVale, National Highway and Woodland Ave., cheap. 53 Greene St. 6-7-31t-T

LOTS, HOUSES, Farms, Business Bargains, payments, exchanges, anywhere. Popp, Phone 123. 6-19-31t-N

9 ROOM HOUSE, 10 acres land, on Main Highway, good business, quick sale. Apply 659 Greene St. 6-25-1w-N

MODERN THREE room bungalow, small down payment, the balance like rent. Write Box 584-A, % Times-News. 6-26-tf-N

SIX ROOM Brick House, new, every convenience. Large lot, garage. 3232-J. 7-1-40 1wk-T

TWO LOTS, Johnson Heights, Memorial Ave., St. Marys Ave. Cheap. D. W. Hovatter, 720 Hilltop Drive. 7-1-40 3t-T

48—Roofing, Spouting

ROOF LEAKING! General roofing, spouting. John Brinker, Phone 2753. 6-10-31t-T

49-A—Typewriters, Service

ROYAL PORTABLE. Call for a demonstration. Myron S. Landis, Phone 1900. 11-20-tf-T

50—Upholstering

FURNITURE UPHOLSTERING, E. Posselt, 131 Frederick St. Phone 1868-W. 9-3-tf

51—Wanted to Buy

Cash for sewing machines regardless condition. Phone 386.

WANTED — Tract of saw timber. A. H. Baker, 1201 Lexington Ave. Phone 965-W. 7-2-2t-N

52—Wanted Miscellaneous

WANTED—Room and board for 2 boys in private family. Reasonable. Box 589-A % Times-News. 6-29-3t-T

54—Situations Wanted

HOUSEKEEPING. Cooking by experienced woman. Box 592-A % Times-News. 7-2-2t-N

LEGAL NOTICE

Thursday next being July 4th, and a legal holiday this bank will not be open for business on that day.
Will be open for business on Friday, July 5.
LIBERTY TRUST COMPANY
W. R. Brewer, President
—Adv. N-T-July-2-3

LEGAL NOTICE

Thursday next being July 4th, and a legal holiday this bank will not be open for business on that day.
Will be open for business on Friday, July 5.
THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK
Charles E. Metz, Cashier
—Adv. N-T-July-2-3

Receivers' Sale of Hotel and Bar Business

Under a Decree of the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, passed in No. 15,87 Equity, the undersigned Receivers will offer at public sale as an entirety the assets of the hotel and bar business conducted under the name of "McGuire and Ricker," at Nos. 176-178 Baltimore Street, in Cumberland, Maryland, said sale to be held on TUESDAY, JULY 9TH, 1940,

AT 10:00 A. M.,
At No. 176 Baltimore Street,
Cumberland, Md.

Said assets consist principally of the following:

1. A five year lease of the Cavanaugh Hotel Building, dated January 25th, 1940; the leased premises containing on the ground floor a bar room and tap room, and fifteen hotel rooms upstairs, together with a liquor license transferable only to a purchaser approved by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland. Rental $400.00 per month.

2. Bar and bar fixtures located at No. 178 Baltimore Street.

3. Restaurant furnishings in No. 176 Baltimore Street, consisting principally of 17 Duro-chrome Tables, 56 Duro-chrome Chairs and 6 Coolumers (subject to a recorded conditional sale contract under which $710.00 is still due, payable at the rate of $45.00 per month). Show Case. Water Dispenser.

4. Kitchen stoves and kitchen equipment, restaurant dishes and flatware.

5. Furnishings for eleven hotel bedrooms.

6. Miscellaneous stock of whiskey and wine.

A complete inventory may be seen upon application to the Receivers after July 1st.

TERMS OF SALE: Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) cash on day of sale, balance upon ratification of sale by the Circuit Court.

All taxes, water rents and other public charges will be adjusted to day of sale.
CHARLES Z. HESKETT,
GEORGE HENDERSON,
Receivers.
C. C. WILLISON,
Auctioneer.
Advertisement N-June 26, July 2-6-3

Buy a Better, Safer Used Car from a Dealer Listed Here

Funeral Notices

MANTHEIY—Mrs. Frances, aged 43, wife of John Mantheiy, 904 Michigan Ave., died Sunday, June 30th at Memorial Hospital. Funeral Mass 9 a. m., Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Interment in SS. Peter & Paul's Cemetery. Arrangements by Stein's Funeral Service. 7-2-1t-NT

Card of Thanks

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the recent illness and bereavement of Mrs. Harriet Walker, Beryl, W. Va. Also to those who sent floral tributes and donated the use of their automobiles.
JAMES G. WALKER AND FAMILY
7-1-1t—T-N

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to use during the illness and bereavement of Mrs. Cora M. Sullivan. Also to those who offered floral tributes and donated the use of their automobiles.
MR. AND MRS. C. MELVIN SULLIVAN, HARRY BUCY
7-1-1t—T-N

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the kind consideration extended to us during the illness and following the death of our beloved husband and father. We also wish to thank those who sent flowers and offered the use of their cars.
MRS. CHARLES McKENZIE AND CHILDREN
7-1-1t—T-N

1—Announcement

LIVESTOCK SALES
Bring your stock to Moorefield West Virginia Stock Yards and get highest cash prices. Largest sales in Eastern West Virginia.
6-21-2w-N

RAINBOW INN, Triple Lakes, will reopen July 4th under new management: Mr. & Mrs. W. M. McVitty, Jimmy Andrews and his Dixieland Orchestra playing. Admission 50c couple, dancing 9 to 1.
6-30-4t-T

2—Automotive

'35 FORD 1½ Ton Panel, '36 Chevrolet ½ Ton Panel. 15 Harrison St. 7-2-1t-N

USED AUTOMOBILES, 149 N. Mechanic. 6-21-31t-T

CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH. Oscar Gurley, George and Harrison Sts. Phone 1852. 7-30-tf

FOR A BETTER DEAL, BETTER DEAL at HEISKELL MOTOR SALES, Frostburg, Phone 79. 2-8-tf-N

USED CARS at Cumberland's Lowest Prices. M.G.K. Motor Co. 2-26-tf-T

1936 GRAHAM super charger, reasonable, installment plan. M. Mansor, Westernport, Md. 6-29-1w-T

OLDSMOBILE Sales and Service. St. Cloud Motor. Phone 14, Frostburg. 2-16-tf-T

REASONABLY PRICED sedans: 1936 Buick, 1938 Chevrolet. Perfect. Dave VanVoorhis, Hyndman. 6-20-24t-T

1929 NASH, bargain. H. L. Gillard, 422 Valley St. 6-28-31t-T

USED CARS — Collins Garage. Studebaker, Diamond "T" Sales. 125 S. Mechanic. Phone 1542. 2-29-tf-N

Fletcher Motor
Plymouth — De Soto
159 N. Centre Phone 280 Open Evenings

See "Dave" or "Art" at
RELIABLE MOTORS CO.
For a Better Used Car

Glisan's Garage
Distributor
Dodge and Plymouth Cars

SPOERL'S GARAGE, Inc.
38 N. George St. Since 1898 Phone 307

Eiler Chevrolet, Inc.
219 N. Mechanic St. Open Evenings
Phone 143

Taylor Motor Co.
THE BEST IN USED CARS
OPEN EVENINGS
217 N. Mechanic St. Phone 395

Fort Cumberland Motors
Packard Cars & White Trucks
361 Frederick St. Phone 2665

Frantz Oldsmobile
163 Bedford St. Phone 1994

WE PAY CASH FOR LATE MODEL USED CARS
ELCAR SALES
Opp. New Post Office. Phone 344

1940 Buick Trade-Ins
Thompson Buick
CORPORATION
429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

USED Ford CARS
ST. GEORGE MOTOR CO.

STEINLA
MOTOR AND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, INC.
HUDSON GRAHAM INTERNATIONAL
131 S. Mechanic St. Phone 2530

Special Sale
FOR THE FOURTH

'37 Ford Fordor Sedan	$270
'35 Ford Coupe	$160
'36 Chevrolet Coach	$270
'36 Plymouth 4-Dr. Sedan	$165
'35 Chevrolet Coupe	$175
'34 Chevrolet 4-Dr. Sedan	$165
'3 Plymouth 4-Dr. Sedan	$135

Some Other Specials

Cut Rate Auto
149 N. Mechanic St.

2—Automotive

The Best Buys In Town
See These Values Today

1937 Chevrolet Town Sedan	$395
1937 Ford Sedan	$345
1938 Chevrolet Town Sedan	$445
1937 Ford Coupe	$295
1937 Plymouth Coupe	$345
1935 Plymouth Coupe	$225

ACT QUICKLY
TERMS—TRADES

EILER Chevrolet, Inc.
219 N. Mechanic St., Open Evenings

1939 Plymouth 4-Door Touring Sedan.
1938 Packard Convertible Coupe, radio, heater, white sidewall tires.
1938 Plymouth Business Coupe.
1937 Chrysler Imperial 4-Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater
1937 Packard Super "8" Sedan.
1937 Packard Six 4-Door Touring Sedan, Black Hawk Gray.
1937 Packard Six 4-Door Touring Sedan, Black Finish.
1937 Pontiac Six 4-Door Touring Sedan.
1937 Chrysler Royal 4-Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater.
1934 Ford Tudor Sedan.
1933 Chevrolet Coach.

EASY A. B. C. TERMS

Fort Cumberland Motors
361 Frederick St. Phone 2665

Repossessed Cars
FOR SALE CHEAP

1938 Dodge 4-Dr. Touring Sedan
1937 Buick 4-Dr. Sedan
1937 Chevrolet Coach
1935 Chrysler 4-Dr. Touring Sedan

Fidelity Finance Co.
48 Liberty Trust Bldg. Phone 734

Don't Gamble
Buy A Good Used Car at Your Olds Dealer

1939 Oldsmobile 2 Dr. Sedan
1939 Pontiac 2 Dr. Sedan
1939 Ford Tudor Sedan
1938 Plymouth Bus. Coupe
1938 Oldsmobile 2 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1938 Oldsmobile Bus. Coupe
1937 Oldsmobile 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1937 Chevrolet Bus. Coupe
1937 Buick 4 Dr. Sedan
1937 Packard Six Sedan
1937 Oldsmobile 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1937 Ford Tudor Sedan
1936 Oldsmobile 2 Dr. Tr. Sedan
1936 Oldsmobile 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan

G.M.A.C. Terms
Frantz Olds. Co.
Phone 1994 Cumberland, Md.

PONTIAC The Horse that SPOERL'S built
IS THE HOME OF GUARANTEED GOOD WILL USED CARS

1938 Chrysler 4 Door Trunk Sedan, Radio and Heater.	$595
1937 Dodge 4 Door Sedan, Heater.	$395
1935 Oldsmobile 2 Door Sedan, Heater.	$265
1934 Plymouth Deluxe 4 Door Sedan.	$165

15 Others To Choose From

Sports Garage Inc
32 N. George St. Phone 307
Since 1898

2—Automotive

1931 BUICK, $65, 1023 Shades Lane. 6-25-1w-T

FORD COPE. $65. 119 Paca. 7-1-40 3t-T

THIS WEEK

1939 Plymouth 4-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers, etc. A dandy	$595
1938 Terraplane 2-door Tr. Sedan. Heater, etc., etc.	$495
1937 Plymouth 4-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers, etc. Fine	$450
1936 Plymouth 4-door Sedan. Perfect. Guaranteed mileage 21,000	$345
1935 Oldsmobile 4-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers. Like new	$335
1935 Plymouth 2-door Sedan. Heater, seat covers. Extra fine	$285
1934 Ford 4-door Sedan. Motor overhauled. New rings	$225
1934 Dodge 4-door Sedan. Fine. New rings, etc.	$235
1933 Chevrolet 4-door Sedan. A nice car	$165
1932 Dodge 4-door Sedan. 8 Cyld. tires and finish —Fine	$225
1932 Studebaker 4-door Sedan. A nice car	$125
1929 Dodge 2-door Sedan. Heater, radio, fine	$135
1929 Reo 4-door Sedan. Fine car	$ 75
1927 Star 4-door Sedan. Fine condition	$ 65

ALWAYS COME HERE FIRST
Trades — Terms — Cash
No Down Payment Plan

Glisan's Garage
North Center Street—At the Viaduct

Ford

1939 Lincoln Zephyr 4-door sedan, radio, heater, white sidewall tires, low mileage	$995
1939 Mercury Convertable Coupe, radio, heater, white sidewall tires	$795
1939 Ford Deluxe Tudor —Radio, heater	$595
1938 Olds Six 4-door touring, heater	$645
1937 Ford Deluxe Fordor touring, heater	$375
1937 Ford Fordor Sedan	$365
1937 Ford Tudor Sedan, heater	$325
1936 Olds Six 4-door touring, heater	$385
1936 Olds Six 2-door sedan, radio, heater	$365

St. George Motor Co.
Cumberland, Md. Phone 580

HEISKELL'S Week End Sales
Free Transfer Charges

Must reduce present stock of Used Cars to make room for trade-ins on new Ford and Mercury Cars. Season's best cars at "Wholesale Prices." Buy now! We will pay your Transfer Charges. Hurry!
Many others to choose from. Buy today and get your Transfer Charges FREE.

1939 Mercury Coupe Sedan, 5 Pass. A Beauty
1939 Mercury Tudor, Fine Condition

1939 Buick Sedan	$795
1938 Ford Deluxe Sedan	$465
1938 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$429
1937 Ford Fordor	$365
1937 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$349
1937 Ford Tudor	$339
1937 Ford Fordor	$295
1936 Ford Deluxe Fordor	$289
1936 Ford Deluxe Tudor	$267
1934 Chevrolet Coach	$124

HEISKELL MOTOR SALES
Frostburg's Ford and Mercury Dealer
Phone 79 Frostburg

2—Automotive

Best Buy's
Buick

1938 Pontiac Convertible Coupe, Radio and Heater	$595
1937 Buick 61 Sedan, Radio and Heater	$575
1937 Buick 41 Sedan, Heater, Mohair	$545
1937 Dodge 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$475
1937 Chrysler 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$475
1937 DeSoto 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$425
1937 Plymouth 2-Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$395
1936 Buick 41 Sedan, Radio and Heater	$475
1936 Plymouth 4 Door Touring Sedan, Radio and Heater	$345
1936 Ford Fordor Touring Sedan	$275

Thompson Buick Corp.
429 N. Mechanic St. Phone 1470

4—Repairs, Service Stations

SCHRIVER'S ONE STOP. Phone 172. 9-9-tf

6—Used Auto Parts, Tires

National Auto Wreckers
"House of a Million Parts"
We buy late model wrecked cars.
We sell late model parts.
BEDFORD, PHONE 23 EVERETT, 149

USED AUTO PARTS, tires. Tri-State Auto Parts, 804 Lafayette Ave., rear B. & O. Y.M.C.A. Phone 1740. 6-23-31t-T

9—Baby Chicks

BABY CHICKS—The Farmers Feed & Supply Co., Harrison & George Sts. 3-18-tf-T

10—Beauty Parlors

PEARL'S PERMANENTS, $3.00, $5.00. Guaranteed. 3237-W. 9-24-tf-T

11—Business Opportunities

FOR SALE STORE—Small grocery and confectionery. Apply 249 Williams St. 6-27-1w-N

GROCERY BUSINESS and residence. Box 591-A % Times-News. 7-1-40 3t-T

GASOLINE STATION and lunch room, on Route 40 near Tourist Camp. Phone 2984-M. 7-2-2t-N

15—Electric Work, Fixtures

ELECTRIC WORK
MOTOR repairing, wiring and fixtures. Queen City Electric Co., 158 Frederick St. Phone 117. 10-22-tf-N

COOK ELECTRICALLY
Clean, quick, automatic, the most modern cooking method ever enjoyed by mankind.
SEE Your Electric Dealer or Potomac Edison Company

16—Money To Loan

AUTO LOANS
On Your Automobile — See Us Today
NATIONAL LOAN CO.
Lester Millenson, Mgr.
201 So. George at Harrison. Phone 2017

Cumberland Loan Co.
Makes Quick Confidential Loans on Any Article of Value. We Buy Old Gold.
Bargains On Unredeemed Merchandise
42 N. Mechanic St. Phone 607-M

LOANS on Real Estate. Hughes, Heskett, Attorneys, Clark-Keating Bldg. 11-22-tf-N

NEED MONEY?
Loans made on all articles of value. Bargains on unredeemed articles. Highest prices for old gold—33 Baltimore Street.
MORTON LOAN CO.

- LOANS
- MORTGAGES
- FINANCING

McKAIG'S

MONEY TO LOAN on first mortgages. Apply to F. A. Puderbaugh, D. F. McMullen, and Benny F. Epstein, attorneys-at-law, Rooms 58-59 Liberty Trust Building, City. 2-5-tf-T

MONEY LOANED on Real Estate. Morris Baron, Attorney, Law Building. 2-1-tf-N

Automobile Loans
New and Used Cars
New Low Rates
FIDELITY FINANCE CO.
48 Liberty Trust Bldg. Phone 734

17—For Rent

OFFICE ROOMS. Commercial Savings Bank. 11-15-tf-N

FURNISHED COTTAGE, Claude Twigg, below Lake Gordon. 6-23-31t-T

FIVE ROOM Furnished cottage, Town Creek, water, electric, good swimming and fishing. Apply 487 Goethe St. 7-1-40 1t-T

SIX ROOM Modern bungalow, Route 40, near Grantsville. Beautiful grounds, bathing. Dixie Tavern, Grantsville. 7-1-40 1wk-T

19—Furnished Apartments

TWO ROOMS, private, 16 Laing Ave. 6-6-tf-N

TWO, THREE, and four rooms completely furnished, Boulevard Hotel. 6-28-1w-T

THREE ROOMS, Coldspot sink, 158 Bedford St. 6-30-2t-T

TWO ROOM furnished apartment. 218 Columbia St. 6-30-3t-T

COZY APARTMENT, private bath. 312 Park St. 7-2-3t-N

20—Unfurnished Apartments

FOUR ROOMS, bath, adults. Schmutz, Vandegrift, Welch. Phone 1180. 6-18-31t-N

FOUR ROOMS, bath, 101 Park St. Phone 3014. 5-8-tf-N

81 GREENE ST., 3 rooms, bath. Phone 3453, evenings 2778-J. 5-13-tf-T

FIRST FLOOR apartment, three rooms, modern, adults only, 702 Maryland Ave. 6-12-tf-T

FOUR-ROOM APARTMENT, newly papered and painted, hot water all times, heat furnished, rent reasonable. Apply Macfarlane Bldg., corner Mechanic & Frederick Sts. 6-29-3t-T

804 GEPHART DRIVE. Phone 2849-J. 7-1-40 3t-T

THREE NICE Rooms, modern, private home, adults. 751 Maryland Ave., Phone 954-W. 7-1-40 3t-T

GREENE-LEE Apartments, 109 South Lee Street. Three Rooms, sun parlor, hot water heat. $30. Robert W. Young. 7-2-tf-N

THREE ROOMS, Modern. 721 Louisiana Ave. 7-2-2t-N

21—Apartments

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS. 23 N. Lee. 7-1-5t-N

22—Furnished Rooms

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, 226 Emily St. 6-19-31t-T

FRONT BEDROOM, lady, 204 Fulton. 6-20-tf-N

ROOMS, bath, porch, 233 Henderson Ave. 6-20-tf-T

TWO HOUSEKEEPING rooms, 20 Arch. 6-25-1w-N

TWO ROOMS, 24 Waverly Terrace. 6-27-tf-T

TWO ROOMS, front. Phone 2262-J. 6-27-tf-T

LARGE HOUSEKEEPING ROOM. 201 Paca. 6-27-5t-T

HOUSEKEEPING ROOM, new, 147 Polk. 6-27-1w-T

TWO HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, adults, 408 Park St. 6-29-tf-T

SMALL FURNISHED APARTMENT, 109 Park Street. Adults. 6-30-tf-T

BED-SITTING, 501 Rosehill Ave. 6-30-3t-T

TWO HOUSEKEEPING Rooms, 162 Bedford St. 7-1-40—3t-T

TWO ROOMS, Bath, centrally located, 166 N. Centre. 7-1-40 1t-T

23—Unfurnished Rooms

TWO ROOMS, gas and electric, $12 month, 317 Paca St. 6-29-3t-T

24—Houses for Rent

SIX ROOMS, modern, 419 Beall St., garage. Apply 421 Beall. 6-29-3t-N

26—For Sale Misc.

SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER, flooring, siding and frame in stock. Truckload delivery anywhere Pennsylvania Lumber and Post Co., Inc., Hyndman, Pa. 6-7-31t-T

WESTERN VENITIAN BLINDS ALL TYPES AND STYLES. DaROL WINDOW SCREENS. DURO CHROME FURNITURE. CALL FOR AN ESTIMATE. Geo. P. Porter, 912-M. 3-29-tf-T

SEWING MACHINES—Singer and others $5 up. Sewing Machine Warehouse, 104 Frederick. Phone 386. 5-16-tf-N

GOOD PIANO $20. Phone 1745. 6-10-tf-T

"BUY NOW—Take up to 20 weeks to pay with our Coupon Charge Books! Maurice's Dept. Store, 42-44-46 Baltimore St. 5-11-tf-N

BLACK RASPBERRIES, 3 miles out Valley Road. Chas. VanPelt. 7-2-2t-N

NOTICE!
Gadabouts and Stay-At-Homers. Buy your summer needs now during Wards great Mid-Summer Sale. Save up to 30%. Montgomery Ward Order Office, 52 N. Centre St. 7-2-1t-N

TEN 7 week old pigs. Chester Borror, Flintstone. 7-2-1t-N

CHERRY DAY will be Friday July 5th. Appalachian Orchards, Pinto, Md. 7-2-3t-N

USED ICE BOX, cheap, used Easy Spinner washer. Cumberland Maytag Co., 66 N. Mechanic. Phone 848. 6-20-tf-N

HEADQUARTERS for porch gliders, oil stoves, all sizes. Reinhart's, People's Furniture Store, 17 Baltimore St. 6-26-1w-T

IMPROVED SOUR cherries now ready at our orchards one mile east Paw Paw, 25¢ gallon on tree. Appalachian Orchards, Inc. 6-27-1w-N

GENERAL ELECTRIC workshop, complete power equipment for workshop. Phone 2600. 6-27-1w-N

USED PIANOS, $35 up. These were traded in on our Weaver Verti Mignons and York Console Pianos. Seifert's, Mechanic at Frederick St. 6-27-tf-T

ELECTROLUX REFRIGERATORS, Cumberland Maytag Co., 66 N. Mechanic, Phone 848. 3-20-tf-N

IMPROVED LOT 60x300, fruit trees, grape arbor, driveways, sewer and water tapped, above sub station. To quick buyer for $300, Phone 2086 or 637 evenings. 6-26-5t-N

AIR COMPRESSOR. Piano. Phone 171-W Frostburg. 6-13-31t-N

CONCRETE BLOCKS, 14¼c plain block (cash discounts). Lee Moore, 1546-W, 487 Central Ave. 6-11-31T-N

BLACK COCKER Spaniels, priced right, Phone 4002-F-11, Dr. J. R. Brinham. 6-30-3t-T

TWO ICE refrigerators, 158 Bedford St. 6-30-2t-T

FAMISE FOUNDATION Garments, $7.95 now $5.95; $12.95 now $9.95. Free figure analysis. Phone 3341-W. 6-22-31t-T

9x12 RUG. Four drawer chiffonier, single iron bed, wicker table, two chairs. 227 Wallace St. 7-1-40 2t-T

SAW TIMBER, White oak, red oak, maple and ash. Phone Lonaconing 23. 7-1-40 1t-T

26-A—Pets

SOWERS' PET SHOP, 111 N. Centre St. Complete line of birds, puppies, etc. Phone 2168. 5-27-tf

8 A—Florists

FLOWERS, BOPP'S. Phone 2582. 10-17-tf

29—Furniture, Stoves

USED FURNITURE, Millenson's, 317 Virginia. 1-6-tf-T

USED FURNITURE, Goodman's, 120 N. Centre. 6-4-tf-T

See The New Complete Line Of "Sellers" Kitchen and Breakfast Room Sets.
E. V. Coyle
45 Baltimore St.

29-A—Funeral Service

William H. Kight
Modern Funerals—Moderate Prices
Phone 1454 123 Columbia St.

32—Help Wanted, Female

CALIFRONIA PERFUME company has opening for 5 energetic women to sell AVON PRODUCTS. Full or part time. Good income and opportunity for advancement. Write Box 590-A % Times-News. 6-29-3t-T

WANTED—Cook and housekeeper, permanent job, good wages, small family. Apply after 6 p. m., 506 Patterson Ave. 6-30-4t-T

MIDDLE AGED Woman to help motherless family. Apply James Walker, Beryl, W. Va. 7-1-40 3t-T

GIRL FOR general housework, cook, go home nights. No children. State experience. Wages $7.00. Box 583-A % Times-News. 7-2-tf-N

33—Help Wanted, Male

TWO NEAT Appearing men 25 to 45, good references, to service established food products routes. Car furnished, salary or commission when qualified. Apply Great American Tea Co. 137 Union St., Tuesday 9 a. m. 7-1-40 1t-T

Alert and energetic man for good paying traveling position. Previous experience in organizing, training or selling required. Must be over 35 years of age, have car and be free to travel extensively. Excellent position with fine future possibilities for qualified person. Write, Charles Snyder, Promotion Manager, Commercial Bldg., Newark, N. Y. 7-2-2t-N

34—Salesmen Wanted

MAN WANTED. Good nearby Rawleigh Route now open. If willing to conduct Home service business while earning good living, write immediately. Rawleigh's, Dept. MDG-33-45, Chester, Pa. 7-2-3t-N

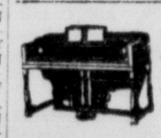

36—Instructions

MARYLAND STATE School of Beauty Culture, 59 Pershing. Tuition reduced. 5-8-tf-N

WESTERN MARYLAND largest and finest equipped Beauty College, full course, special $100. 5 S. Mechanic. 6-18-tf-T

CAGE SCHOOL of Beauty Culture, 15 S. Centre St. Phone 571-J. 1-10-tf-N

37—Musical Instruments

—BARGAINS—
In used instruments

Piano	$25
Trumpets	$20 up
Clarinets	$10 up
Banjo	$15

5 S. Liberty St.
MUSIC SHOP, INC.

38—Lost and Found

LOST—Billfold containing $15. Reward. Return, Times-News. 7-1-40-3t-T

39—Miscellaneous

LAWN MOWERS sharpened the factory way. F. L. Robinette. Phone 1385-M. 6-11-31t-N

RUGS CLEANED. C. W. Kissner, Phone 2990-W. 6-13-31t-N

CARPENTER REPAIR WORK, reasonable. 1840-W. 6-13-31t-T

FOR POWER shovel excavating, call Cement Products Co., Motor Transfer Co., Phone 1565. 3-11-tf-T

BLOCK LAYING, cement work, W. A. McKinney, 451 Henderson Ave. Phone 3525. 2-12-tf-T

LAWN MOWERS sharpened by machine. E. P. Wray, 3232-M. 6-27-tf-N

FOR BUS call W. W. Wilson, 4017-F-5. 6-28-31t-N

Buy Real Estate—It's Safer

WHAT $4700 WILL BUY

A dandy six-room semi-bungalow brick with shingled gables, bath, full basement, garage and street improvements. An attractively planned dwelling with plenty of day-light, also a brick fire-place and warm-air furnace. Located No. 736 Oldtown Road in the Johnson Heights Addition. Price $4,700.00

Very well located and nicely planned eight-room dwelling, located No. 13 East First Street, with bath, attic, hot-water heat, porches and slate roof. This property is being completely reconditioned inside and out and will make a very attractive and substantial proposition when completed. Price $4,750.00

ROBERT W. YOUNG
1st National Bank Bldg. Phone 632

MODERN BRICK BUNGALOW

This desirable home is located in La-Vale, Woodlawn addition. Has nine rooms planned for two families, hot water heat and oak floors. The lot is 50 x 100 corner Woodlawn Avenue and Third Street. Offered at the bargain price of ..... $5,250.00.

Located in North Cumberland we offer a two-story frame residence with six rooms, modern except furnace. Price $2,800.00.

J. L. HOWSARE
124 Bedford St. Phone 3044-J

FOR SALE

Located at 627 Princeton Street is this most desirable four-room bungalow. Lot 50 x 100 feet. This property is offered at a bargain price of $1,200.00. Have us show you this now.

FOR SALE

Located on Union Grove Road is this most desirable brick dwelling. Three rooms on first floor, two bed rooms and bath on second floor. Recreatin room in basement. Garage for two cars. Five acres of land.

WIEBEL-BEACHAM
Real Estate-Insurance
109 Frederick St. Phone 3453
Evening Phones 2758-J and 1671-M

NARROWS PARK

Modern six room bungalow—all rooms on one floor. Large living room with stone fireplace. Garage in basement. This property is in good condition and would make a most desirable home. Price and terms upon application.

LA VALE

Modern bungalow containing four rooms and bath, near LaVale school. Front and back porches. Garage in basement. Large lot with beautiful shade trees. An ideal little home for a small family. Priced at $2,657 for a quick sale.

D. P. MILLER CO.
INSURANCE & REAL ESTATE
Phone 433 No. 1 N. Liberty St.

FOR RENT

STOREROOMS

No. 128 Bedford St.	$50.00
No. 144 N. Centre St.	50.00
No. 321 Virginia Ave.	35.00
No. 34 Oak St.	30.00

APARTMENTS

We have several very desirable apartments located on the West Side available for immediate occupancy, ranging from $30 to $70 per month.

M. D. REINHART
Real Estate & Insurance
Phone 1896 Liberty Trust Bldg.

North Cumberland

We have for sale a brand new stone and frame dwelling in Roeder's Addition in North Cumberland. Very modern with six rooms, bath, concrete basement with garage. Steam heat. Priced at $6,300 with convenient terms. Let us show you this house today.

The J. H. HOLZSHU CO.
Insurance-Real Estate-Rentals
21 S. Centre St. Phone 458
Evening Phone 3188-R

FOR SALE

This desirable cottage, completely furnished, is located at Deep Creek Lake, and consists of living room, two bed rooms, bath, kitchen and screened-in porch for a dining room and a large porch completely across the front. There is also an outboard motor boat and canoe.

There are five acres of land with plenty of room for any type of sport. Water is furnished to this property from a drilled well and reservoir. This property is priced at only $4,500.00.

THE CUMBERLAND IMPROVEMENT CO.
Liberty Trust Bldg. Phone 2893

Homewood Addition on Mt. Savage Road
$100 Lots For $40

We intend to sell 100 lots that are really worth $100 each for $40 each on the following terms: All cash or $5 cash and $5 each month for seven months, no interest charged if you pay promptly. Or we will sell you land off the upper part of Homewood Addition for $40 an acre on the same terms. As soon as 100 lots or 100 acres of land are sold then the price of $100 a lot and $100 an acre is reestablished. You save $60 a lot if you act quickly.

"see PERRIN about it"
Perrin Bldg. on Pershing St., Phone 422

40—Metal Weatherstripping

"WE DEFY THE ELEMENTS"
Defiance Weatherstrip Co., F. C. Haas, 314 Fayette. Phone 2063. 9-23-tf

GUARANTEED WEATHERSTRIPPING Service since 1922. Phone 3270. E. W. Armstrong Co., 28 N. Liberty. 6-6-tf

41—Moving, Storing

JOHN APPEL TRANSFER. Local and Long Distance Moving. Phone 1623. 11-13-tf-T

BENNETT TRANSFER and Storage Co., local and long distance hauling. Phone 3060. 3-11-tf-N

42—Painting, Paperhanging

PAPERHANGING, paper cleaning. H. Rose, 2954-W. 6-1-31t-N

J. H. BROTEMARKLE, paperhanging. Phone 2122-W. 6-3-31t-T

PAPERHANGING, J. D. Breighner. Phone 563-W. 6-14-31t-T

U. E. BUSER, Paperhanger. Phone 2428-J. 6-22-31t-N

PAPERHANGING, general repair work. Phone 796-W. 6-25-31t-N

43-A—Professional Services

HEDRICK—Dentist, 223 Baltimore Ave. 5-21-tf-N

43-B—Photography

POST CARD PICTURES Electric Studio — 3 for 50c — 22 Baltimore St. 6-12-31t-T

PHOTOFINISHING, 24 Hour Service. Work guaranteed. Poling's, 105 Henry St. 7-2-tf-N

44—Piano Tuning

LEO C. REICHERT—Phone 3254. 6-18-tf

RAYMOND B. WELLS, Phone 2912-R. 1-9-tf-N

46 — Radio, Service

ANY RADIO tested free. Satisfactory repairs guaranteed. Morrissey's, 135 N. Centre. Phone 1919-W. 6-28-31t-N

47—Real Estate for Sale

TWO LOTS, LaVale, National Highway and Woodland Ave., cheap. 53 Greene St. 6-7-31t-T

LOTS, HOUSES, Farms, Business Bargains, payments, exchanges, anywhere. Popp, Phone 123. 6-19-31t-N

9 ROOM HOUSE, 10 acres land, on Main Highway, good business, quick sale. Apply 659 Greene St. 6-25-1w-N

MODERN THREE room bungalow, small down payment, the balance like rent. Write Box 584-A, % Times-News. 6-26-tf-N

SIX ROOM Brick House, new, every convenience. Large lot, garage. Phone 3232-J. 7-1-40 1wk-T

TWO LOTS, Johnson Heights, Memorial Ave., St. Marys Ave. Cheap. D. W. Hovatter, 720 Hilltop Drive. 7-1-40 3t-T

48—Roofing, Spouting

ROOF LEAKING! General roofing, spouting. John Brinker, Phone 2753. 6-10-31t-T

49-A—Typewriters, Service

ROYAL PORTABLE. Call for a demonstration. Myron S. Landis, Phone 1900. 11-20-tf-T

50—Upholstering

FURNITURE UPHOLSTERING, E. Posselt, 131 Frederick St. Phone 1868-W. 9-3-tf

51—Wanted to Buy

Cash for sewing machines regardless condition. Phone 386.

WANTED — Tract of saw timber, A. H. Baker, 1201 Lexington Ave. Phone 965-W. 7-2-2t-N

52—Wanted Miscellaneous

WANTED—Room and board for 2 boys in private family. Reasonable. Box 589-A % Times-News. 6-29-3t-T

54—Situations Wanted

HOUSEKEEPING. Cooking by experienced woman. Box 592-A % Times-News. 7-2-2t-N

LEGAL NOTICE

Thursday next being July 4th, and a legal holiday this bank will not be open for business on that day.
Will be open for business on Friday, July 5.
LIBERTY TRUST COMPANY
W. R. Brewer, President
—Adv. N-T-July-2-3

LEGAL NOTICE

Thursday next being July 4th, and a legal holiday this bank will not be open for business on that day.
Will be open for business on Friday, July 5.
THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK
Charles E. Metz, Cashier.
—Adv. N-T-July-2-3

Receivers' Sale of Hotel and Bar Business

Under a Decree of the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, passed in No. 15,87 Equity, the undersigned Receivers will offer at public sale as an entirety the assets of the hotel and bar business conducted under the name of "McGuire and Ricker" at Nos. 176-178 Baltimore Street, in Cumberland, Maryland, said sale to be held on TUESDAY, JULY 9TH, 1940, AT 10:00 A. M., At No. 176 Baltimore Street, Cumberland, Md.

Said assets consist principally of the following:

1. A five year lease of the Cavanaugh Hotel Building, dated January 25th, 1940; the leased premises containing on the ground floor a bar room and tap room, and fifteen hotel rooms upstairs, together with a liquor license transferrable only to a purchaser approved by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland. Rental $400.00 per month.
2. Bar and bar fixtures located at No. 178 Baltimore Street.
3. Restaurant furnishings in No. 176 Baltimore Street, consisting principally of 17 Duro-chrome Tables, 56 Duro-chrome Chairs, and 6 Costumers (subject to a recorded conditional sale contract under which $710.00 is still due, payable at the rate of $45.00 per month), Show Case, Water Dispenser.
4. Kitchen stoves and kitchen equipment, restaurant dishes and flatware.
5. Furnishings for eleven hotel bedrooms.
6. Miscellaneous stock of whiskey and wine.

A complete inventory may be seen upon application to the Receivers after July 1st.

TERMS OF SALE: Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) cash on day of sale, balance upon ratification of sale by the Circuit Court.

All taxes, water rents and other public charges will be adjusted to day of sale.
CHARLES Z. HESKETT,
GEORGE HENDERSON,
Receivers.
C. C. WILLISON
Auctioneer.
Advertisement N-June 26; July 1-4-3

Wholesale Accusations Follow Tavern Brawl

Arrested early yesterday morning when county authorities conducted a raid on the Little Ritz beer parlor in Frostburg, Gilbert Dudek, its 42-year-old proprietor, was held under $500 bond for the action of the October term of the grand jury on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

Dudek is also charged with assaulting James A. Dundon, Celanese union president, with intent to kill.

The bond was fixed by Magistrate Oliver H. Bruce, Jr., yesterday afternoon in the liquor case after Dudek had waived a preliminary hearing. Later, Dudek was released from the county jail when bond was furnished by Bancroft Hetzel, local coal company executive.

Arrest Follows Fight

Dudek's arrest followed a fight late Sunday night at the Little Ritz in which Dundon suffered a badly bruised face and Mrs. Orpha Toohey, of Cresaptown, was allegedly slapped in the face by Mrs. Dorothy Dudek, wife of the proprietor of the beer parlor.

According to county officials, Dundon and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Toohey, of Cresaptown, were leaving the place when Dudek grabbed Dundon, tripped him and the latter fell face downward on the sidewalk.

Then several unidentified men are alleged to have jumped upon and kicked Dundon when he was down. It was during the melee that Mrs. Dudek and Mrs. Toohey got into an argument, and the latter had her face slapped.

Following the arrest of Dudek, there came a series of charges and counter-charges, made by Mr. and Mrs. Dudek, Mrs. Orpha Toohey and Dundon, all of whom reportedly figured in the scrap.

Variety of Charges

These charges, to be aired in Trial Magistrates court this morning at 9:30 o'clock, are:

Dundon had a warrant issued charging Gilbert Dudek with assault with attempt to kill.

Mrs. Orpha Toohey had a warrant issued against Mrs. Dudek, charging assault.

Mrs. Dorothy Dudek came back with a warrant charging Dundon with assault.

Then Gilbert Dudek had a warrant issued against Dundon charging him with a serious violation of the state motor vehicle laws. A separate hearing will be held on this charge in Trial Magistrates Court, Friday.

Near Kidnap Scene

County officials declared that the Dudeks have license to sell beer at the Little Ritz, but no license for the sale of liquor. The Tooheys told county officers that beer was being sold at the establishment on Sunday, which is in violation of the law under the type of beer license held by the Dudeks.

The tavern, on the western outskirts of Frostburg, is near the scene of Saturday night's alleged kidnapping. The alleged victim, Mrs. Selina Harvey, of Cumberland, said she had left the tavern to catch a bus when three men grabbed her, forced her in a car and took her to near Berlin, Pa., where she declared one of them criminally assaulted her.

Koon To Speak At Celebration Here Thursday

Ex-Mayor To Deliver Salutation at July 4 Exercises at Park

Dr. Thomas W. Koon, who took an active part in the development of Constitution Park during his tenure of office as mayor of Cumberland, will deliver the salutation at the Fourth of July "Americanism Day" exercises Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, it was announced yesterday by Edgar H. Reynolds, general chairman of the celebration committee.

Dr. Koon, who originated the city park idea and saw it carried out in 1938 when Constitution park was opened to the public, stepped down as mayor of Cumberland in June, 1938, when he was appointed a member of the Maryland State Tax Commission by Governor Herbert R. O'Conor. He had served as chief executive of the city for eleven and one-half terms, a total of twenty-three years, before resigning to accept the state position.

The Independence Day program will be opened with an introductory talk by Mayor Harry Irvine, who will introduce William A. Gunter, master of ceremonies.

The program as announced by Chairman Reynolds will be as follows:

Selection, "America," by American Legion Band.

Invocation by the Rev. C. M. LeFew, pastor of Grace Methodist church.

Selection, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," by American Legion Band.

Salutation by Dr. Thomas W. Koon, former mayor.

Address by the Rev. Dr. Hixon T. Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Address by the Rev. Boniface Weckman, O. M. Cap., pastor of SS. Peter and Paul church.

Selection, "I Love America," by American Legion Band.

Address by Judge D. Lindley Sloan.

Selection, "The Star-Spangled Banner," by American Legion Band.

Benediction by the Rev. Alfred L. Creager, pastor of St. Mark's Reformed church.

Preceding the exercises there will be a parade from the Fort Hill stadium to the park, commencing at 3:30 p. m. Musical, fraternal and civic organizations have been invited to march in the parade, which will have Thomas F. Conlon as grand marshal.

Other members of the committee in charge of arrangements in addition to Mr. Reynolds, are Lester Bolinger, commander of Henry Hart Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Vincent Ingram and Wesley H. Abrams, of Fort Cumberland Post, No. 13, American Legion, Mayor Harry Irvine and Commissioners William J. Edwards and Thomas F. Conlon.

South End Merchants Asked To Fly Flags

All South Cumberland merchants and businessmen are asked to display flags Thursday in a special "flag day" observance being sponsored for Independence Day by the Booster Club of South Cumberland.

The club and its athletic association are planning to participate, along with other civic groups, in the Americanism Day celebration at Constitution Park Thursday afternoon.

Plans were also announced yesterday for a weekly "open house" at the Booster headquarters, 210 Virginia avenue, every Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Last week's open house drew a crowd of over 300 young boys and girls, who were entertained with a program of songs, dancing and games. Songsters included Homer Sarver, Herman Athy and Carl Skidmore.

The program was under the direction of Bert Fleegle and Bert Judy, WPA recreational supervisors.

Powers Was Just Powerful Unlucky

DENVER (AP)—Fred Powers of Denver university ran the 100-yard dash at the Big Seven conference meet fast enough—9.65 seconds—to have won in any of the last six years.

It was just his misfortune that Cy Ellsworth of Brigham Young picked that day to run it in 9.6 seconds. This was rubbing it in because Ellsworth thereby tied the mountain record set by Powers' brother, Leonard, at Denver university in 1933.

It was Fred Powers who place-kicked a field goal against Idaho from the 46-yard line last season.

Driver Arrested On Traffic Charge

Robert W. Shoemaker, of 1025 Shade Lane, was arrested last night on a traffic charge by Officers J. C. Stouffer and J. E. Sherry. Shoemaker was on his way home from work at Celanese when arrested on North Mechanic street. He was summoned to appear in court but not required to furnish bond.

Remodeling Program Underway at Kline's

A nifty remodeling program now underway at the Kline Furniture Company, 405-413 Virginia avenue, will turn the firm into one of the smartest, most up-to-date stores in Western Maryland, it was announced yesterday.

The program is now going on and will get completed by the middle of August, George Kline said last night. Aaron May & Sons are contractors and the Penn-Mar-Va. Plate Glass Company is furnishing materials.

A snappy black and sun-tan front in lynite, glass and vitrolite along with a new glass-brick entrance will entirely revamp the appearance of the store front.

The interior is being done over in gold bond board and another feature will be a new indirect lighting system.

Over 5,000 Use Pool During June

More than 5,000 paid admissions were recorded at Constitution Park's swimming pool for the month of June despite the fact that rain fell on seventeen of the twenty-one days since the pool was opened June 19.

William H. Buchholtz, pool superintendent yesterday in making his report to the city council, showed that 3,805 ten-cent admissions and 1,603 fifteen-cent admissions were registered for the first month of the 1940 season. Total receipts were $620.95 for 5,408 persons.

Rotary To Meet Tonight At Shrine Country Club

Recently-elected officials of the Rotary club will be installed at its annual meeting at 6 o'clock tonight at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

Officers, directors and committee heads will assume their new duties at the dinner-meeting.

The usual luncheon-meeting at the Fort Cumberland hotel will not be held today.

Hazelwood Gets Montgomery Ward Building Job

Razing of Buildings On Downtown Corner To Start Today

The George F. Hazelwood Company of Cumberland, has been awarded the contract for the construction of Montgomery Ward's new four-story with basement building at the corner of Baltimore and South George streets as well as the tire service building and parking lot on South George street, it was announced last night by C. J. Pankow, of Chicago, representative of the nationally-known firm.

The amount of the bid was not made public.

It also was announced that the work of wrecking the buildings at the southeast corner of Baltimore and George streets will be started today to make way for the new four-story structure.

The specifications also call for the successful bidder to raze the store room and two brick residences on South George street between the cleaning establishment and the Wilson and Pugh Company building. This site will be occupied by the new tire service building. The latter structure will be one story in height and will contain enough room to service four cars at a time.

Robert R. Rowe, Chicago architect, furnished the plans for the new buildings.

Marriage License Trade on Upgrade

June Brides Numerous, Court Records Show

June brides were more numerous this June than last, judging by marriage license statistics, Corcuit Court Clerk Robert Jackson reported yesterday.

Two hundred twenty-two licenses were issued at the Allegany county court house this June, seventy more than a year ago, when the total was 152.

This year's score marks the highest number of marriage permits issued in any month since the forty-eight-hour waiting period went into effect in December, 1938.

Prior to that, the June wedding license records really went into the big figures. The total number of licenses issued in June, 1938, for example, was 602.

Clerk Jackson yesterday hastened to point out, however, that June, contrary to the general belief, has not previously been the best business month of the year from the marriage license standpoint.

Under the old law, more people got married in the fall than at any other time, Mr. Jackson declared. The new law has changed this — temporarily, at least, although the coming fall months may top this new high.

The increase in licenses sold this June brought $666 into the county coffers.

Clerk Jackson was optimistic that business would probably continue good the rest of the year. The fact that physical examinations are now required for all applicants in Pennsylvania and West Virginia and soon will be in Virginia may be responsible for the increase here, the clerk said.

Salvation Army Marks Birthday

Cumberland Unit Plans Observance Tonight

It was July 2, 1865, that William Booth, with his wife, stood on a street-corner in Mile End Waste in London's East End to conduct his first open-air meeting in an effort to reach the unchurched masses.

From that humble beginning grew the Salvation Army, and Cumberland's branch of the world-wide organization today is celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding.

That first meeting three-quarters of a century ago resulted in conversion of many. Encouraged, the Booths opened mission halls here and there, and the Christian Mission was organized.

Ten years later, the name was changed to the Salvation Army.

Today, the Army conducts religious services in over 100 languages in ninety-seven countries, colonies and islands. Hundreds of thousands of converts have been won, and a great chain of humanitarian institutions of various kinds is operating throughout the world.

Joining with other branches of the Army throughout the world in observing the anniversary, the Cumberland post will hold a counterpart of that first open-air meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the corner of Gay street and Oldtown road, Brigadier B. L. Phillipson announced.

In contrast to the first meeting, when only two workers were on hand, tonight's meeting will be participated in by Army "soldiers" from both the North Mechanic street Citadel and the South Cumberland Outpost.

No Intoxicants Permitted In City Park, Mayor Warns

In emphatic terms, Mayor Harry Irvine yesterday told an attendant o. Constitution park that no beer or intoxicating liquor would be permitted on the grounds.

The attendant had informed the mayor that a man and his wife had brought several bottles of beer to the park and were seen drinking within the park property.

The mayor stated that such a case was being used as an opening wedge and a repetition would result in the ordering of the guilty party or parties from the premises.

Sale of beer always has been prohibited at the park.

Hitch-Hiker Gets Blame for Crash; Car Owner Freed

Unidentified Man Driving, Defense In Traffic Case

Magistrate Frank A. Perdew yesterday extended the "benefit of the doubt" to a Punxsutawney, Pa., man and acquitted him of charges of drunken driving and leaving the scene of the accident.

It was an "odd set of facts" that William G. Heeter, 35, presented in his defense, the magistrate commented, but indicated there was a "reasonable doubt" that the man was driving his car when it smacked into a parked auto on Centre street early Sunday morning.

Heeter, backed up by his wife, testified that the car was being driven by a hitch-hiker he had picked up in Bedford, Pa. Heeter, pleading guilty to the hit-run charge, said he told the hitch-hiker, whose name he remembered only as Mills or Miles, not to bother to stop, since the hit car was not damaged at all seriously.

The Pennsylvanian was arrested by Officer Frank Snober as he slept in his car on Liberty street, a block from the crash. William G. Cousins, of Oak street, had reported the accident to police headquarters, giving the license number of the car.

On the stand yesterday, however, Cousins was unable to identify Heeter as the driver. He did state that he saw no one in the back seat, where Heeter claimed he was sitting, with the hitch-hiker driving.

Heeter admitted to having a "drink or two" en route, but denied strenuously that he was driving drunk.

At the time police arrested Heeter, his wife had gone to a restaurant to call relatives here to have them come drive the car. She said she didn't want her husband to drive in his condition.

The hitch-hiker left for points unknown after parking the car on Liberty street, the Heeters said.

After the owner of the parked car had stated the damage was negligible, Magistrate Perdew dismissed the hit-run charge, and Heeter was released.

Police at first reported the defendant's name was Howard Heiter.

City Collections Total $99,612 in June

Collections for the general account for the month of June amounted to $82,584.32, it was announced yesterday by City Tax Collector James M. Conway.

Other collections reported for the month were: Annex, $909.76; G.I.B., $1,473.10; 1931 Sewer Bonds, $546.63, and Water Rents, $14,098.56.

Total receipts were $99,612.36.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Leasure, 538 Eastern avenue, announce the birth of a son last night at Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Higgins, 430 Grand avenue, announce the birth of a daughter yesterday at Allegany hospital.

Thirty Boys Have 'Time of Lives' On First Day at New Kiwanis Camp

Thirty Cumberland boys, ranging in age from nine to twelve last night were reported "enjoying the time of their lives" after spending their first day at the Kiwanis club's new Sunshine Camp on Haystack mountain.

The first group of boys will spend two weeks at the ten-acre site which is well wooded, has a small stream running through it and an excellent wading pool for the kiddies. The building, formerly the Allegany Tuberculosis Sanatorium, has been completely renovated and is an ideal site for the new project.

Another group of thirty boys will replace the present group the last two weeks in July, while in August sixty girls will be quartered at the camp, each group of thirty being limited to a two-weeks' stay.

The Cumberland Kiwanis Club has set aside $4,600 for the operation of the camp this year.

Joseph W. Young, chairman of the camp committee, will be on hand for the entire two-months' camping period. Councilors for the boys are David Weiss, Charles D. Walton, Jr., Harold Hipsley and Ralph Roth.

Boys now on hand at the camp are:

William Lanam, Robert Lanam, Billy Miller, Alan Metty, Frank Rosley, Rudy Keeth, Carl Lewis, Joseph Grimm, Robert Young, Peter Perrin, Billy Perrin, Melvin Bowman, Harold Dibert, Billy Atkinson, Bennie Hartley, Delvert Nelson.

Thomas Metz, Richard Thomas, John Gurtler, John Cavan, Donald Payne, Donald Carns, Harry Stewart, Jr., James Stewart, Richard Davis, Ronald Davis, Thomas Hane-Kamp, Donald Alburtus, Billy Gray and Howard Peterson.

Kiwanis Meets Today At Sunshine Camp

Members of the Kiwanis club will hold their weekly luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. today at their new Sunshine camp, which was opened yesterday.

The regular Thursday meeting at the Fort Cumberland hotel was cancelled on account of the Fourth of July holiday.

The members will make a tour of inspection of the buildings and grounds and get acquainted with the first group of children to enjoy the new project. A box lunch will be served.

Mayor Looses Another Blast against WPA

Charging that WPA officials have "inflamed WPA workers against the city" because the political setup of their organization is getting shaky, Mayor Harry Irvine yesterday told two discharged sewing project workers that they would "probably go back to their jobs in October when their votes are needed."

Mrs. Charlotte B. Nave, 206 Decatur street, and Mrs. Lela A. Sowers, Box 751, appeared before the council to ask what steps should be taken to regain their jobs.

They presented slips from WPA giving the discharge reasons as "reduction in force to bring employment in line with sponsor's participation."

After the mayor remarked, "If you are good Democrats you'll probably stay on. That is the case. We can't get anyone a job," Finance Commissioner Thomas F. Conlon, interrupted to ask the complainants:

Conlon Asks Question

"When you women were placed on the sewing project, were you asked what your political affiliations were?"

The answer was "No."

In asking the question Conlon attempted to show that politics do not enter into the matter when people are hired by WPA.

Mrs. Nave, who confessed that she voted the straight Republican ticket, and Mrs. Sowers both contended that single girls remain on the job while married women with families to support have been laid off.

"If you're a good Democrat you'll probably stay on," declared Irvine. He added "If the war stops you are sure to get back."

The women claimed that investigators never have been to their homes to check their eligibility for WPA.

Mayor Irvine told of the stock letter presented all discharged WPA employes which states that they would be returned to work when there is an opening. He added that this was a mild way of putting it—"You're fired."

Mrs. Nave and Mrs. Sowers stated they were told by WPA that the mayor and council were holding up projects, to which Irvine replied, "You ladies go back and tell them that the fault lies in WPA."

Tarring Makes Reply

Henry Tarring Jr., WPA resident engineer, in answering Irvine's verbal blasts yesterday, said that about 160 have been employed on two sewing projects in the county and that the number will be reduced to sixty-six. The reason he said was that the sponsors, the Allegany county commissioners and the mayor and council, are not furnishing enough funds.

He said regulations call for a sponsor to provide fifteen per cent of the cost and that sponsors have been providing only five per cent. He added that the WPA last year continued the project despite the small sponsors' contribution but that it can no longer continue and the number employed must be reduced.

The county this year increased its funds for the project from about $4,200 to $5,000, but Mr. Tarring said the sponsors should give $15,000. The city has been paying $20 monthly for half the rent of a South Cumberland project, closed last week, and has been furnishing light and coal for the Union street project. The council agreed to continue the $20 monthly even though the South Cumberland project was to be closed.

Special Officer Named For Riverside Park

George W. Keller yesterday was appointed police officer for Riverside park by the mayor and council. His salary will be $70 monthly for July and August.

Miss Jeannette Brooks was appointed playleader for the negro playground on Pine avenue, and Frank Broom was named life guard in charge of the swimming pool for negros on Pine avenue. Their salaries will be $50 monthly for July and August.

Police Petition 'Misses Boat' By 15 Minutes

Request To Restore Demoted Sergeants Submitted Too Late

A petition urging the mayor and city council to restore three demoted seargearts of the police department to their former rank with retention of their original salaries "missed the boat' yesterday at city hall by the margin of fifteen minutes.

The council meeting started at 10 a. m., and it was not until 10:15 a. m., that the petition, containing about three hundred names, arrived at the city clerk's office by special messenger.

Many of those who had signed the petition were under the impression that the papers were to be presented by an attorney at the regular session of the council.

The petition concerned the demotion of Sergeants Connell, Johnson and Gaffney in last week's police department shakeup. The pay of each officer was reduced from $140 to $135 a month.

When yesterday's council session adjourned the petition was found in the clerk's office.

It is understood that sponsors of the petition will make another attempt to present it before the council at a regular meeting.

Changes in the police department went into effect yesterday.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Praise for "Mouse-like" Wife

Dear Miss Fairfax:

All power and all my respect to the little "mouse-like" wife, who is willing to let things drift with a faithless husband for the sake of her children.

I would give anything in my possession for a wife like that, and would exchange a dozen of the type like mine for one of her loyalty. I have a wife like the "other woman" in that case. This man evidently realizes what a jewel of a wife he has, doesn't want a divorce and is free to marry the siren.

Attention, Mrs. Siren, if this man were really in love with you, he'd do everything to get a divorce. As it is, when he gets tired of you as a plaything, he'll turn back to the wife he honors and respects.

My answer refers to a letter published in your column some weeks ago.

JUST A MAN.

Here's hoping that the "mouse-like" wife happens to read this gentleman's letter and may take what comfort she can from his admiration—"though never the twain may meet."

No, we never introduce anybody in this column. It's not a go-between,, but sometimes it's a consolation to know that one has an admirer, even if his name or the state in which he lives is never revealed.

Vacation May Solve Problem

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I manage our apartments, collect rent, pay taxes, all bills, expenses and upkeep on our property. My husband is good, doesn't drink or smoke, but as the years go by, he takes more and more to gambling. He never brings a penny home, and he will lie and steal for money to use. I have been made ill from worry. He is away gambling all the time and never comes home, even to meals.

If I sell the property, our income will be gone. I feel like hiring someone for our business, which only about covers taxes, and going away to see what a new environment might do for me. We have two children, one married, the other self-supporting. My husband and I are both nearing the sixty mark, and jobs for old people are hard to find. But I cannot live this way or go to my children.

A MOTHER.

With the best intentions imaginable, it would be unsafe for me to advise you about property held jointly in a distant state. You should hire a good lawyer or if that's out of the question go to the Legal Aid Society, which is a better bet than engaging a questionable lawyer.

And don't you think it would be well to talk the matter out fully with your children. If their father is ruining himself gambling, they must know the truth sooner or later, and probably in a harsher way than you would break it to them. I think you need a vacation, and that you will get a better perspective on your tangled affairs if you have a little much-needed rest. Sorry your letter was too long to print in full.

Board To Meet

Members of the board of directors of the Salvation Army will hold a luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. tomorrow at the Golden Gate Tea Room, South Centre street, President Robert W. Young announced yesterday.

Fireworks Ads Draw Mayor's Fire

Characterizing advertisements of Hill's Toy Store which call attention to the sale of fireworks outside the city as a direct slap at the city ordinance which prohibits the sale and setting off of fireworks, Mayor Harry Irvine yesterday ordered Chief of Police Oscar A. Eyerman to arrest all those caught violating the law.

"The people of Cumberland are one hundred per cent in favor of the ordinance," declared the mayor, "and the law will be enforced to the letter."

Violation of any provision of the ordinance calls for the fining of those found guilty. The fines range from $50 to $100.

'Family Trouble' Injuring Three, Ends Up in Court

Woman's Leg Broken; Cumberland Man Fined In Free-for-All

Found guilty on two assault charges growing out of "family trouble" which occurred Saturday night in Ocean, Matthew Andrews, 35, of Cumberland, yesterday was fined $17 and costs and paroled for six months by Magistrate Thomas E. Stakem at Midland.

Warrants charging assault had been sworn out by Michael Hughes, 52, and his son Francis Hughes, 25, of Ocean, who said they were attacked by Andrews.

Hill Under Bond

On another assault charge brought in a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Thomas Burkey, 60, of Cash Valley, Andrews was released under $300 bond, for a hearing at a later date, pending the outcome of Mrs. Burkey's injuries. The latter suffered two fractures of the leg, when allegedly kicked by Andrews.

Andrews was arrested at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night in Cumberland by Constable Charles Robertson and Deputy Sheriff John Patton and was lodged in the Frostburg jail, pending last night's hearing.

According to county officers, Andrews went to the home of Peter Bush, 88, at Ocean Saturday to see his daughter, who had been living there for several years. In an argument that ensued, Andrews is alleged to have struck Francis Hughes, 25, his brother-in-law, knocking him down and kicking him.

Mr. Bush, the aged grandfather of Hughes, attempted to stop the fight, and Mrs. Thomas Burkey, who had been visiting her father, tried to prevent the aged man from getting into the argument.

When Mrs. Burkey intervened, Andrews, is alleged to have pushed her backwards and kicked her, breaking her leg. Then her brother, Michael Hughes, 52, moved into the picture, and he, too was put out of commission when cut by a knife of some description allegedly wielded by Andrews.

County Investigator Terrence J. Boyle and Deputy Sheriff Edward P. Kaylor investigated the case.

County Collector Has Bumper Day

Celanese and Kelly Pay Nearly $100,000

Allegany county's two heaviest taxpayers paid on the line yesterday as Collector Alban Thompson chalked up a bumper day.

Two checks amounting to nearly $100,000 arrived at the tax collector's office yesterday, one from the Celanese Corporation of America, the other from the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company.

The Celanese check amounted to $50,872.50, the firm's taxes on $3,500,000 worth of buildings. The Kelly check amounted to $47,855.19 representing both the taxes on buildings and personal property. The Celanese personal property tax will be paid later.

Yesterday's collections will undoubtedly be the high point for any one day collection period this year, Mr. Thompson said.

Fifty thousand dollar checks don't roll in at the county collector's office every day.

Three Young Men Enter Capuchin Novitiate

Three young men from the Cumberland area will enter the Capuchin novitiate of SS. Peter and Paul church Friday to continue their studies for the Capuchin priesthood.

The three, all of whom were graduated with high honors from St. Fidelis college, Herman, Pa., last month, are Thomas C. Lawler, son of Mrs. Leo T. Lawler, of 214 Fayette street; Wyand F. Doerner Jr., of 14 North Johnson street; and Herman Miltenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miltenberger, of Knobley, W. Va.

After a year of study at the monastery here, they will go to St. Fidelis college, Victoria, Kansas, for a two-year course, then to Catholic university, Washington, for three years.

After their ordination to the priesthood, they will spend another year in study at the theological seminary of Catholic university.

Police Report No Developments In Kidnap Case

Trip to Berlin, Pa., With Alleged Victim Proves Fruitless

Authorities reported "no developments" yesterday in their hunt for three men who allegedly kidnapped a 24-year-old Cumberland woman in Frostburg early Sunday morning and drove her to near Berlin, Pa., where she said one of then criminally assaulted her.

Corporal H. F. Schulteis, of the LaVale sub-station of the Maryland State Police, who is heading the investigation here, said that a trip to Berlin yesterday yielded no clues whatever.

Corporal Schulteis, with Deputy Sheriff, Henry McKee took the alleged victim, Mrs. Selina Harvey, of 626 North Centre street, to Berlin yesterday in an attempt to get a lead that might result in capture of the trio.

Pennsylvania state police and Berlin town officers assisted the Maryland authorittles in the investigation, but the trip proved fruitless, according to Schulteis.

Red Cross Drive Hits New High

$669.90 Collected In Single Day

The Allegany county Red Cross war relief fund yesterday reached and all-time high for contributions received in a single day when $669.90 was reported at headquarters.

This brings the Allegany county chapter's quota to $7,716.26. The goal is $14,000.

All money received in the national campaign will be used to buy food, clothing, ambulances, medications and surgical supplies for millions of refugees and wounded of the war.

Response from the branches of the county chapter accounted for much of the day's record. Frostburg sent $95 to raise the town's total fund to date to $345.

Also recorded in the contributions for the day was $496.63 from the branch at Westernport and Luke. Samuel Widmer, chairman of the war relief committee in the Tri-Towns, reported that this money was raised by activities jointly sponsored by the Luke and Westernport branch and the Piedmont branch.

Because the area includes territory in both Maryland and West Virginia, and the towns are under different Red Cross chapters, the proceeds from the affairs were equally divided. To this fund were added contributions from organizations and individuals. The branch at National sent $10 to the fund.

Also received yesterday were contributions from organizations including the final report on the card party held by the Ladies' Shrine Club, $63; Grace Methodist Episcopal church, $25; Semper Fidelis and Excelsior Sunday school classes at Grace Methodist Episcopal church, $10.

Collection of cardboard cartons placed in business houses and schools was completed yesterday. The total amount received from the boxes was $320.12. Thomas F. Conlon was chairman of the carton committee.

Much Whoopee Raised Over Week-end, Police Report; 25 Arrested

A lot of the boys whooped it up over the week-end according to police who reported thirteen men arrested on drunk charges and twelve for disorderly conduct.

Bonds forfeited and fines meted out yesterday morning in Police Court resulted in $135 in revenue. Nineteen people are still in the city jail.

Police, rather at a loss to explain the reason for the business boom, declared it started Thursday but really didn't get into high gear until Saturday night.

"That's the way it happens sometimes," one officer commented.

Habeas Corpus Writ Denied in Assault Case

One habeas corpus hearing was held and two more scheduled for July 9 yesterday in Circuit Court.

Joseph Modeskie, committed to the Maryland House of Correction during the April term, yesterday was given a hearing before Chief Judge D. Lindley Sloan and Associate Judge William A. Huster.

Modeskie, tried here under the name of Joe Modisky, was sentenced for one year on an assault with intent to kill charge.

The writ was denied, and he was remanded back to the institution by the court.

The two men scheduled for hearings July 9 are Lorenzo H. Johnson, sentenced in Washington county for forgery; and Ruhl Alderton, sentenced by Judge Huster to one year for embezzlement.

Navy Recruiter Here

A Navy recruiter will be stationed at the Post Office building here between noon and 2 p. m. today to interview young men interested in joining Uncle Sam's naval forces. An announcement from the recruiting service states that young men getting in on the "ground floor" of the Navy's expansion program may expect rapid advancement.

Wholesale Accusations Follow Tavern Brawl

Arrested early yesterday morning when county authorities conducted a raid on the Little Ritz beer parlor in Frostburg, Gilbert Dudek, its 42-year-old proprietor, was held under $500 bond for the action of the October term of the grand jury on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

Dudek is also charged with assaulting James A. Dundon, Celanese union president, with intent to kill.

The bond was fixed by Magistrate Oliver H. Bruce, Jr., yesterday afternoon in the liquor case after Dudek had waived a preliminary hearing. Later, Dudek was released from the county jail when bond was furnished by Bancroft Hetzel, local coal company executive.

Arrest Follows Fight

Dudek's arrest followed a fight late Sunday night at the Little Ritz in which Dundon suffered a badly bruised face and Mrs. Orpha Toohey, of Cresaptown, was allegedly slapped in the face by Mrs. Dorothy Dudek, wife of the proprietor of the beer parlor.

According to county officials, Dundon and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Toohey, of Cresaptown, were leaving the place when Dudek grabbed Dundon, tripped him and the latter fell face downward on the sidewalk.

Then several unidentified men are alleged to have jumped upon and kicked Dundon when he was down. It was during the melee that Mrs. Dudek and Mrs. Toohey got into an argument, and the latter had her face slapped.

Following the arrest of Dudek, there came a series of charges and counter-charges, made by Mr. and Mrs. Dudek, Mrs. Orpha Toohey and Dundon, all of whom reportedly figured in the scrap.

Variety of Charges

These charges, to be aired in Trial Magistrates court this morning at 9:30 o'clock, are:

Dundon had a warrant issued charging Gilbert Dudek with assault with attempt to kill.

Mrs. Orpha Toohey had a warrant issued against Mrs. Dudek, charging assault.

Mrs. Dorothy Dudek came back with a warrant charging Dundon with assault.

Then Gilbert Dudek had a warrant issued against Dundon charging him with a serious violation of the state motor vehicle laws. A separate hearing will be held on this charge in Trial Magistrates Court, Friday.

Near Kidnap Scene

County officials declared that the Dudeks have license to sell beer at the Little Ritz, but no license for the sale of liquor. The Tooheys told county officers that beer was being sold at the establishment on Sunday, which is in violation of the law under the type of beer license held by the Dudeks.

The tavern, on the western outskirts of Frostburg, is near the scene of Saturday night's alleged kidnapping. The alleged victim, Mrs. Selina Harvey, of Cumberland, said she had left the tavern to catch a bus when three men grabbed her, forced her in a car and took her to near Berlin, Pa., where she declared one of them criminally assaulted her.

South End Merchants Asked To Fly Flags

All South Cumberland merchants and businessmen are asked to display flags Thursday in a special "flag day" observance being sponsored for Independence Day by the Booster Club of South Cumberland.

The club and its athletic association are planning to participate, along with other civic groups, in the Americanism Day celebration at Constitution Park Thursday afternoon.

Plans were also announced yesterday for a weekly "open house" at the Booster headquarters, 210 Virginia avenue, every Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Last week's open house drew a crowd of over 300 young boys and girls, who were entertained with a program of songs, dancing and games. Songsters included Homer Sarver, Herman Athy and Carl Skidmore.

The program was under the direction of Bert Fleegle and Bert Judy, WPA recreational supervisors.

Powers Was Just Powerful Unlucky

DENVER (AP)—Fred Powers of Denver university ran the 100-yard dash at the Big Seven conference meet fast enough—9.65 seconds—to have won in any of the last six years.

It was just his misfortune that Cy Ellsworth of Brigham Young picked that day to run it in 9.6 seconds. This was rubbing it in because Ellsworth thereby tied the mountain record set by Powers' brother, Leonard, at Denver university in 1933.

It was Fred Powers who place-kicked a field goal against Idaho from the 46-yard line last season.

Driver Arrested On Traffic Charge

Robert W. Shoemaker, of 1025 Shade Lane, was arrested last night on a traffic charge by Officers J. C. Stouffer and J. E. Sherry. Shoemaker was on his way home from work at Celanese when arrested on North Mechanic street. He was summoned to appear in court but not required to furnish bond.

Koon To Speak At Celebration Here Thursday

Ex-Mayor To Deliver Salutation at July 4 Exercises at Park

Dr. Thomas W. Koon, who took an active part in the development of Constitution Park during his tenure of office as mayor of Cumberland, will deliver the salutation at the Fourth of July "Americanism Day" exercises Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, it was announced yesterday by Edgar H. Reynolds, general chairman of the celebration committee.

Dr. Koon, who originated the city park idea and saw it carried out in 1938 when Constitution park was opened to the public, stepped down as mayor of Cumberland in June, 1938, when he was appointed a member of the Maryland State Tax Commission by Governor Herbert R. O'Conor. He had served as chief executive of the city for eleven and one-half terms, a total of twenty-three years, before resigning to accept the state position.

The Independence Day program will be opened with an introductory talk by Mayor Harry Irvine, who will introduce William A. Gunter, master of ceremonies.

The program as announced by Chairman Reynolds will be as follows:

Selection, "America," by American Legion Band.

Invocation by the Rev. C. M. LeFew, pastor of Grace Methodist church.

Selection, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," by American Legion Band.

Salutation by Dr. Thomas W. Koon, former mayor.

Address by the Rev. Dr. Hixon T. Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Address by the Rev. Boniface Weckman, O. M. Cap., pastor of SS. Peter and Paul church.

Selection, "I Love America," by American Legion Band.

Address by Judge D. Lindley Sloan.

Selection, "The Star-Spangled Banner," by American Legion Band.

Benediction by the Rev. Alfred L. Creager, pastor of St. Mark's Reformed church.

Preceding the exercises there will be a parade from the Fort Hill stadium to the park, commencing at 3:30 p. m. Musical, fraternal and civic organizations have been invited to march in the parade, which will have Thomas F. Conlon as grand marshal.

Other members of the committee in charge of arrangements in addition to Mr. Reynolds, are Lester Bolinger, commander of Henry Hart Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Vincent Ingram and Wesley H. Abrams, of Fort Cumberland Post, No. 13, American Legion, Mayor Harry Irvine and Commissioners William J. Edwards and Thomas F. Conlon.

Remodeling Program Underway at Kline's

A nifty remodeling program now underway at the Kline Furniture Company, 405-413 Virginia avenue, will turn the firm into one of the smartest, most up-to-date stores in Western Maryland, it was announced yesterday.

The program is now going on and will get completed by the middle of August, George Kline said last night. Aaron May & Sons are contractors and the Penn-Mar-Va. Plate Glass Company is furnishing materials.

A snappy black and sun-tan front in lynite, glass and vitrolite along with a new glass-brick entrance will entirely revamp the appearance of the store front.

The interior is being done over in gold bond board and another feature will be a new indirect lighting system.

Over 5,000 Use Pool During June

More than 5,000 paid admissions were recorded at Constitution Park's swimming pool for the month of June despite the fact that rain fell on seventeen of the twenty-one days since the pool was opened June 19.

William H. Buchholtz, pool superintendent yesterday in making his report to the city council, showed that 3,805 ten-cent admissions and 1,603 fifteen-cent admissions were registered for the first month of the 1940 season. Total receipts were $620.95 for 5,408 persons.

Rotary To Meet Tonight At Shrine Country Club

Recently-elected officials of the Rotary club will be installed at its annual meeting at 6 o'clock tonight at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

Officers, directors and committee heads will assume their new duties at the dinner-meeting.

The usual luncheon-meeting at the Fort Cumberland hotel will not be held today.

Hazelwood Gets Montgomery Ward Building Job

Razing of Buildings On Downtown Corner To Start Today

The George F. Hazelwood Company of Cumberland, has been awarded the contract for the construction of Montgomery Ward's new four-story with basement building at the corner of Baltimore and South George streets as well as the tire service building and parking lot on South George street, it was announced last night by C. J. Pankow, of Chicago, representative of the nationally-known firm.

The amount of the bid was not made public.

It also was announced that the work of wrecking the buildings at the southeast corner of Baltimore and George streets will be started today to make way for the new four-story structure.

The specifications also call for the successful bidder to raze the store room and two brick residences on South George street between the cleaning establishment and the Wilson and Pugh Company building. This site will be occupied by the new tire service building. The latter structure will be one story in height and will contain enough room to service four cars at a time.

Robert R. Rowe, Chicago architect, furnished the plans for the new buildings.

Marriage License Trade on Upgrade

June Brides Numerous, Court Records Show

June brides were more numerous this June than last, judging by marriage license statistics, Corcuit Court Clerk Robert Jackson reported yesterday.

Two hundred twenty-two licenses were issued at the Allegany county court house this June, seventy more than a year ago, when the total was 152.

This year's score marks the highest number of marriage permits issued in any month since the forty-eight-hour waiting period went into effect in December, 1938.

Prior to that, the June wedding license records really went into the big figures. The total number of licenses issued in June, 1938, for example, was 602.

Clerk Jackson yesterday hastened to point out, however, that June, contrary to the general belief, has not previously been the best business month of the year from the marriage license standpoint.

Under the old law, more people got married in the fall than at any other time, Mr. Jackson declared. The new law has changed this—temporarily, at least, although the coming fall months may top this new high.

The increase in licenses sold this June brought $666 into the county coffers.

Clerk Jackson was optimistic that business would probably continue good the rest of the year. The fact that physical examinations are now required for all applicants in Pennsylvania and West Virginia and soon will be in Virginia may be responsible for the increase here, the clerk said.

Salvation Army Marks Birthday

Cumberland Unit Plans Observance Tonight

It was July 2, 1865, that William Booth, with his wife, stood on a street-corner in Mile End Waste in London's East End to conduct his first open-air meeting in an effort to reach the unchurched masses.

From that humble beginning grew the Salvation Army, and Cumberland's branch of the world-wide organization today is celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding.

That first meeting three-quarters of a century ago resulted in conversion of many. Encouraged, the Booths opened mission halls here and there, and the Christian Mission was organized.

Ten years later, the name was changed to the Salvation Army.

Today, the Army conducts religious services in over 100 languages in ninety-seven countries, colonies and islands. Hundreds of thousands of converts have been won, and a great chain of humanitarian institutions of various kinds is operating throughout the world.

Joining with other branches of the Army throughout the world in observing the anniversary, the Cumberland post will hold a counterpart of that first open-air meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the corner of Gay street and Oldtown road, Brigadier B. L. Phillipson announced.

In contrast to the first meeting, when only two workers were on hand, tonight's meeting will be participated in by Army "soldiers" from both the North Mechanic street Citadel and the South Cumberland Outpost.

No Intoxicants Permitted In City Park, Mayor Warns

In emphatic terms, Mayor Harry Irvine yesterday told an attendant o. Constitution park that no beer or intoxicating liquor would be permitted on the grounds.

The attendant had informed the mayor that a man and his wife had brought several bottles of beer to the park and were seen drinking within the park property.

The mayor stated that such a case was being used as an opening wedge and a repetition would result in the ordering of the guilty party or parties from the premises.

Sale of beer always has been prohibited at the park.

Hitch-Hiker Gets Blame for Crash; Car Owner Freed

Unidentified Man Driving, Defense In Traffic Case

Magistrate Frank A. Perdew yesterday extended the "benefit of the doubt" to a Punxsutawney, Pa., man and acquitted him of charges of drunken driving and leaving the scene of the accident.

It was an "odd set of facts" that William G. Heeter, 35, presented in his defense, the magistrate commented, but indicated there was a "reasonable doubt" that the man was driving his car when it smacked into a parked auto on Centre street early Sunday morning.

Heeter, backed up by his wife, testified that the car was being driven by a hitch-hiker he had picked up in Bedford, Pa. Heeter, pleading guilty to the hit-run charge, said he told the hitch-hiker, whose name he remembered only as Mills or Miles, not to bother to stop, since the hit car was not damaged at all seriously.

The Pennsylvanian was arrested by Officer Frank Snober as he slept in his car on Liberty street, a block from the crash. William G. Cousins, of Oak street, had reported the accident to police headquarters, giving the license number of the car.

On the stand yesterday, however, Cousins was unable to identify Heeter as the driver. He did state that he saw no one in the back seat, where Heeter claimed he was sitting, with the hitch-hiker driving.

Heeter admitted to having a "drink or two" en route, but denied strenuously that he was driving drunk.

At the time police arrested Heeter, his wife had gone to a restaurant to call relatives here to have them come drive the car. She said she didn't want her husband to drive in his condition.

The hitch-hiker left for points unknown after parking the car on Liberty street, the Heeters said.

After the owner of the parked car had stated the damage was negligible, Magistrate Perdew dismissed the hit-run charge, and Heeter was released.

Police at first reported the defendant's name was Howard Heiter.

City Collections Total $99,612 in June

Collections for the general account for the month of June amounted to $82,584.32, it was announced yesterday by City Tax Collector James M. Conway.

Other collections reported for the month were: Annex, $909.76; G.I.B., $1,473.10; 1931 Sewer Bonds, $546.63, and Water Rents, $14,098.56.

Total receipts were $99,612.36.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Leasure, 538 Eastern avenue, announce the birth of a son last night at Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Higgins, 430 Grand avenue, announce the birth of a daughter yesterday at Allegany hospital.

Mayor Looses Another Blast against WPA

Charging that WPA officials have "inflamed WPA workers against the city" because the political setup of their organization is getting shaky, Mayor Harry Irvine yesterday told two discharged sewing project workers that they would "probably go back to their jobs in October when their votes are needed."

Mrs. Charlotte B. Nave, 206 Decatur street, and Mrs. Lela A. Sowers, Box 751, appeared before the council to ask what steps should be taken to regain their jobs.

They presented slips from WPA giving the discharge reasons as "reduction in force to bring employment in line with sponsor's participation."

After the mayor remarked, "If you are good Democrats you'll probably stay on. That is the case. We can't get anyone a job," Finance Commissioner Thomas F. Conlon, interrupted to ask the complainants:

Conlon Asks Question

"When you women were placed on the sewing project, were you asked what your political affiliations were?"

The answer was "No."

In asking the question Conlon attempted to show that politics do not enter into the matter when people are hired by WPA.

Mrs. Nave, who confessed that she voted the straight Republican ticket, and Mrs. Sowers both contended that single girls remain on the job while married women with families to support have been laid off.

"If you're a good Democrat you'll probably stay on," declared Irvine. He added "If the war stops you are sure to get back."

The women claimed that investigators never have been to their homes to check their eligibility for WPA.

Mayor Irvine told of the stock letter presented all discharged WPA employes which states that they would be returned to work when there is an opening. He added that this was a mild way of putting it—"You're fired."

Mrs. Nave and Mrs. Sowers stated they were told by WPA that the mayor and council were holding up projects, to which Irvine replied, "You ladies go back and tell them that the fault lies in WPA."

Tarring Makes Reply

Henry Tarring Jr., WPA resident engineer, in answering Irvine's verbal blasts yesterday, said that about 160 have been employed on two sewing projects in the county and that the number will be reduced to sixty-six. The reason he said was that the sponsors, the Allegany county commissioners and the mayor and council, are not furnishing enough funds.

He said regulations call for a sponsor to provide fifteen per cent of the cost and that sponsors have been providing only five per cent. He added that the WPA last year continued the project despite the small sponsors' contribution but that it can no longer continue and the number employed must be reduced.

The county this year increased its funds for the project from about $4,200 to $5,000, but Mr. Tarring said the sponsors should give $15,000. The city has been paying $20 monthly for half the rent of a South Cumberland project, closed last week, and has been furnishing light and coal for the Union street project. The council agreed to continue the $20 monthly even though the South Cumberland project was to be closed.

Special Officer Named For Riverside Park

George W. Keller yesterday was appointed police officer for Riverside park by the mayor and council. His salary will be $70 monthly for July and August.

Miss Jeannette Brooks was appointed playleader for the negro playground on Pine avenue, and Frank Broom was named life guard in charge of the swimming pool for negros on Pine avenue. Their salaries will be $50 monthly for July and August.

Police Petition 'Misses Boat' By 15 Minutes

Request To Restore Demoted Sergeants Submitted Too Late

A petition urging the mayor and city council to restore three demoted seargeants of the police department to their former rank with retention of their original salaries "missed the boat' yesterday at city hall by the margin of fifteen minutes.

The council meeting started at 10 a. m., and it was not until 10:15 a. m., that the petition, containing about three hundred names, arrived at the city clerk's office by special messenger.

Many of those who had signed the petition were under the impression that the papers were to be presented by an attorney at the regular session of the council.

The petition concerned the demotion of Sergeants Connell, Johnson and Gaffney in last week's police department shakeup. The pay of each officer was reduced from $140 to $135 a month.

When yesterday's council session adjourned, the petition was found in the clerk's office.

It is understood that sponsors of the petition will make another attempt to present it before the council at a regular meeting.

Changes in the police department went into effect yesterday.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Praise for "Mouse-like" Wife

Dear Miss Fairfax:

All power and all my respect to the little "mouse-like" wife, who is willing to let things drift with a faithless husband for the sake of her children.

I would give anything in my possession for a wife like that, and would exchange a dozen of the type like mine for one of her loyalty. I have a wife like the "other woman" in that case. This man evidently realizes what a jewel of a wife he has, doesn't want a divorce and is free to marry the siren.

Attention, Mrs. Siren, if this man were really in love with you, he'd do everything to get a divorce. As it is, when he gets tired of you as a plaything, he'll turn back to the wife he honors and respects.

My answer refers to a letter published in your column some weeks ago.

JUST A MAN.

Here's hoping that the "mouse-like" wife happens to read this gentleman's letter and may take what comfort she can from his admiration—"though never the twain may meet."

No, we never introduce anybody in this column. It's not a go-between,, but sometimes it's a consolation to know that one has an admirer, even if his name or the state in which he lives is never revealed.

Vacation May Solve Problem

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I manage our apartments, collect rent, pay taxes, all bills, expenses and upkeep on our property. My husband is good, doesn't drink or smoke, but as the years go by, he takes more and more to gambling. He never brings a penny home, and he will lie and steal for money to use. I have been made ill from worry. He is away gambling all the time and never comes home, even to meals.

If I sell the property, our income will be gone. I feel like hiring someone for our business, which only about covers taxes, and going away to see what a new environment might do for me. We have two children, one married, the other self-supporting. My husband and I are both nearing the sixty mark, and jobs for old people are hard to find. But I cannot live this way or go to my children.

A MOTHER.

With the best intentions imaginable, it would be unsafe for me to advise you about property held jointly in a distant state. You should hire a good lawyer or if that's out of the question go to the Legal Aid Society, which is a better bet than engaging a questionable lawyer.

And don't you think it would be well to talk the matter out fully with your children. If their father is ruining himself gambling, they must know the truth sooner or later, and probably in a harsher way than you would break it to them. I think you need a vacation, and that you will get a better perspective on your tangled affairs if you have a little much-needed rest. Sorry your letter was too long to print in full.

Board To Meet

Members of the board of directors of the Salvation Army will hold a luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. tomorrow at the Golden Gate Tea Room, South Centre street, President Robert W. Young announced yesterday.

Fireworks Ads Draw Mayor's Fire

Characterizing advertisements of Hill's Toy Store which call attention to the sale of fireworks outside the city as a direct slap at the city ordinance which prohibits the sale and setting off of fireworks, Mayor Harry Irvine yesterday ordered Chief of Police Oscar A. Eyerman to arrest all those caught violating the law.

"The people of Cumberland are one hundred per cent in favor of the ordinance," declared the mayor, "and the law will be enforced to the letter."

Violation of any provision of the ordinance calls for the fining of those found guilty. The fines range from $50 to $100.

'Family Trouble' Injuring Three, Ends Up in Court

Woman's Leg Broken; Cumberland Man Fined In Free-for-All

Found guilty on two assault charges growing out of "family trouble" which occurred Saturday night in Ocean, Matthew Andrews, 35, of Cumberland, yesterday was fined $17 and costs and paroled for six months by Magistrate Thomas E. Stakem at Midland.

Warrants charging assault had been sworn out by Michael Hughes, 52, and his son Francis Hughes, 25, of Ocean, who said they were attacked by Andrews.

Hill Under Bond

On another assault charge brought in a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Thomas Burkey, 60, of Cash Valley, Andrews was released under $300 bond, for a hearing at a later date, pending the outcome of Mrs. Burkey's injuries. The latter suffered two fractures of the leg, when allegedly kicked by Andrews.

Andrews was arrested at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night in Cumberland by Constable Charles Robertson and Deputy Sheriff John Patton and was lodged in the Frostburg jail, pending last night's hearing.

According to county officers, Andrews went to the home of Peter Bush, 88, at Ocean Saturday to see his daughter, who had been living there for several years. In an argument that ensued, Andrews is alleged to have struck Francis Hughes, 25, his brother-in-law, knocking him down and kicking him.

Mr. Bush, the aged grandfather of Hughes, attempted to stop the fight, and Mrs. Thomas Burkey, who had been visiting her father, tried to prevent the aged man from getting in to the argument.

When Mrs. Burkey intervened, Andrews, is alleged to have pushed her backwards and kicked her, breaking her leg. Then her brother, Michael Hughes, 52, moved into the picture, and he, too was put out of commission when cut by a knife of some description allegedly wielded by Andrews.

County Investigator Terrence J. Boyle and Deputy Sheriff Edward P. Kaylor investigated the case.

County Collector Has Bumper Day

Celanese and Kelly Pay Nearly $100,000

Allegany county's two heaviest taxpayers paid on the line yesterday as Collector Alban Thompson chalked up a bumper day.

Two checks amounting to nearly $100,000 arrived at the tax collector's office yesterday, one from the Celanese Corporation of America, the other from the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company.

The Celanese check amounted to $50,872.50, the firm's taxes on $3,500,000 worth of buildings. The Kelly check amounted to $47,855.19 representing both the taxes on buildings and personal property. The Celanese personal property tax will be paid later.

Yesterday's collections will undoubtedly be the high point for any one day collection period this year, Mr. Thompson said.

Fifty thousand dollar checks don't roll in at the county collector's office every day.

Three Young Men Enter Capuchin Novitiate

Three young men from the Cumberland area will enter the Capuchin novitiate of SS. Peter and Paul church Friday to continue their studies for the Capuchin priesthood.

The three, all of whom were graduated with high honors from St. Fidelis college, Herman, Pa., last month, are Thomas C. Lawler, son of Mrs. Leo T. Lawler, of 214 Fayette street; Wyand F. Doerner Jr., of 14 North Johnson street; and Herman Miltenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miltenberger, of Knobley, W. Va.

After a year of study at the monastery here, they will go to St. Fidelis college, Victoria, Kansas, for a two-year course, then to Catholic university, Washington, for three years.

After their ordination to the priesthood, they will spend another year in study at the theological seminary of Catholic university.

Police Report No Developments In Kidnap Case

Trip to Berlin, Pa., With Alleged Victim Proves Fruitless

Authorities reported "no developments" yesterday in their hunt for three men who allegedly kidnapped a 24-year-old Cumberland woman in Frostburg early Sunday morning and drove her to near Berlin, Pa., where she said one of then criminally assaulted her.

Corporal H. F. Schulteis, of the LaVale sub-station of the Maryland State Police, who is heading the investigation here, said that a trip to Berlin yesterday yielded no clues whatever.

Corporal Schulteis, with Deputy Sheriff, Henry McKee took the alleged victim, Mrs. Selina Harvey, of 626 North Centre street, to Berlin yesterday in an attempt to get a lead that might result in capture of the trio.

Pennsylvania state police and Berlin town officers assisted the Maryland authoritties in the investigation, but the trip proved fruitless, according to Schulteis.

Red Cross Drive Hits New High

$669.90 Collected In Single Day

The Allegany county Red Cross war relief fund yesterday reached and all-time high for contributions received in a single day when $669.90 was reported at headquarters.

This brings the Allegany county chapter's quota to $7,716.26. The goal is $14,000.

All money received in the national campaign will be used to buy food, clothing, ambulances, medications and surgical supplies for millions of refugees and wounded of the war.

Response from the branches of the county chapter accounted for much of the day's record. Frostburg sent $95 to raise the town's total fund to date to $345.

Also recorded in the contributions for the day was $496.63 from the branch at Westernport and Luke. Samuel Widmer, chairman of the war relief committee in the Tri-Towns, reported that this money was raised by activities jointly sponsored by the Luke and Westernport branch and the Piedmont branch.

Because the area includes territory in both Maryland and West Virginia, and the towns are under different Red Cross chapters, the proceeds from the affairs were equally divided. To this fund were added contributions from organizations and individuals. The branch at National sent $10 to the fund.

Also received yesterday were contributions from organizations including the final report on the card party held by the Ladies' Shrine Club, $63; Grace Methodist Episcopal church, $25; Semper Fidelis and Excelsior Sunday school classes at Grace Methodist Episcopal church, $10.

Collection of cardboard cartons placed in business houses and schools was completed yesterday. The total amount received from the boxes was $320.12. Thomas F. Conlon was chairman of the carton committee.

Much Whoopee Raised Over Week-end, Police Report; 25 Arrested

A lot of the boys whooped it up over the week-end according to police who reported thirteen men arrested on drunk charges and twelve for disorderly conduct.

Bonds forfeited and fines meted out yesterday morning in Police Court resulted in $135 in revenue. Nineteen people are still in the city jail.

Police, rather at a loss to explain the reason for the business boom, declared it started Thursday but really didn't get into high gear until Saturday night.

"That's the way it happens sometimes," one officer commented.

Habeas Corpus Writ Denied in Assault Case

One habeas corpus hearing was held and two more scheduled for July 9 yesterday in Circuit Court.

Joseph Modeskie, committed to the Maryland House of Correction during the April term, yesterday was given a hearing before Chief Judge D. Lindley Sloan and Associate Judge William A. Huster.

Modeskie, tried here under the name of Joe Modisky, was sentenced for one year on an assault with intent to kill charge.

The writ was denied, and he was remanded back to the institution by the court.

The two men scheduled for hearings July 9 are Lorenzo H. Johnson, sentenced in Washington county for forgery; and Ruhl Alderton, sentenced by Judge Huster to one year for embezzlement.

Navy Recruiter Here

A Navy recruiter will be stationed at the Post Office building here between noon and 2 p. m. today to interview young men interested in joining Uncle Sam's naval forces. An announcement from the recruiting service states that young men getting in on the "ground floor" of the Navy's expansion program may expect rapid advancement.

Thirty Boys Have 'Time of Lives' On First Day at New Kiwanis Camp

Thirty Cumberland boys, ranging in age from nine to twelve last night were reported "enjoying the time of their lives" after spending their first day at the Kiwanis club's new Sunshine Camp on Haystack mountain.

The first group of boys will spend two weeks at the ten-acre site which is well wooded, has a small stream running through it and an excellent wading pool for the kiddies. The building, formerly the Allegany Tuberculosis Sanatorium, has been completely renovated and is an ideal site for the new project.

Another group of thirty boys will replace the present group the last two weeks in July, while in August sixty girls will be quartered at the camp, each group of thirty being limited to a two-weeks' stay.

The Cumberland Kiwanis Club has set aside $4,600 for the operation of the camp this year.

Joseph W. Young, chairman of the camp committee, will be on hand for the entire two-months' camping period. Councilors for the boys are David Weiss, Charles D. Walton, Jr., Harold Hipsley and Ralph Roth.

Boys now on hand at the camp are:

William Lanam, Robert Lanam, Billy Miller, Alan Metty, Frank Rosley, Rudy Keeth, Carl Lewis, Joseph Grimm, Robert Young, Peter Perrin, Billy Perrin, Melvin Bowman, Harold Dibert, Billy Atkinson, Bennie Hartley, Delvert Nelson.

Thomas Metz, Richard Thomas, John Gurtler, John Cavan, Donald Payne, Donald Carns, Harry Stewart, Jr., James Stewart, Richard Davis, Ronald Davis, Thomas Hane-Kamp, Donald Alburtus, Billy Gray and Howard Peterson.

Kiwanis Meets Today At Sunshine Camp

Members of the Kiwanis club will hold their weekly luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. today at their new Sunshine camp, which was opened yesterday.

The regular Thursday meeting at the Fort Cumberland hotel was cancelled on account of the Fourth of July holiday.

The members will make a tour of inspection of the buildings and grounds and get acquainted with the first group of children to enjoy the new project. A box lunch will be served.